BIO

The two-time Rock & Roll Hall of Fame inductee is experiencing an unprecedented surge not only in prolificacy, but in creativity. DAVID CROSBY returns this summer with incredible new album titled FOR FREE out 7/23/21. On 5/20 we will announce the new record and release its first single "RIVER RISE" Feat MICHAEL MCDONALD.

In Crosby's unparalleled six-decade career, the native Californian has created songs that resonate as indelible cultural touchstones for more than three generations, not only as a solo artist, but as a founding member of THE BYRDS in the mid-60s, CROSBY, STILLS & NASH (recipients of the Grammy for best new artist in 1969), and CROSBY, STILLS, NASH & YOUNG. He's collaborated with dozens of artists, including Joni Mitchell, James Taylor, Pink Floyd's David Gilmour, Phil Collins, Elton John and Carole King.

The folk rock pioneer, who was inducted into the prestigious Songwriters Hall of Fame in 2009, has also served as our social conscience, not only eloquently writing about societal issues on such songs as "Almost Cut My Hair" and "Wooden Ships," but continuously donating concert proceeds to likeminded causes. His towering influence and brilliant ability to capture the spirit of our times in his music remains undiminished.

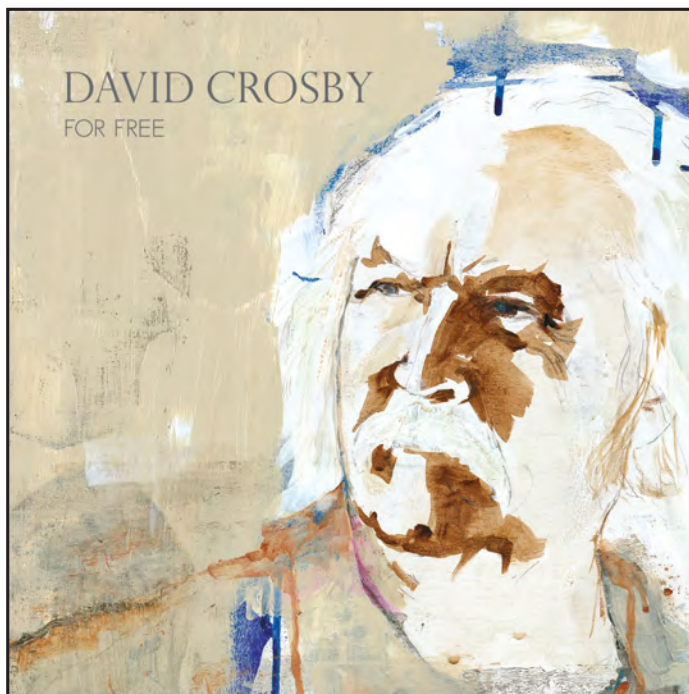

CROZ SAYS ABOUT THE TRACK "RIVER RISE"— I have been pestering my son James for years to write us a hit. I think he finally did it with "RIVER RISE." He had all but the second verse which our friend Michael McDonald came up with. Mike then did spectacular harmony vocals on it as well. I think these songs on the record prove that James has matured as writer and is at least as good as I am if not better.

Yngwie Malmsteen

PARABELLUM

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: Yngwie Malmsteen
TITLE: Parabellum
HOMETOWN: Stockholm, Sweden
GENRE: Rock / Metal
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: NO

BIO:

The name Yngwie Malmsteen has always stood for uncompromising excellence. In a career that now spans more than 40 years he has proven himself to be one of the greats. You can try to categorize him in any way you want, but the manner in which Malmsteen has continually developed his craft allows him to transcend any definition you attempt to impose. With a catalog of 21 solo studio albums, Malmsteen's artistry has always incorporated a healthy dose of virtuosity, but his talent goes well beyond a comprehensive control of the guitar. The man is a fine composer and, on recent releases, has also showcased a strong vocal presence. One aspect of his approach has always shone through, and that is an abidingly deep respect for the music he plays. Malmsteen has constantly done whatever it takes to bring out all of the colors, shades and hues embedded in each of his songs. This has never been more focused and informed than on his startling new album 'Parabellum', available July 23rd through Music Theories Recordings.

"I always try to push myself on every album I do," offers Malmsteen. "But what has helped this time is that I wasn't able to tour because of the pandemic. It meant I could take much longer in the studio, both to write and record. I haven't had the luxury of spending a lot of time working on new music for more than 20 years so to suddenly have no pressure at all on that front benefited my creative process greatly." This time around, there are a lot of progressive rock moments on 'Parabellum', which helps to take the music into new territory. "I love Emerson, Lake & Palmer," adds Malmsteen. "I had all their albums when I was growing up. I am still a huge fan of Keith Emerson. There are times on this record when you can definitely hear progressive influences."

'Parabellum' is the best example yet of Malmsteen's creative spark lighting a raging fire that is surely set to burn brightly for many years to come. Yet, despite the care and attention to detail which has gone into every aspect of the album, what truly makes it remarkable is the undoubted joy radiating through each of the songs here. "The bottom line for me is that the passion I feel for the music I make has to be obvious. I am the sort of person who lives in the moment. I wanted this album to have a joyous, spontaneous atmosphere, and I believe that's what we've created". This new album is a throwback in the best possible sense to a time when albums were to be treasured and cherished. It has depth, imagination and authority. "I hope people will put on this record at the start and listen right through to the end, from start to finish. I view this album as having a natural flow, and I want fans to experience the delight I had in making it."

Valtari is Sigur Rós' sixth studio album which was initially released in 2012 on XL Recordings. Sigur Rós started recording Valtari, described by the band as 'an avalanche in slow motion' in 2009 co-producing it themselves with Alex Somers in Reykjavik, Iceland. The title means 'roller' in English with Jónsi saying it kind of fits with the album because it's "big and slow and rolls over you slowly."

Completely out of print worldwide Valtari will now be re-released via the bands own label, Krunk.

YNGWIE MALMSTEEN BLUE LIGHTNING

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: Yngwie Malmsteen
TITLE: Blue Lightning
HOMETOWN: Stockholm, Sweden
GENRE: Rock / Blues
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: NO

BIO:

To call Yngwie Malmsteen a 'maestro' or 'virtuoso' is to state the obvious. However, such terms don't sufficiently explain his talent or impact. There are innumerable guitarists who have copied a small part of the vast musical spectrum that defines him, but nobody comes close to achieving what he has over his nearly four decade career. As a pioneer in the guitar realm, his style, creativity, and dynamic range solidifies him as one of the elite guitarists on the planet.

Returning with his new album, 'Blue Lightning', Malmsteen highlights his enduring dexterity and diversity while paying homage to his inspirations from the blues world. Featuring covers of classics such as 'Purple Haze' (Jimi Hendrix), 'Paint It Black' (Rolling Stones), 'Forever Man' (Eric Clapton), and 'While My Guitar Gently Weeps' (The Beatles), Malmsteen also includes four original tracks that clearly bring his love of blues to the forefront. "I grew up in a classically trained family, and people know me for playing a neo-classical style," says Malmsteen. "Once I got a guitar for my fifth birthday I tried emulating John Mayall & The Bluesbreakers. I've always had a strong interest in the blues, so creating an album in this style seemed so natural to me."

Anyone who is expecting this record to be an exact copy of the original material is in for a surprise, as Malmsteen challenged himself to add his own flare to the tracks. "I have never been someone who wants to sit down and mimic the way a song sounds on record," explains Malmsteen. "What I have done is added in my own vibe and personality to the songs I love. That way I feel I am being myself, yet also paying respect to my inspirations."

This re-issue of 'Blue Lightning' is available July 23rd through Mascot Records.

ORA THE MOLECULE

HUMAN SAFARI

Street Date: 7/23/21

Mute US are delighted to announce the signing of Ora the Molecule and the release of their debut album, Human Safari. Out July 23rd on limited edition double orange vinyl, cd and digital formats.

Ora the Molecule is a multinational avant-pop trio made up Norwegian singer and band leader Nora Schjelderup, London-based drummer Sju Smatanova, and German synth player Jan Blumentrath. Together, they create an unexpected sound combining timeless nostalgia, smooth pop, and retro electronica.

Ora the Molecule are united by a mutual love of dance music, all three of them DJing italo, electronica and techno. These electronic sounds are blended with the 80's influences of Kraftwerk and Suzanne Vega.

The lead single "Creator" is a jubilant exaltation of life featuring a triumphant chorus with a bright marimba motif. It's a new sound in the pop music landscape featuring emotional Calypso-tinged melodies and dance oriented beats.

Prior to signing with Mute, Ora the Molecule self released 7 singles and had a sync use for "Sugar" on the Netflix series, Messiah (Season 1 Ep. 9).

The album cover and physical packaging of Human Safari showcases the beautiful watercolor artwork of french artist Lola Favre.

Daniel Avery

Love + Light

Street Date: 07/23/21

Mute are pleased to announce the repress of Daniel Avery's Love + Light, available July 23 on 180 gram black vinyl.

Love + Light arrived unexpectedly following Avery's recent collaborations with Alessandro Cortini on the critically acclaimed Illusion of Time LP and alongside Roman Flügel under the alias of Noun.

Avery shares, "This record has been a real positive force of energy in my life, to the point where it almost formed itself in front of me. In that same spirit, I wanted to share it with you now, as soon as it was finished. As I started to collect the pieces together, it was apparent that the album would be split into two distinct halves but halves that were inexorably tied together. One could not have existed without the other. Music has always been a source of personal strength for me yet I remain fascinated by the power it can possess of its own volition. Releasing the record in this way, just a couple of weeks after the final note had fallen, felt like a decision made by an outside force yet one I agreed with entirely. Stay safe, friends and I'll see you on the other side soon. DA xxx"

PRAISE FOR LOVE + LIGHT:

EARMILK: "Avery maintains a poised balance, building hypnotizing atmospherics around a warehouse techno foundation that's always on the verge of an intense climax..."

EXCLAIM: "...the whole album is an absolute sizzler...some of [Avery's] most beautiful work to date." (8/10)

MAGNETIC: "...intense and purposeful."

HEAVY WATER'S DEBUT ALBUM "RED BRICK CITY" OUT ON JULY 23rd 2021

Silver Lining Music to release the first project by Saxon's Biff Byford and son Seb Byford of Naked Six. On July 23rd 2021, there's going to be a new rock 'n' roll sheriff in town, and as their name suggests, Heavy Water aren't for the light-hearted. Soaked in gritty, riff-baked blues, yet rich with the sound and metre of classic hard rock, Red Brick City's ten songs refuses to let you go. From the taut, elastic swing of the 'Solution' riff to the rich, layered balladic strains of 'Tree in the Wind', Red Brick City moves with the class and cadence of a cracking journey uniting vintage rock 'n' roll sensibilities with the crackle and excitement of a fresh, youthful perspective.

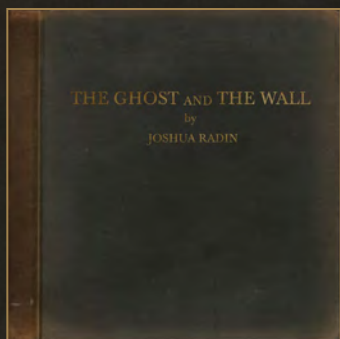

With Seb on guitar and Biff on bass duties and both providing their vocal talents the foundations for Heavy Water's sound are set in both that incredible father/son chemistry and a lifetime of know-how and experiences. Take the title track -and first single- 'Red Brick City', all steam and smoulder wrapped around a riff Soundgarden would've been proud of, and then there's the sun-soaked smile of 'Follow This Moment' with harmonies evoking the Beach Boys relayed through Led Zeppelin, a gorgeous '70's trip right down to the fade out. Produced by Seb Byford and Biff Byford, with Jacky Lehmann mastering, Red Brick City is a rich, lustrous ride through profoundly rewarding rock waters.

After 16 years, eight albums, and hundreds of shows around the globe, Joshua Radin still treats music as an antidote to any ailment. The LA-based artist finds healing in between waves of acoustic eloquence and dyed-in-the-wool Americana storytelling. Radin introduced The Ghost and the Wall at the beginning of the year with lead single “Better Life,” and later performed on The Today Show.

Produced by Jonathan Wilson [Father John Misty, Conor Oberst, Dawes], The Ghost and the Wall sees the troubadour continue a cycle of catharsis meant to be shared among any and all receptive hearts. “I see where I need to heal, and I write songs about that,” Joshua admits. “Like keeping a diary, songwriting is extremely personal for me. It’s always cathartic to not only write, but to also go on tour and play in front of people on a nightly basis. With every project, I get to see how the most vulnerable moments of my life affect others.”

DESCRIPTION:

In 2018, legendary heavy metal vocalist and pop culture pillar DEE SNIDER turned the heavy music world on its axis with his transformative full-length, For The Love Of Metal. Produced by HATEBREED frontman Jamey Jasta, the album re-cemented the undeniable prowess of the iconic Twisted Sister singer with its modernized mastery and take-no-prisoners attitude. Three years later, with one of the most collectively tumultuous times society has ever experienced behind him, DEE SNIDER triumphantly returns with the potent full-length follow up Leave A Scar. Once again produced by Jamey Jasta, with co-production, mixing and mastering by drummer Nick Bellmore, Leave A Scar sees DEE SNIDER & Co. continuing in the invigorated direction of For The Love Of Metal, infusing a dose of classic heavy metal flavor that longtime fans will rush to embrace. Like a scar itself, Leave A Scar is an illuminating plentitude of angst etched in time – serving as a musical refuge and expressive output for Dee. But in turn, this auditory time capsule written to express the anger, unease and pain he experienced during lockdown emerges as not only blisteringly heavy, but relentlessly powerful. Heads will bang within seconds of the hard-charging opening notes of ultra-catchy album starter and lifer anthem “I Gotta Rock (Again)”, instantly setting the stage for the non-stop onslaught of metallic mainstays to come. Tracks like the brutal “Time To Choose” – featuring the primed guest vocal attack of Cannibal Corpse’s George „Corpsegrinder“ Fisher – and mosh-ready “The Reckoning” showcase the album’s heavy assault, without sacrificing the harmonic goodness evident on tracks like the unrelenting, hooky thrasher “All Or Nothing More” and melodic, metal-core inspired “In For The Kill”. Energetic single of strength “Down But Never Out” encapsulates the chunky riffage and driving drums palpable throughout the album, while searing “Before I Go” provides one of the album’s most massive, memorable choruses and chilling lyrics. The album closes with victorious ballad “Stand”, a call for listeners to take a stand and make their voices heard. Each of the 12 tracks on Leave A Scar not only further bolster DEE SNIDER’s position as one of the most celebrated frontmen of all time, showcasing that his vocal delivery and commanding swagger is as strong as ever, but that he is nowhere near stopping. If For The Love Of Metal ignited DEE SNIDER’s eminent surge into a new era – Leave A Scar sets it ablaze.

TRAGEDY

NYC tribute heroes TRAGEDY strike solid gold with Disco Balls to the Wall - the best of heavy metal disco inferno!

DESCRIPTION:

„It doesn't matter at all if you love or hate disco or metal - you will unabashedly love TRAGEDY and their bombastic, crazy mix of disco, metal, glitter and revelry! Prepare your air guitars and get the party started with TRAGEDY's hottest tribute to The Bee Gees and beyond: The New York based cover song reinventors are set to release a best of album chock full of remastered favorites, Disco Balls To The Wall, on July 30, 2021. The band's first offering with Napalm Records will include TRAGEDY's unique twist on hits such as Abba's "Gimme! Gimme! Gimme! (A Man After Midnight)" and "Dancing Queen", Grease movie anthem "You're The One That I Want", Toto's "Africa", Bonnie Tyler's "Total Eclipse Of The Heart" and Adele's intense super-hymn "Skyfall", just to name a few selections from this insane swirl of greatness. These fearsome brothers drop the perfect selection of all time disco, soft-rock and pop favorites – completely reimagining them as glorious, red-hot heavy metal treatments. Get your body shaking when TRAGEDY start to rock out with The Bee Gee's "Stayin' Alive", "How Deep Is Your Love" and "Tragedy", and headbang to the tunes of Slayer's heavy riffing thrash thunder "Raining Blood" combined with "It's Raining Men" from American femme duo, The Weather Girls in a way absolutely never heard before. Disco Balls to the Wall is finally topped by a smashing live version of Donna Summer's fabulous "Hot Stuff", featuring Alex Skolnick of Testament on lead guitar. What a ride! But the party won't stop as long as there's a repeat button to push heavily! The concept, while subversive and humorous, goes well beyond what others have done in satirical music - they celebrate the soul of the original song, even while turning the soundscape on its head. The amps are cranked to eleven, but the emotion is not lost. You'll discover new meaning in songs that have been a part of your life as long as you can remember. You'll laugh and cry, dance and mosh, and feel newly connected to the disco-metal that was inside you all along. TRAGEDY's past releases have charted on the NACC Heavy Top 10, and the band was awarded a 2019 Album of the Year nod by Necrosexual on Metal Injection and described as "one of the hottest bands on the internet" by Loudwire. Due to their energizing and captivating live performance, TRAGEDY have already turned venues all around the globe into a hefty disco metal night and are absolutely ready to spread their glittered wings even further with their upcoming, dominating best of album, Disco Balls to the Wall.“
