RUN THE JEWELS

RUN THE JEWELS, the dynamic duo of rap, continue their scintillating journey into the hearts and minds of music lovers everywhere with their latest and greatest album to date - RTJ4. And like its predecessors, RTJ4 is rooted in hip hop fundamentals - 2 brilliant MC's letting loose over brilliant beats - while extending its reach into various worlds. The new album includes collaborations with Pharrell Williams, Zack de la Rocha, Josh Homme, Mavis Staples, 2 Chainz and DJ Premier, and was recorded primarily at Rick Rubin's Shangri La Studios and the iconic Electric Lady Studios in NYC.

Atlanta's KILLER MIKE and Brooklyn's EL-P have already carved RTJ's initials into the cultural landscape with their bold and brutally relevant voices matched with a completely unique and engaging production style. The resulting alchemy has won them adherents and accolades across genres while remaining fundamentally what it is - authentic, important and engaging music.

RTJ4 represents the next step in their evolution, taking RUN THE JEWELS from the biggest underground group in the world to the best rap group in the game.

Ace Frehley, a 2014 Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductee, continues his reflections on a lifetime in music with “Origins, Vol. 2.” No stranger to cover versions throughout his musical history — having recorded, rebranded and repossessed such notable nuggets as “New York Groove,” “Do Ya” and “I Wanna Go Back” over the course of his eight previous studio efforts — this new collection presents a thoughtful and exciting selection of songs that inspired and helped shape the legendary guitarist. Foremost of importance to the original Spaceman is delivering an album his fans will enjoy, but one where every song also has a place in his life’s jukebox.

As the second volume focusing on his musical origins, Ace has also grown since “Origins, Vol. 1” was released in April 2016. That album hit #23 on the Billboard Top-200 charts becoming his 4th top-40 and second highest charting solo album — and there’s no questioning Ace’s productivity with this album being his fifth recorded work in a decade! Ace chuckles, “Since I had one covers album under my belt, the process of doing ‘Origins, Vol. 2’ was easier because I had put together a formula, picking guest stars and so-on.” The challenge for him was to put a suitable personal stamp on the material, and “Origins, Vol. 2” is replete with special touches that both honor and embellish the material.

KNUCKLE PUCK

SUMMARY

Since forming in Chicago's south suburbs a decade ago, KNUCKLE PUCK have become one of the aggressive pop-punk genre's preeminent forces thanks to a relatable lyrical approach and similarly engaging musical sensibilities – a blend that has filled venues around the world and the main stages of the Vans Warped Tour and Slam Dunk.

Now, on their much-anticipated third album, 20/20, the band filter the same youthful, wide-eyed approach of their early material through the sonic evolutions they've explored since. All at once, 20/20 is both a look back and a step forward – and most importantly, it's an album that, at its core, urges listeners to live in the here and now. "Not every song has to be an existential journey," says guitarist Nick Casasanto. "We went into this album wanting to make people feel good about who they are and not upset about who they aren't. I want people to want to listen to this record."

THEN PLAY ON is the third studio album by British blues rock band FLEETWOOD MAC, released on September 19, 1969. It was the first of their original albums to feature Danny Kirwan and the last with Peter Green. The album, appearing after the group’s sudden success in the pop charts, offered a broader stylistic range than the classic blues of the group’s first two albums. The album went on to reach the Billboard 200 in the U.S. and #6 in the UK album chart. The title is taken from the opening line of William Shakespeare’s play Twelfth Night — “If music be the food of love, play on.”

10 YEARS

VIOLENT ALLIES

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: 10 Years
TITLE: Violent Allies
HOMETOWN: Knoxville, TN
GENRE: Rock / Metal
PARENTAL ADVISORY STICKERED: NO

BIO

Growth is a process that never stops. Rather, it ramps up as time passes. 10 Years accelerate this cycle on their ninth full-length album, 'Violent Allies', set for release on September 18th via Mascot Records.

In 2019 the gold-certified Knoxville, TN alternative hard rock trio spent five weeks with GRAMMY® Award-winning producer Howard Benson (My Chemical Romance, Halestorm, Papa Roach, Three Days Grace), and what resulted was an album that shows the band's progress as a unit as they embrace heightened vulnerability, elevated song craft, and sonic adventurousness. We don't ever try to recreate what we've done in the past," explains vocalist Jesse Hasek. "We knew we had to challenge ourselves to see what we had in us. We let ourselves enjoy the process, be vulnerable, and talk about those emotions. We were able to harness that love of creating from a wiser and more developed perspective."

This advanced outlook is displayed on tracks like the album's first single "The Shift." "While in the studio last fall, we were looking at the state of the world as we wrote 'The Shift'," Jesse reveals. "As a society, we're so distracted that we're not united. When the pandemic happened we realized we're all in this together." "Lyrically, it's about the polarization of society and the human impact on the earth itself," adds guitarist Brian Vodinh.

Ultimately, 10 Years keeps pushing forward with 'Violent Allies'. "This record wasn't just another record," Brian explains. "It's the result of working hard to improve on all levels. There's a lot to dig into. It's a graduated state for the band." "After all of this time, 10 Years is a brotherhood," adds Jesse. "It's been an unexplainable, crazy, and awesome journey. We've beaten the odds and continue to live life. Life is beautiful, if you really go for it and try. It can show you beauty—and that's what this band has shown me."

FLYING COLORS

THIRD STAGE: LIVE IN LONDON

GENERAL INFORMATION

ARTIST: Flying Colors
TITLE: Third Stage: Live In London
HOMETOWN: New York, NY
GENRE: Rock / Prog

BIO

Supergroup Flying Colors is set to release their brand new live album, 'Third Stage: Live in London,' on September 18th via Music Theories Recordings. 'Third Stage: Live in London' was filmed during their winter 2019 European tour, and captures the exhilarating sold-out final night at the iconic Shepherd's Bush Empire, in London. Flying Colors only played 4 exclusive shows on this run, culminating at the sold-out show in London, which saw drummer Mike Portnoy stand up mid-set and quip, "Welcome to the rarest of all sightings, rarer than a UFO sighting, rarer than a sasquatch sighting. A Flying Colors sighting, here on stage in London." The album will be released on several formats including a limited edition transparent orange 3LP, 2CD/DVD, Blu-ray, Earbook, and digital. The DVD includes bonus material comprised of music videos, and concert footage of their MorseFest 2019 performance in Cross Plains, Tennessee.

"I remember how I felt right before the show in London," recalls vocalist Casey McPherson. "I was excited because my oldest daughter and her grandmother were there. It's always a good feeling to take the stage just let it all out!" The sight of bassist Dave LaRue and Portnoy bouncing off one another is a gloriously effortless sight to behold, whilst the wizardry of multi-instrumentalist Neal Morse throughout is hypnotic. The band flit nimble-fingered through complex yet musical treasure-trove of accessible and sophisticated pop songs, jazz-fusion, progressive-rock and multi-layered vocals from McPherson, Neal Morse and Portnoy - giving the band added dimensions, many can only dream of. "Playing in Flying Colors is like being in a movie," says McPherson. I love the other guys in the band and we always have such a good time on the road together. Our chemistry is like really good sushi. There's not one ingredient you could replace and it taste that good. It is one of the kindest and uniquely unified band's I've ever been in."

'Third Stage: Live In London' captures five musicians that prove they have a special and breath-taking connection. In the words of Mr. Portnoy, it's the "rarest of all sightings," but what a sight to behold.

HIGHLIGHTS

- First live album since 2015's "Second Flight: Live at the Z7".
- Available on 3LP (Ltd. Edition transparent orange), 2CD/DVD, Blu-ray, Earbook, and digital. DVD includes bonus material comprised of music videos, and concert footage of their MorseFest 2019 performance.
- Previous releases topped the Billboard Rock Albums, Hard Rock Albums, Independent Albums, and Billboard 200 charts respectively.
- Flying Colors is a supergroup composed of Mike Portnoy (Dream Theater), Dave LaRue (Dixie Dregs, Steve Morse Band), Casey McPherson (Alpha Rev), Neal Morse (Transatlantic, Spock's Beard), and Steve Morse (Deep Purple).
- Since their inception in 2012, the band has released 2 studio albums and 2 live albums. This is the band's 3rd live album.

Plague Years

“Circle Of Darkness”

Like an icepick to the face, PLAGUE YEARS arrives with an electric surge of sudden pain.

An unrelenting end of the world assault of the cataclysmic convergence of thrash and hardcore, with bits of blackened death and mid-tempo madness to spare, the Detroit master blasters are here to crash the crossover party. Summoning the primitive spirit of the singular moment when the heaviest of metal first smashed into a circle pit, PLAGUE YEARS reignite the flame with sharp fury.

“Strap yourself in for a lightning ride.”

REVOLVER

“Just try not to bang your head. We dare you.”

RAVEN

METAL CITY

IT'S OFTEN SMALL THINGS THAT CAN GIVE POWERFUL IMPETUS TO A MUSICIAN'S CREATIVITY.

In the case of USA-based metal trio Raven, featuring the English brothers John (bass, vocals) and Mark (guitar) Gallagher, it was the unanimously positive reactions to their 2015 release ExtermiNation, and of course the arrival of drummer Mike Heller (he joined the fold in summer 2017 to replace Joe Hasselvander, who had left the band due to health issues) which resulted in an awesome new album. "Our initial goal was just to raise the bar once more. We did a good job on ExtermiNation and decided we just wanted more of everything next time," John Gallagher grins. "however things changed once we got Mike on board. Attitude and tempos got revved up a lot! Mike is a ball of energy. He has a good ear and is a big fan of the early albums, especially the crazy feel. He's kicked us into a higher gear where we feel that we can play anything and everything we write with no restrictions." Gallagher's explanations ring with pure, unadulterated musical enthusiasm and passion, so curtain up for Metal City, which sees Raven deliver ten songs with no holds barred. Metal City will be available on Steamhammer/SPV from September 18th, 2020 on CD, vinyl LP and as digital stream/download.

This 30th-anniversary edition of the '90s underground rock classic Smell the Magic includes all 9 songs from the album, remastered and available together on vinyl for the first time ever! A multitude of rock music scenes populated the expanse of Los Angeles in 1989: hardcore punk, industrial goth, roots rock, and Sunset Strip hair metal, to name a few. L7 fit into none of them, creating their own unique blend of punk and hard, hooky rock loaded with humor and cultural commentary. Originally released in 1990, Smell the Magic is a landmark of '90s feminist rock.

VICTORIA BAILEY

JESUS, RED WINE & PATSY CLINE

Raised under the rays of the sun in Huntington Beach, CA, Victoria Bailey has got it figured out; all one needs in life is simply Jesus, Red Wine & Patsy Cline.

Grounding her timeless country music palette is her crystalline voice; an inviting warm tone with the occasional flutter that transports you back in time to a classic honky tonk where they're playing the aforementioned Cline, Emmylou Harris, Loretta Lynn, and Dolly Parton on rotation — all of whom she has carried from the dive bar to the main stage. Bailey brings that same spirit to the 21st century through relatably raw, non-sugarcoated songwriting that may seem unexpected from most contemporary female musicians in the country realm. She shines a relevant light on some of the shadier corners of the genre not typically addressed, such as the hypocrisy that can be found in the outlaw country mindset, all while evoking a fiery, no-holds-barred lyrical approach in the vein of Margo Price.

Produced by Jeremy Long, Jesus, Red Wine & Patsy Cline is a whiskey-smooth concoction of crisp guitars, silky fiddle, and radiant pedal steel that expertly glides beneath Bailey's magnetic, California sun-kissed soprano. Bailey's full-length label debut — a nine-song collection featuring eight originals and one cover — paints stunning vignettes spanning from adrenaline-rushing love at first sight and down-and-out heartache, to treasuring country music's indelible roots, and the wavering journey of resilience when chasing one's dreams.

Snarls spent 2019 quietly blooming. Two songs landed this Columbus, OH four-piece on Stereogum’s Top 100 Songs and Best New Bands honor rolls. With that running start in mind, 2020 is when they’ll surely blossom into a band to watch. Debut LP “Burst” finds the next charming coming-of-age story in shimmering character drama (2019 standout “Walk in the Woods”), woozy indie-pop (“Hair”), and blue-eyed existentialism (“Concrete”). Snarls’ songwriting is as unfiltered and spectral as growing into one’s own should be, but it promises just as an enchanting listen for those outside looking in. It’s no wonder MTV tried to brand Snarls’ enchanting indie rock as promising “the best of emo and shoegaze” or that the band themselves sees themselves as the forebearers of “glitter emo alt rock.” Snarls is fresh, frenzied, and worth fawning over. You’ll just have to find out on your own.

Snarls’ debut LP, “Burst”, has been pressed for the first time on a limited mint green splatter variant. “Burst” is available to retail on 9/18/20

Dwellings is Isaac Wilson and Anthony Pacheco. On May 11th, 2018, the band announced their signing to Tragic Hero Records, and their full length debut album "Lavender Town" was released on June 29th, 2018. It's a berserk rocket ride through the warped space of a cartoon dimension that offers listeners swirling and fizzing pools of color to wash away their spiritual umbra. Songs such as "Foreverest" weave tender beds of arpeggiated guitars reminiscent of a music box. On the other end of the emotional spectrum are the tracks "Snake Charmer" and "Lemonade" which are far more blustery. "Lavender Town" is a shining example of where rock music is headed, with Dwellings in the captain's chair commanding "Warp Factor 1".

Accumilating millions of streams to date, Dwellings "Lavender Town" is now offering it's frist vinyl pressing to retail.

Dwellings' debut LP, "Lavender Town" has been pressed for the first time ever with all retail recieving a LAVENDER vinyl variant!

The Dan DeChellis Trio

MOVING MOUNTAINS

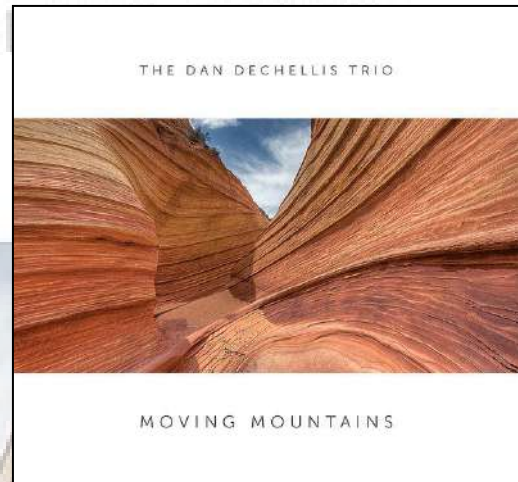

For fans of Brad Mehldau, Bobo Stenson, George Winston and Jazz!

A genre-defying performer, dedicated educator, and omnivorous listener, Dan DeChellis has lived his musical vision for over 40 years, leveraging strict classical training into deep-dive explorations of modern classical improvisation, free improvisation, jazz, rock, and ambient music.

Moving Mountains is the third full release by The Dan DeChellis Trio and features Dan DeChellis – piano, Scot Hornick – bass, and Steve Decker – drums

Beginning piano studies at age 7, Dan earned bachelors and masters degrees in piano performance from Appalachian State University and Duquesne University, then spent a year studying improvisation with Paul Bley and Ran Blake at the New England Conservatory of Music (NEC). In Boston and later New York, he released more than a half-dozen solo and group recordings on his own Sachimay Records label; co-founded Brooklyn's Improvised and Otherwise Festival; performed at venues including the Knitting Factory, Tonic, CBGB's, and Sculler's Jazz Club; and collaborated with musicians including drummers Tatsuya Nakatani and Gerry Hemingway, saxophonists Bhob Rainey and Jack Wright, bassists Gene Perla and Reuben Radding, guitarists Philip Tomasic and Chris Forsyth, and the trio Chainworks with electronics player Brian Moran and percussionist Matt Hannafin.

In 2006, Dan accepted a position at Moravian College, where he currently teaches improvisation and piano and directs the Moravian Improvised Music Ensemble (M.I.M.E.), which was named Outstanding Classical Ensemble at the 2017 Lehigh Valley Music Awards Jam Quartet. He also works as a studio musician for a variety of artists.

I'll Figure This Out, Barely Civil's sophomore full-length, offers temporary solutions to this existential concern. With Chris Teti (TWIABP, Fiddlehead) joining as producer, the band's massive live energy translates into concise, yet expansive arrangements. "Box for My Organs" slams sonic triumph against plainspoken self-doubt. Grief and guilt are on the same plane in "Bottom of the Lake," while the band contemplates the sustainability of burning their twenties at both ends on "The Worst Part of December."

"I feel like our music revolves around the process of analyzing who we are and where we come from," Erickson explains. "Possibly, even, where we belong." I'll Figure This Out attempts to answer those questions while turning completely inward. It's a darker chapter in a constantly evolving discography. The only way out, it seems, is through.

I'll Figure This Out releases September 4th, 2020 via Take This To Heart Records on CD and Vinyl.

RÓISÍN MURPHY // RÓISÍN MACHINE

Róisín Murphy's highly anticipated new album, the fabulously titled "Róisín Machine" first full length project since 2015's Mercury Nominated "Hairless Toys" and 2016's equally revered "Take Her Up To Monto" will be released on September 25th via Skint / BMG.

"Róisín Machine" is the culmination of a rich, decades long partnership between Murphy and one of her most trusted collaborators Crooked Man aka DJ Parrot. Although packed to the rafters with masterclass singles, including "Simulation", "Jealousy", "Incapable", "Narcissus" and "Murphy's Law", it is also an ingeniously and seamlessly edited listening experience, designed to be listened to in one uninterrupted sitting, from start to dazzling finish.

From the intoxicating disco-funk of "Incapable", to the quintessential "Narcissus" which crystallised New-Disco and established a high watermark for the genre, to "Murphy's Law", a 70's inflected stomper, "Róisín Machine" offers up everything you could ask for on an exquisite plate. Added to the familiar tunes are five new songs, including the Dalek-funk of 'We Got Together' and the fantastical "Shellfish Mademoiselle". An album that works perfectly on the home sound system but also comes alive in a basement sweatbox, it impeccably sits alongside Murphy's stellar cannon of work released across 25 boundary pushing, trailblazing years, a career encompassing iconic music, directorial, art and fashion moments.

Cum On Feel The Hitz – The Best Of Slade

Release Date: 9/25/2020

- ★ Career Spanning Hits collection from the Legendary British Rock band SLADE
- ★ Available as expanded 2CD and 2LP sets, plus US Only 1LP and 1CD formats.
- ★ Includes the hit singles “Run Runaway,” “My Oh My” & “Gudbuy T’Jane”
- ★ Plus Glam Rock classics “Mama We’er All Crazee Now” & “Cum On Feel The Noize,” Quiet Riot’s cover of which became a Billboard Top 5 single.

SLADE are without doubt one of the most exciting bands to come out of Great Britain. With their unique blend of perfect pop-rock’n’roll, outrageous flamboyance and pure fun, Slade have become a firm favourite in the hearts of pop fans all over the world for nearly fifty years.

Slade were heavily influential to their peers and remain influential to the generation of musicians they spawned. To quote Noel Gallagher: “No Slade = No Oasis. It’s as devastating and as simple as that”. Bands as diverse as Nirvana, The Sex Pistols, The Clash, Def Leppard, The Ramones, Kiss and many more have sited Slade as influential.

BIO

Ayreon is set to release a brand new sprawling, and epic studio album, 'Transitus', on September 25th via Music Theories Recordings. The album will be available on 2LP color vinyl, 2CD, and Earbook. Both the 2LP and Earbook variants include a 28 page graphic novel drawn by world renowned artist Felix Vega (Duam). In addition to the graphic novel, the 44 page Earbook comes with 5 discs; 2CD album, 1CD instrumental versions, 1CD guide vocal versions, and a DVD with bonus footage which includes a behind the scenes video, a videoclip, trailer, 5.1 surround and 24bit stereo audio of the album.

From the mastermind of Dutch multi-instrumentalist Arjen Lucassen, 'Transitus' is inspired by supernatural movies such as The Others, The Changeling, and Ghost, along with the music of soundtrack composers John Carpenter (Halloween), Ennio Morricone (Once upon a Time in the West) and Jerry Goldsmith (Omen). "And of course I revisited all my favourite rock operas such as JC Superstar, Tommy, War of the Worlds and The Wall," Lucassen adds. 'Transitus' is built around an entirely new story, not connected to the Ayreon universe, although as always it does have some subtle links. The sci-fi theme makes way for a gothic ghost story set (partly) in the 19th century with elements of horror and the supernatural. 'Transitus' is narrated by one of the most iconic and recognizable voices in sci-fi history, most known from his eight-year stint as Doctor Who, Tom Baker. "I was looking for a real storyteller with a mature, deep, warm voice," says Lucassen. "As a kid, I was a huge Doctor Who fan and my favourite doctor was Tom Baker. I couldn't believe my luck when he agreed to do it."

Reflecting on the approach to 'Transitus' Lucassen says, "Our genre is called progressive, which for me means breaking new ground and experimenting musically. So in the true prog spirit, I set out to try something entirely different than a typical Ayreon album. I wanted to do something more theatrical, almost like a musical." As with any Ayreon album, it is an explosive and expansive affair that took years to create. "It took about 3 years from start to finish, and it pushed me out of my comfort zone musically and creatively," says Lucassen. "But I always need that challenge. The harder it is, the more fun for me to work on. This is without a doubt the most cinematic and outrageous album I've ever done," he affirms.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ayreon's first new studio album since 2017's 'The Source'.
- 'Transitus' features guest performances from Tom Baker (Doctor Who), Simone Simons (Epica), Dee Snider (Twisted Sister), Tommy Karevik (Kamelot), Joe Satriani, Marty Friedman and many more.
- The album will be available on 2LP color vinyl, 2CD, and Earbook. Both the 2LP and Earbook variants include an amazing 28 page graphic novel drawn by world renowned artist Felix Vega (Duam). In addition to the graphic novel, the 44 page Earbook comes with 5 discs; 2CD album, 1CD instrumental versions, 1CD guide vocal versions, and a DVD with bonus footage which includes a behind the scenes video, a videoclip, trailer, 5.1 surround and 24bit stereo audio of the album.

A confluence of personal and shared experiences awakened Neon Trees in 2019. Following four relatively quiet years, the multiplatinum genre-busting alternative quartet—Tyler Glenn [lead vocals, piano, keys], Chris Allen [lead guitar], Elaine Bradley [drums], and Branden Campbell [bass]—reignited the spark. The musicians summoned the same rock spirit, pop universality, and disco ball-drenched grooves that millions of fans fell in love with, while infusing a lot of wisdom and a little more wit earned along the way.

The first chapter introduced a sizzling signature sound cast in synth soul and rooted in robust guitars. The group began a rapid ascent to the forefront of popular culture fueled by 2010's Habits. Its lead single "Animal" scored a double-platinum certification from the RIAA and took home "Top Alternative Song" at the Billboard Music Awards. In 2012, Picture Show spawned the quadruple-platinum "Everybody Talks," which soared to #6 on the Billboard Hot 100. 2014 saw Pop Psychology bow at #1 on the Billboard Top Rock Albums Chart and #6 on the Top 200 in addition to producing the gold hit, "Sleeping With A Friend." Along the way, the quartet garnered acclaim from Rolling Stone, Entertainment Weekly, USA Today, and performing countless sold-out headline gigs. After a successful 2015 headliner, Neon Trees took a well-earned break.

In 2019, they returned with the lead single "Used To Like" and a Top 5 Alternative radio smash, kicking off a bold and bright new chapter with the new album, I Can Feel You Forgetting Me.

PETER GABRIEL LIVE IN ATHENS 1987

A warm autumnal evening in southern Europe. An open-air theatre cut into a hill, the lights of a capital city twinkling beneath. Five musicians take to the stage, five musicians at the peak of their game.

We are in Athens and it's October 1987. More significantly, it's the climax of Peter Gabriel's This Way Up tour, an endeavour that kicked off nearly 12 long months previously, tens and tens of thousands of miles ago. Over many, many months, this jolly caravan has travelled throughout North America and Europe, from Buffalo to Bologna, Milwaukee to Munich, Toronto to Toulouse. It's nearly all over. And here in the Greek capital the occasion will be preserved for eternity.

Special guest appearances by Youssou N'Dour and Le Super Etoile de Dakar

Live In Athens 1987 has never previously been on vinyl.

2LP is 180g vinyl, half-speed remastered at 33rpm.

Contains hi-res download card.

LP comes with a brand-new design by Marc Bessant at Real World, presented in a wide-spine jacket with printed inner sleeves.

Album	The Los Angeles Suite
CD Album

File Under	Pop/Alternative

Grammy-nominated neoclassical pop orchestra from Berlin/Gothenburg releases new album on newly founded label Project C/Clouds Hill.

Maverick orchestra The String Theory may be known primarily for their long-term collaboration with the gentle Swedish troubadour José González, yet have over time grown into a massive artist collective in their own right, curiously exploring the outskirts of contemporary neoclassical and electronic music. The ensemble first came together in Berlin in 2007 as the brainchild of composers Ben Lauber and PC Nackt, and has since then toured the USA and Europe five times and released five albums – one of which moved the Recording Academy to nominate it for a Grammy 2020 for ‘Best Spoken Word Album’.

Initially convening for a one-off recording workshop and week-long party with fellow artists from their native Berlin music scene, The String Theory continued to highlight the ensemble’s unique talent in the years since, re-channeling the energy of German heavyweights Richard Wagner and Einstürzende Neubauten as well as contemporary minimalist composers like Steve Reich and John Cale into lush string arrangements and experimental electronic soundscapes. While in some contexts this may sound more like a ‘hm, interesting idea...’ rather than an actually entertaining performance concept that could engross an audience, The String Theory have managed to distill their inexorable spirit into rapturous live concerts that garnered critical praise all over Europe and the USA.

ACR: Loco

Street Date: 9/25/20

Mute are excited to announce the release of A Certain Ratio's new full length album, ACR Loco, out on September 25 on limited edition color vinyl, CD, and all digital platforms.

Back with their first new album in 12 years, a confident and revitalised A Certain Ratio jumped back into the studio following their most successful tour in over 20 years. ACR Loco feels like an accumulation of A Certain Ratio's DNA from point zero in 1977 through to 2020 and sounds like a band who have effortlessly perfected their craft. This is an album to dance to, cry to, fall in love to and most importantly, to party to.

ACR Loco was made by the core A Certain Ratio members Jez Kerr, Martin Moscrop and Donald Johnson. They are joined by long term partners Tony Quigley, Denise Johnson and Matt Steele, plus special guests Sink Ya Teeth's Maria Uzor and Gemma Cullingford, Factory Floor's Gabe Gurnsey and Manchester luminaries Mike Joyce and Eric Random.

The first pressing of the vinyl will be available on one of four colors: White, Blue, Red, Turquoise. Each color is of varying rarity and will be randomly packed with no external cue as to which color is available within the package. They will all come packaged in foil blocked sleeve designed by Trevor Johnson and include a high definition audio download.

ORCHESTRA BAOBAB Specialist In All Styles (50th Anniversary LP)

Release Date: 9/25/20

- First Time Ever on Vinyl!
- Celebrating Orchestra Baobab's 50th Anniversary
- Produced by Nick Gold and Youssou N'Dour
- Includes special guests Buena Vista Social Club star Ibrahim Ferrer and Youssou N'Dour
- Release on 2 x 180g heavyweight LP

Celebrating their 50th Anniversary in 2020, the legendary Orchestra Baobab issue their landmark 2002 reunion album for the first time on vinyl. Adored both at home in Senegal and across the world, Baobab occupy a special place in the history of African music. Their unique and uplifting Afro-Latin hybrid owes everything to the cosmopolitan nature of the band who take influences from all around Senegal as well as Mali, Nigeria, Togo, Guinea, Guinea Bissau and beyond.

Specialist was the first album by the full group since 1982's legendary Pirates Choice, a holy grail for African music fans. Recorded live at London's Livingston Studios in just ten days and produced by Nick Gold with Youssou N'Dour, Specialist In All Styles is a milestone in African music—an inspired, diverse and entirely contemporary take on Baobab's original Afro-Latin magic, introducing new material and reinventing some of the old tunes that made them legends.

Baobab are blessed with a sublime rhythm section and two of the most distinctive sounds in African music, Barthélemy Attisso's extraordinary guitar and Issa Cissokho's atmospheric sax. But what also makes the band unique is its five lead singers, all with their own contrasting but complementary styles. The vocal team is expanded on "Hommage à Tonton Ferrer" by special guests Buena Vista Social Club star Ibrahim Ferrer and by Youssou N'Dour himself.

Tommy Emmanuel, CGP has achieved enough musical milestones to satisfy several lifetimes. Or at least they would if he was the kind of artist who was ever satisfied. At the age of six, he was touring Australia with his family band. By 30, he was a rock lead guitarist playing stadiums. At 44, he became one of five people ever named a Certified Guitar Player (CGP) by his idol, music icon Chet Atkins. Today, he plays sold-out shows everywhere from Nashville to Sydney to London.

Influenced by the Merle Travis/Chet Atkins fingerstyle of guitar picking, Tommy developed a style of solo guitar playing that encompasses the range of a whole band – covering drums, bass, rhythm lead guitar, and a vocal melody simultaneously. While some artists take a band on the road, Tommy builds a complete sonic world entirely on his own with no overdubs or loops.

Tommy has multiple Grammy nominations, countless Guitar Player awards, numerous magazine polls naming him the greatest acoustic guitarist alive. He's grateful for it all. For Tommy though, the greatest reward is always the same – to make the next great record, and to see the beaming audience at the next great show.

Multiple Winner in readers polls for Best Acoustic Guitarist in Acoustic Guitar, Guitar Player, and Music Radar publications

Two Time Grammy Nominee

3 time ARIA Award Winner

3 time Country Music Association of Australia (CMAA) Award winner for Instrumentalist of the Year
