ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Alternative Roc

Description:

Fleetwood Mac, one of rock's most enduring, beloved and successful bands, will circulate a fresh round of Rumours next year with expanded and deluxe versions of the album in celebration of its 35th anniversary. Rumours made the band one of the most iconic bands of the 1970s and garnered wide critical praise, earned the Grammy® for Album of the Year, and has now sold more than 40 million copies worldwide since its 1977 debut.

The expanded edition's three CDs includes the original album and the b-side "Silver Springs," a dozen unreleased live recordings from the group's '77 world tour, and an entire disc filled with unreleased takes from the album's recording sessions. The deluxe edition includes all of the music from expanded version, plus an additional disc of outtakes a DVD that features "The Rosebud Film," a 1977 documentary about the album, and the album on vinyl

Mick Fleetwood, John McVie, Christine McVie, Lindsey Buckingham and Stevie Nicks recorded Rumours against a backdrop personal turmoil, chronicling their raw emotions in songs like "Go Your Own Way," "Gold Dust Woman" and "Dreams," the latter becoming the band's first number one smash.

The disc of 12 unreleased live recordings from the band's 1977 Rumours tour features performances from concerts in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Nashville and Columbia, S.C. The songs include album tracks like "The Chain," "Oh Daddy" and "Songbird" as well as "World Turning" and "Rhiannon," two tracks from the group's 1975 eponymous release.

Producers also have compiled a selection of 16 unreleased recordings from the album's sessions including early takes of "Go Your Own Way," "I Don't Want To Know" and the popular b-side "Silver Springs." There are also several demo recordings, including one for the outtake "Planets of the Universe," plus an instrumental version of "Never Going Back Again."

The deluxe edition of Rumours features three additional pieces. First is an 18-track compilation of session outtakes originally released in the 2004 reissue of the album. Next is the original album on 140-gram vinyl. Finally, there is a DVD with "The Rosebud Film." This 1977 documentary by Michael Collins includes interviews, rehearsal footage and live performances of: "World Turning," "Rhiannon," "Say You Love Me," "Go Your Own Way," "You Make Loving Fun" and "I'm So Afraid."

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description:

On December 10, 2007, Led Zeppelin took the stage at London's O2 Arena to headline a tribute concert for dear friend and Atlantic Records founder Ahmet Ertegun. What followed was a two-hour-plus tour de force of the band's signature blues-infused rock 'n' roll that instantly became part of the legend of Led Zeppelin. Founding members John Paul Jones, Jimmy Page and Robert Plant were joined by Jason Bonham, the son of their late drummer John Bonham, to perform 16 songs from their celebrated catalog including landmark tracks "Whole Lotta Love," "Rock And Roll," "Kashmir," and "Stairway To Heaven." Although 20 million people applied for tickets, the band's first headline show in 27 years was seen only by the 18,000 ticket holders who were fortunate enough to have secured seats through the worldwide lottery.

The film of Celebration Day will see a worldwide theatrical release by Omniverse Vision on 1,500 screens in over 40 territories on October 17. The theatrical screenings will follow premieres in London, Los Angeles, New York, and other major cities. Tickets for the public screenings will be available on September 13 via ledzeppelin.com. Celebration Day will then be available in multiple video and audio formats on November 19 from Swan Song/Atlantic Records.

 - SPIN
 - FMQB
 - Ultimate Classic Rock
- The Press conference is posted to Led Zeppelin's YouTube, Facebook and Twitter pages.
- A one-minute clip of "Black Dog" from Celebration Day was posted to the band's YouTube, Facebook and Twitter pages. The clip was also serviced to global media outlets.

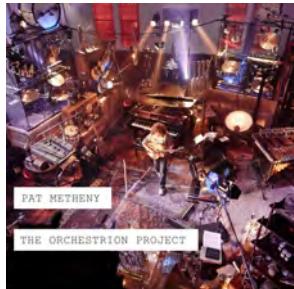

Featured Magazines Articles:

- John Paul Jones, Jimmy Page and Robert Plant will be saluted at the Kennedy Center Honors on December 2nd in Washington DC, along with fellow honorees Dustin Hoffman, David Letterman, Natalia Makarova, and Buddy Guy. The program will generate world wide media attention and will be aired on CBS on December 26th.
- Rolling Stone will feature Led Zeppelin in print and online in November. Several other major TV and print media features are in the works and will be announced soon.

Info:

- Led Zeppelin fans around the world have been waiting in anticipation for the release of the 2007 O2 concert. Celebration Day will be supported with a massive global marketing campaign across multiple media platforms including TV, social media, online, print, radio, retail, outdoor, sports and lifestyle outlets.
- The marketing plan will utilize a three-phase strategy starting with the pre-order build-up, progressing to a major theatrical screening event on October 17th, and then pivoting to drive around the product release November 19th. With Led Zeppelin's strong appeal to fans of all ages, Celebration Day will generate personal and gift purchases throughout the holiday season.
- The film of Celebration Day will see a worldwide theatrical release through Omnidome Vision on 1,500 screens in over 40 territories on October 17. Tickets were available on September 13th via ledzeppelin.com.
- Theaters will run the film trailer in the pre-shows programming for a month leading up to release. There will also be in-theater POP, press, social media and advertising driving millions of impressions for Celebration Day. Special premiere events are also in the works.
- Celebration Day will be shown in over 450 US movie theaters in the top 50 DMA's on October 17th. The pre-show programming and final credits of the film will include slides with product information and the "Available November 19th" messaging.

Co-producer: Steve Rodby

Radio Formats: Jazz Packaging Specs: 4-panel 4/0 softpak, 16-page 4/1 booklet, 2 discs, sticker Focus Markets: New York; Los Angeles; Philadelphia; San Francisco/Bay Area; Washington, D.C.; Boston, MA; Chicago; Seattle, WA; Portland, OR; Detroit, MI

Description: In 2010, 19-time Grammy Award winner Pat Metheny took his musical exploration to a new territory with his Orchestrion, a computer controlled mini-orchestra capable of responding to his touch on guitar. After releasing the Orchestrion record, Metheny and his "band" hit the road, playing over 100 concerts around the world, culminating with the recording of The Orchestrion Project in Brooklyn, NY. This recording showcases the full evolution of the Orchestrion as documented at the tail end of a sprawling world tour and will be available on Nonesuch on January 29, 2013. The double-disc set features all five sections of Orchestrion—"a soaring five-movement suite featuring some of the most intricate music he's ever created" (Boston Globe)—plus eight additional Metheny compositions reimaged with the Orchestrion.

The Orchestrion itself is an assemblage of computer-operated acoustic instruments, all controlled by Metheny's guitar. The full instrumental array includes several pianos, drum kits, marimbas, "guitar-bots," dozens of percussion instruments and even cabinets of carefully tuned bottles. Through Metheny's guitar, the instruments are struck, plucked, and otherwise played via the technology of solenoid switches and pneumatics. Metheny worked for months with a brilliant team of scientists and engineers to develop and assemble the Orchestrion.

The Orchestrion album and tour received critical praise, with Jazz Times saying, "Mallets, bells, bottles, piano, cymbals and incidental percussion held forth in a spectacle of dissonance and extraordinary color, sounding like Metheny meets Boulez." And NPR Music said, "No matter who—or what—he has on stage with him, Pat Metheny plays music as if at the end of the show he would be prevented from doing so for the rest of his life. He makes every note matter, and infuses each with so much emotion that it's very hard not to get swept up in the moment...he always looks like he's having as much fun playing as we are listening. His tour with the Orchestrion will likely be talked about for quite a while."

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: R&B

Description: DREAMY & JAZZY, SMOOTH & STEAMY... A NEW ALBUM BY JEFFREY OSBORNE with PRODUCER GEORGE DUKE

30 years after creating some of the biggest hits in R&B together, Jeffrey Osborne and George Duke have reunited for a new album, taking on classic love songs and pop standards in A TIME FOR LOVE.

Releasing just in time for Valentine's Day, the new CD pairs the Grammy-nominated and platinum-selling artist with George Duke, one of the greatest jazz and R&B producers of all time, to create a collection of beloved songs updated with incredible arrangements and Osborne's signature baritone. His trademark smooth, romantic vocals breathe new life into these timeless classics.

Listeners will be charmed by the clever new arrangements on standards like What A Wonderful World, Smile, Nature Boy, My One and Only Love and Osborne's hot new duet with Chaka Khan: Baby, It's Cold Outside. Both sentimental and tender, the 12 tracks on A TIME FOR LOVE will light a fire when the lights are low -- it's the ideal album for an enchanted Valentine's Day or any time you want to set a special mood.

WHY BUY?

Rossum, who was in the Children's Chorus of the New York Metropolitan Opera (performing with Placido Domingo and Luciano Pavarotti), made her film debut in the Appalachian music drama Songcatcher at age 14 (winning an Independent Spirit Award nomination and duetting with Dolly Parton on the soundtrack) and scored a Golden Globe nomination for her role as Christine in the movie Phantom of the Opera at just 17. Even as her acting career took flight (she is currently co-starring with William H. Macy in the Showtime series Shameless and with Emma Thompson and Jeremy Irons in the upcoming feature film Beautiful Creatures), music has remained central in her life.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Greg Kurstin, Rob Cavallo, Justin Meldal-Johnsen

Vinyl Details: 1-LP, 140 gram black vinyl in direct-to-board single pocket jacket with lyric insert at Pirates with bonus CD (STCD-534280) in plain white sleeve.

Description: "No one will confuse this with any of our other records," Sara says. "It's got a bigger, bolder, happier sound." Tegan is explicit about the supersized ambitions motivating the record. "I kept asking myself: Can I hear this in an arena? Can I hear this on a teenager's iPod as they're riding the bus to school?"

Heartthrob doesn't just sound different, it represents a more collaborative way of making music. For the first time, the sisters actually wrote a lot of the songs together (in the past there were Tegan songs and Sara songs), and they surrendered more control than usual in the studio, dividing songs between 3 producers (Greg Kurstin, Justin Meldal-Johnsen, and Mike Elizondo) and a handful of outside musicians to capture the sound they were looking for. Tegan and Sara are both effusive about Kurstin's role in the process.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Tegan and Sara's 13-year career has seen them build an avid global following of fans and fellow musicians alike. Their unique ability to bridge the pop and indie worlds has allowed their music to cross all traditional boundaries of genre, from being covered by The White Stripes to collaborating with superstar DJs such as Tiesto and David Guetta. Having sold nearly 1 million career albums and toured with acts from The Killers to Neil Young, Tegan and Sara are now positioned for the release of their 7th studio album – Heartthrob – as internationally-celebrated songwriters, performers, and artists.

Tegan Quin and Sara Quin were born in Calgary, Alberta, Canada in 1980 and began playing guitar and writing songs at age 15. Following the release of their first independent full-length album in 1999, Under Feet Like Ours, they caught the attention of Neil Young's iconic manager, Elliot Roberts, who quickly signed them to his Los Angeles-based label, Vapor Records. Tegan and Sara's first international release on Vapor, This Business Of Art, was followed by extensive worldwide touring, including opening slots with Neil Young himself and a first appearance on The Late Show with David Letterman. In 2002, the band released If It Was You, a foundational moment in Tegan and Sara's creative path and musical identity. Its fresh sonic template and critical success in the US set up their fourth studio album, So Jealous, which ultimately provided their global breakthrough.

In 2007, the release of The Con brought even more critical and commercial acclaim to Tegan and Sara. The album was co-produced by Chris Walla, with members of Death Cab for Cutie, Weezer and AFI all appearing in supporting musician roles. Their sixth studio album, Sainthood, was released in 2009 and was accompanied by a self-published three-volume book set titled ON, IN, AT, which chronicled a year in the life of Tegan and Sara, in both words and pictures. Sainthood was ultimately nominated for a Juno Award (Canadian Grammy equivalent) and the Polaris Prize. One of the album's singles, "Alligator," was remixed by a wide cross-section of artists including Four Tet, Passion Pit, Ra Ra Riot, and VHS or Beta.

Tegan and Sara have played countless festivals around the world including Coachella, Bonnaroo, Glastonbury, Lollapalooza, Austin City Limits, and have toured with artists such as The Killers, The Black Keys, Jack Johnson, Neil Young, The Pretenders, Ben Folds, City and Colour, Death Cab For Cutie, Cyndi Lauper, Weezer and Paramore. Since 2003, they have headlined tours in North America, Europe, Asia and Australia, consistently selling out theatres around the world. Their music has been featured in major network television programs including 90210, Parenthood, Grey's Anatomy, Veronica Mars, The Vampire Diaries, and One Tree Hill. They have performed multiple times on Letterman, Leno and Conan. They have collaborated with artists in all genres, from superstar DJs such as Tiesto and David Guetta, to seminal literary figures such as Augusten Burroughs. Though their music is not overtly political, Tegan and Sara are very politically

Description: O.N.I.F.C. is the follow-up to Wiz Khalifa's gold-certified major label debut, Rolling Papers, which was released in March 2011, and spawned the multi-platinum hits "Black And Yellow," "Roll Up" and "No Sleep." Wiz earned himself two nominations at this year's Grammy Awards thanks to his breakout hit "Black And Yellow," in both the "Best Rap Song" and "Best Rap Performance" categories. Khalifa then joined forces with Snoop Dogg for "Mac And Devin Go To High School Soundtrack," the collaborative soundtrack album for the film "Mac And Devin Go To High School." The album featured the hit single "Young, Wild & Free (feat. Bruno Mars)," which has gone on to become 3x-certified Platinum, and has peaked at #7 on Billboard's Hot 100 singles chart. Wiz kicked off 2012 with a high-profile campaign with Bing, where he was featured in the search engine's nationwide commercials.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Pittsburgh, PA

"Being out in front of people and just being 'The Man'" might sound like a vague and ridiculous dream to have, but for Cameron Thomaz it might be the most appropriate thought to cross any mind. Better known as Wiz Khalifa, the son of two military parents has always had his eye on being a new standard by which cool is measured. Rapping since the third grade and starting to record music at 14 was probably a step in the right direction. The next best move? Inking a deal to Rostrum Records after a meeting with Benjy Grinberg.

Any other 20-year-old probably would've let all this hype go to their heads, but not Wiz. As focused as ever, Wiz only saw this praise as an opportunity to work harder. In 2007, with the help of famed mixtape DJ, Green Lantern, Wiz released "Grow Season," which was soon followed by "Prince of The City 2." The sequel to "Prince of The City" would soon out grow its predecessor so much so that the demand for Khalifa's music was greater than ever.

Unfortunately, the relationship between Khalifa and Warner Bros. dissolved, and once again, Wiz found himself as an independent artist. Typically a huge roadblock for any artist, Wiz refused to allow the lack of a major label deal to slow down his momentum. He and his Rostrum team hit the ground running in 2009 and released three highly acclaimed mixtapes: "Flight School," "How Fly," a collaborative mixtape with New Orleans rapper Curren$y, and "Burn After Rolling." The album "Deal Or No Deal" followed in the Fall and debuted at the top of the iTunes "Hip-Hop" chart, and has remained in the top 50 to date.

In the months following, both his fanbase (known as the "Taylor Gang") and the anticipation for his new mixtape grew daily. Once Wiz dropped "Kush & Orange Juice" in early 2010, it was clear that he had established himself as one of the rap-game's brightest young stars to watch. With an unprecedented amount of downloads, not to mention both the top search on Google as well as the number one trending topic on Twitter, it seemed as if the entire nation was on board with the "Taylor Gang" movement. Many said that the release of "Kush & Orange Juice" placed Wiz as the valedictorian of his "XXL Freshmen 10" class and kicked open the doors he and his team were looking to walk through.

Fast forward a few months, and together Wiz and Rostrum Records proudly announced that these doors were those of Atlantic Records, the new home to Wiz Khalifa. Following this huge milestone in his career, Wiz soon embarked on a stint on the famed "Rock The Bells" tour alongside such legends as Lauryn Hill and Snoop Dogg, immediately followed by his nation-wide headlining tour, appropriately dubbed the "Waken Baken Tour." After receiving co-signs from a multitude of rap veterans, including Rick Ross and Diddy, and humbly rejecting Drake's offer to join his recent tour, it became evident that Wiz also established himself as a prominent staple online with over 1,000,000 friends on Facebook, and over 500,000 fans following him on Twitter. With the video for his first Atlantic Records release, "Black & Yellow," getting an astonishing 3 million views on YouTube, there is no question about it: Wiz Khalifa's debut album is bound to be something great..

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Glasgow, Scotland

Frightened Rabbit is among the most acclaimed bands of the past decade, earning wide-ranging critical applause and a fervent international fan following with their emotionally exhilarating melodies and scathingly frank lyricism. The band's most recent full-length, 2010's The Winter Of Mixed Drinks (FatCat Records), was met with unanimous acclaim both here and at home. The Guardian's Dave Simpson declared that "(Scott Hutchison's) songwriting is sharp throughout and most of their songs – with themes of escape, freedom and reinvention – have huge impassioned choruses that are made to be shouted from the nearest available mountain... This is the sound of a band upping their game." What's more, The Winter Of Mixed Drinks was selected by NPR listeners as one of their "50 Favorite Albums of 2010."

As moving and triumphant on stage as they are on record, Frightened Rabbit has performed countless headline shows, as well as sharing stages with such like-minded artists as Modest Mouse and Atlantic labelmates Death Cab for Cutie. The band has also won over audiences at a scope of international festivals, including Glastonbury, T In The Park, Oxegen Festival, and Latitude in the UK, Australia's Splendour in the Grass, and our own Lollapalooza and South By SouthWest (SXSW).

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Los Angeles, CA

Josh Groban is a triple-threat: an internationally renowned singer, songwriter, and actor who has entertained fans across the globe with his multi-platinum albums and DVDs (25 million sold worldwide), electrifying live performances, and comedic film and television appearances. Over the last couple of years alone, the 31-year-old Los Angeles native has completed a sold-out world tour, and appeared in the feature film Crazy, Stupid, Love, as well as on NBC's The Office. The 31-year-old Los Angeles native first broke through in 2001 with his self-titled double-platinum debut album, followed by 2003's multi-platinum Closer, featuring the smash hit "You Raise Me Up," and 2006's double-platinum Awake. In 2007, the Grammy-nominated star became the best-selling recording artist of the year thanks to sales of Awake and his blockbuster Grammy-nominated Christmas album, Noel — the best-selling album of 2007.

Groban ranks as Billboard's 14th top-selling artist of the 2000s with more than 20 million units sold in the U.S. alone. According to Billboard, Josh is the only artist to have two albums appear on the Top 20 best selling albums list of the past decade.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description:

Acclaimed American singer-songwriter-poet, Jewel has enjoyed career longevity rare among her generation of artists. Since achieving international stardom 18 years ago, the Alaskan beauty has emerged as a charismatic live performer and a respected songwriter with 10 studio albums to her credit. She's earned four Grammy®nominations along the way, the most recent for her 2010 country ballad, "Satisfied."

Rhino brings together Jewel's best for her first ever career-spanning collection that includes new recordings of two classic hits with guest vocalists: "Foolish Games" with Kelly Clarkson and "You Were Meant For Me" with the Pistol Annies. The collection also includes one brand new single which will be revealed in the coming weeks. Jewel's Greatest Hits will be available February 5.

Signed to Atlantic Records before she was 19, Jewel has sold more than 27 million albums during her career. Her 1995 debut, Pieces of You, dominated the charts for with "Who Will Save Your Soul," "You Were Meant For Me" and "Foolish Games" on its way to selling more than 12 million copies in the U.S. alone.

Her next two albums - 1998's Spirit and 2001's This Way - both went platinum while introducing fans to hits like "Jupiter," "Hands," "Standing Still" and "Break Me." Jewel switched directions in 2003 with 0304, an album that fused elements of electronic and folk to create a delightfully quirky mix epitomized by the contrast of dance beats and accordion on the single "Intuition," which became a huge hit single on both the dance and pop charts.

"Good Day" is taken from Jewel's fifth top 10 album, 2006's Goodbye Alice In Wonderland, an album on which each song was a chapter in an overarching story. In 2009, Jewel recorded Lullaby at her home in Stephenville, Texas. This best selling children's album - her first of two so far - mixed originals with standards like her stunning cover of "Somewhere Over The Rainbow." She followed up Lullaby with, The Merry Goes 'Round which was named iTunes "Children's Album of the Year" in 2011.

Jewel topped the Billboard country album chart in 2008 with her first country album, Perfectly Clear, which is represented on this collection by the Top 15 single "Stronger Woman." Her second country album, 2010's Sweet and Wild, included the Grammy nominated-single "Satisfied."

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Nashville, TN

Jewel is an acclaimed American singer, songwriter, actress, poet, painter, philanthropist and daughter to an Alaskan cowboy singer-songwriter.

From the remote ranch of her Alaskan youth to the triumph of international stardom, the three-time Grammy nominee, hailed by the New York Times as a "songwriter bursting with talents" has enjoyed career longevity rare among her generation of artists. Whether alone with her guitar or fronting a band of ace musicians, Jewel has always been a charismatic live performer, earning the respect of other singer-songwriters such as Merle Haggard, Bob Dylan and Neil Young, who, not only invited her to open their shows, but mentored her in the early phases of her career.

Her singular style and beauty continuously land her on the covers of such diverse magazines as Time, People, Entertainment Weekly, Vanity Fair, In Style, Glamour and Seventeen. Stuff listed her among its '102 Sexiest Women in the World' while Blender went further, crowning her 'rock's sexiest poet.' She has experienced a tremendous amount of success as a singer-songwriter, with over 27 million albums sold.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: New Jersey

My Chemical Romance formed in suburban New Jersey in 2001 out of a mutual love of horror movies, music and punk philosophies. Following 2002's indie debut, I Brought You My Bullets, You Brought Me Your Love, 2004's Three Cheers For Sweet Revenge cracked the Top 30 and spawned the pop Top 40 "Helena" and Top 10 Modern Rockers "I'm Not OK (I Promise)" and "The Ghost Of You." The "Helena" video was #1 on "TRL" and earned five VMA nominations. The 2005 CD+2DVD package Life On The Murder Scene reached the pop Top 30. 2006's The Black Parade shot to No. 2 on Billboard's Top 200 album chart, selling more than 240,000 copies its first week of release, and spawning four Modern Rock smash singles and has sold more than 3 million albums worldwide. Dubbed "Album of the Year" by Blender Magazine, The Black Parade earned raves from critics (Rolling Stone called it "a rabid, ingenious paraphrasing of echoes and kitsch from rock's golden age of bombast," while Spin called it "savage and heartfelt") and cemented MCR's status as a world-class rock band.
