Born Jayceon Terrell Taylor, two-time GRAMMY® Award-nominated multiplatinum Compton rapper, songwriter, producer, actor, and entrepreneur. The Game locked down a place in the pantheon alongside greats of both coasts by a combination of bar-for-bar bravado, provocative observation, hard-hitting hooks, and sharp introspection. And now the prolific rapper returns with his 9th album fittingly titled, Born 2 Rap.

The Game's prior album 1992 debuted #1 on Billboard's "Top Rap Albums Chart" and tied Drake for most #1 album debuts since the chart began in 2004. Also, the album gave The Game his eighth #1 on Billboard's "Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums Chart" tying him for third with 2Pac and Lil Wayne. He started this impressive legacy with double-platinum 2005 full-length debut, The Documentary. It not only bowed at #1 on the Billboard Top 200 and garnered GRAMMY® nods in the categories of "Best Rap Song" and "Best Rap Performance By a Duo or Group," but it also emerged as a classic avowed by Pitchfork among the "Top 50 Albums of 2005". The 2006 follow-up Doctor's Advocate retained his spot at #1 on the Billboard Top 200 and went platinum. Maintaining positions in the Top 10, he ignited a prolific string of blockbuster releases—L.A.X. [2008], The R.E.D. Album [2011], Jesus Piece [2012], Blood Moon: Year of the Wolf [2014], The Documentary 2 [2015], The Documentary 2.5. [2015], and 1992 [2016].

2018 saw a trio of recent singles achieve RIAA certifications with "100" [feat. Drake] platinum and "El Chapo" with Skrillex and "All Eyez" [feat. Jeremih] both gold as his total stream tally exceeded 3 Billion across platforms. Television and film credits span everything from Jimmy Kimmel LIVE! to the upcoming All-Star Weekend directed by Academy® Award winner Jamie Foxx and co-starring Robert Downey, Jr. and Benicio del Toro.

ATMOSPHERE | WHENEVER

For over 20 years, Atmosphere have pursued the underbelly of what it means to be human with a rabid curiosity. Ant's dusky production has provided the pulse for Slug's evolving and matter-of-fact pen. As Slug transitioned from throwing-up-in-the-backseat-raps to holding-hands-when-you-cross-the-street-raps, Ant has grown to be a master of crate digging and unearthing the humanity of a drum loop. Thriving at the intersection of guttural and self-effacing, Atmosphere will go down as some of America's best archivists.

On Whenever, the duo continue to move in lockstep. Within the minutiae lie clues they're still struggling with mortality and the need to protect emotional energy, as on previous releases, but there's a quiet romanticism now, with Slug sounding—reluctantly—in love with life. And no other producer can pull truths out of a rapper like Ant fishes the blues out of Slug. Be it the twinkle of "Bde Maka Ska" leading into twanging guitars, or the anxious skitter of "Lovely," Slug finds obvious comfort in working with Ant. "Postal Lady" recounts the simplicity of Slug's life over warm and enveloping production, while "Romance" recalls God Loves Ugly with its undulating glitches, as if we crawled through Ant's drum machine. It's clear the pair's harmony is reaching new peaks.

These aren't dad-raps, these aren't anti-establishment-raps, and these aren't chasing-old-fire-raps. Even at its darkest ("You're Gonna Go") Whenever houses blessed-to-be-alive-raps. The album breathes in the way only Slug and Ant could summon a collective breath. On Whenever, the duo inhale panic and exhale greatness.

MOBY

All Visible Objects

Street Date: 3/6/20

Mute is excited to announce the release of Moby's dance-heavy album, All Visible Objects, out March 6 on CD, double gatefold vinyl, and all digital platforms. Recorded in the legendary EastWest studios, Moby created this album in Studio 3 where Pet Sounds was recorded, using the same board that was used in the making of Ziggy Stardust and the same piano that Sinatra used to record some of his most notable hits.

Keeping with Moby's history of donating to charity (in 2018, he started selling off his records and collection of synthesizers and drum machines, donating the proceeds to charity), he is using this album as a sounding board to bring attention to a long list of charities dedicated to preserving our planet and all its inhabitants.

Moby Supports Many Charities Including...

- Brighter Green
- Mercy For Animals
- Rainforest Action Network (RAN)
- Extinction Rebellion
- The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)
- Animal Equality
- The Humane League
- The Physicians Committee
- International Anti-Poaching Foundation
- The Good Food Institute
- The Indivisible Project

Moby will be performing a live concert in LA in early 2020. 200% of the show's proceeds will be donated to charity.

JONATHAN WILSON

DIXIE BLUR

Jonathan Wilson the critically-acclaimed artist, multi-instrumentalist and producer (Father John Misty, Laura Marling, Dawes), spent most of 2017-18 on Roger Waters' epic US+THEM tour as musical director, guitarist and vocalist, singing the David Gilmour leads. Following the tour, Wilson chose to temporarily leave his Los Angeles-based home and studio and head to Nashville to work with a revered group of musicians and co-producer Pat Sansone of Wilco, to create Dixie Blur, his most personal, accessible and fully realized work to date. The songs harken back to his Southern roots, both musically and personally. Dixie Blur was recorded at Cowboy Jack Clement's legendary Sound Emporium Studio with a core group of exceptional players that included Mark O'Connor (fiddle), Kenny Vaughan (guitar) Dennis Crouch (bass), Russ Pahl (pedal steel) and Jim Hoke (harmonica, woodwinds). Wilson and company recorded everything together live with no overdubs, a full 360 from his past methods. The result is a stunning album filled with warm, thoughtful, melody-rich songs that have an immediate impact upon first hearing it and continues to grow with further listening. Following his past solo efforts Gentle Spirit, Fanfare and Rare Birds, Jonathan Wilson masterfully strikes a balance as he reaches back to the musical foundation of his upbringing while simultaneously moving forward by infusing the music with modern textures and aesthetic soundscapes, thus producing the aptly titled, Dixie Blur.

THERE WILL COME SOFT RAINS

Esmé Patterson Set To Release New Album There Will Come Soft Rains Via BMG

QUOTE

BIO

Esmé Patterson is songwriter, gambler, singer, lover, thinker and explorer. She began as a member of the Denver Folk Pop septet, Paper Bird, and has written two records as a solo act including All Princes, I and her second and most recent release, Woman to Woman, which is a concept album of responses from female characters in a broad range of well known love songs. The Guardian called it “defiant and witty”, the New York Times found her voice “wiry and candid” with songs that “hint at mystery and mortality.” Audiotree touts “By putting herself in the minds of characters like Jolene, Eleanor Rigby, and Billie Jean, Patterson has crafted a witty, dark, and intimate twist on the popular tracks.” Esmé performs in multiple incarnations. She adds members to raise the volume and cadence of her tunes but remains powerful alone. Patterson is a magnetic performer and has appeared on the Leno, Conan and Letterman programs. Her co-writing with Shakey Graves led to sold out shows nationwide and millions of downloads of their collaborations. Esmé lives in Portland, Oregon, happily small under tall trees.

Luke Haines & Peter Buck

BEAT POETRY

FOR SURVIVALISTS

Luke Haines & Peter Buck

Beat Poetry For The Survivalist is the new collaboration between Peter Buck and Luke Haines.

Peter Buck was the guitarist for the biggest band in the world—R.E.M. Luke Haines was the guitarist for The Auteurs. The Auteurs were not the biggest band in the world. They were pretty good though. Luke Haines also does paintings of Lou Reed.

One day, Peter Buck bought one of Luke Haines' Lou Reed paintings (for £99.00) They had never met before but decided that the fates had brought them together and they should write some songs together and make an album.

Beat Poetry For The Survivalist is that album. With songs about legendary rocket scientist and occultist Jack Parsons, The Enfield Hauntings, (of 1978) a post-apocalyptic radio station that only plays Donovan records, Bigfoot, and Pol Pot.

DESCRIPTION:

Welcome to the Panopticon of darkness! With Unbroken, the German pioneers of European Gothic Metal, CREMATORY, dare to perform a tightrope act in the somber void. 15 energetic tracks within brutal riffs, deep growls and tight drum grooves prove the band's diversity — even after almost 30 years in business. The concise influences of Neue Deutsche Härte turn Unbroken into a bravura-piece in an industrial guise. The opening track of the album takes the listener into a darkly-nuanced soundscape, appeals to the strength and self-determination of the band and their fans, and allures with a certain kind of hymn character. The most contemplative CREMATORY album to date closes with the final tracks „As Darkness Calls“, a powerful first class offer, and the emotional ballad „Like The Tides“. The latter presents the fragile side of the band and symbolizes an ode of transience, love and pain. CREMATORY remains Unbroken!

Klaus Fiehe (WDR1 Live / Germany) wants to see them on as many german festival stages as possible in 2019 and 2020, Musikexpress wrote that WARGIRL is playing exactly the kind of music one would expect from The Clash, should they still make music today, with their debut album they were newcomer of the week at FM4 and Deutschlandfunk Kultur.

An absolutely successful year for the Long Beach, Southern California based band. They released their first EP "Arbolita" on June 29th this year on the Hamburg based label Clouds Hill. A perfect start for WARGIRL. Six tracks between Funk, Dub, Disco, Garagerock and Afrobeat. Terrificly played and sensationally produced by Matt Wignall.

WARGIRL - a band as a social - political statement. Three women, three men, each with colorful biographies, playing music that is from all over the world, yet could only have been invented in California. "We stand for Long Beach," Wignall says. "If you walk through this town, you will meet a hundred people who could also have played in this band."

The next release for 2020 in the US is already in the making - a "Wargirl Live At Clouds Hill" live album. The perfect choice to capture the band's excellent live and sound qualities. Recorded live in the Clouds Hill Recordings recording rooms in an intimate atmosphere, directly recorded on tape by Johann Scheerer, the LP is peppered with songs from the EP and album.

NAKED SIX – LOST ART OF CONVERSATION OUT MARCH 6, 2020

When you listen to NAKED SIX, you might feel that you're hearing punch-the-air aural chaos from SIX untethered young wild men. Amazingly, though, this piquant, powerhouse alternative-punky-bluesy stew was cooked up by a trio, described by SoundsphereMagazine as "One of the most exciting pure rock bands to come out of Yorkshire in the last decade. Without doubt. Insane talents".

Having recently relocated to Manchester, the band has been touring non-stop across the United Kingdom and show no signs of slowing down following their electrifying, high-octane performance at Wacken Open Air 2019! NAKED SIX's debut Album "The Lost Art of Conversation" takes you on a raw, authentic and invigorating ride, influenced by people, words, politics, nature, passion, pain, light and darkness. NAKED SIX are fresh, exciting, spiritually generous and in a state of perpetual psychic motion. Join them at the start of a journey which threatens to offer many, many fascinating destinations!

The Lost Art of Conversation will be available as a CD digipack and in digital formats. Pre-orders available from November 1st 2019.

Deitrick Haddon
TIME (Truth Is My Energy)

Haddon has delivered hit singles like "Be Like Jesus", "A Billion People", and "Glory". His latest single "Open Door Season" on the new album TIME doesn't disappoint. It immediately grabs the listener with the opening lyrics that say, "God has not given you a spirit of fear, but power and love and a sound mind...I declare ain't nothing held up it's open door season over your life...season of open doors, it's open door season...".

VULCANO

EYE IN HELL

NEW STUDIO ALBUM FROM ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL BANDS FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

In a time when new bands are born at every minute and meaningless albums are spit forth and back, the simple existence of an entity with the historical depth, aura and attitude of Vulcano is nothing short of amazing. The Brazilian black/thrash metal masters are now back to studio album titled "Eye In Hell", to be released worldwide by Mighty Music on the first quarter of 2020. "Eye In Hell" was produced by Zhema Rodero and Ivan Pelliciotti in O Beco studios, in Curitiba, Brazil, between April and August 2019 and has artwork drawn by Roberto Toderico (Paganizer, Pestilence, Sodom, Tygers Of Pan Tang).

"Vulcano has always been a DIY band in essence, since it's very first album", states Zhema. "But for the first time in our almost 39-year career, we signed a record deal with a label with name and focus on Metal. We're very proud to be now in a roster with renamed artists - some of them created in the same era we did - like Tygers of Pan Tang and Artillery", he continues. "This union gave us extra motivation and energy to keep going and I believe we still have a lot of albums and shows ahead".

CONNIE BLOOM

GAME! SET! BLOOM!

ELECTRIC BOYS FRONTMAN READY WITH A BRAND NEW SOLO ALBUM.

He's got an unmistakable and natural rock star swagger, yet at the same time he's a salt of the earth kind of guy. That's Conny Bloom, one of the most charismatic frontman in Swedish rock music. As a teenager Bloom, born as Ulf Conny Blomqvist in Stockholm 1964, learned his trade in bands such as Road Rats and Neon Rose but found success and fame in the late 80s as the centre of attention influential groove rock combo Electric Boys, with whom he got MTV intense play, booked regular spots in Billboard and reached #1 in the Swedish sales charts with the latest album "Ghost Ward Diaries". Conny was also catapulted to success in the 00s, when he played guitar for the Finish super-stars Hanoi Rocks in their latest three albums. However, as a solo artist he's doing something completely different.

On his two latest albums, he's singing in Swedish. Musically and lyrically you could put him in the tradition of, say, Pugh Rogefeldt and Stefan Sundström, storytelling folk rock with traces of psychedelia, funk and 60s pop.

As a songwriter, Conny Bloom moves between seriousness and humour. He has a unique way with words, he sings the way he talks and there's no reason to doubt him since that swagger of his means he always walk the talk.

Yumi Zouma

Truth or Consequences

Record Label: Polyvinyl Record Co.

STREET DATE

March 13, 2020

Truth or Consequences, Yumi Zouma's third album and first for Polyvinyl was produced by the band and mixed by engineer Jake Aron (Solange, Grizzly Bear, Snail Mail)

Christie Simpson's voice gives weight to whispers of impressionistic poetry, shielding hard truths with soft tones, while Burgess' vocals reveal a rarified dimension of raw and lucid romanticism, with lead single "Right Track / Wrong Man," in particular, exhibiting a Balearic tempo and bass-heavy energy that belies its underlying tension.

The first Yumi Zouma album to feature live drums, Truth or Consequences radiates a brazen spirit of perseverance. "I love the duality in a lot of disco songs, where they're incredibly upbeat, but there's real frustration in the lyrics – sort of like, 'Nothing's going the way I want, but I've got to deal with it any way I can,'" Simpson says.

King Solomon Hicks

Harlem

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: King Solomon Hicks
TITLE: Harlem
HOMETOWN: New York, NY
GENRE: Blues
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: No

King Solomon Hicks grew up in Harlem and was surrounded by a lot of great musicians. Those influences shine through on Hicks' debut album, 'Harlem', which is an 11-song salute to those roots mixed with Hicks' own distinctive style. Produced by multiple Grammy Award winner Kirk Yano (Miles Davis, Public Enemy, Mariah Carey), the album showcases Hicks as a writer, player and interpreter. Originals such as the roadhouse ready "421 South Main," the gospel shuffle of "Have Mercy on Me" and the aching instrumental "Riverside Drive" rub musical elbows with staples such as "Everyday I Have the Blues" and "It's Alright," a Latin-tinged take on Blood, Sweat & Tears' "I Love You More Than You Will Ever Know," a funk-ed-up romp through Gary Wright's "Love is Alive" and a searing rendition of Sonny Boy Williamson's "Help me" that closes the album.

Hicks' masterful musicianship is at the forefront throughout 'Harlem'; blending reverent familiarity with vigorously fresh sounds. These songs are deeply rooted in the blues sound that was birthed decades before him, yet Hicks is able to find his own unique way of playing it. "I wanted to have a foot in the blues, like coming back home to mama," Hicks says of his first major recording. "But I didn't want it to be traditional. I wanted people to feel like they're in a juke joint, listening to what the blues sounds like in 2019, with my own spin on it." He continues, "This record has been a long time coming, and I'm really happy with the sound and the way everybody played. It's really special to be able to record these songs, and it was important for me to get 'em right." Adding, "This is a first impression," Hicks says of 'Harlem'. "I'm trying to get my roots planted with the blues. There's a lot I want to do, and I'm ready for the world to hear my music."

'Harlem' is available everywhere on March 13th, 2020 through Provoque Records.
