ACE OF SPADES (40TH ANNIVERSARY)

★ 3LP & 2CD formats
plus US only 1LP & 1CD

★ 3LP & 2CD formats contain
17 previously unreleased tracks

Release Date: 10/30/20

- 40th Anniversary of this Iconic Rock album
- 3LP and 2CD Formats include previously unreleased 17 track Live From Belfast album recorded during the Ace Up Your Sleeve tour*
- All LP releases use new half speed master created from the original tapes, pressed on 180g heavyweight vinyl

"Ace Of Spades"—the title track of Motörhead's 1980 iconic, game changing album isn't just one of the greatest hard rock songs ever written—it has truly become a lifestyle anthem for several generations of rockers, metalheads, punks, bikers, athletes, rebels, outcasts, and freethinkers all around the world. Few songs in modern history can instantly ignite the adrenaline of music fans the way the song's opening dirty bass riff, and drum roll can. From zero to 100 mph in a matter of seconds. That speaker-destroying opening riff is unstoppable. And the song altered the course of hard rock...forever.

Upon its release in 1980, the Ace Of Spades album was nothing short of a gamechanger for all forms of hard rock. Like lightning in a bottle, it perfectly captured everything great about hard rock, heavy metal, and punk, amped it all up to 11, and came racing out of the gates at what felt like a million miles an hour. Pushing at every musical boundary, nothing was harder, nothing was faster, and certainly nothing was louder.

The Ace Of Spades album; brand new half speed master created from the original tapes. Pressed on 180g heavyweight vinyl as a triple album in a 20 page bookpack and deluxe 2CD mediabook. Includes a live album of a newly unearthed, previously unreleased concert from the Ace Up Your Sleeve tour.

Black Stone Cherry

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: Black Stone Cherry
TITLE: The Human Condition
HOMETOWN: Edmonton, KY
GENRE: Rock
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: NO

BIO

In the past two decades, Black Stone Cherry has set a new standard for Southern rock, revitalizing the tradition with burly riffs and stirring modern-rock hooks. Since its formation in 2001, the four-piece band and brotherhood has remained Chris Robertson, vocals/guitar; Ben Wells, guitar/vocals; Jon Lawhon, bass/vocals; and John Fred Young, drums. Though not blood relatives, the guys grew up together, immersed in the culture of shitkicking rock n' roll.

As the world plummeted into the Covid-19 pandemic, the four members of Black Stone Cherry were nestled deep in the woods of Kentucky. There, they could feel the disease closing in as they watched the news daily, and it became apparent the album they were finishing featured eerily prescient lyrics. The resulting 13-track record is broadly emotive, and anthemic. It was finished just before global lockdown was imposed, and it's aptly titled, 'The Human Condition'. "There was a real urgency and fear of the unknown during those sessions—it was a scary time," recalls drummer, John Fred Young. "Every song on this album tells a story of the experiences we all go through—our happiness, our struggles, and how we have to adapt." Sonically, 'The Human Condition' is also one of BSC's most visceral and hooky albums. "With this one, we cranked up the amps, the drums are in your face, and there are some really heavy riffs," adds guitarist/vocalist Ben Wells. "After 19 years and 7 albums, we wanted to prove a that we still kick ass. This album feels like a rebirth."

The Human Condition was recorded in a cabin studio at the end of February 2019. The guys went in with 4 songs, wrote new songs, and recorded some beloved unreleased favorites. The production and performances on the album are some of BSC's fiercest and finest. The results are stunning—the grooves feel organic, the riffs are mountainous, the performances are urgent, and the hooks shine through gloriously.

"When I listen back to this record, I feel all these different emotions," Jon Lawhon says. "We started when we were teens, and life has definitely taken its course, especially now. Through it all, your heart and your perspectives change, but one thing that hasn't changed is our connection as friends." Chris affirms: "This is a brotherhood. It's been amazing to stick around with all four original members and still be inspired. Here's to 7 more albums and another 19 years!" 'The Human Condition' is available everywhere October, 30th via Mascot Records.

The Royal Affair Tour Live From Las Vegas

Release Date: 10/30/20

- ★ New live album from legendary British band YES
- ★ Recorded live at the Hard Rock Hotel in Las Vegas during their 2019 A Royal Affair Tour of North American
- ★ Featuring Steve Howe, Alan White, Geoff Downes, Jon Davison, Billy Sherwood and Jay Schellen on additional drums
- ★ Also includes John Lodge of The Moody Blues, and Carl Palmer's ELP Legacy with guest vocals by Arthur Brown
- ★ Package features brand new artwork by legendary artist and longtime YES collaborator, Roger Dean.
- ★ Includes the hits "Roundabout," "America" and "I've Seen All Good People"

A ROYAL AFFAIR TOUR was a must-see best-of-British-rock show and featured support by ASIA with the return of founding member Steve Howe in a special performance, John Lodge of THE MOODY BLUES, and Carl Palmer's ELP LEGACY with guest vocals by Arthur Brown. The YES performing line up was Steve Howe (guitar – joined 1970), Alan White (drums since 1972), Geoff Downes (keyboards; first joined in 1980), Jon Davison (vocals since 2011) and Billy Sherwood (guitar/keyboards in the 1990s and the late Chris Squire's choice to take over bass/vocals in 2015), with Jay Schellen on additional drums. YES performed songs from their storied career, one of rock music's most prized bodies of work, and their set was in honor of the memory of YES members Chris Squire and Peter Banks.

NECTAR

OVERVIEW:

Japan-born singer and producer Joji is a multi-talented visionary, with a cult following from every corner of the internet. Joji is one of the most enthralling artists of the digital age. He has a total vision for his work, not just in the writing and producing of his music, but artwork, videos, merch, and live performances as well. It's a fully realized world that his fans can inhabit and explore—and see themselves in. “My music is not biographical,” he says, but even still, the deep, heavily shaded emotions in his songs are genuine and they speak to anyone who has ever felt stuck on the outside looking in, who knows what it means to not belong. In 2019, Joji sold-out his North America tour within minutes and performed at some of the most coveted festivals across the world, including Reading & Leeds in the UK and Lollapalooza. As Joji surpasses 5 billion global streams, 2020 promises to be his biggest year to date.

Joji's sophomore studio album, Nectar, arrives September 25. With a star-studded cast of features across the 18-track album, Nectar is Joji's most ambitious project to date. From the first 4 singles alone, Nectar has already garnered 750M+ streams—with “Sanctuary” earning RIAA Gold certification. “Daylight,” the fourth pre-release track from Nectar, is an anthemic summertime hit featuring crisp Diplo production. It follows the album's first 2020 single, “Run,” which earned Joji his highest-ever bow on the Billboard Hot 100 and his television debut on the Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon; and second single “Gimme Love” which Complex hailed as “a sticky pop anthem with haunting vocals.”

In the build-up to the release of Nectar, critics have already recognized Joji's immense growth as an artist from BALLADS 1 to now. A project Joji describes as having “a sense of urgency but calm”, Nectar occupies space where genres melt into each other, where downtempo R&B slides into invigorated pop, where indie alternative creeps into electronica; where emotions get tangled in an exploration of what every living being is innately drawn to - whether for pleasure or for survival - and the ends they'll go to reach it.

The album showcases the wide-ranging universe of Joji's collaborators, including New Zealand-based indie-pop darling BENEÉ, globetrotting producer-DJ-musician Diplo, Atlanta rapper mainstay Lil Yachty, Mexican-American R&B singer-songwriter Omar Apollo, Japanese lo-fi bedroom pop up-and-comer rei brown, and critically-acclaimed experimentalist Yves Tumor. Featuring standout production from Diplo, Bekon & The Donuts (Kendrick Lamar's DAMN., Rich Brian's The Sailor), Justin Parker (Lana Del Rey's “Born To Die”, Rihanna's “Stay”), Kenny Beats (Ed Sheeran's “Take Me Back To London” and DaBaby's “Toes”) and more, the album's thematic and sonic diversity remains unified by Joji's lyricism and tone. Nectar comes from the in-between place that Joji's work paces, characterized by its evocatively smeared quality.

- Nectar is Joji's highly anticipated second full length studio album featuring notable collaborators from producers Diplo, Bekon & The Donuts, and Kenny Beats, and feature verses from BENEÉ, Lil Yachty, rei brown, Yves Tumor and Omar Apollo.
- Over 750M+ streams on the album's first 3 singles, with “Run” earning Joji his first late night TV performance on Jimmy Fallon. The single debuted at #68 on the Billboard Hot 100, #57 on the Billboard Canadian Hot 100, #46 on the OCC Singles Chart (UK) and #39 on the ARIA Singles Chart (AU)
- RIAA-certified Gold 2018 debut album BALLADS 1 charted at #3 on Billboard's Top 200, making Joji the first Asian-born artist to top Billboard's R&B/Hip-Hop Albums chart
- Headlined a sold out 13-Date 2019 North America tour & 6-date European Tour, with notable festival performances at Lowlands, Reading & Leeds Festivals, Westward Music Festival, Osheaga Music Festival, and Lollapalooza

ABOUT THE PRINCE OF EGYPT (ORIGINAL CAST RECORDING)

The extraordinary new musical from the composer of "Wicked" and "Godspell". Based on the acclaimed DreamWorks animation film. Featured the Academy Award-Winning Song "When You Believe".

THE PRINCE OF EGYPT features 10 new songs written by Stephen Schwartz, together with 5 of his acclaimed songs from the DreamWorks Animation film, including Deliver Us, All I Ever Wanted, Through Heaven's Eyes and the Academy Award®-winning "When You Believe".

THE PRINCE OF EGYPT features music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Godspell, Pippin) and a book by Philip LaZebnik (Mulan, Pocahontas). They collaborated on the film The Prince of Egypt.

The Academy Award®-winning song When You Believe was recorded by Whitney Houston and Mariah Carey in 1998, becoming a global hit. In 2007, the song was also chosen by Simon Cowell as the winner's single for The X-Factor, spending three weeks at the top of the UK charts.

FAITHLESS | ALL BLESSED

Faithless, one of the UK's most successful and respected electronic outfits will release their first new studio album "All Blessed" in 10 years on October 23rd. The album features guest appearances from Damien Jurado, Suli Breaks, Jazzie B, poet Caleb Femi and Nathan Ball.

In a history that stretches back some 25 years, Faithless have long occupied a pivotal position in the world of British electronica. Marrying elements of house, trip-hop, dub and a songwriting flair into arena-filling explosive, euphoric sounds. Their accomplishments tell their own story: seven Top 10 singles, six Top 10 albums (three at Number 1), a Mercury Prize nomination for their brilliant sophomore album, 1998's 'Sunday 8PM' and their impressive four times Platinum certified 'Forever Faithless - The Greatest Hits' adding to a career total in excess of 15 million worldwide.

Faithless have graced festival stages the world over, including Glastonbury's famous Pyramid Stage twice. Globally, they've sold out multiple arena runs.

It's been ten years since Faithless' last studio album 'The Dance' entered the UK charts in 2010 at Number 2, yet their music continues to be discovered through international DJ sets and the rise of streaming services. Their 2015 remix album 'Faithless 2.0' took them back to the top of the charts yet again with their friends the likes of Avicii, Claptone, Tiesto, Eric Prydz and Armin Van Buuren coming forward to offer fresh perspectives on their fan favourites, 'We Come 1', 'Insomnia', 'God is a DJ' and more. Collaborations have always the hallmark of Faithless' career, working with Robert Smith of The Cure, Dido and Cat Power to name but a few.

DESCRIPTION:

And though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death... Almost five years after their sixth long-player Sovran, DRACONIAN once again cast their breathtaking veil of melancholy over the world. This second full-length release featuring singer Heike Langhans delivers a captivating mélange of dreary doom and contrasty vocals and mixes Heike's angelic female voice with Anders Jakobsson's death growls. The one-hour long album, graced with a haunting cover artwork by Natalia Drepina, is carrying the legacy of gothic doom metal à la My Dying Bride or Trees Of Eternity into the new decade and will drag the listener into a sorrowful cosmos right with the first notes of the spellbinding opener „Sorrow Of Sophia“ that interweaves beauty with crippling depression. After crushing slow rhythms and the fragile „Sleepwalkers“ that leads through barren soundscapes, the band - founded in Säfte / Sweden in 1994 - rises up to their best in the nine-minute long „Ascend Into Darkness“, which will echo in the listener's ears long after the final chord has died away.

EVILDEAD WAS FORMED IN 1987 WITH THE INTENTION TO CREATE HEAVY MUSIC IN THE THRASH METAL VEIN.

EVILDEAD's debut live appearance was on April 11, 1987 at Fender's Ballroom in Long Beach, California on a bill that also featured Cryptic Slaughter, Dark Angel, and Possessed. Soon after the band entered the recording studio to record their classic 3-song demo; featuring the songs 'The Awakening', 'Sloe-Death', and 'Process: Elimination'. The EVILDEAD sound was unique; highlighting a blend of speed and thrash metal guitar riffs along with hyper drumming locked in with an over the top thundering bass with punk overtones, and lyrical themes that explored political, thought provoking social ideas; mixed with horror, and nuclear war themes. In 2019 EVILDEAD secured a recording deal with SPV/Steamhammer for their upcoming release entitled UNITED STATES OF ANARCHY (Release date: 30 October 2020). It will feature nine studio tracks plus a metalized cover version of the B-52's 'Planet Claire' as a bonus track. Seminal artist Edward J. Repka has once again illustrated the cover of the new album, to be released on CD/digipak and colored vinyl. The band has compiled a collection of new songs that are a throwback to their roots of thrash. With UNITED STATES OF ANARCHY, EVILDEAD has returned more powerful than ever and awakened again to annihilate the masses.

Them

Return To Hemmersmoor

THRASH METAL MEETS HORROR/FANTASY STORY, PART III:

their latest album Return To Hemmersmoor sees German-American act Them present the third part of a trilogy that was launched back in 2016 on Sweet Hollow and continued in 2018 with Manor Of The Se7en Gables. Return To Hemmersmoor takes up where the thematic thread of its two predecessors left off and brings the story to a gripping finale, documenting at the same time the band's unmistakable musical evolution. "Possibly the new material is a little tougher and more uncompromising," guitarist Markus Ullrich compares the three recordings. "Being directly involved, we're too close to really be able to judge. Fact is: the album definitely sounds more mature, which certainly has to do with the songwriting as well as with our general approach. From the start, Them have worked in a very focussed manner according to a definite plan. For that kind of targeted strategy you really need the right line-up consisting of accomplished musicians that are one hundred per cent behind the concept. Them totally fulfils all those conditions."

„LEGACY LIVE“ IS CLASSIC SOUTHERN ROCK AND CLASSIC OUTLAWS AND NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME ON VINYL!!!

For The Outlaws, it was always about the music. For 40 years, the Southern Rock legends celebrated triumphs, endured tragedies and survived legal nightmares to remain one of the most influential and best-loved bands of the genre. Now The Outlaws return with a new live album, new focus and an uncompromising new mission: It's about a band of brothers bound together by history, harmony and the road. It's about a group that respects its own legacy while refusing to be defined by its past. But most of all, it's about pride.

Along with founding members Paul and Yoho, the band features now several of Southern Rock's most respected veterans: Lead guitarist and longtime Outlaw Chris Anderson is well known for his collaborations with artists that include Dickey Betts, Lucinda Williams, Hank Williams Jr., and Skynyrd. Co-lead guitarist Steve Grisham - who joined the band in mid-2013 following the medical leave of guitarist Billy Crain - is a former member of the Soldiers of Fortune era Outlaws, a noted songwriter whose tracks include The Henry Paul Band's Top 40 hit „Keepin' Our Love Alive“, and a co-founder of the Southern Rock all-stars, Brothers of the Southland. Keyboardist/vocalist Dave Robbins is a co-founding member of Blackhawk and has written hit songs for artists that include Restless Heart, Kenny Rogers and Eric Clapton. Bassist/vocalist Randy Threet has performed with Pam Tillis, Trisha Yearwood and Blackhawk, and is familiar to TV audiences from USA Network's 'Nashville Star'.

10. Die For You
11. Apart

With timeless style equally reverent of sixties Laurel Canyon and modern-day Europe, Swedish songstress LÉON projects the kind of understated confidence a non-chatty Quentin Tarantino character might have. Once she steps up to a microphone, you get that powerhouse soul and retro spirit. 2019 saw the release of her self-titled full-length debut, LÉON, via her own LÉON Recordings in partnership with BMG. The album yielded her fastest growing single You And I and 29 European and North American dates on the Ones To Watch Presents: LÉON's You And I Tour. LÉON is set to elevate her artistry with her second full length album, Apart, which chronicles heartbreak and healing as told through euphoric bops such as And It Breaks My Heart and Chasing A Feeling as well as dreamy ballads like Falling Apart and In a Stranger's Arms. Since emerging in 2015, LÉON has amassed 500 million streams and has had various sold out headline shows worldwide with performances on major stages for Coachella, Bonnaroo, Lollapalooza, The Late Late Show With James Corden.

"LÉON's smoky vocals and soaring compositions cut right to the emotional core" – Time

"With the songwriting prowess of Joni Mitchell and vocal chops reminiscent of Adele, LÉON has the keys to musical success." – Ones To Watch

"You'll be ensnared in LÉON's web." – Billboard

"SHE IS WHAT WE CALL SERIOUS"
- OSCAR PETERSON

"SHE IS QUITE A BASS PLAYER. FORGET ABOUT GENDER. BRANDI IS JUST A GREAT BASS PLAYER! IT WAS A GREAT PLEASURE MAKING A RECORD TOGETHER."
- GEORGE COLEMAN

Jazz contrabassist, singer, composer and cellist, and Juno Award winner, Brandi Disterheft, has captivated audiences in Canada, Europe, Japan, China, Haiti and even the coveted Carnegie Hall. It's not only her fiery bass playing that make audiences stand-up and holler, but also her innovative live shows as she sings in both English and French showcasing her ambient and dreamy voice. Born and raised in Vancouver, BC Brandi relocated to New York to apprentice under Miles Davis' bassist Ron Carter and to go on to record & collaborate with the great Hank Jones, Harold Mabern, Anita O'Day, Benny Green, Cyrus Chestnut, Vincent Herring and Renee Rosnes to name a few.

Featuring the legendary saxophonist George Coleman, "Surfboard" is a Brazilian Jazz album showcasing Brandi's inventive writing, power-socket bass playing, and sweet ethereal vocals. With Portinho on drums who is now in his eighties having performed with Tania Maria, Airto Moreira, Herbie Mann, Charlie Rouse, Nancy Wilson, Harry Belafonte and, Paquito De Rivera to name more than a few, and the pearly genius of pianist Klaus Mueller, this trio shines with slick vignette arrangements paying homage to composers from Carlos Jobim to bassist Sam Jones.

SELLING POINTS

- Features jazz saxophonist George Coleman (Miles Davis, Herbie Hancock, Chet Barker, Charles Mingus) and Brazilian drummer Portinho (Harry Belafonte, Paquito D'Rivera)
- First video 'Surfboard' will be marketed August 21st and features "the James Brown of Brazilian Funk Samba" drummer Portinho followed by videos for next two singles with YouTube ad campaigns.
- Brandi composed and also lends her vocals to several tracks on the album
- Brandi has toured extensively across Canada and the United States, as well as the UK, China, Australia and New Zealand

DESTRUCTION

BORN TO THRASH (LIVE IN GERMANY)

For fans of Kreator, Sodom, Overkill, Slayer & Thrash Metal!

Last year, German thrash metal veterans DESTRUCTION played a spectacular show at the country's Party.San Metal Open Air festival. Fortunately, for everyone who wasn't able to attend, the thrash heroes recorded this metal party — and now that the COVID-19 pandemic has crippled the whole touring industry, the time has come to share this memory from a gorgeous show: DESTRUCTION's live album, "Born To Thrash - Live In Germany", will be released on CD along with accompanying DVD with live performance from the Party.San Metal Open Air festival and other bonus material.

DESTRUCTION frontman Schmier comments: "We recorded this special show on the release weekend of our 'Born To Perish' record last year, at Germany's awesome Party.San festival. We had the very spontaneous idea to do a live album in these difficult times, where the fans and us bands are longing for concerts. This might help us a bit to keep the spirit, bring us some joy and great memories back. This is also the first live record of DESTRUCTION as a four-piece since the legendary 'Live Without Sense' album.

"The current lineup is the strongest we ever had — and, of course, this shows best on a live stage! We have kept it raw and authentic and hope our fans will enjoy this atmospheric highlight of our last concert season as much as we did while thrashing on stage."

Destruction is a German thrash metal band, formed in 1982. They are often credited as one of the "Big Four" of the German thrash metal scene, the others being Kreator, Sodom and Tankard. Destruction was part of the second wave of thrash metal in the late 1980s, along with American bands Testament, Sacred Reich and Death Angel.

Formed on New Years Day in 2010, NIIGHTS began writing and recording their full-length, Whisper, which was self-released in 2013. Lyrically, Whisper tackled topics of substance abuse, addiction, domestic violence, and heartache, as well as some of Fournier's coming-of-age experience from growing up in Las Vegas. The result was a heartfelt album full of poignant words that channeled the spirit of 90's shoegaze and ethereal dream-pop. Whisper then started selling world-wide, and soon landed them a distribution deal with a Japanese record label, 2670 Records.

Following two international tours under their belt along with regional touring in the midwest, NIIGHTS was soon picked up Sun Pedal Recordings. With a SXSW tour for Elvis Depressedly and their fourth tour to Japan wrapped up, NIIGHTS was ready to emerge from their shell in the US and take their music to the national stage as they released their long awaited sophomore album, Hellebores, came out February 15th, 2019.

Upon release, Hellebores gained enormous traffic on streaming platforms being playlisted on some of spotify's biggest shoegaze playlisted. Hellebores' is being released to vinyl for the first time ever with retail only seeing a limited 300 copies of the first pressing. Hellebores will be available on vinyl 10/30/2020.

Flying Colors is the talent-ridden prog-supergroup consisting of Mike Portnoy (drums, vocals), Dave LaRue (bass), Neal Morse (keyboards, vocals), Casey McPherson (lead vocals, guitar), and Steve Morse (guitar). The formation of Flying Colors began with a simple idea: virtuoso musicians and a pop singer joining together to make new-fashioned music the old fashioned way. Refreshing, classic, old and new, the recordings are saturated with the many styles, tones and hues of the players who in becoming a band have delivered a unique fusion of vintage craftsmanship and contemporary music.

In 2012, the band released their eponymous album, followed 2 years later by "Second Nature", the latter sporting stunning artwork from the legendary designer Hugh Syme. Both albums have long been out of print on vinyl, and Mascot Label Group/Music Theories Recordings are bringing both back on a limited-to-1000 blue vinyl repress, coinciding with the release of "Third Stage: Live In London".

Sarah And The Safe Word

Good Gracious! Bad People.

If you saw Sarah and the Safe Word barreling down Atlanta's I-285 last year, we have some good news and bad news. The good news is they stopped their joyride long enough to hightail it up to Cleveland. The bad news is they're now accruing speeding tickets across time and space.

Good Gracious! Bad People. is the briskly recorded, breathlessly ambitious follow-up to last year's Red Hot & Holy. While the album's combination of symphonic dramatics and saber toothed alt-rock may have had everybody reaching for their MySpace logins, the Atlanta group's latest LP doubles down on pre-Internet showmanship. In doing so, the sextet widened their storytelling map to include the rest of the southern United States, the magical realism of backwater folklore, and a kitchen-sink approach to melody making assisted by Jim Wirt (Incubus, Jack's Mannequin). What lingers long after the powderkeg production and the spidery tall tales is the impact of a band experimenting their way through the Roaring 2020's.

Sarah and the Safe Word's anachronistic approach to songwriting, like soaking Prohibition-era attitudes in scotch and soda, may come as a system shock. "Bottom of a Bender" features space-age synths and a guitar solo performed by an electric power drill. "A Celebration—With a Vengeance?!" bursts open a cabaret scene with a thunderous sax solo. "When Oskar Fische Comes to Town" is a song so indebted to organic strings and piano chords that it could be retrofitted for ragtime hour. Such erratic time-traveling isn't for the faint of heart. Let these Georgians introduce you to a few characters. They've got character themselves.

DESCRIPTION:

Alter BRIDGE has been changing the game for over 15 years – blurring the lines between rock and metal and proving themselves as one of the most revered acts in both genres. Boasting worldwide critical acclaim and a devoted global fan base, the band rocked 2019 with their sixth studio album, Walk The Sky, marking a creative highpoint for the quartet comprised of Myles Kennedy on vocals/guitars, Mark Tremonti on guitars/vocals, Brian Marshall on bass and Scott Phillips on drums. Now, as a special treat for fans at a time when live performances are craved most, ALTER BRIDGE have returned with a unique offering – Walk The Sky 2.0! The new EP release will feature six electrifying live versions of the biggest hits and crowd favorites on Walk The Sky, recorded during the band's most recent two-leg headline tour of the United States – including acclaimed anthems "Wouldn't You Rather", "Pay No Mind", "In The Deep", "Dying Light" and more. Additionally, the EP will feature a brand new, blisteringly heavy studio track entitled "Last Rites", written and recorded while in lockdown after ALTER BRIDGE was forced to cancel all remaining 2020 touring due to the recent global pandemic. This unique release is an indisputable must-have for any diehard ALTER BRIDGE fanatic!

KYLIE MINOGUE DISCO

Kylie Minogue's new album 'DISCO' will be released on November 6 this year. Kylie's 15th studio album was produced by long-time collaborator Biff Stannard, the disco-tinged song features particularly poignant lyrics for 2020's world: "We're a million miles apart in a thousand ways...Love is love it never ends, can we all be as one again?"

'DISCO' is the first new album since her 2018 album 'Golden', which hit number 1 in both the UK and Australia. Collectively, Kylie's singles have spent over 300 weeks in the Official UK Singles Chart Top 40 and she has sold more than 80 million albums worldwide. Kylie has multiple awards and accolades to her name, including 3 BRIT Awards, 2 MTV Music Awards and a Grammy. Her 2019 Glastonbury performance was the most-watched TV moment in the festival's history. The visual concepts for 'DISCO' were created by Kylie with creative director Kate Moross and video director Sophie Muller. The first single "Say Something" is already off to an amazing start as it was Kylie's first ever Top 10 charting song on iTunes in America. Expect major media coverage all summer into album release along with strategically placed Late Night and morning or daytime TV performances.

SUMMARY

After recording their acclaimed 2019 album, Morbid Stuff, PUP was left with a handful of songs that didn't make the final cut, largely because they were too frenetic or too unhinged. And for an album that fantasized about the world exploding, that's saying a lot. The excluded tracks are now seeing the light via a six-song EP, This Place Sucks Ass (November 6, 2020, Rise Records).

The critical darling band has been met with their share of success over the last seven years—winning a Juno Award for Alternative Album of the Year, being shortlisted for the Polaris Music Prize, write ups and accolades everywhere from the New York Times to Pitchfork to NPR, performing on NBC's Late Night with Seth Meyers, and playing venues around the world packed with rabid fans. Culminating in This Place Sucks Ass, a document of the band PUP is—at times thoughtful and introspective and at other times wildly cathartic. And they hope that fans will take its sentiments of anger, frustration, and bitterness that run through 'This Place Sucks Ass' and find collective empowerment and joy in turning them outward along with them. "Everything sucks and that's OK, because it sucks for everybody," says Babcock. "And we can make it a little bit better by being together."

SELLING POINTS

- Produced and mixed by two time Grammy winner Dave Schiffman (Vampire Weekend, HAIM, Rage Against The Machine)

POLE FADING

Street Date: 11/6/20

Mute are excited to announce the release of Pole's new album Fading, to be released November 6 on CD, black vinyl, and all digital platforms.

Pole is the project of ground-breaking electronic musician Stefan Betke. The new album Fading is the first since 2015's Wald. As with every new Pole record, it is part of a continued forward trajectory, but it also connects to a pre-existing sonic framework. "Every Pole record connects to recordings that I've made before," Betke says, "in order to stay in this kind of vertical development. The ideas 1, 2, and 3 [his groundbreaking first three albums] up to now are connected. I keep the interesting elements, languages and vocabulary that I designed and add new elements." Fading follows the physical release of the remastered versions of 1, 2, and 3.

In the late 90s Betke created the identity Pole to release his electronic musical creations, shaping what many see as milestones in dub within electronic music. Taking his name from a defective analogue Waldorf 4-Pole filter, the broken machine's distinctive crackles gave Pole the starting point for his equally simple and subtle sound layers. Rhythmic textures and warmly pulsing bass lines join in play and experience a slow shift towards Minimal Dub. Pole's music has a unique way of oscillating between melody and avant-garde, between pop and experimental.

ALBERT BOUCHARD

RE IMAGINOS

For fans of Blue Öyster Cult, Blue Coupe, and Classic Rock!

Albert Bouchard is best known as one of the founding members of Blue Öyster Cult. The original band sold millions of albums for Columbia Records with such classic songs as “Don’t Fear the Reaper” and the #1 hit on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart “Burning For You”.

As a songwriter, he wrote many BÖC songs including the very popular “Astronomy” which was covered by Metallica on their 1998’s release Garage Inc and the live staple “Cities on Flame with Rock and Roll”, which he also sang lead vocals.

Today when not writing and recording in his home studio, he performs with several bands. His latest group, Blue Coupe, is a superstar combo which features his brother Joe Bouchard, also a founding member of BÖC, and Dennis Dunaway, a founder of the Alice Cooper Group and a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Albert’s famous cowbell on “(Don’t Fear) The Reaper” was the basis of the popular SNL skit with Will Ferrell and Christopher Walken, which has gained over 13 million views and spawned the phrase “More Cowbell”.

Re Imaginos sees Albert revisiting the 1988 Blue Öyster Cult album Imaginos, which was originally intended as his solo album. The album weaves scripts and poems by the late Sandy Pearlman, a concept album about an alien conspiracy that is brought to fruition during the late 19th and early 20th century through the actions of Imaginos, an agent of evil.
