ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Christian Producers: Ian Eskelin Radio Formats: "This Is The Stuff" at Christian radio Focus Markets: Chicago, Los Angeles, Dallas, Kansas City, Houston, Seattle, Grand Rapids, Orlando, Tampa, Indianapolis

Description: The reigning Female Vocalist of the Year returns with a follow-up to her best-selling debut My Paper Heart. It's been a busy couple of years for Francesca, who between touring non-stop, getting married, and having her first child, still found time to write and record her sophomore album. Hundred More Years embodies Francesca's signature sound fans have come to love while exploring topics of family, friendship and life's joys and frustrations.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Orlando, FL, (currently residing Nashville, TN)

Inspired by legendary jazz greats and current contemporaries like John Mayer and Sara Bareilles, singer/songwriter Francesca Battistelli set out to write pop, soul-infused music that would motivate and encourage listeners of any age. Her exposure to the arts began at a young age with her interest and involvement in theatre, music and dance, and at 15, Francesca began writing and performing her own songs. My Paper Heart released to rave reviews and has since earned her a Grammy nomination (Best Gospel Song Performance), 2 Dove Awards and 11 Dove Award nominations in a two-year period. Her debut delivered the smash No. 1 single "Free To Be Me" and hit singles "It's Your Life," "I'm Letting Go" and "Beautiful, Beautiful." With over 390,000 copies sold and well over 775,000 downloads to date, Battistelli has become the best-selling new artist in the genre in the past eight years. Her music has also been featured on Jon & Kate Plus 8, ABC's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition, NBC's The Biggest Loser, Fox's So You Think You Can Dance, and several other television and movie outlets.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop Packaging Specs: CD w/Blu-ray will be packaged in Blu-Ray Amaray

Description:

"Hitman Returns" was filmed before a sold out crowd last year at the Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas. The lineup of talent lead by Foster as maestro of ceremonies includes performances by Seal, Donna Summer, Martina McBride, Earth, Wind & Fire, Natalie Cole, Ruben Studdard, All-4-One, "Glee" star Charice, Chaka Khan, Jackie Evancho, Lara Fabian and other artists whose careers have been touched by Foster, a 15-time Grammy winning producer and songwriter.

The first David Foster & Friends Hitman Show on PBS was one of the highest rated pledge shows of the last decade and was viewed by millions of fans. "This turned out to be one incredible show. I was thrilled to be able to get some of my very favorites on this go round who weren't free last time out including Earth, Wind & Fire and Chaka Khan. There were so many magic moments that night. I'm especially proud of the terrific combinations of talent including a medley with Chaka, Seal and Michael Bolton, a breathtaking duet with Natalie Cole and Ruben Studdard and a standout performance by Charice, Ne-Yo and Robert Randolph. And of course, accompanying the great Donna Summer on keyboards for 'Last Dance' brought me right back into the studio when we first recorded the song," commented Foster about the show.

ARTIST & INFO

David Foster's four decade career includes writing and producing with a who's who in music including Whitney Houston, Barbra Streisand, Michael Bubl , Josh Groban, Jennifer Holiday, Natalie Cole, Kenny Loggins, Madonna, Michael Jackson, George Harrison, Diana Ross, Sonny & Cher, Rod Stewart and scores of others. The Hitman also discovered, signed and produced Michael Bubl  and Josh Groban whose CDs have sold well over 20 million copies apiece. He is currently producing "America's Got Talent" runner up -- 10 year old Jackie Evancho as well as writing a Broadway musical about Betty Boop. The success of the Foster & Friends franchise also includes sold out tours around the world.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Bjorn Yttling of Peter, Bjorn & John

Description:

Stockholm, Sweden's Lykke Li is set to release her highly-anticipated sophomore album, Wounded Rhymes, on her label LL Recordings on March 1st, 2011. Produced by Bjorn Yttling of Peter, Bjorn & John and recorded in Stockholm, Wounded Rhymes is the follow up to Lykke Li's critically-acclaimed debut, Youth Novels.

Wounded Rhymes, is one of the most tremendous records you will hear in 2011. Channeling the demise of The Shangri-La's Leader of the Pack, women under the influence, ladies and gentlemen of the canyon, a Kung-fu Marianne Faithful, and an armed Nancy Sinatra on peyote, Lykke Li has created an eleven song album that sounds like no other. The record is packed full of pounding, voodoo drums, girl group gang vocals, sparkling guitar lines, woozy keyboards, love unrequited, hope reignited and her own very powerful voice, sounding bigger and bolder than ever before. From the hazy 60's organ driving opener "Youth Knows No Pain" to the sparse toe-tap-solo-guitar-swing of "Unrequited Love" to rollicking single "Get Some" to the dense drums of the propulsive "Jerome," Wounded Rhymes is a testament to Lykke Li's brilliant musical voice, one unlike any other.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description:

Stockholm, Sweden's Lykke Li is set to release her highly-anticipated sophomore album, Wounded Rhymes, on her label LL Recordings on March 1st, 2011. Produced by Bjorn Yttling of Peter, Bjorn & John and recorded in Stockholm, Wounded Rhymes is the follow up to Lykke Li's critically-acclaimed debut, Youth Novels.

Wounded Rhymes, is one of the most tremendous records you will hear in 2011. Channeling the demise of The Shangri-La's Leader of the Pack, women under the influence, ladies and gentlemen of the canyon, a Kung-fu Marianne Faithful, and an armed Nancy Sinatra on peyote, Lykke Li has created an eleven song album that sounds like no other. The record is packed full of pounding, voodoo drums, girl group gang vocals, sparkling guitar lines, woozy keyboards, love unrequited, hope reignited and her own very powerful voice, sounding bigger and bolder than ever before. From the hazy 60's organ driving opener "Youth Knows No Pain" to the sparse toe-tap-solo-guitar-swing of "Unrequited Love" to rollicking single "Get Some" to the dense drums of the propulsive "Jerome," Wounded Rhymes is a testament to Lykke Li's brilliant musical voice, one unlike any other.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: San Francisco, CA

Metallica is easily one of the best, most influential heavy metal band of the '80s. Responsible for bringing the genre back to Earth, the bandmates looked and talked like they were from the street, shunning the usual rockstar games of metal musicians during the early '80s. They expanded the limits of thrash, using speed and volume not for their own sake, but to enhance their intricately structured compositions.

Multiple Grammy-winners, Metallica have sold more than 100 million albums worldwide, including 60 million in the U.S.

Five albums have hit #1, including 1991's Metallica, which has sold more than 15 million copies in the U.S., making it the 25th highest selling album in history.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description: Born in an effort to pay tribute to influential artists and his own desire for self-expression, 4AD owner Ivo Watts-Russell formed the band This Mortal Coil.

The band helped pioneer the more modern 4AD sound of atmospheric, goth-based, electronic popmusic and in the case of This Mortal Coil, applies that sound to favorite folk and rock songs alongside a few instrumental originals.

On the first album, 1984's It'll End In Tears, as would be the This Mortal Coil tradition, Ivo invites many friends along for the ride, including label mainstays The Cocteau Twins and Dead Can Dance, combining their unique voices and songwriting talents. Deep reverb washes the guitars as soaring voices drift on beds of string instruments and electronics producing beautiful covers of songs by Tim Buckley, Big Star and Alex Chilton and crafting a truly memorable and influential album in it's own right.

This release has been immaculately re-issued under the watchful eye of band and 4AD founder Ivo Watts-Russell. All of the music has been re-mastered from the original master tapes and all of the art is from the original assets by Watts-Russell and his team. The vinyl has been painstakingly pressed on high quality, 180g vinyl by Furnace MFG/Record Industry in Holland. You've never heard It'll End in Tears until you've heard this gem.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description: In an effort to judge Mike Watt's third "opera" on it's own merits, one may try to put aside everything he has done over his career. This is not only a disservice to the man, but is, quite frankly, an impossible task.

Twenty-six years after The Minutemen's landmark Double Nickels on the Dime, Watt returns to the familiar punk and jazz influenced sound he and his band made famous. This time, it's more refined and more mature without lacking any of the energy or urgency of yesteryear.

Hyphenated-man features thirty songs in 47 minutes with Watt on bass, his deep baritone singing melodies and reciting spoken word while the Missingmen (Raul Morales and Tom Watson) wail on drums and guitar.

Add to all of this a special redrawn cover by legendary artist Raymond Pettibon and you've got an album worthy of the history that led up to it.

ARTIST & INFO

The man is a legend and his output over the years (The Minutemen, FIREHOSE, three solo efforts, and currently with Iggy and the Stooges), has not only influenced several generations, but also helped to create and maintain an entire music scene.

- 01 A Conversation with Danny Elfman And Tim Burton (Video)

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Musical/Score

Description: The Danny Elfman & Tim Burton 25th Anniversary Music Box is a very special box set that features expansions of the 13 original scores that Elfman has composed for Burton's iconic films. This is a newly-produced library of 16 CDs each packaged with artwork by Burton, adding up to more than 19 hours of music, including 7 hours of previously-unreleased Masters, demos, work tapes and other rarities.

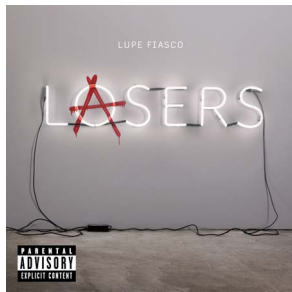

- Among the 19 hours of music are seven hours of previously unreleased music including such rarities as additional masters, cut songs, song and score demos, work tapes, orchestra-only song mixes, and foreign-language songs.
- Danse Macabre: 25 Years of Danny Elfman and Tim Burton: A meticulously researched, lavishly illustrated 250+ page fine linen-wrapped hardbound book, entitled with gold foil stamping, and featuring a foreword by Johnny Depp. The book also includes rare photos, stories, and interviews from the cast and crew behind the scenes of this classic music from the early days of Elfman's band Oingo Boingo to the recent blockbuster film Alice in Wonderland. Interviewed are such collaborators and peers as Guillermo Del Toro, Phillip Glass, Paul Haggis, James Newton Howard, Tom Jones, Michael Keaton, Ang Lee, Errol Morris, Thomas Newman, Catherine O'Hara, Jon Peters, Paul Reubens, David Rockwell, Scott Rudin, Marc Shaiman, Howard Shore, Twyla Tharp, Gus Van Sant, and Richard Zanuck. This comprehensive 10x10 keepsake book is written by acclaimed film-music journalist Jeff Bond and designed by Grammy-winning designer Matt Taylor.
- An hour-long exclusive, newly filmed DVD featuring an extended conversation between Burton and Elfman as they reflect on their quarter-century of collaboration.
- As a collectible created exclusively for this treasure box of music and inspired by the art of Tim Burton, a distinctive Skeleton Key USB Flash Drive has been designed. A pull of the key unlocks a USB drive loaded with MP3s of the entire contents of this Music Box. From Pee-Wee's Big Adventure through Alice In Wonderland, it's all here, including bonus tracks, demos, work tapes, and other rarities.
- Newly created liner notes by Elfman discuss each expanded score and the bonus material.

A collection of music as unique as Elfman's for the films of Tim Burton needed to be housed in something equally special, wondrous, and whimsical. Designed to evoke a treasure chest found in a mysterious attic, The Danny Elfman & Tim Burton 25th Anniversary Music Box is a work of art in itself. Grammy-winning designer Matt Taylor has transformed previously unseen art by Burton and crafted a large scale, tin-covered music box complete with an embedded music chip playing "The Music Box Suite" arranged and performed by Elfman specifically for this historic collection. And to literally top it all off, with a flip of the lid, a delightful working zoetrope is revealed featuring strips of art and photos by Tim Burton and Danny Elfman that come to animated life with a spin.

Description: On March 8th, critically acclaimed rapper Lupe Fiasco returns with one of the most heavily anticipated releases in recent years, a revolutionary album called Lasers, reaching new heights of lyrical and musical mastery, while aiming to reach even bigger audiences.

Lasers is an acronym for "Love Always Shines Everytime: Remember to Smile," and the album is a reflection of a 14-point manifesto the Chicago-born MC composed to guide him on the project, including items like "We want substance in the place of popularity" and "We will not compromise who we are to be accepted by the crowd."

Lasers features some of the most thought-provoking rhymes and concepts Fiasco has ever conceived, combined with irresistible melodies, production by the likes of Jerry Wonder and The Neptunes, as well as collaborations with John Legend, Trey Songz, and others.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Chicago, IL

On his first two albums, Food & Liquor (2006), and The Cool (2007), Lupe Fiasco earned his reputation as a rap philosopher, a sharp, dynamic lyricist, and an MC who could shock you, make you think, make you dance, and make you laugh, all without resorting to vulgarity or tired hip-hop alliterations.

Lupe Fiasco burst onto the scene in 2006 with "Kick, Push," a single that sounded like nothing else in mainstream hip-hop and instantly heralded the arrival of a unique voice.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Musical/Score Producers: Michael Karoli, Malcolm Mooney, Jaki Liebezeit, Irmin Schmidt, Holger Czukay, Damo Suzuki, Can Radio Formats: Soundtrack, specialty programming, NPR, College Packaging Specs: 6-panel 4c softpak printed on uncoated paper, 3c label Focus Markets: New York, NY, Los Angeles, CA, SF-Oakland, San Jose, Chicago, IL, Boston, MA, Washington, DC, Philadelphia, PA

Description: This is Radiohead's Jonny Greenwood's instrumental score to director Tran Anh Hung's new film Norwegian Wood. An adaptation of Haruki Murakami's bestselling novel, the film will be released in the UK by Soda Pictures on March 11, and stars Kenichi Matsuyama, Rinko Kikuchi and Kiko Mizuhara. The score is performed by the BBC Concert Orchestra led by Robert Ziegler, and the Emperor Quartet, and is produced by Graeme Stewart. The soundtrack album also features three tracks written and performed by German experimental rock group CAN.

ARTIST & INFO

Born November 5th 1971, Jonny joined the band Radiohead, while still at school. He only finished one term studying music at Oxford Brookes University before leaving to sign a six-album deal with EMI Records and start his recording career with Radiohead.

Since then, Radiohead has realized phenomenal worldwide success over the past fifteen years with multi-platinum album sales and an ever-growing following.

More recently, Jonny has been making a name for himself outside Radiohead as a composer. His first solo project was a soundtrack for the Simon Pummell film Body Song in 2003, and in March 2004 his first commissioned work Smear, was performed by the London Sinfonietta at the Leeds Fuse festival.

Also in 2004, Jonny was invited by the BBC to be Composer-In-Residence and his work under this appointment includes Piano for Children and Popcorn Superhet Receiver, premiered by the BBC Concert Orchestra in London. Popcorn Superhet Receiver won Jonny the BBC Radio 3 Listeners' Award at the 2006 British Composer Awards.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock

Description: For Collapse Into Now, R.E.M. re-teamed with Grammy Award-winning producer Jacknife Lee, who produced the band's acclaimed previous album Accelerate. Lee is also noted for his work on albums by U2, Snow Patrol, The Hives, and indie stalwarts Kasabian, Editors, Aqualung, and Bloc Party. R.E.M. and Lee recorded the album in New Orleans at the Music Shed and in Berlin at the famed Hansa Studios, where several legendary albums, including David Bowie's Heroes, U2's Achtung Baby, and Iggy Pop's Lust for Life, were made. Additional recording and mixing was done at the venerable Blackbird Studio in Nashville.

Collapse Into Now also features some very special guests: Patti Smith, guitarist Lenny Kaye, Peaches, Eddie Vedder, and The Hidden Cameras frontman Joel Gibb.

Collapse Into Now is the follow-up to 2008's Accelerate, which debuted at No. 2 on the Billboard Top 200 album chart, topped the Alternative, Rock, Digital, and Internet (physical goods) charts in the U.S., and debuted at No. 1 in Canada, the U.K., Ireland, Denmark, Norway, Switzerland, and the Czech Republic. It spawned three hit singles "Supernatural Superserious," "Hollow Man," and "Man-Sized Wreath." The band also released a two-CD live set, entitled R.E.M. Live At The Olympia, last October.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Athens, GA Band Members: Michael Stipe, Peter Buck, Mike Mills

R.E.M. mark the point when post-punk turned into alternative rock. When their first single, "Radio Free Europe," was released in 1981, it sparked a back-to-the-garage movement in the American underground. While there were a number of hardcore and punk bands in the U.S. during the early '80s, R.E.M. brought guitar pop back into the underground lexicon. Combining ringing guitar hooks with mumbled, cryptic lyrics and a D.I.Y. aesthetic borrowed from post-punk, the band simultaneously sounded traditional and modern. Throughout the '80s, they worked relentlessly, releasing records every year and touring constantly, playing both theaters and backwoods dives. Along the way, they inspired countless bands, from the legions of jangle pop groups in the mid-'80s to scores of alternative pop groups in the '90s, who admired their slow climb to stardom. - All Music Guide

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop Producers: Rival Schools Radio Formats: Specialty, College Focus Markets: New York, Philly, Boston, DC, Chicago, SF, LA, Portland, Seattle, Austin, Denver

Description:

Nearly a decade after the release of their classic debut United By Fate, Rival Schools have finally returned from their hiatus to deliver their long-awaited follow-up, Pedals, available March 8th on Photo Finish/Atlantic Records. The album is an immensely satisfying second dose of what made the band so cherished when they first hit the scene, and serves a reminder of their influence on so many young bands active today.

Pedals tracks like "Choose Your Adventure" and "Shot After Shot" show the group's hard-hitting mode, packed with crunchy guitars, propulsive grooves and shout-along vocals. On the other end of the spectrum, "69 Guns" features Rival Schools' more expansive side and has one of their most soaring choruses yet.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: New York, NY Band Members: Walter Schreifels (vocals & guitar), Ian Love (guitar), Cache Tolman (bass), Sam Siegler (drums)

When Walter Schreifels, Sammy Siegler, Ian Love, and Cache Tolman joined forces they were touted a "supergroup," having played in bands like Gorilla Biscuits, Glassjaw, Youth of Today, Quicksand, Burn, CIV, and Iceburn, to name a few. With a shared desire to continue progressing forward from their roots in the hardcore scene, the guys crafted a sound that fused heavy rock of all varieties with anthemic melodies and sophisticated hooks. Some argued over whether to call the beloved quartet "alternative rock," "post hardcore," or a bevy of other labels that didn't quite fit, while others just rocked out and sang along.
