AFI

SUMMARY

American rock band, AFI formed 29 years ago in Ukiah, California. The band has released ten studio albums, ten EPs and one live album totaling in over 400 million streams in the US alone. They've had 6 of their albums hit the Billboard 200, all charting at number 24 or higher. The band broke into the mainstream with their sixth studio album, Sing The Sorrow, which peaked at number 5 on the Billboard 200 and remained on the chart for 51 weeks. The album was their first of 2 to be certified Platinum by the RIAA and became AFI's best-selling release to date. AFI continues to be a powerhouse in the rock community and their highly-anticipated upcoming album, 'Bodies' is sure to live up to its expectations.

HIGHLIGHTS

- "(AFI is) blossoming into one of the most distinct and recognizable sounds today." - SPIN MAGAZINE
- "AFI's first new music since 2018's The Missing Man EP: the very awesome Twisted Tongues and Escape From Los Angeles." - KERRANG
- "AFI remains as fired up now as they were 25 years ago." - AV CLUB
- "a dynamic record that should please both old and new fans of the band." - ABC NEWS
- Named 'AFI (The Blood Album)' Pick of the Week in People Magazine

ALESSANDRO CORTINI

SCURO CHIARO

Street Date: 6/11/21

Mute are delighted to announce the release of Alessandro Cortini's new album SCURO CHIARO on limited edition clear vinyl, CD and digital formats, out June 11. Alessandro Cortini is an Italian multi-instrumentalist, analog synth aficionado, and a member of Nine Inch Nails.

SCURO CHIARO, which translates as 'dark light' in Italian, shares musical themes with Cortini's highly acclaimed previous solo LP, VOLUME MASSIMO. The artwork, shot by Emilie Elizabeth, is an extension of the thematic bridge between the two works. The album's title, SCURO CHIARO, plays on the term for heavily contrasting light and shadow in painting and other visual arts.

SCURO CHIARO follows the 2020 release of Illusion Of Time, Cortini's collaborative full-length with UK techno specialist and Mute label-mate Daniel Avery. Pitchfork described the album as "expansive in scope, charmingly rough around the edges, and brimming with possibility...a beautiful record that takes wonder as its defining characteristic."

Cortini recently teamed up with the electronic musical instrument manufacturer Make Noise to create the Strega ('witch' in Italian), an experimental new synthesizer inspired by the concepts of the seen and unseen, and the alchemy of sound.

In 2020, Alessandro Cortini was inducted into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame as the keyboard player and bass guitarist of Nine Inch Nails.

THE REUNION ALBUMS: 2007 - 2012 5CD SET

Release Date: 6/11/21

ASIA are a multi-platinum selling, global superstar English rock band formed in London in 1981 and celebrating their 40th anniversary this year. Their self-titled debut album, released in 1982, remains their most successful, reaching number one in several countries. The lead single from the album, "Heat Of The Moment," a huge soft-rock anthem with ongoing extensive worldwide airplay, is their top charting and best-known song. That single reached the top 40 in over a dozen markets, peaking in the U.S. at #4 on the Billboard Hot 100 and #1 on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart.

This 5CD deluxe clamshell box set features THE REUNION ALBUMS from the 2006 reformed classic line-up of lead vocalist / bassist John Wetton of King Crimson, guitarist Steve Howe of Yes, keyboardist Geoff Downes of Yes, and drummer Carl Palmer from Emerson, Lake & Palmer. Featuring Fantasia, a live show from their 2007 World Tour (containing "Heat Of The Moment" live), and three subsequent studio albums: Phoenix (2008), Omega (2010) and XXX (2012) across 5CDs. The package was designed by Roger Dean, who produced all the original albums covers. The box cover image is previously unused as a cover, and the Fantasia cover is an updated design by Roger. Several of these albums have never been reissued.

The band, fully involved with this release, are still going strong and were regularly touring the world until lockdown, after which they will resume. ASIA have a very large, active fanbase and we have full access to their socials, which will be revamped, for promoting this release. Promotion will be band supported.

The Chemical Wedding

(2LP)

Release Date: 6/11/21

LIMITED EDITION
1,000 Units for North America

THE CHEMICAL WEDDING was the fifth solo album by English heavy metal singer BRUCE DICKINSON, originally released on September 15, 1998. The record draws inspiration from the works of William Blake, featuring sung and spoken excerpts of his prophetic works and poetry (notably 'And did those feet in ancient time' on the track "Jerusalem"), and with cover art from his painting "The Ghost of a Flea." As with the previous Dickinson albums, it features IRON MAIDEN guitarist ADRIAN SMITH, then also a member of Dickinson's solo outfit.

DESCRIPTION:

Just signed with Napalm Records, CRYPTA offer a raging sonic monster in a class of its own: the newly staffed Brazilian/Dutch death metal unit is set to drop jaws with their long awaited debut offering - Echoes of the Soul. Formed in June 2019, the four-piece line up consists of vocalist and bassist Fernanda Lira and Luana Dametto on drums, both former members thrash metal frontrunners NERVOSA, plus supremely talented guitarists Sonia Anubis (Cobra Spell, Ex-Burning Witches) and Tainá Bergamaschi (Ex-Hagbard). These four powerful women enforce a heightened level of potency and experience from their successful past and current projects, enhancing influences from both classic and modern death metal genres, plus significant extreme and black metal elements, to create a sound of their own. Atmospherically dark and threatening, the 55-second intro "Awakening" prepares the listener for the oncoming ferocity of Echoes of the Soul, dispensing murky, fiery fuel into the death metal machine. Their significant sonic texture derived from various death metal sub-genres and traces of classic thrash becomes instantly evident as the album begins, reflective of the entirely vicious, infernal aura the 10-track debut is about to unleash. CRYPTA unbridle high-powered sonic demons and nourish cumulative, explosive energy with raging guitar riffs, Fernanda Lira's unmistakable vocal color and Dametto's menacing drums. Tracks like "Starvation", "Kali" and "Blood Stained Heritage" incite an uncontrollable storm of pure rage and belligerence, while offerings like "Under The Black Wings" and "Dark Night Of the Soul" deliver a message of pure hardness in perilous atmosphere. "Death Arcana" provides its listener further insight into CRYPTA's sonic mastery and captivates with sprawling solos reminiscent of earlier times, yet spiced with a modern twist. Album closer "From The Ashes" once again showcases the full extent of the bands striking interplay: Lira's forceful vocals, Anubis and Bergamaschi's bold axe attacks and Dametto's prominent sophisticated drumming summon the phoenix to rise from the ashes - with the last crackle of this debut full-length conjuring screams for more. Echoes of the Soul was recorded in January 2021 at the Family Mob Studio (Brazil), mixed by Arthur Rizk (Code Orange, Powertrip etc.) and mastered by the famed Jens Bogren (Opeth, Dimmu Borgir, Sepultura etc.). The cover artwork was created by Wes Benscoter, who is internationally famous for his stunning covers for bands such as Slayer, Kreator, Black Sabbath and many more!

DESCRIPTION:

In the spirit of old school power metal, Germany's up-and-comers HAMMER KING have gathered to set fire on their new album Hammer King (out June 11 via Napalm Records)! Ever since HAMMER KING burst onto the scene in 2015, they have proven themselves as an unstoppable force. Hand-picked by thy majesty, the Hammer King himself, the band consists of former ROSS THE BOSS vocalist Titan Fox V and former SALTATIO MORTIS drummer Dolph A. Macallan, alongside Gladius Thundersword on bass and Kleveland's most timeless lead guitarist: Gino Wilde. HAMMER KING keeps it heavy with speedy riffs, energetic grooves and fist-pumping choruses, devoting their existence to the one and only myth of the godly Hammer King! The new self-titled album starts off with blasting drums and brisk guitars on "Awaken the Thunder", with frontman and guitarist Titan Fox V showing off his incredible vocal range, whereas tracks like "Atlantis" prove HAMMER KING's ability to write catchy and memorable choruses. Hammer King tells the lore of the Hammer King himself, a wrathful and mighty war god, who is praised in tracks like anthemic "Baptized by the Hammer", energetic and double-bass driven "In the Name of the Hammer" and the hard-hitting "Hammerschlag" featuring the legendary Gerre from TANKARD, Isaac from EPICA and the almighty The Crusader (WARKINGS). Hammer King will be available as a deluxe box edition including, as well as on gatefold vinyl amongst others. Kneel before the king of kings, the HAMMER KING!

Dan DeChellis

BREATHE IN

For fans of Brad Mehldau, Bobo Stenson, George Winston and Jazz!

A genre-defying performer, dedicated educator, and omnivorous listener, Dan DeChellis has lived his musical vision for over 40 years, leveraging strict classical training into deep-dive explorations of modern classical improvisation, free improvisation, jazz, rock, and ambient music.

After nearly posting a solo piano improvisation every day on his Youtube channel for the first 6 months of the lockdown, Dan decided it was time for another proper solo record. His first was released 25 years ago on the Sachimay Records label. Many things have changed since then.

Dan has been a professor at Moravian College in Bethlehem, PA for the past 16 years where he directs the Moravian Improvised Music Ensemble and teaches a required class on Improvisation. "Breathe In" was recorded all in one sitting and released in the order recorded.

Beginning piano studies at age 7, Dan earned bachelors and masters degrees in piano performance from Appalachian State University and Duquesne University, then spent a year studying improvisation with Paul Bley and Ran Blake at the New England Conservatory of Music (NEC). In Boston and later New York, he released more than a half-dozen solo and group recordings on his own Sachimay Records label; co-founded Brooklyn's Improved and Otherwise Festival; performed at venues including the Knitting Factory, Tonic, CBGB's, and Sculler's Jazz Club; and collaborated with musicians including drummers Tatsuya Nakatani and Gerry Hemingway, saxophonists Bhob Rainey and Jack Wright, bassists Gene Perla and Reuben Radding, guitarists Philip Tomasic and Chris Forsyth, and the trio Chainworks with electronics player Brian Moran and percussionist Matt Hannafin.

Amy Helm

WHAT THE FLOOD LEAVES BEHIND

RELEASE DATE JUNE 18, 2021

Singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Amy Helm's third album, What The Flood Leaves Behind, is her most autobiographical yet, both in content and creation. Due out June 18th via Renew Records/BMG, these 10 songs represent a gathering of ideas and experiences, friends and collaborators. Yet, the album also marks a landing—a pause for the traveling musician and mother of two young boys who was seeking clarity in her calling and career.

After making multiple albums and performing in far-flung places, Helm returned home to Woodstock's Levon Helm Studios just before the pandemic to record What The Flood Leaves Behind and reclaim a sense of self.

An impressive group of friends and collaborators joins Helm on What The Flood Leaves Behind. With musical polyglot Josh Kaufman (whose credits range from Taylor Swift's Folklore to the Grammy-nominated Bonny Light Horseman and Bob Weir) producing and contributing on piano, guitar, and mandolin, the record brings Helm's powerful, emotive vocals to the forefront of the album.

The songs themselves reflect Helm's inner strength and personal growth. "Breathing," the first single, sets the tone as a soulful statement of survival. "Are We Running Out of Love," a freak-folk drone in the hands of Swedish guitarist and songwriter Daniel Norgren, becomes an acoustic, urgent plea.

Throughout the record, Helm sings stories of life's relentlessness. But like she extrapolates from "Verse 23," the most productive, and often the most healing response, is to create. As a result, What The Flood Leaves Behind serves as a defiant form of self-expression, as Helm steps fully into her own light.

SALES & MARKETING

- Amy Helm's What The Flood Leaves Behind is her third solo album following 2018's This Too Shall Light (produced by Joe Henry) and 2015's Didn't It Rain as well as several critically acclaimed full-lengths with her band Ollabelle
- What The Flood Leaves Behind is her first album with producer Josh Kaufman, known for Hiss Golden Messenger, Hold Steady, Josh Ritter, Bonny Light Horseman and more
- Amy Helm, the daughter of American roots legend and founding member of The Band, Levon Helm, spent time between her own albums recording with her father and touring the country and world with him and his band
- Lead single "Breathing" will be worked with a national AAA radio campaign and album campaign will include national press, NPR, playlisting, and International push
- In addition to three other singles leading into album, video content will include produced live videos shot at Amy's home studio, EPK, and additional acoustic videos

QUOTES

- "Breathing...part urgent plea, part mysterious flirtation carried by Helm's soulful voice and the spacious production from Josh Kaufman." — Rolling Stone
- "Amy Helm Serves Up Gorgeous Harmonies" — Billboard
- "Helm delivers...totally immersed in the moment yet able to reach out and share, taking you along for the ride of your life." — No Depression
- "Vibrant spirituality that aims straight at your heart...introspective, reflective, and beautifully heartfelt...terrific." — American Songwriter

THE TROJAN STORY

Various Artists

Release Date: 6/18/2021

OVERVIEW:

One of the most significant collections in Trojan's immense catalogue, the THE TROJAN STORY album dramatically changed the perception of Jamaican music among the general British public outside of the country's Afro-Caribbean population.

Prior to its release in 1971 there had never been an attempt to present a comprehensive anthology of the island's musical development, with vintage ska, rock steady and reggae widely regarded as obsolete and of precious little merit. The treble disc set, which became an instant best-seller, had been the brainchild of Trojan's label manager and Black Music fan, Rob Bell, who, assisted by Trojan stalwarts, Dandy, Webster Shrowder and Joe Sinclair, produced arguably the most significant Jamaican music retrospectives of all time.

Now, 50 years following its original release, this hugely influential album has been revisited by Bell, along with reggae musician, Rusty Zinn, who have succeeded in improving what was already an almost perfect collection. Presented in the original eye-catching artwork, the set is further enhanced by a highly illustrated 50-page booklet in which Bell relates the stories behind the release and the 50 tracks featured on the compilation.

TOMAS NORDMARK EXIT GHOSTS

Tomas Nordmark's music operates on multiple, equally thrilling planes. Having cultivated a deep appreciation for conceptual art and the phase-shifting minimalism pioneered by the downtown avant-garde community of NYC in the '60s, Nordmark set out to blend that with his pop-oriented upbringing and unique perspective on electronic music. The Swedish-born, London-based composer's new album pulses with an unrelenting energy, waving and cresting around ambient tension and gorgeously realized melodies.

Exit Ghosts is partly influenced by the history of film scores and the aesthetics carried by that tradition. As an instrumental album, Nordmark is tasked with conjuring emotions without words, and the way he utilizes specific cues mirrors the process of film scores, in addition to the work of seminal composers such as Tim Hecker, Arthur Russell, and Jóhann Jóhannsson.

Previous and upcoming support from
