GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: Gary Moore
TITLE: How Blue Can You Get
HOMETOWN: Belfast, Northern Ireland
GENRE: Blues /Rock
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: No

BIO

Ground zero for the blues was the southern states of America where black musicians gave birth to a music that came to be synonymous with misery and pain. That was never the whole story though; the music also celebrated overcoming adversity, not playing by the rules and the power of love. For these reasons, the music has reached out across continents, transcending its cultural and social roots. The best of these players always knew that filling the air with torrents of notes is really not what it is all about. The deep and perhaps unreachable emotions are to be found in the space between the notes. Learning the blues is a lifetime activity; it takes time to traverse that landscape, to realise of all the modes of musical expression, none touches the heart and soul quite like the blues. Gary Moore knew this all too well; the examples on this record accord him a rightful place in the pantheon of timeless blues musicians.

Born in Belfast in 1952, Gary Moore was a guitar prodigy. He harnessed an instinctive and exceptional ear for music to relentless practice day in, day out, over weeks, months, and years. Gary was laser-focused on sheer hard work, obsessive dedication, and an unrelenting will to succeed. Through the 1980s, Gary Moore finally broke through with a solo career which earned him legions of fans across Europe and Japan. One album, Wild Frontier was an anthemic, crowd-pleasing homage to Gary's Celtic roots. Along with the hit single Out in the Fields from the Run for Cover album, Frontier was Gary's own commentary on the troubles of his home country, an Irish blues story of violence and tragedy. Gary was looking to revisit this rousing style when he died suddenly in February 2011.

This new album, 'How Blue Can You Get', is a collection of previously un-released songs from Gary's substantial body of outstanding work in his back catalogue. Hopefully current and future generations of music fans can discover and re-discover Gary Moore, revelling in the artistry of not just a great guitarist, but a supremely talented musician. Back to the future with Gary Moore.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Moore shared the stage with blues and rock legends B.B. King, Ginger Baker, Albert Collins, George Harrison John Mayall, Jack Bruce, and Greg Lake.

Julia stone
sixty summers

With Julia Stone's new record comes the grit and glitter of the city, and all its attendant joys and dangers, romances and risks. No longer content to merely explore the wildernesses of folk and indie-rock, Sixty Summers, Stone's third solo outing, finds the celebrated songwriter diving head first into the cosmopolitan, hedonistic world of late-night, moonlit pop. Dirt under foot is replaced with wet pavement and sticky dancefloors; blue skies are traded for red lights and red lips. A dazzling reintroduction to the beloved Stone, Sixty Summers presents that rarest of transformations: not a metamorphosis or cheap makeover, but a shedding of skin, a revealing. It is Stone at her truest, brightest self, a powerful and revered icon finally painting herself with her own brush and her own palette.

The scope of Sixty Summers is dizzyingly vast; miles away from Stone's past work, it is a world unto itself, a surreal and breathtaking new landscape. Where Stone's previous solo records, 2010's 'The Memory Machine' and 2014's 'By The Horns,' found her grappling with the natural darkness that comes with loving too much, Sixty Summers finds Stone claiming every part of herself: fire, fury, love, lust, longing.

DESCRIPTION:

Los Angeles, CA, USA's TETRARCH – metal's hottest new rising stars – have turned heads with their ability to successfully blend the addictive stylings of favorite modern metal pillars while maintaining a fresh sound that breaks new ground. Since bursting onto the scene with their breakout independent debut Freak in 2017, the band has garnered remarkable early acclaim from notable press, radio, industry and fellow artists alike at an impressive rate unmatched by any other new band. In 2021, they will release their sophomore full-length, Unstable – a 10-track barnburner that confirms the band's icon status. The album wastes no time igniting with the unforgettable, punching first single "I'm Not Right" (currently boasting over 1 million views on YouTube and counting, plus huge fan buzz) – a prime example of TETRARCH's fresh sound. The anthem's straight earworm hook, boosted by frontman Josh Fore's raw emotion and dynamic vocal style, pays homage to the genre's greats while lifted by the eerie leads of trailblazing lead guitarist Diamond Rowe. Radio-ready, lyrically-relevant tracks like anti-bullying anthem for the ages, "Sick Of You", and ode to relationships-gone-bad, "You Never Listen", showcase TETRARCH's hefty progressions and unforgettable choruses. Unstable's heaviest offerings prove the band's dynamic assault of varying heavy styles, most notably on assertive breakneck burner "Negative Noise" – a track that could turn the heads of metal's greatest riff writers with Rowe's mighty axe attack – and on the melodically chilling "Take A Look Inside", highlighting the powerful rhythm section of bassist Ryan Lerner and drummer Ruben Limas. The album even ventures to explore slower introspective sides of the band on the standout, melodic "Addicted" and closer track "Trust Me", which trickles in supernatural atmosphere. Delivering heavy hit after hit, Unstable is 10 tracks of pure potency and undeniable talent. Look no further, TETRARCH is the band to watch.

Lennon-McCartney Icons

BIO

Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis Jr. are founding members and lead singers of the original 5th Dimension. Marilyn & Billy left the group and won a Grammy award, which is among their collection of seven Grammy wins, with an even greater number of nominations. Billy Davis, Jr. has continued to attract attention as a soloist and a duo partner with his wife, Marilyn McCoo. The first Black married stars of a musical variety television program, The Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis, Jr. Show, in 1977, the icons are now recognized as the First Couple of Pop & Soul, with more hours and years of broadcast television than any other married African-American duo. The couple starred in a series of successful musical productions including the Duke Ellington tribute, Hit Me With A Hot Notes, and It Takes Two, a musical variety tribute to legendary soul duos of the '60s, '70s, and '80s. Currently, they headline as the stars of Up, Up & Away! a musical fable, based on their lives and incorporating all of their classic music. Both starred in live musical theatre, Billy Davis Jr. as James "Thunder" Early in Dream Girls and Marilyn McCoo as the mysterious Julie on Broadway in Showboat. Marilyn hosted television's Solid Gold for many years, with Billy as a regular guest star. Marilyn & Billy have each recorded heralded Gospel albums - Billy's Let Me Have This Dream with Rev. James Cleveland and Marilyn's The Me Nobody Knows. Although Marilyn & Billy tour regularly, BLACKBIRD: LENNON-MCCARTNEY ICONS is their first major studio album in three decades, and it is inspired by the turbulent and tragic experiences of lives lost in the ongoing struggle for human rights and equality.

DESCRIPTION:

Since their formation in 2004, British thrash-revivalists EVILE have been turning heads and taking names, delivering four pure thrash offerings blended with an uncompromising death metal assault. Their upcoming fifth studio album, Hell Unleashed, is the long-awaited successor to their 2013 release, Skull, and features the new exciting line-up formation of the talented OI Drake on vocals/guitars and new member Adam Smith of RipTide as rhythm guitarist. The newly staffed four-piece strikes again on nine explosive tracks, leaving nothing but a hammering world of sound taken apart by thrash. Album opener "Paralysed" catches with endangering guitar lines, quickly building up to a furious thrash manifesto and attacking the eardrum at breakneck speed. "Gore" delivers with merciless velocity and explosive backing vocals from American actor, musician and comedian Brian Posehn, and highlights the band's irrepressible, speeding energy. With double the amount of power, twice the speed, untamed brute and blazing riffs, the title track "Hell Unleashed" propels old and new fans to the status of eternal mayhem and huge thrash euphoria. "The Thing (1982)" marks another high point of the upcoming full-length: The track strongly represents one of the album's most influential leverages, the cinematic impact on their songwriting in symbiosis with their outstanding competences of kicking in doors with thundering drums. In 41 minutes, Hell Unleashed unchains the unbridled forces of hell, catches some rousing demons of the past and provides classical thrash metal with a contemporary yet hard-edged touch. EVILE are back – straight from the abyss!

Telex This Is Telex

Street Date: 4/30/21

Mute are excited to announce the release of Telex's forthcoming newly remastered compilation 'This Is Telex' on CD and digital formats, out April 30th. The limited edition double vinyl (Disc 1 on shrimp pink vinyl, Disc 2 on fern green vinyl) will follow on May 14.

Telex were formed in 1978 in Brussels, just one of a handful of synthpop pioneers at a time when electronic pop was regarded as novelty, with suspicion, as a harbinger for future dystopia and alienation. Telex were concerned about the consequences of new technology for human communication, a theme explored on tracks like 'Something To Say', while their name is taken, ironically, from a now obsolete piece of communications technology, adding a retrofuturist air to their legend. However, it was on their cover versions that they deliberately played up the disparity between the ice-cool electronic approach and the sweaty, fleshy, frenetic passion of pop.

This Is Telex is a brand new compilation collecting 14 tracks from the innovative Belgium trio, covering their career from formation in 1978 up to the final album in 2006. It includes the hit single 'Moskow Disko' as well as their Eurovision Song Contest entry, aptly called 'Euro-Vision'. There are also two wonderful and previously unreleased tracks unearthed from the Telex archive, a cover of The Beatles' "Dear Prudence" and a reinterpretation of a Sonny & Cher track called 'The Beat Goes On/Off'.

THE DANCE BETWEEN EXTREMES

EGO KILL TALENT

Without borders, we access the ultimate unity. This holds true for Ego Kill Talent. The São Paulo, Brazil quintet—Jonathan Dörr [vocals], Jean Dolabella [drums, guitar], Raphael Miranda [drums, bass], Niper Boaventura [guitar, bass], and Theo Van Der Loo [bass, guitar]—unite heavy music integrity and pop ambition, universal appeal and South American flavor, and tight songcraft and instrumental fluidity. Streamed over 20 million times as of 2020, awarded a coveted 5K! rating by international tastemaker KERRANG!, and handpicked as an opener for Foo Fighters, the band achieve a seamless balance on their second full-length forthcoming full length release.

"We like metal and pop," explains Van Der Loo. "We exist in both worlds, so we went further into these halves on the album. Some songs are heavier. Then, there are moments where the melodies and harmonies just make us cry. As a creature, the band has more of a personality. We went pretty deep and shared a lot of emotion: some good and some bad. We're being as true as possible to expose and connect to people through truth."

Ego Kill Talent's pursuit of truth dates back to their formation in 2014. A year later, they caught local radio play for the debut single "Sublimated" and landed on the bill for Lollapalooza Brazil. The track ignited streaming platforms worldwide and held a spot in the Top 5 of Spotify's Viral Top 50 in the UK, France, and Portugal as well as in Brazil. Their self-titled 2017 full-length debut made waves around the globe as they supported System of a Down, Shinedown and Within Temptation in Europe and graced the stages of Download Paris (which scored the perfect KERRANG! review), Rock in Rio, Santiago Gets Louder, Rock Am Ring, Rock Im Park, Graspop Metal Meeting, Download Madrid, Nova Rock, and more. In 2018 Foo Fighters fan club suggested to management that EKT should support their Brazilian tour. The band ended up performing with the rock icons and Queens of the Stone Age at five stadium shows across Brazil. During the tour the boys gave frontman Dave Grohl a gift with a letter to thank the Fools for having them on tour. "Dave hugged us and was like, 'We're drinking together tonight'," they recall. "It was amazing." Lead singer, Jonathan Dörr remembers, "It was truly inspiring. A couple months after the tour, we were invited by their team to record our next album at Studio 606."

Taking them up on the invitation, Ego Kill Talent tracked at this hallowed Los Angeles spot alongside producer Steve Evetts [Architects, Dillinger Escape Plan, The Used] throughout 2019. Musically and lyrically, it embodied the title.

"Life is the dance between extremes," Van Der Loo continues. "You need to learn how to dance amidst happiness and sadness, winning and losing, and the right and the left. You find peace when you understand you're destined to be in the middle."

TOUCH

TOMORROW NEVER COMES

For fans of Moody Blues, Deep Purple, Drive She Said and Melodic Rock!

TOUCH is an American band from New York City formed in 1978 with Mark Mangold (keyboards and vocals), Glenn Kithcart (drums), Craig Brooks (guitars and vocals) and Doug Howard (bass and vocals).

Touch's first album was released on Atco Records and their first singles, "Don't You Know What Love Is" and "When The Spirit Moves You" charted on the Billboard Hot 100. "Don't You Know What Love Is" was played heavily on AOR stations in the USA at the end of the 1970s and early '80's, and also did well on the Melody Maker chart in Great Britain.

Touch was the first band to play at the inaugural Monsters of Rock Festival at Castle Donington in 1980 along with Rainbow, Scorpions and Judas Priest. A live version of "Don't You Know What Love Is" appeared on the compilation LP Monsters of Rock, documenting the performances at the festival.

Known for their memorable and diverse songs, stellar musicianship, lush vocal harmonies and dynamic stage performance, Touch is invariably on the list of TOP AOR Bands and their album is considered by many to be among the best AOR Melodic Rock albums of all time.

The original band have now reformed after almost 40 years to create the new album "Tomorrow Never Comes", which is already being hailed as their best work to date.

TOMORROW NEVER COMES

Will Sellenraad

BALANCE

For fans of Peter Bernstein, Pat Metheny and Jazz!

Will Sellenraad has earned a growing reputation of being at the forefront of creative musicians working in New York City. Known for his brilliant improvisations and his compelling, melodic compositions, Sellenraad is a mainstay on the NYC scene, and beyond, appearing at storied jazz venues such as The 55 Bar, Smalls, Mezzrow, The Blue Note, Birdland, The Iridium, the former Sweet Basil and many others.

After roughly three years of playing this music with these musicians in various settings, Willem headed back to the recording studio to record his much anticipated third album. Featuring renowned saxophonist Abraham Burton, internationally acclaimed bassist Kiyoshi Kitagawa and legendary drummer Victor Lewis.

Each song of the all original set tailored for these respected musicians. Far from a thrown together project, this band had been trying to schedule this recording for too long. With 10 songs recorded in one day, everything was done after two takes. We hope you enjoy it. Turn it up.

“Sellenraad distances himself from any retro crowd as he incorporates modern harmony into his blues base. His third album, Balance, conveys the flavor of soul jazz without the presence of an organ”

Downbeat

The six-stringer has a classic tone reminiscent of Wes Montgomery and Grant Green, and it serves him well on this set of mostly his own compositions.

MANDY BARNETT

Every Star Above

Featuring Songbook classics such as For All We Know, The End of a Love Affair, I'm a Fool to Want You and But Beautiful, all originally recorded by such pop/jazz icons as Sinatra, Crosby, Margaret Whiting, and Dinah Washington, Every Star Above showcases the true range and depth of Barnett's sultry, silky voice. She delves into the songs with a keen interpretive sense, striking their emotional cores and rendering powerhouse performances through what the LA Times calls her "pipes of steel." As one record label executive proclaims, "Mandy Barnett is a song's best friend."

Called the "Nashville Sound Chanteuse" (Music Row), Barnett has built a reputation for her commanding voice and unwavering devotion to classic country, R&B, and popular standards and the pioneers who created this enduring music. Barnett herself became part of music history in 2020 when a Tennessee Music Pathways historical marker was erected in her East Tennessee hometown, joining a handful of artists such as Taylor Swift and Johnny Cash so honored for their contributions in making Tennessee the "Soundtrack of America."

Barnett's music has been featured in many major film and television soundtracks, including projects starring Clint Eastwood, Tommy Lee Jones, Martin Sheen, Reese Witherspoon, Matthew Broderick, Sigourney Weaver, Ellen Burstyn, Bill Paxton, and SpongeBob SquarePants. Besides soundtrack work, Barnett often contributes tracks to multi-artist compilation albums of all genres including the forthcoming Gershwin collection from Great American Songbook Ambassador, Michael Feinstein.

She has appeared on "The Tonight Show," "The Late Show," "CBS Sunday Morning," PBS's "Sessions at West 54th," PBS's "Bluegrass Underground," and numerous other programs. A frequent guest at the Grand Ole Opry, Barnett has performed at some of the most esteemed music venues in the U.S. including the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, The Troubadour in Los Angeles, and The Bottom Line in New York City, as well as touring internationally in Ireland, Japan, Sweden, and Switzerland.

DESCRIPTION:

Canadian rock/metal crossover quartet SUMO CYCO transcend into an explosive new era with their third full-length album and Napalm Records debut, Initiation – inviting a mass of new fans into their warped, dystopian-like world of “Cyclo City”! Interlaced with infectious heavy metal grooves, pop-perfected hooks, electronic undertones and a dose of punk flavor, Initiation breaks all the rules while delivering a cohesive yet purely unbridled sonic adventure. As with its predecessors Lost In Cyclo City (2014), Opus Mar (2017) and countless singles, Initiation is based in the imaginative conceptual location of “Cyclo City”, and builds upon the theme, its characters, and more specifically, its faction-like “gangs”. But unlike most concept albums, the lyrical content is inspired by the band’s real-time environment – featuring timely, personal themes of love, sacrifice, anxiety, empowerment and more that all listeners can relate to. At the album’s start, the Hamilton, Ontario natives light a spark with the seductively hooked track “Love You Wrong”, connecting like a punch and setting the stage for the vigor to come. The blitz continues with standouts like lethal room-mover “Bystander” and electronic-infused, in-your-face rock anthem “Vertigo” – the latter standing tall with its airtight, gritty pop sensibility and featuring the production mastery of Juno Award-winning producer Kane Churko (Ozzy Osbourne, In This Moment, Papa Roach). Swiftly followed by erratic, addictive nod-to-the-times “Bad News” and heavy, creeping success “No Surrender”, Initiation proves not even halfway through that the band’s songwriting ability and the commanding performance prowess of Juno Award nominee and former pop star-turned-rock frontwoman Skye “Sever” Sweetnam, guitarist Matt “MD13” Drake, bassist Oscar Anesetti and drummer Matt „Trozzi” blend a recipe for greatness. The album continues winding through a mastery of heavy-meets-pop execution before ending with the full-throttle, sugar n’ salt packed album closer “This Dance Is Doomed” (while various editions cap off with sultry, confident “Awakened”). By the end of Initiation, listeners will wonder just what exactly SUMO CYCO can’t do, proving them as a band on the rise, and that unconventionality always stands out from the pack.

DESCRIPTION:

Finally, there's a cvlt worth joining! It often seems modern rock music has lost its sense of palpable danger and mystique, but Finnish occult murder pop innovators CVLT OV THE SVN mark its return in full force with their grim, addictive first full length, We Are The Dragon (May 7th via Napalm Records). Each of the album's twelve tracks cut through the noise of society like a razorblade, leaving a long-lasting impression on the listener that'll have them clamoring for more! Conceptually conveying a variety of extreme emotions, CVLT OV THE SVN's debut embodies a reverberating sense of eeriness, danger and fear, enriched with a pinch of gothic romanticism and pitch-black seduction. With the unveiling of previously-released goth-boppers like "Twilight", "The Pit", "Whore Of Babylon" and "Luna In The Sky Forever", CVLT OV THE SVN have already proven how to successfully merge seething heaviness and sweet pop melodies, offering a glimpse of what lies ahead. Now, the mysterious creative visionary behind the band, who actually started out as a black metal drummer, finally sets free his casket full of morbid horror theatrics. Inspired by movies like The Exorcist and the all devouring darkness itself, he also draws inspiration not only from the heavy rock genre and greats like Type O Negative, Marilyn Manson and Turbonegro, but calls on nostalgic influences of mainstream artists like Roxette as well. Kicking off with one of the very first songs written for CVLT OV THE SVN, the exceptionally powerful "We Are The Dragon", the album's ritualistic synthesis of striking artistry and wickedness is immediately apparent. The sinfulness continues to bloom throughout the album – especially on standout tracks like "My Venom", "Hellbound" and "Dancing With The Devil" – all driving the listener into a deep sense of escapism so sorely needed at uncertain times like these. CVLT OV THE SVN invades your blackened soul with We Are The Dragon – join the cvlt!

A Certain Ratio

ACR:EPA

Street Date: 5/7/21

Mute are delighted to announce the release of A Certain Ratio's ACR:EPA, out May 7th on limited edition Valentine Red vinyl and digital formats.

ACR:EPA is the first in a trilogy of EPs by A Certain Ratio. EPA is dedicated to close collaborator Denise Johnson and features the band's final recordings with her. With their remaining recording time from the ACR Loco sessions, the band spent a day jamming in the studio with no fixed agenda. The result is something very special.

This EP will be followed by ACR:EPC and ACR:EPR and comes after the band's highly acclaimed album ACR Loco and ahead of a nationwide tour.

A Certain Ratio was one of the first groups to sign to the legendary Factory Records in Manchester. Whilst many people credit New Order and The Happy Mondays as the groups who brought dance music into the sound of Manchester, it is in fact A Certain Ratio who were there in the beginning. Formed in 1978, the initial line-up comprised Simon Topping (vocals), Martin Moscrop (guitar and trumpet), Peter Terrell (tape loops) and Jeremy Kerr (bass). Their debut seven-inch "All Night Party" was Factory Records' fifth release. Soon after this Donald Johnson joined on drums.

This Valentine Red pressing is limited to 2,000 copies worldwide and includes extensive sleeve notes and a high definition audio download code.

HENDRIK WEBER

*Listening is vibrating and vibrating is emitting
Music as a symbol of nature*

429 Hertz – Formen von Stille (429 Hertz—Forms of Silence)

is the first time that Pantha Du Prince is releasing an album under his given name, Hendrik Weber.

And here, the music that has been developed from an entire body of work sounds like it has been reduced to its essence. A substance, an elixir, a remedy—that's slowly but constantly moving forward.

After going all the way with sound and light, and pushing club spaces to their limits for more than a decade as Pantha Du Prince, Weber's music is now focused on resiliency within the space of the body.

The music wants nothing more than to calm and heal, especially in the midst of the pandemic.

This album, Hendrik Weber's most cryptic music to date, was created with acoustic instruments that were played live. The results are light patterns of frequencies and specters. A flowing interplay of overtones and a sweeping undertone at a rate of 429 Hertz. Paradoxical syntheses of fantasy and rationality provoke a persistent crackling between the music and ego. Pantha Du Prince had already been more deeply invested than others in the conviction that nature is a musician that can listen and take possession of itself, and now human and nature share the roles of transmitter and receiver on the album of Hendrik Weber.
