ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Dance

Description: "For the last few years we've been feeling like things have been getting repetitive. We've always had goals of ascending beyond the festival bangers we're known for, so around a year ago we set out to create a body of work that reflected our depth and growth as producers," they explained to The FADER. "We've always had bigger aspirations than just the dance space which came hand in hand with our 'Death To Genres' mentality. To us, music was more about what made you move rather than what type of music was playing. With this album we're able to explore all facets of music that we love, flip the script and bring everything together into one fluid album that we're really proud of".

Band Members: Matt TothandJulio Mejia

GTA aka 'Good Times Ahead' confidently represent characteristics such as musical integrity and originality in abundance. At the mere age of twenty-five and in the space of only a few prolific years, the Miami-born DJs/Producers have managed to build a remarkable musical empire, boasting an impressive 2.6 million monthly Spotify listeners and over 350 million aggregated YouTube plays. Their innate ability behind the decks has seen them stun some of the most esteemed festivals around the globe, including Coachella, Lollapalooza, Ultra Music Festival, Made In America, Tomorrowland, and many more on top of headlining their own tours, a 2016 residency at Hakkasan Vegas, and joining Rihanna on her 'Diamonds World Tour'. Whether it's their own original song, an innovative remix, or collaborations with some of music's A-list artists, GTA have continued to receive support from both fans and the 'who's who' in the music industry. Whether it be their 2013 Diplo assisted single 'Boy Oh Boy' that garnered over 86 million Youtube plays, their 2015 hit 'Intoxicated' with Martin Solveig (which went top 5 on UK charts), their genre-bending collaboration with Rick Ross on 'Movin Bass', which amassed over 11 million plays on Spotify, their remix of Rihanna's 'BBHMM' with 5 million plays on Soundcloud, or their being enlisted by the prominent Rick Rubin on his Star Wars: Headspace compilation, GTA are paving the way for genre-less music to stand at the forefront.

DESIGN

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop

Description: Jethro Tull's second album, Stand Up, marked an early turning point for the band with the addition of guitarist Martin Barre along with Ian Anderson's introduction of folk-rock influences to the group's blues-based sound. Released in the summer of 1969, Stand Up rose quickly to the top of the U.K. Albums Chart, and eventually earned gold certification in the U.S. This fall, Parlophone will release a deluxe version of the album as a 2CD/1DVD set.

Highlights from the set include:

- Original album and bonus tracks (including the previously unreleased "Bouree") remixed in 5.1 surround and stereo by Steven Wilson
- 96/24 flat transfer of the original stereo master tapes
- 96/24 flat transfer of the original mono and stereo mixes of "Living In The Past" and "Driving Song"
- Video of the band performing live in January 1969
- Presented in the now familiar book sized packaging that includes a 112-page booklet with an extensive history of the album, track-by-track annotations by Ian Anderson, plus rare and unseen photographs
- Includes the original album's pop-up book artwork designed by James Grashow

Stand Up was the first album where Anderson controlled the music and lyrics, resulting in a group of diverse songs that ranged from the swirling blues of "A New Day Yesterday" and the mandolin-fueled rave-up of "Fat Man," to the group's spirited re-working of Johann Sebastian Bach's "Bouree in E Minor." In a recent interview, Anderson picked Stand Up as his favorite Jethro Tull album, "because that was my first album of first really original music. It has a special place in my heart."

The first disc features Steven Wilson's new stereo mixes of the original album, along with a number of rare recordings, including an unreleased version of "Bouree." Other highlights include four songs recorded at the BBC, plus stereo single mixes for "Living In The Past" and "Driving Song."

The second disc captures Jethro Tull performing live in Sweden, where the band opened for Jimi Hendrix in January 1969. Recorded only a few weeks after Barre joined the band, the concert includes songs from Tull's debut album ("A Song For Jeffery" and "My Sunday Feeling"), as well as two songs destined for Stand Up: "Back To The Family" and "Nothing Is Easy." Rounding out the disc are mono single mixes for "Living In The Past" and "Driving Song," plus two radio spots promoting the album.

The DVD includes concert footage of the band performing "To Be Sad Is A Mad Way To Be" and "Back To The Family." The disc also features Steven Wilson's remix of the original album in PCM stereo and DD/DTS 5.1 surround sound; a 96/24 flat transfer of the original stereo master tapes; plus a 96/24 flat transfer of the original mono and stereo mixes of "Living In The Past" and "Driving Song."

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Luton, Bedfordshire, England

Jethro Tull is a British rock group, formed in Luton, Bedfordshire, in December 1967. Initially playing blues rock, the band soon developed its sound to incorporate elements of British folk music and hard rock to forge a progressive rock signature. Jethro Tull has sold over 60 million albums worldwide, with 11 gold and five platinum albums among them.

For more than 30 years, NewSong has cultivated not only an impressive discography of hits that have ministered to the Church, but the GRAMMY®-nominated band has also brought us one of Christian music's biggest success stories-Winter Jam. What started as an avenue 18 years ago for the group to play at neutral venues with a simple donation at the door has turned into a launching pad for new artists and the largest first-quarter tour in the world for the past two years. As creators and hosts of Christian music's premier multi-artist tour model, NewSong continues to maintain a relevancy that few artists can sustain over the course of three decades.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Toronto, Ontario

One of the most influential artists of all time, Neil Young has set a standard of artistic integrity and iconoclastic creativity. Before starting his multi-platinum solo career, he was a founding member of the folk-rock band Buffalo Springfield and worked with the groups Crazy Horse and Crosby, Stills and Nash. The Canadian singer-songwriter was recognized by the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1995 for his work as a solo artist and was inducted into the Canadian Music Hall of Fame in 1982. Young's philanthropic work is as renowned as his musical legacy. His famous Bridge School Benefit Concert has become a yearly tradition since 1986 and continues to boast an incredible line-up of high-profile artists. Each year, Young donates all of the proceeds to the Bay Area's Bridge School, which assists children with severe physical impairments and complex communication needs. He was also one of the original founders of Farm Aid in 1985, and continues to be an active member on the organization's board of directors.

Description: "SUICIDE SQUAD: THE ALBUM" is as wildly diverse as the Suicide Squad itself, showcasing new and previously unreleased material from some of the most commendable artists in contemporary music. Other highlights include tracks from such unprecedented assemblages as Action Bronson & Dan Auerbach (of The Black Keys) [Feat. Mark Ronson], and Skrillex & Rick Ross. What's more, "SUICIDE SQUAD: THE ALBUM" also features new songs from Kevin Gates, Kehlani, Skylar Grey, Grimes and Panic! At The Disco (who offer up an astounding rendition of Queen's classic "Bohemian Rhapsody"). In addition to these new tracks, the album features musical classics from War and Creedence Clearwater Revival, as well as Eminem's timeless anthem "Without Me" and a modern rendition of Leslie Gore's classic "You Don't Own Me" by Grace and contemporary superstar G-Eazy. The album also features the first full-length version of the ConfidentialMX (Feat. Becky Hanson) cover of "I Started A Joke," which was featured in the Suicide Squad Comic-Con trailer, named one of the most-watched trailers of 2015 with over 136 million views since its release.

"SUICIDE SQUAD: THE ALBUM" will be celebrated in the coming weeks with the continued release of several additional instant grat tracks, including "Standing In The Rain," by Action Bronson & Dan Auerbach (of The Black Keys) [Feat. Mark Ronson] and "Purple Lamborghini" by Skrillex & Rick Ross - which will be accompanied by an official music video featuring a special cameo performance by Jared Leto as The Joker. Kehlani's "Gangsta" will also be released as an instant grat along with its official companion video. For regularly updated news and information, please see www.suicidesquad.com.

"SUICIDE SQUAD: THE ALBUM" was produced by Atlantic Records President of Film & TV and GRAMMY® Award-winning soundtrack producer Kevin Weaver (Furious 7, Boardwalk Empire, The Fault In Our Stars, CREED, Girls Volumes 1 & 2, True Blood Volumes 1 & 2) and Creative Officer of Warner Music Group and CEO of both Artist Publishing and Partner Groups, Mike Caren, who recently co-A&Red the Furious 7 soundtrack with Weaver, and has been responsible for signing more than twenty Gold and Platinum-selling artists including Trey Songz, T.I., Flo Rida and Wiz Khalifa.

ARTIST & INFO

From director David Ayer (Fury, End of Watch) comes SUICIDE SQUAD, starring Oscar-nominee Will Smith (Ali, The Pursuit of Happyness), Oscar-winner Jared Leto (Dallas Buyers Club), Margot Robbie (The Wolf of Wall Street, Focus), Joel Kinnaman (Netflix's House of Cards) and Oscar nominee Viola Davis (The Help, Doubt).

It feels good to be bad... Assemble a team of the world's most dangerous, incarcerated Super Villains, provide them with the most powerful arsenal at the government's disposal, and send them off on a mission to defeat an enigmatic, insuperable entity. U.S. intelligence officer Amanda Waller has determined only a secretly convened group of disparate, despicable individuals with next to nothing to lose will do. However, once they realize they weren't picked to succeed but chosen for their patent culpability when they inevitably fail, will the Suicide Squad resolve to die trying, or decide it's every man for himself?

Written and directed by Ayer based on the characters from DC Comics, SUICIDE SQUAD also stars Jai Courtney (Insurgent), Jay Hernandez (Takers), Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje (Thor: The Dark World), Ike Barinholtz (Neighbors), Scott Eastwood (Fury), Cara Delevingne (Paper Towns), Adam Beach (Cowboys & Aliens), and Karen Fukuhara in her feature film debut. SUICIDE SQUAD is produced by Charles Roven and Richard Suckle, with Zack Snyder, Deborah Snyder, Colin Wilson and Geoff Johns serving as executive producers.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Classical

Description: Camille & Julie are the Berthollet sisters, two extraordinarily gifted musical siblings from the idyllic Rhône-Alpes region in France. Camille (17) plays violin and cello and Julie (19) violin and viola. They became celebrities in France when the then 15-year-old Camille won Prodiges, a TV show for classical virtuosos under the age of 16. After captivating more than four million viewers on the France 2 network with her searing rendition of 'Summer' from Vivaldi's Four Seasons, Camille was immediately signed to Warner Classics, her debut album (featuring her older sister as duo partner) going on to achieve Gold status with more than 80,000 copies sold in France alone. On their second album together, with the support of the Monte Carlo Philharmonic Orchestra, the sibling sensations reveal the poise, maturity and musical prowess they have continued to develop since Prodiges, confirming their talent goes far beyond the TV phenomenon that launched their bright careers.

ARTIST & INFO

Born in 1999, the Franco-Swiss musician Camille Berthollet began cello studies at the age of four in the town of Annecy in the Rhône-Alpes, entering the Geneva Conservatorium 'Musimax' program when she was ten. At twelve, she was admitted to the Lyon Conservatorium in the class of Augustin Lefebvre, obtaining honours with the unanimous congratulations of the jury for her music diploma final exam in 2013. That same year, she was admitted to the Bachelor degree of the Geneva University of Music in the class of François Guye. From the age of ten, Camille was repeatedly awarded the First Prize of the Vattelot-Rampal Competition in Aix-les-Bains and Paris. In 2010, 2012 and 2014 she also won the First Prize of the Swiss Youth Competition for Music and in December 2012 claimed the First Prize of the Popper Competition in Paris. In May 2013, she appeared with the orchestra of the Beauvais Cello Festival. Camille has taken part in prestigious masterclasses with teachers including Philippe Muller, Frans Helmerson, Gustav Rivinius, Leonid Gorokhov, Susan Moses, Denis Severin, Marcio Carneiro and the Tokyo String Quartet. From the age of eight, alongside the cello, Camille undertook violin classes with Hong Anh Shapiro in Geneva. These studies were further enriched by courses with Mimi Zweig at the Jacobs School of Music in Bloomington, Indiana University (where she won the Concerto Competition in 2011), as well as courses at the Zakhar Bron School of Music in Switzerland, and in Vienna at the Amadeus School. In 2012 she was laureate of the Tournoi International de Musique (TIM) competition in Paris. In August 2013, she was awarded 2nd Prize in the prestigious Mary Smart international competition in New York in the under-sixteen category, and in 2014 the 1st prize of the Talents for Europe competition in the under-seventeens. She has performed on Stradivarius and del Gesù violins in Europe, Asia and the United States. With her older sister Julie, Camille appears often in various duo combinations (violin / cello, two violins, cello / viola, violin / viola). They have won prizes in duo including the First Prize with Special Mention in the Schweizerischer Jugendmusikwettbewerb competition (SJMw) in 2011, 2013 and 2015. They have also qualified together for the finals of the Tournoi International de Musique Competition – the youngest duo ever selected. With their quartet they were invited to open for the Tokyo String Quartet in Geneva during that ensemble's farewell tour. The sisters were invited to play at the Summit Music Festival in New York in August 2013 as well as for the No.1 classical radio station in New York, WQXR. She is the recipient of a scholarship from the Friedl Wald Foundation. Camille shot to fame in France and abroad in 2014, at the age of 15, when she was hailed winner in the first edition of the young talent competition Prodiges (Prodigies), produced by Shine France, televised on France 2 and watched by 4.5 million viewers. She has since signed as an exclusive artist to Warner Classics, with the label releasing her premiere recording in October 2015. On the album, entitled Prodiges (Prodigies), she is accompanied by her sister, pianist Guillaume Vincent, and the Auvergne Orchestra, with Gautier Capuçon as special guest.

Genre: Classical

Description: "A virtuoso with the deep-souled tone of a poet..." (Huffington Post) "Janusz Wawrowski is a unique violinist, who deserves a wonderful career on the scene" (Ida Haendel) Polish violinist Janusz Wawrowski's second Warner Classics album, Sequenza, will be released on 21 October. Following the success of his previous albums Aurora and the Paganini Caprices, this new release takes its title from the infamous 'unplayable' Sequenza by Italian composer Luciano Berio. The album marks a bold departure for Wawrowski, with little-known and often pioneering repertoire for solo violin, enabling Janusz Wawrowski to explore the broadest possible scope for original interpretation with the full spectrum of technical craftsmanship and the challenges of the violin – unflinchingly alone in some of the most demanding repertoire ever written for the instrument, the intimate act of playing solo, armed only with exceptional technique and deep insight into the music. Wawrowski is searching for connections between music and mind, music and structure, music and science... The album features both well-known compositions by legendary masters like Berio, Ysaÿe and fellow Poles Penderecki and Bacewicz, as well as pieces written specially for Janusz Wawrowski in close collaboration with young composers, including two world-premiere recordings. Diverse, colourful repertoire enables this virtuoso to create a rich universe of sound with only one instrument.

ARTIST & INFO

Janusz Wawrowski is a Polish violin virtuoso and Warner Classics artist. He graduated from the Chopin University of Music in Warsaw, where he studied under professor Mirosław Wątrnowicz. Later he mastered his skills under Yair Kless and Salvatore Accardo. Wawrowski has performed at the Berliner Philharmonie, Piotr Tchaikovsky's Conservatory in Moscow, Victoria and Albert Museum in London, De Doelen Concertgebouw in Rotterdam, Tel Aviv Music Center, Teatro Teresa Carreño in Caracas and others. He also participated in many reputable festivals, such as Salzburger Festspiele, Festspiele Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, Chopin and His Europe Festival, Festival of premiers, Transatlantyk Festival and Bebersee Festival. Janusz Wawrowski has appeared as a soloist with Warsaw Philharmonic Orchestra, Sinfonia Varsovia, Polish National Radio Symphony Orchestra Katowice (NOSPR), Polish Radio Symphony Orchestra (POR), Amadeus Chamber Orchestra of Polish Radio, Südwestdeutsche Philharmonie, Simón Bolívar Symphony Orchestra in Venezuela and many other orchestras in Poland, the Czech Republic and Ukraine. He has been working with artists such as Conrad van Alphen, Łukasz Borowicz, Gabriel Chmura, Mykola Diadiura, Agnieszka Duczmal, Michał Dworzyński, Arthur Fagen, Jacek Kasprzyk, Jerzy Maksymiuk, Tomáš Netopil, Vladimir Ponkin and Antoni Wit. Janusz Wawrowski premiered several contemporary violin concertos: Vivaldi Recomposed by Max Richter (Polish premiere), The Four Seasons by Sukhi Kang (Polish premiere), L.A. Concerto by Tomasz Jakub Opałka (world premiere performance) and Óneiros concerto by Dariusz Przybylski (world premiere recording). Collaborating with Jan A. P. Kaczmarek, Wawrowski premiered and recorded music for Hollywood films – Evening (directed by Lajos Koltai) and Get Low (directed by Aaron Schneider). As a very young student, Janusz Wawrowski acquired a unique skill of performing all the famous 24 Caprices by Paganini in one concert evening. In 2007 he recorded his first CD, Niccolò Paganini 24 Caprices Op. 1. This cycle was also recorded on the disc, which is now in its re-release (Warner Classic 2016). The first recording he made under his exclusive contract with Warner Classics Poland is his album Aurora with music by Szymanowski, Lutosławski, Ravel and Ysaÿe which was nominated for the Fryderyk 2014. Publishing plans for the next season include recording albums with the BBC Symphony Orchestra and Stuttgarter Philharmoniker with music, among others, by Mieczysław Karłowicz and Henryk Wieniawski. Beyond the concert stage, he is a violin professor at The Fryderyk Chopin University of Music in Warsaw and the Artistic Director of the chamber music festival Spaces of Music. Janusz Wawrowski is a keen explorer, performer and editor of missing or forgotten works by Polish composers, including Mieczysław Karłowicz, Karol Lipiński and Zygmunt Noskowski which brings joy and satisfaction not only for this artist but also for his listeners.

Blur were formed in 1989 by Damon Albarn, Graham Coxon, Alex James and Dave Rowntree and signed with Food/EMI the same year. Announcing their arrival with debut album Leisure in 1991, Blur continued to revolutionise the sound of English popular music with second release Modern Life Is Rubbish(1993). Five successive UK #1 albums followed - with Parklife (1994) and The Great Escape (1995) helping to propel the band to mass popularity in the UK and beyond. The eponymous Blur was released in 1997 and seventh album Think Tank (2003) was Blur's first as a three-piece after the temporary departure of founding guitarist Graham Coxon. One of the most successful British bands of the last two decades, Blur have won a total of five BRIT Awards, and were twice nominated for the Mercury Music Award.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Queens NY

The Ramones ignited the punk-rock movement with their eponymous 1976 debut album, revitalizing rock and roll at one of its lowest ebbs with attitude, energy and a loud, fast new sound. By cutting music down to its bare essentials – four chords; a simple, catchy melody; a sped up tempo and irresistibly inane lyrics, the Ramones blazed the trail for thousands of bands that followed, influencing everyone from The Clash and The Sex Pistols to Green Day and The Offspring. Although The Ramones never achieved mainstream financial success, they released 21 live and studio albums, had a devoted fan base and were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2002.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Holiday

Description: In addition to the tracks already familiar to and loved by TSO fans from the 2001 multi-platinum DVD and long running PBS fundraiser THE GHOSTS OF CHRISTMAS EVE, this new album version contains a special bonus track, "Music Box Blues (Daryl Pediford Tribute New York 2004)."

ARTIST & INFO

Since its first tour in 1999, TSO has been one of the most successful acts in the concert business, consistently rating in the Top 10 for both gross revenues and audience attendance. In that time, TSO's annual tours have become a must-see tradition for rock-centric holiday revelers, attracting a uniquely all-ages audience captivated by their cross-genre blending of metal and progressive rock, classical themes and great storytelling, with unequalled staging and pyrotechnics. TSO's 2008 Winter Tour was its most successful to date. In ten short weeks, it played to over 1.2 million fans, generating revenues in excess of $40 million and earning the most attendance on Billboard's Top 25 Tours chart. On November 1, 2009, TSO will head out on its most ambitious sojourn yet, journeying to 80+ cities in North America for more than 130+ concert. TSO sold over 1.5 million CD/DVDs in the past 2 years and over 7 million CD's since 1996

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Holiday

Description: "I'LL HAVE ANOTHER...CHRISTMAS ALBUM" marks Straight No Chaser's first full-length holiday release since 2009's RIAA gold certified "CHRISTMAS CHEERS." "I'LL HAVE ANOTHER...CHRISTMAS ALBUM" collects a cache of Christmas classics both old and new, including beloved carols, holiday favorites made famous by Coldplay, Mariah Carey, and Stevie Wonder, and newly penned original songs. To record the album, the group returned to where their story began-Indiana University in Bloomington, IN.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Bloomington, IN

Straight No Chaser is an all-male a Capella group from Indiana. The group formed during their college years at Indiana University in 1996 and have been together ever since. In 2008, Atlantic Records noticed a video for their 12 Days Of Christmas and signed the group immediately. SNC has been releasing music on Atlantic ever since and has found success covering Top 40 songs as well as recording Christmas songs.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Classical

Description: One of opera's most outspoken and impassioned personalities, Joyce DiDonato reminds us with her new album In War and Peace that music "soothes turmoil, threatens power and the status quo, and gloriously exalts the spirit". Her selection of arias demonstrates how powerfully Baroque opera explores the extremes of human nature – from the tumult of Handel's Scenes of Horror, Scenes of Woe to Purcell's descent into despair, Dido's Lament. Joyce's longtime partners, the spirited Italian Baroque ensemble Il Pomo d'Oro, join her on this unique journey through sublime, challenging music; through chaos transformed by the eternal search for serenity.

ARTIST & INFO

Kansas City-born mezzo-soprano Joyce DiDonato has soared to the top of her industry both as a performer and a fierce advocate for the arts, gaining international prominence in operas by Handel and Mozart, as well as in the bel cantos of Rossini and Donizetti. The Financial Times raved that her recent performance as Elena in La donna del Lago was "simply the best singing I've heard in years," and the London Times has described her voice as "nothing less than 24-carat gold." Her wide-ranging discography has also garnered international acclaim and multiple GRAMMY Awards, including the 2016 honor for Best Classical Solo Vocal Album and the 2012 award for Best Classical Vocal Solo. Much in demand on the concert and recital circuit, DiDonato has recently held residencies at Carnegie Hall and at London's Barbican Centre, has toured extensively in South America, Europe and Asia, and has appeared as guest soloist at the BBC's Last Night of the Proms. Recent highlights include the title role in Maria Stuarda at the Metropolitan Opera, for The Royal Opera and at the Liceu in Barcelona; the title role in Alcinaon tour with the English Concert and Harry Bicket; and Marguerite in La damnation de Faust with the Berlin Philharmonic under Sir Simon Rattle. In 2015-16 she performed as Donna Elvira in Don Giovanni with The Royal Opera, made her debut as Charlotte in Werther for The Royal Opera, held the role of Arden Scott in the world premiere of Jake Heggie's Great Scott at the Dallas Opera, and returned to the Metropolitan Opera as Elena in La donna del lago. DiDonato records exclusively for Erato/Warner

Classics. Her latest recording, Tony & Joyce Live at Wigmore Hall, was selected as "le choix de France Musique" in addition to winning a 2016 GRAMMY Award. Other recordings include Stella di Napoli, a sumptuous bel canto banquet including little-known gems alongside music by Bellini, Rossini and Donizetti. Her GRAMMY-winning recording Diva Diva comprises arias by male and female characters, celebrating the rich dramatic world of the mezzo-soprano. Her next project, Drama Queens, was exceptionally well received, both on disc and on several international tours. She released a retrospective of her first ten years of recordings, ReJoyce!, in 2013. Other honors include the Gramophone Artist of the Year and Recital of the Year awards, three German Echo Klassik Awards as Female Singer of the Year, and induction into the Gramophone Hall of Fame.

ARTIST & INFO

The Band, more than any other group, put rock and roll back in touch with its roots. With their ageless songs and solid grasp of musical idioms, the Band reached across the decades, making connections for a generation that was, as an era of violent cultural schisms wound down, in desperate search of them. They projected a sense of community in the turbulent late Sixties and early Seventies - a time when the fabric of community in the United States was fraying. Guitarist Robbie Robertson drew from history in his evocative, cinematic story-songs, and the vocal triumvirate of bassist Rick Danko, drummer Levon Helm and keyboardist Richard Manuel joined in rustic harmony and traded lines in rich, conversational exchanges. Multi-instrumentalist Garth Hudson provided musical coloration in period styles that evoked everything from rural carnivals of the early 20th century to rock and roll revues of the Fifties.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description: Available as a 4-CD/Blu-Ray set and — for the first time — the 40th Anniversary Deluxe Edition of the original soundtrack has 54 tracks, including the entire concert, as well as rehearsals and outtakes. Among the rarities are performances not featured in the film, such as "Furry Sings The Blues" with Joni Mitchell and "All Our Past Times" with Eric Clapton, plus rehearsals for "Caravan" with Van Morrison, "Such A Night" with Dr. John, and "King Harvest (Has Surely Come)" a song that was not performed in concert. The CD version also includes newly-penned liner notes revered music journalists David Fricke and Ben Fong-Torres along with a classic essay from 1977 written by iconic author Emmett Grogan.

ARTIST & INFO

The Band, more than any other group, put rock and roll back in touch with its roots. With their ageless songs and solid grasp of musical idioms, the Band reached across the decades, making connections for a generation that was, as an era of violent cultural schisms wound down, in desperate search of them. They projected a sense of community in the turbulent late Sixties and early Seventies - a time when the fabric of community in the United States was fraying. Guitarist Robbie Robertson drew from history in his evocative, cinematic story-songs, and the vocal triumvirate of bassist Rick Danko, drummer Levon Helm and keyboardist Richard Manuel joined in rustic harmony and traded lines in rich, conversational exchanges. Multi-instrumentalist Garth Hudson provided musical coloration in period styles that evoked everything from rural carnivals of the early 20th century to rock and roll revues of the Fifties. <http://rockhall.com/inductees/the-band/bio/>

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Holiday

Description: THE GHOSTS OF CHRISTMAS EVE as an audio package. These are tracks already familiar to and loved by TSO fans from the 2001 multi-platinum DVD and long running PBS fundraiser of the same name.

ARTIST & INFO

Since its first tour in 1999, TSO has been one of the most successful acts in the concert business, consistently rating in the Top 10 for both gross revenues and audience attendance. In that time, TSO's annual tours have become a must-see tradition for rock-centric holiday revelers, attracting a uniquely all-ages audience captivated by their cross-genre blending of metal and progressive rock, classical themes and great storytelling, with unequalled staging and pyrotechnics. TSO's 2008 Winter Tour was its most successful to date. In ten short weeks, it played to over 1.2 million fans, generating revenues in excess of $40 million and earning the most attendance on Billboard's Top 25 Tours chart. On November 1, 2009, TSO will head out on its most ambitious sojourn yet, journeying to 80+ cities in North America for more than 130+ concert. TSO sold over 1.5 million CD/DVDs in the past 2 years and over 7 million CD's since 1996

Genre: Country

Description: For many of today's top country artists, faith has been an integral part of their lives since their childhood days singing in church and it continues to powerfully inform their music. Country Faith celebrates the heart and soul of country music by sharing the songs of faith that reveal the most personal side of these award-winning entertainers. Country Faith Volume 2 is the fourth collection in the Country Faith series and like its predecessors brings you top hit-makers such as Brad Paisley, Dolly Parton, Lee Ann Womack and Luke Bryan alongside some of the genre's most exciting new talents like Michael Ray and Drew Baldrige. Longtime favorites such as Shenandoah, Wade Hayes, John Michael Montgomery and Wynonna also deliver songs that share the Good News of the Gospel. For believers who love a great country song with a lyric that illuminates God's grace and goodness, these are songs you'll treasure. Its America's favorite music combined with the most important message of all time!
