RICHARD ASHCROFT

ACOUSTIC HYMNS VOL. 1

Richard Ashcroft is set to release the new album Acoustic Hymns Vol. 1 on October 29th via RPA / BMG. The album features twelve newly recorded acoustic versions of classic songs from his back catalogue spanning both his solo career and his time with The Verve.

The album finds Ashcroft's acoustic performances supported by a full band, which brings a lighter touch to songs that originally had a heftier sound such as his debut solo single 'A Song For The Lovers' or 'C'mon People (We're Making It Now)'. His renowned vocal has gained poise as his career has progressed, giving an added emotional resonance to his most poignant songwriting on 'The Drugs Don't Work' or 'Sonnet.' Much of the material that features is drawn from the classic Urban Hymns, an album that Ashcroft and The Verve commenced recording sessions for 25 years ago this October.

BIO

Over the past two decades, Jake Shimabukuro has proved that there isn't a style of music that he can't play. While versatility for any musician is impressive, what's remarkable about Shimabukuro's transcendent skills is how he explores his seemingly limitless vocabulary – whether it's jazz, rock, blues, bluegrass, folk or even classical – on perhaps the unlikely of instruments: the 'ukulele. Responding to the urgent calls of his fervent imagination, the Hawai'i-born virtuoso has taken the 'ukulele to points previously thought impossible, and in the process he's reinvented the applications for this tiny, heretofore underappreciated four-string instrument, causing many to call him "the Jimi Hendrix of the 'ukulele." Shimabukuro's incredible journey has taken him from local phenom to YouTube sensation, from playing tiny clubs to headlining the world's most prestigious concert venues like the Hollywood Bowl, Lincoln Center and the Sydney Opera House. He's performed on the biggest TV shows and has released a string of award-winning, chart-topping albums. It's fair to say that he picked up more than a few admirers – millions of them, actually – but it wasn't until he began his latest album that he discovered how many of his fans were, in fact, his very own musical heroes.

Jake's new record, 'Jake & Friends', isn't the first album on which celebrated guests appear with the main performer, but in terms of size and scope, and considering the sheer number of legendary stars who graciously loaned their inimitable talents, it can only be compared to benchmark duets albums by the likes of Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett. Willie Nelson, Bette Midler, Jimmy Buffett, Kenny Loggins, Michael McDonald, Vince Gill and Amy Grant, Jon Anderson, Ziggy Marley, Warren Haynes, Jack Johnson, Jesse Colin Young, Ray Benson & Asleep at the Wheel, Sonny Landreth, Lukas Nelson, Billy Strings – Shimabukuro's own head spins when looking over his high-wattage guest list. "I have to pinch myself when I see those names on my own album," he says. "It's like, 'Did that really happen?' Making the album was a real challenge, but I'm deeply honored that all of the artists agreed to record with me."

Creatively, 'Jake & Friends', is Shimabukuro's most ambitious project to date. "Looking back on it all now, it feels like a dream," Shimabukuro says with mixture of pride and relief. "We worked really hard to map out this grand plan, and we pulled it off. I grew up fantasizing that one day I might be able to meet my musical heroes, and here I am on my own record playing with them. I'm so fortunate to have had this experience, and I can't wait for people to hear it. I think they're going to be able to tell that I'm having the time of my life."

'Jake & Friends' is available everywhere November 12th, 2021 through Music Theories Recordings.

Ne:EP

Street Date: 11/12/2021

Mute is excited to announce the release of iconic synth pop duo Erasure's Ne:EP. The brand new EP will be made available on CD at retail on November 12th.

Ne:EP serves as a companion release to Erasure's 2020 studio album The Neon, the band's highest charting album in 26 years. It includes the popular single "Secrets" along with 4 other brand new songs.

This release follows the recent Neon Remixed compilation which featured interpretations of the original album from Kim Ann Foxman, Hifi Sean, Octo Octa, Paul Humphreys (OMD), Gareth Jones, Brixxtone, Theo Kottis and more.

Erasure will take their 'Neon Tour' to North America in January and February 2022.

PRAISE FOR ERASURE + THE NEON:

NEW YORKER: "No synth-pop group has been as aching and reassuringly human as Erasure."

BROOKLYN VEGAN: "The Erasure formula – Vince Clarke's gurgling synthpop + Andy Bell's powerful pipes – never seems to get old..."

FLOOD MAGAZINE: "The Neon, gloriously bathed in ticklish analog synths and backed by meaty rhythms, does what it's supposed to do, painting something of a re-birth for the boys in the band..."

BLACKBOOK: "Erasure's music has often felt like a hit of exuberance when we needed it most..."

DESCRIPTION:

Swedish Death Metal Legends UNLEASHED are back to defend their throne! With the release of their 14th full length studio album No Sign Of Life on November 12 2021, the Death Metal pioneers that influenced a whole musical genre deliver another work of sheer brutality. Formed back in 1989 by Johnny Hedlund, UNLEASHED have been delivering supreme Death Metal in the sign of their Viking ancestors from day one! The Einherjar legions of Asgard transfer Viking values and traditions into modernity and forge another uncompromising musical weapon. The rage paves its way straight from the first notes of the album opener "The King Lost His Crown" and leaves no time to breathe during the entire playing time. The album unfolds as an unstoppable war battalion and builds up on UNLEASHED's well established trademark sounds and lyrics. Accompanied by shouts hailing Odin, heavy guitar riffs take no prisoners on "The Highest Ideal", until the album finds a glorious end on "Here at the End of the World". The Chief Vikings of Swedish Death Metal manage to play modern sounding old school Death Metal and leave no doubt that they are still true to their roots after 32 years of existence. UNLEASHED are and stay the unchallenged leaders of Sweden's Death Metal forefathers. Hail Odin!

DESCRIPTION:

After 23 years of silence, the Finnish cult black metallers and pioneers of the scene DARKWOODS MY BETROTHED mark their long-awaited comeback with a hard-hitting new offering, Angel of Carnage Unleashed, to be released on November 12, 2021 via Napalm Records. The old horde from the original 1993 line-up has rejoined forces, now augmented by Tuomas Holopainen as a full member of the band and Kai Hahto (both Nightwish) as session drummer. Holopainen had already been featured as a session keyboardist on all previous albums. Founded in 1993 in Kitee, Finland, DARKWOODS MY BETROTHED quickly gained a cult status in the black metal underground. In 1995, they released their debut album, Heirs of the Northstar, followed by the sophomore album Autumn Roars Thunder (1996) and its sequel Witch-Hunts (1998). Shortly after the release of the third album, the pagan flame of DARKWOODS MY BETROTHED became but a fleeting glimpse in the nocturnal darkness of Eastern Finland. But it never faded away completely. Now the primeval Northern force is back with Angel of Carnage Unleashed. Angel of Carnage Unleashed sets free a unique blend of brutal, fast driven black metal and epic anthems, where eerie screams merge with heroic clean vocals, monumental choirs and majestic keyboards along with gory stories of famine, war, plague and the inescapable brutality of Finland's nature in the characteristic DARKWOODS MY BETROTHED style! The opener "Name the Dead" sets off with atmospheric organ tunes but leaves no scope for weakness, as only a few seconds later storming drums, aggressive riffs and raging growls set the stage for everything that is about to come: brutal soundscapes spliced with epic accents! The second track, "In Evil, Sickness and in Grief" pierces through the core with a poisoning vocal attack and contrasting operatic female background layers. "Murktide and Midnight Sun" marks some folk and Viking reminiscence with its clean and catchy vocal presentation, grand choirs and mystic atmosphere, followed by the heavily stomping "You Bitter Source of Sorrow" and "Where We Dwell" with its haunting, all-consuming keyboard passages. "In Thrall to Ironskull's Heart" showcases the multifaceted character of DARKWOODS MY BETROTHED with an almost balladic start, which evolves into an uptempo epic journey into the Battle of Napue (1714). The title of the penultimate track "Massacre" conveys the track's musical direction with precision: expect in-your-face blastbeats and gory lyrics. The final song "Black Fog and Poison Wind" unleashes a sonic monster once more, combining aggression, haunting soundscapes and evil melodies, before Angel of Carnage Unleashed ends with the tunes of a soundtrack-like outro. The new full-length contains eight songs, written by the three musicians who founded the band in 1993: Pasi Kankkunen, Jouni Mikkonen and Teemu Kautonen (with substantial creative inputs from the fourth member Tuomas Holopainen). The lyrics are based on the human history of the Great Northern War of 1700-1721: how Finns experienced the many manifestations of the Angel of Carnage, sent by God to punish them for their sins. On August 30, 1721, the Treaty of Uusikaupunki ended the Great Northern War and put the Angel of Carnage to rest. 300 years later she is to be unleashed again - more vicious than ever!

A Certain Ratio LOCO REMEZCLADA

Street Date: 11/12/2021

Mute is excited to announce the release of A Certain Ratio's Loco Remezclada, out November 12th on limited edition double clear vinyl, triple sparkle vinyl, and CD.

This release compiles remixes of tracks from the band's highly acclaimed 2020 studio album ACR Loco. Featuring all new remixes from Lonelady, Skream, Maps, Number, Lounge Society and more. Also included is a Mr Dan remix of "Down & Dirty," a song originally released earlier this year on ACR:EPA featuring one of the last vocal tracks that the late Denise Johnson ever recorded.

A Certain Ratio was one of the first groups to sign to the legendary Factory Records in Manchester. Whilst many people credit New Order and The Happy Mondays as the groups who brought dance music into the sound of Manchester, it is in fact A Certain Ratio who were there in the beginning. Formed in 1978, the initial line-up comprised Simon Topping (vocals), Martin Moscrop (guitar and trumpet), Peter Terrell (tape loops) and Jeremy Kerr (bass). Their debut seven-inch "All Night Party" was Factory Records' fifth release. Soon after this Donald Johnson joined on drums.

The sparkle vinyl version of Loco Remezclada includes an additional 12" (half pressed on clear sparkle vinyl / half on violet sparkle vinyl - packed randomly) with remixes of the singles "Always in Love" and "Friends Around Us" which will not be available on the clear vinyl version. The sparkle vinyl is limited to 1,500 copies worldwide.

LEE RANALDO

In Virus Times

Street Date: 11/12/21

Mute is excited to announce the release of Lee Ranaldo's new album In Virus Times. Out November 12th on limited edition turquoise vinyl with etched b-side and an exclusive poster designed, signed and individually numbered by Lee.

Composed during the pandemic, In Virus Times is an acoustic instrumental piece that explores the sense of motionless time through sparse, meandering melodies and spacious chordal drones.

Originally released as one track in collaboration with Lucien Jean for Le Presses du Reel, the music was featured on a mini CD which accompanied a book of short stories. Now transformed into 4 pieces, it's available for the first time on vinyl and digital formats.

In Virus Times follows Lee Ranaldo's 2020 collaboration with spanish producer Raül Refree, Names of North End Women. Record Collector described it as a "melange of folk and flamenco guitars, organic electronic rattlings, and musique concrète." While the experimental spirit remains, In Virus Times features a more minimalist approach, stripping it back to just acoustic guitar and the utilization of negative space. Both Rolling Stone and Spin magazine rank Lee Ranaldo as one of the greatest guitarists of his generation (Lee co-founded Sonic Youth in 1981).

The cover art is a photo by Lee's friend, the great Brazilian photographer Anna Paula Bogaciovas. The signed poster features a design based on an electron microscope photo of the Covid-19 molecule and is limited to the first pressing of 2,500 copies world wide. Also includes a high definition download code and liner notes written by Lee.

THE POP GROUP

Y IN DUB

Street Date: 11/12/2021

Mute is excited to announce the release of The Pop Group's Y in Dub, out November 12th on CD with vinyl to follow on March 25 of 2022.

The Pop Group's seminal album Y has been given a complete dub reworking by the album's original producer and British reggae legend Dennis "Blackbeard" Bovell. Bovell has produced for a wide variety of artists including Fela Kuti, Bananarama and Linton Kwesi Johnson. This new version of the album features reimagined arrangements of the original album's tracks with mind-bending space echoes and a plethora of other studio effects.

Originally released in 1979, Y represents a stunning culmination of The Pop Group's crucial nonconformity. Preceded by a meteoric rise in recognition, Y firmly realized the latent potential of the group's early years. From playing Bristol youth clubs to early gigs supporting Pere Ubu and Patti Smith to gracing the front covers of NME and Melody Maker, The Pop Group's progression to the forefront had been swift.

Y is ranked by The Wire as one of the 100 Most Important Records Ever Made and by Pitchfork as one of the Best Albums of the '70s.

DESCRIPTION:

„Since their formation in 2014 in Aarhus, Denmark, LIVLØS have relentlessly made a name for themselves in the European metal scene. Their brand of Scandinavian melodic death metal, influenced by bands like AT THE GATES and CARCASS, paired with American-rooted death metal in the vein of DEATH and THE BLACK DAHLIA MURDER has already earned the Danish five-piece appearances at Copenhell, Eurosonic and Spot Festival. On their new album, And Then There Were None (out October 22 via Napalm Records), LIVLØS are audibly on top of their craft: scrupulously ripping through nine tight, hard-lined tracks, the band takes no shortcuts while still maintaining a dynamic songwriting style that keeps listeners on their toes throughout the album’s runtime. Album opener and title track “And Then There Were None” sets the pace with punishing vocals and raging death metal riffs, leading into dramatic choruses and guitar solos that display LIVLØS’ incredibly multi-faceted talent right off the bat. Only very rarely will the band give listeners time to breathe, like on acoustic intermission “Kistefjæl” or the slowed-down, stomping “The Purest Black”, which ends the album experience of And Then There Were None in a triumphant, epic manner. Songs like “Seize The Night” are impressive depictions of singer Niklas Lykke’s broad vocal range, reaching from deep and guttural to high-pitched and ear-piercing sections. Excellently mixed by Jacob Bredahl (ex-HATESPHERE) and mastered by Brad Boatright (known for his work with OBITUARY, NAILS and TORCHE among others), And Then There Were None is an exceptional display of LIVLØS’ confident, modern approach to melodic death metal, meticulously executed from start to finish - revealing more of what it has to offer with every listen. LIVLØS are one of the most exciting new bands to watch in metal, proving that they are here to stay with And Then There Were None!”

Blackened death doom metal unit 1914

DESCRIPTION:

Ukrainian blackened death/doom metal offensive 1914 continue to reflect the gruesome tales of World War I, its soldiers' fate, their death, fear and feasts to be never forgotten, and unleash their new opus, Where Fear and Weapons Meet, on October 22nd, via Napalm Records. Its eleven tracks of pure historic harshness follow up to the band's sophomore full-length, The Blind Leading the Blind (2018), and debut, Eschatology of War (2014), both highly acclaimed amongst critics, and create a sophisticated variety of massively brutal blackened death metal accented by dramatic and realistic audio soundscapes and disquieting melodies spiced with the approach of sludge and doom! Unlike their previous works, Where Fear and Weapons Meet is not about death, but about life. Most of the heroes and protagonists in the songs survived war, became heroes and finally returned home. Even the album cover emphasizes this: Injured, shell-shocked and bleeding, the only survivor of a shield attack is holding his hand out to death, praying in agony, but death does not take him away. He deserved to live and death gave him life. Packed with a great deal of knowledge, the lyrics attend to the fate of individuals that exemplify the cruelty of war and countless other stories. 1914 break into their third offering with the intro "War In", summed up by final "War Out", and immediately build a common thread to the previous records. "War In" is the original of the most famous Serbian song of the Great War period, "Tamo Daleko". Like World War I, the album begins in Serbia and continues on the first track from the perspective of Gavrilo Prinzip, who assassinated Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife on June 28th, 1914 in Sarejevo and caused the outbreak of World War I. What happens next is an intense, in-depth analysis of historical events, like for example – Vimy Ridge battle, shameful pages of the British Empire history in the track "Coward" featuring Sasha Boole (Me And That Man), The Battle of Messines on "Pillars of fire", and the infantry regiment, the Harlem Hellfighters, on "Don't Tread On Me". Massive "...and a cross now marks his place" features Paradise Lost vocalist Nick Holmes and tells of the death of private A. G. Harrison, who was killed in action on May 20, 1918, and about his mother hearing the terrible news of her son never coming back. To depict the story in the most authentic way, 1914 used text from an original letter from back in the day, without any major changes. Authentic forces like ambient sonic war samplings transport these stories even further into the present and make Where Fear and Weapons Meet another heavily intense and deep-reaching output that will grant 1914 even higher appreciation than the five-piece is already credited with."

ALL THE GOOD TIMES

After a devastating tornado ravaged Nashville in the Spring of 2020 making their studio unusable, immediately followed by a global pandemic shutting down their community and touring livelihood, Gillian Welch and David Rawlings were able to find the inspiration to set up recording equipment in their home living room and record 10 performances on their reel-to-reel of some of their favorite songs from the likes of John Prine (“Hello In There”), Bob Dylan (“Abandoned Love”), Norman Blake (“Ginseng Sullivan”), and more.

All The Good Times is the first Welch/Rawlings collaboration to feature both of their names on the album, and received the 2021 Grammy Award for Best Folk Album. Originally released in summer 2020 as a surprise treat for fans, the limited edition handmade CD and LP first pressings sold out in 48 hours as a D2C exclusive.

Plated and pressed at Quality Record Pressings on 150 gram audiophile quality vinyl. Tip-on jackets were made at Stoughton Printing and feature new artwork printed on special linen paper.

DESCRIPTION:

Behemoth mastermind Adam "Nergal" Darski has signed a menacing pact with the devil once again, returning with dark folk/blues/Americana influenced solo project ME AND THAT MAN's third full-length studio album, New Man, New Songs, Same Shit, Vol.2, on November 19, 2021 via Napalm Records. As a sequel to the project's previous record, New Man, New Songs, Same Shit, Vol.1 (2020), the enthralling new offering follows the exciting path Nergal then set ablaze, once again featuring an abundance of heavy music icons – but this time, he takes it to a whole new level. Experience greats such as Gary Holt (Slayer, Exodus), Alissa White-Gluz (Arch Enemy), Randy Blythe (Lamb Of God), Myrkur, Devin Townsend, David Vincent, Doug Blair (W.A.S.P), Hank von Hell (Turbonegro) and Olve Abbath Eikemo (Immortal, Abbath) intertwining with the album's bewitching collection of occult anthems, marking another breathtaking symbiosis of unfiltered blues, gothic-laced folk, country essence and touch of evil you'll swear was either beamed straight out of hell or the most blackened of churches. Opening track "Black Hearse Cadillac", featuring the vocals of Hank von Hell and guitar sorcery by Anders Odden, marks a sinister beginning to this infernal journey through dark desert soundscapes and evil lyricism. Driving "Under The Spell" (feat. Mary Goore) lives up to its title, at times evoking a spaghetti western-esque ambience. Songs like wicked "Witches Don't Fall in Love" (feat. Kristoffer Rygg/Ulver), straight-to-the-head rocking "Blues & Cocaine" (feat. Michale Graves) and mysterious "Goodbye" – with a haunting yet powerful vocal attack by Alissa White-Gluz – showcase the record's extensive variety and that there's something unexpected lurking all throughout. This is further evident on songs like the soulful blues-rock ballad "Angel of Light" featuring the compelling voice of Myrkur, or insanely dynamic, uptempo outburst of "Got Your Tongue" feat. Chris Georgiadis (Turbowolf). After the enticing debut Songs of Love And Death (2017), followed by sophomore release New Man, New Songs, Same Shit, Vol.1, its sequel once again mirrors Nergal in a completely different light and provides a tremendous contrast to the extreme metal sounds of Behemoth.

SYNOPSIS

The allure of this album is strong: what dummy wouldn't want the juicy details of who exactly 'Jerry Seinfeld the man' was before he became 'Jerry Seinfeld the cultural force?' The reveal is that it's always been the same Jerry. Of course, above and beyond the entertaining trajectory of Seinfeld's career, his jokes--tight, perceptive, and funny as hell--are the record's true selling point.

Whether mocking fashionable parenting methods or criticizing flower shops or marvelling at the delusion it takes to run for president, Seinfeld remains unrivalled in how few words he needs to explode an accepted social norm. Regardless of the record's title, this is Jerry Seinfeld the same as ever--bemused, exasperated, and delighted by this thing we call life.

DESCRIPTION:

After releasing their vibrant fifth studio album, Viridian, in 2020, TEMPERANCE – maestros of modern melodic/symphonic metal – delight their devotees with the persuasive new offering Diamanti, to be released on November 19, 2021 via Napalm Records. With Diamanti, the exceptionally skilled Italian outfit once again showcases their extraordinary ability to merge brilliant vocal melodies, hefty power metal guitar riffing and symphonic soundscapes in perfect harmony – all dressed in modern surroundings. This offering fans of bands like Amaranthe will fall in love with immediately! The epic journey sets sail with the majestic “Pure Life Unfolds”, offering the bombastic sounding power of TEMPERANCE immediately. With their essence of three vocalists (Alessia Scolletti, Michele Guaitoli and Marco Pastorino), the unit manages to create an incomparable trademark, uniting heaviness and catchy melodies. Energetic and uplifting following track “Breaking The Rules Of Heavy Metal” bursts in with full force, telling an epic tale and creating a far-reaching sense of common bond. The enchanting mid-tempo title track flatters with an Italian chorus, leading to piano-driven “Black Is My Heart” shortly after, while “Litany Of The Northern Lights” adds a folk-like touch to this grand bunch. Explosive “Code Breaker” and wild “Let’s Get Started” serve as some of the record’s most modern tunes, whereas “The Night Before The End” and “Fairy Tales For The Stars” reflect the more symphonic orientated touches of Diamanti. This massive adventure ends with “Follow Me,” a call that all fans – not only those of TEMPERANCE – should heed! Diamanti was mixed and mastered by Jacob Hansen (Volbeat, Epica, Amaranthe), with the cover artwork once again created by Yann Souetre (Ayreon).

Aephanemer

AEPHANEMER artfully blends brutally fast symphonic death and raw melodic metal into a multi-faceted epic!

RELEASE DATE: 11/19/2021
ARTIST: AEPHANEMER
TITLE: A Dream Of Wilderness
LABEL: Napalm Records
COUNTRY: France
FILE UNDER: Symphonic Melodic Death Metal
FORMAT: CD / Digital
CATALOG #: NPR1080DP
LIST PRICE: $14.98

BOX LOT: 30

5% Discount through 11/23/2021 (Returnable)

DESCRIPTION:

Following their much-acclaimed 2019 album, Prokopton, Toulouse based symphonic melodic death metal force AEPHANEMER returns with their third and thunderous full-length record, A Dream Of Wilderness, via Napalm Records! Starting out as an unbelievably successful DIY ride that suddenly turned towards international acclaim, the indisputable AEPHANEMER is one of the most exciting symphonic death metal sensations of the modern age. Fast-paced metal fronted by the guttural growls and fierce screams of extraordinary vocalist Marion Bascoul meet flickering twin leads, elements of Scandinavian death metal, Slavic traditional music and epic synths. If Prokopton was a noteworthy, impressive sophomore album from one of Europe's best up and coming melodic death metal bands yet, A Dream Of Wilderness sees the French four-piece doubling down on its songwriting skills. Faster, tighter and heavier, AEPHANEMER's upcoming third album unleashes an anthemic adventure of brutally fast riffage and epic melodies! Each single on A Dream Of Wilderness provides an exciting and refreshing mixture of metallic elements that are both technically superior and emotively rousing. Tracks such as "Panta Rhei" showcase the band's ability to combine blistering, speedy riffs with a thrilling symphonic sound that takes you on a journey right into a death metal fairy tale, while other tracks such as second single "Antigone" represent the dark and gloomier yet no less powerful side of the band – adding to the diverse blend A Dream Of Wilderness. Before the record allows you to escape into another dimension of blast beasts and furious riffage, "Le Radeau de La Méduse" – a heavy, razor-sharp death metal anthem delivered in both French and English versions – will have you headbanging as fast as you can. AEPHANEMER doesn't seem to fear boundaries, and especially in this day and age of staying „true“ and limited within a sound and scene, A Dream Of Wilderness is a welcome diversion and a brave record artfully blending brutally fast symphonic death and raw melodic metal into a multi-faceted epic

Chris Liebing Another Day

Street Date: 11/19/2021

Mute is delighted to announce the release of techno pioneer Chris Liebing's new album, Another Day. Out November 19th on double black vinyl, CD with 16 page booklet, and digital formats.

Another Day follows 2018's Burn Slow—the minimalist electronic epic that began a new chapter for one of German techno's leading authorities. The new album explores a stunningly expressive, euphoric and melodic side of Liebing's technical arsenal, while maintaining the pulsating threat in his new tracks that usually imbue his club-based DJ stompers.

Techno club mixes with a series of collaborators will be released concurrently with each single. The album features a constellation of contributors including Miles Cooper Seaton (Akron / Family), Tom Adams, Maria Uzor (Sink Ya Teeth) and Mute label mates Ladan (Cold Specks) and Polly Scattergood (onDeadWaves).

LITTLE CAESAR

REDEMPTION (DELUXE EDITION)

For fans of Little Caesar, Tora Tora, Rhino Bucket and Hard Rock!

Little Caesar is most remembered for their version of the soul music song "Chain of Fools", a 1989 hit single from their self-titled debut album. John Kalodner did A&R work for the group, and Bob Rock (Metallica, Motley Crue, etc...) produced their debut self-titled album, which was released in 1990 to positive reviews.

On the strength of the singles "Chain of Fools" (a cover of the Aretha Franklin song) and "In Your Arms", Little Caesar hit number 139 on the US Billboard 200 in 1990. Lead vocalist Ron Young made a brief cameo in James Cameron's Terminator 2, as the biker thrown through the window of the bar by Arnold Schwarzenegger.

The band reformed for some live shows in 2001, and released their comeback album, 'Redemption', in 2009. The album was well received by fans and critics alike.

"Redemption, the band's first new material in 17 years, it sounds as if time has stood still over all these years. An endless stream of middle-aged musicians have returned in the last few years with dreams of recapturing the magic that they once (or never did) possessed, but few have managed to do it as well as Little Caesar....use Redemption as the blueprint for how a band should stage their comeback."
Sleaze Roxx

'Redemption' has now been re-mastered and repackaged for this Limited "Deluxe Edition" re-issue, which now features four live 'Redemption' tracks including the stand out track "Supersonic". This is the first of a series of re-issues coming through the bands new imprint label Dirty Deeds Records.

Pony - TV Baby

TV Baby, the debut LP from Toronto power-pop act PONY, feels like it's programmed from a different era. Driven by vocalist/guitarist Sam Bielanski's sharp vocal tones and flashy, driving rhythm, the band combines cheeky 1980s style with 1990s self-reliance and modern production sheen for an experience caught between worlds. It's hooky and vibrant, but don't mistake exuberance for extroversion. TV Baby is an album dedicated to the indoor cats, the introverts, and those who value their independence above anything else.

Bielanski, along with close friends Matty Morand (Pretty Matty) and Lucas Horne, have taken a piecemeal approach to world building here. They'll take you to the band computer, where Sam's frantically typing symptoms into a search bar into "WebMD," where body horror meets sugar-rushed guitars.

Next comes a thorny survey of the "Furniture," fuzzy and scuff-marked, before letting you crash on the "Couch," a pop-punk ode to discovering new parts of yourself while the world rolls past. When others are present in this internal monologue, like those hurt and driven to "Cry," they're greeted with the same maximalist pop-rock. In PONY's gig economy, riffs beat out the rearview mirror. Saddle up alongside them and your joyride is guaranteed.
