ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Cajititlan de los Reyes, Jalisco, Mexico

Banda Pequeños Musical were born in 1990, made up of eight young musicians under the direction of Rogelio Garcia. The band formed in Cajititlan de los Reyes, Jalisco, Mexico. In 1993, the group's record sales produced enough buzz to garner the attention from Warner MCM, which signed them to their roster and released the group's second major CD, En Grande. Performing in festivals not only on their native soil but also all over the U.S., La Banda Pequeños Musical are well-known among Mexican music fans living in the States. From 1991 to 2006, they recorded more than a dozen records. Banda Pequeños Musical are regarded as one of Jalisco's premier musical exports.

Rhett Akins
Brian Kolb Radio Formats: Country

Description: This collection of hunting and fishing songs (all but one written or co-written by featured performers and highly successful songwriters Rhett Akins and Dallas Davidson) is a lifestyle album. Featuring songs both comedic and poignant, the album a soundtrack to the hunting and fishing seasons.

Rhett Akins had a successful solo career in the mid 1990s, before focussing on songwriting. He and Dallas Davidson have co-written a slew of country hits, including Blake Shelton's No. 1 single "All About Tonight," Joe Nichol's multi-week No. 1 single "Gimmie That Girl," Brooks & Dunns' No. 3 single "Put A Girl In It," and Josh Turner's current single "All Over Me."

ARTIST & INFO

Band Members: Featuring Rhett Akins and Dallas Davidson

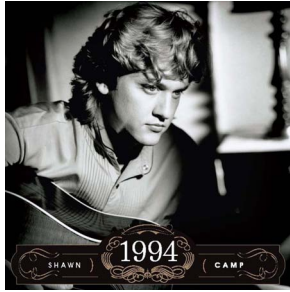

"Michael Waddell's The Bone Collector" is The Hunting Channel's highly successful hunting show. Waddell says, "The culture I stand for is sometimes lost into today's society, when in fact society was built on the culture of THE HUNTER. A hunter is more than a predator, a hunter is a provider...a caretaker...a leader. I will never make excuses for who I am... It's the way I was born... I'm a hunter... A BONE COLLECTOR!!!"

ARTIST & INFO

Band Members: Bacilos

Mexican accordionist Celso Piña, aka El Rebelde del Acordeón (the Accordion Rebel), started playing traditional music in the early '80s. Afterwards, he turned to the tropical style after listening to Aníbal Velasquez and Alfredo Gutiérrez, forming a group called Celso Piña y su Ronda Bogotá. In 2001, Celso Piña teamed up with local rock bands Café Tacuba, Santa Sabina, and Control Machete, among others, to celebrate his 20th career anniversary by recording Barrio Bravo, produced by Alfonso Herrera and Julián Villarreal.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Doyle Bramhall II, Eric Clapton

Description: Co-produced by guitarist and long-time collaborator Doyle Bramhall II, Clapton features an all star cast of musical collaborations started with the legendary JJ Cale, drummer Jim Keltner, bassist Willie Weeks, and keyboardist Walt Richmond-and the sessions later added guests including Steve Winwood, Wynton Marsalis, Sheryl Crow, Allen Toussaint, and Derek Trucks. Clapton created a collection that touches on everything from century-old traditional brass bands to little-known country blues to brand-new originals. The result is both relaxed and revelatory, and unlike anything the guitarist has done in his legendary career.

"This album wasn't what it was intended to be at all," says Eric Clapton. "It's actually better than it was meant to be because, in a way, I just let it happen. It's an eclectic collection of songs that weren't really on the map-and I like it so much because if it's a surprise to the fans, that's only because it's a surprise to me, as well."

ARTIST & INFO

By the time Eric Clapton launched his solo career with the release of his self-titled debut album in mid-1970, he was long established as one of the world's major rock stars due to his group affiliations -- the Yardbirds, John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Cream, and Blind Faith -- which had demonstrated his claim to being the best rock guitarist of his generation.

Clapton has been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame as a solo performer and as a member of the bands Yardbirds and Cream. He is the only person ever to be inducted three times. In his 40-year-plus career, Eric Clapton has received a total of 18 Grammys.

Genre: Pop Producers: Phil Collins

Description:

Atlantic recording artist Phil Collins has announced the forthcoming release of Going Back, a deeply personal labor of love that finds the eight-time Grammy winner faithfully recreating the Motown and soul music that played such an influential role in his creative life. Due in September, Going Back marks the 2010 Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductee's first new studio album in eight years.

While in the past Collins has paid tribute to his roots by covering some of his favorite songs - including "You Can't Hurry Love," "A Groovy Kind Of Love," "Tomorrow Never Knows," "True Colours," and others - this marks the first time in his 30-year solo career that he has devoted an entire project to the work of other songwriters and performers.

"It shouldn't really be a surprise to anyone that I've finally made an album of my favourite Motown songs," explains Collins. "These songs - along with a couple of Dusty Springfield tracks, a Phil Spector/Ronettes tune, and one by the Impressions - make up the tapestry, the backdrop, of my teenage years. I remember it as if it was yesterday, going to the Marquee Club in London's Soho and watching The Who, The Action, and many others, playing these songs. In turn I'd go out the next day to buy the original versions."

"My idea, though, was not to bring anything 'new' to these already great records, but to try to recreate the sounds and feelings that I had when I first heard them. My intention was to make an 'old' record, not a 'new' record. To be able to have three of the surviving Funk Brothers play on all the tracks was unbelievable. There was one moment when they were tracking 'Heat Wave' that I experienced a wave of happiness and wonder that this was actually happening to me! I learned more about production skills and the wonderful songwriting of those concerned whilst making this album, than I have from anything else. To those pioneers...much love and gratitude."

The songs slated for inclusion on Going Back range from the album opener, the Temptations' Holland-Dozier-Holland-penned "Girl (Why You Wanna Make Me Blue)" to the moving album-closing title track, a Collins-arranged version of the Gerry Goffin/Carole King tune "Going Back," made famous by Dusty Springfield. In between, the collection captures multiple songs by Stevie Wonder - "Uptight (Everything's Alright)," "Blame It On The Sun," "Never Dreamed You'd Leave In Summer"; Martha And The Vandellas - "(Love Is Like A) Heat Wave," "In My Lonely Room," "Jimmy Mack"; and the Four Tops - "Standing In The Shadows Of Love," "Something About You," "Loving You Is Sweeter Than Ever."

The Temptations get another shout-out with "Papa Was A Rolling Stone," while the Goffin-King team is again represented by a second Dusty Springfield track, "Some Of Your Loving." Curtis Mayfield and The Impressions are captured on "Talking About My Baby," while Phil hails the Ronettes with "Do I Love You?" The Motown-fest continues with Smokey Robinson & The Miracles' "Going To A Go-Go," the Supremes' "Love Is Here," and Kim Weston's "Take Me In Your Arms (Rock Me A Little While)."

ARTIST & INFO

The career of Phil Collins is one that, by any measure, stands among the most creative, prolific, and impressive in the history of modern music. It is a career that really has been many careers - musician, singer, composer, producer, actor - from art rock beginnings to pop stardom, from big band leader to film soundtracks and Broadway. It has been an exceptional musical life spanning four decades, some 100 million solo albums sold (250 million if you count his work with Genesis), an extraordinary string of hits, eight Grammy Awards, an Oscar, a Golden Globe, numerous industry accolades, and, above all, an inestimable influence on countless fellow artists and passionate fans around the globe.

Description: Second WBR comedy release. First release, "Revenge Is Near," peaked at #7 on the Soundscan Comedy Chart (2300 units sold to date).

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Spokane, WA. Now lives in LA

Combining absurd, imaginative and yet somehow relatable topics with a signature laidback delivery, Dan Cummins has quickly risen from being one of the most requested comics on college campuses and a headliner on the club circuit to national recognition via Comedy Central ("Live At Gotham" and a "Comedy Central Presents" half-hour special).

With his smart and sharp take on American modern life, touching on everything from Jesus to homeschooling, Sasquatch to Scientology, Cummins makes his album debut with Revenge Is Near.

The former college psychology major from the Pacific Northwest has also performed on the Late, Late Show with Craig Ferguson, Last Comic Standing, Comedy.tv with Byron Allen, the Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien, and the stages of the most prestigious comedy festivals (Just For Laughs Montreal, HBO's Las Vegas, Boston, and Comedy Central's South Beach) and been seen on numerous popular comedy clips across the Internet. With Cummins, revenge is sweet and very funny.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop Producers: Ben Folds Radio Formats: AAA, Non-Comm, Modern Rock Specialty Focus Markets: New York, NY, Chicago, IL, Los Angeles, CA, Boston, MA, Philadelphia, PA

Description:

"It has its own voice, which comes from some place between the two of us," says author, Oscar-nominated screenwriter and now lyricist Nick Hornby of Lonely Avenue, his unique, words-and-music collaboration with Ben Folds. Singer-songwriter-pianist Folds puts it more bluntly: "I felt like I'd found something rare on Ebay or something. Nick should have done it before but it's his first big effort and I feel like I really scored here."

Hornby first attracted the attention of music fans - and artists like Folds -- with his brilliant, bittersweet 1995 novel High Fidelity, about an obsessive record collector's crumbling personal life that was translated into a cult classic film starring John Cusack and even a stage musical. Hornby has been an admirer since attending Folds' first U.K. shows. In fact, Hornby devoted an entire essay in his 2002 collection of music-themed short pieces, Songbook, to Folds, praising the "sophisticated simplicity" of Folds' writing.

The London-based Hornby supplied the words for Lonely Avenue, a project sparked by the long-distance friendship that developed after Hornby published Songbook. Nashville resident Folds then set Hornby's lyrics to music in the vintage, orchestra-sized studio he'd rescued from oblivion and has been working in for the last ten years. The hero of High Fidelity would have approved: Folds conceived the album as a vinyl release and recorded everything live in analog to two-inch tape, finally mastering the disc at Abbey Road.

Joining Folds in the studio at various points were his own band, a string section, and legendary arranger Paul Buckmaster, who, as Folds describes him, is "the person who makes you feel the goose bumps at the chorus and you don't know why." (Those are Buckmaster's string charts, for example, on Elton John's "Tiny Dancer" and The Rolling Stones' "Moonlight Mile.")

Lonely Avenue offers equal measures of humor and pathos in often deceptively cheerful songs. Folds literally gives voice to Hornby's endearingly mixed up, lovelorn characters, who come across as sympathetic even at their most hapless. An aging pop singer has to endlessly and agonizingly reprise his one hit, a paean to a woman he left years ago, to the fans who still attend his shows ("Belinda"). A mother deliberately avoids a stunning view of New Years Eve fireworks as she ministers to her seriously ill child in a London hospital ("Picture Window"). Hornby reconstructs the world of crippled, Brill Building-era songwriter Doc Pomus circa 1962 ("Doc Pomus"), and imagines, with unexpected tenderness, the moment when Alaskan teenager Levi Johnston discovered he'd impregnated the newly announced vice-presidential candidate's daughter, Bristol Palin.

The result is an 11-song set that's as playful as it is soul-stirring, and more than a little magical. Says Folds, "With some albums the comet goes by and you grab it while it's passing and everything you do has some comet dust on it. This is one of those albums."

ARTIST & INFO

Ben Folds first found mainstream success as the leader of the critically acclaimed platinum selling Ben Folds Five. He has gone on to have a very successful solo career, recording three studio albums in addition to a pair of records documenting his renowned live performances and a remix record. Folds also recently released Ben Folds Presents: University A Cappella!, a collection of his songs performed by college groups. In 2009 Folds was featured as a judge on NBC's a capella competition The Sing Off (a role he will reprise later this year on the show's second season), and earlier this year Folds' viral Chatroulette video became a YouTube sensation, garnering almost five million views when he joined a video chat with an unsuspecting online companion live during a show in Charlotte, NC. He has performed with the National Symphony Orchestra at The Kennedy Center, the Boston Pops with Keith Lockhart, and four sold out nights with the Sydney Symphony at the Sydney Opera House.

Folds collaborated with author Nick Hornby on a song for the Folds-produced William Shatner album, Has Been, which the Huffington Post called "one of the few records in recent memory that dared to tell the unvarnished truth about the human condition."

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop Producers: Ben Folds Radio Formats: AAA, Non-Comm, Modern Rock Specialty Packaging Specs: One 180g black vinyl disc pressed at RTI, in single pocket Stoughton jacket with printed sleeve, plus STCD in babypak (5K).
Focus Markets: New York, NY, Chicago, IL, Los Angeles, CA, Boston, MA, Philadelphia, PA

Description:

"It has its own voice, which comes from some place between the two of us," says author, Oscar-nominated screenwriter and now lyricist Nick Hornby of Lonely Avenue, his unique, words-and-music collaboration with Ben Folds. Singer-songwriter-pianist Folds puts it more bluntly: "I felt like I'd found something rare on Ebay or something. Nick should have done it before but it's his first big effort and I feel like I really scored here."

Hornby first attracted the attention of music fans - and artists like Folds -- with his brilliant, bittersweet 1995 novel High Fidelity, about an obsessive record collector's crumbling personal life that was translated into a cult classic film starring John Cusack and even a stage musical. Hornby has been an admirer since attending Folds' first U.K. shows. In fact, Hornby devoted an entire essay in his 2002 collection of music-themed short pieces, Songbook, to Folds, praising the "sophisticated simplicity" of Folds' writing.

The London-based Hornby supplied the words for Lonely Avenue, a project sparked by the long-distance friendship that developed after Hornby published Songbook. Nashville resident Folds then set Hornby's lyrics to music in the vintage, orchestra-sized studio he'd rescued from oblivion and has been working in for the last ten years. The hero of High Fidelity would have approved: Folds conceived the album as a vinyl release and recorded everything live in analog to two-inch tape, finally mastering the disc at Abbey Road.

Joining Folds in the studio at various points were his own band, a string section, and legendary arranger Paul Buckmaster, who, as Folds describes him, is "the person who makes you feel the goose bumps at the chorus and you don't know why." (Those are Buckmaster's string charts, for example, on Elton John's "Tiny Dancer" and The Rolling Stones' "Moonlight Mile.")

Lonely Avenue offers equal measures of humor and pathos in often deceptively cheerful songs. Folds literally gives voice to Hornby's endearingly mixed up, lovelorn characters, who come across as sympathetic even at their most hapless. An aging pop singer has to endlessly and agonizingly reprise his one hit, a paean to a woman he left years ago, to the fans who still attend his shows ("Belinda"). A mother deliberately avoids a stunning view of New Years Eve fireworks as she ministers to her seriously ill child in a London hospital ("Picture Window"). Hornby reconstructs the world of crippled, Brill Building-era songwriter Doc Pomus circa 1962 ("Doc Pomus"), and imagines, with unexpected tenderness, the moment when Alaskan teenager Levi Johnston discovered he'd impregnated the newly announced vice-presidential candidate's daughter, Bristol Palin.

The result is an 11-song set that's as playful as it is soul-stirring, and more than a little magical. Says Folds, "With some albums the comet goes by and you grab it while it's passing and everything you do has some comet dust on it. This is one of those albums."

ARTIST & INFO

Ben Folds first found mainstream success as the leader of the critically acclaimed platinum selling Ben Folds Five. He has gone on to have a very successful solo career, recording three studio albums in addition to a pair of records documenting his renowned live performances and a remix record. Folds also recently released Ben Folds Presents: University A Cappella!, a collection of his songs performed by college groups. In 2009 Folds was featured as a judge on NBC's a capella competition The Sing Off (a role he will reprise later this year on the show's second season), and earlier this year Folds' viral Chatroulette video became a YouTube sensation, garnering almost five million views when he joined a video chat with an unsuspecting online companion live during a show in Charlotte, NC. He has performed with the National Symphony Orchestra at The Kennedy Center, the Boston Pops with Keith Lockhart, and four sold out nights with the Sydney Symphony at the Sydney Opera House.

Folds collaborated with author Nick Hornby on a song for the Folds-produced William Shatner album, Has Been, which the Huffington Post called "one of the few records in recent memory that dared to tell the unvarnished truth about the human condition."

Description:

Like other albums from Lil Boosie, Incarcerated dives deep into the troubled soul of a young star on the rise, plagued by his past and living in a corrupted society. Many of the songs on this album were recorded in what Boosie considered his "Last Days."

With the controversy surrounding Lil Boosie's unexpected legal troubles and questions about his future, Incarcerated is intended to give an insiders look on what really went through Boosie's mind and what inspires him into his future.

With features from the entire Trill Entertainment roster, Incarcerated is reminiscent of unity that is a key ingredient of the success of the label and lays the foundation for the next level of music from Lil Boosie and the Trill Fam.

In 2001, Paul Meany in New Orleans began receiving instrumental demos from Darren King in Springfield, MO. After several months, they recruited Greg Hill and Roy Mitchell-Cárdenas, and MUTEMATH was launched.

With its debut EP Reset issued by Warner Bros. in 2004, the band began blitzing Web sites such as MySpace, including video blogging a live performance of "Chaos." Once on tour, MUTEMATH drew huge crowds in L.A., New York, Nashville, Houston, Dallas, Phoenix, and elsewhere.

The band sold more than 30,000 copies of Reset. MUTEMATH's self-titled 2006 debut album, initially indie-released, was showcased on stage at Bonnaroo, Lollapalooza, Cornerstone and on the Warped Tour. Re-released by Warner Bros., the album spun off the Modern Rock Top 40 "Typical," whose video was Grammy® nominated. The band was also heard on 2007's Transformers: The Album with "Transformers Theme."

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Sam Hollander & Dave Katz (Boys Like Girls, All Time Low), Bill Stevenson (Rise Against, NOFX, Puddle of Mudd), and Kevin Kadish (Jason Mraz, Bif Naked) Radio Formats: Modern Rock, Active Rock - impacts 8/9/10

Description:

New Medicine injects a little hope into hard rock on their debut album, Race You to the Bottom, out via Photo Finish Records. Each song tells a story, whether it's about the loss of a loved one on "Little Sister" or the state of the world on "Race You to the Bottom."

In early 2008, Jake brought "Baby's Gone" to guitarist Dan Garland back in Minneapolis. The track was so powerful that Jake had to record it, but he wanted a full band. So he sought out his high school buddy Matt Brady for bass and local drum whiz Ryan Guanzon. The birth of "Baby's Gone" signaled the beginning of New Medicine, as the quartet quickly clicked around the track.

The band entered the studio and collaborated with producers Sam Hollander and Dave Katz, better known as S*A*M & Sluggo (Coheed & Cambria, Gym Class Heroes, Katy Perry), Steve Hodge (Michael Jackson, Sting, Psychedelic Furs) and The Blasting Room, the production team of Bill Stevenson (Rise Against) and Jason Livermore (Puddle of Mudd). The resulting 14 songs showcase a hard sound with a positive slant.

"Laid," the first single, examines relationship troubles with a combination of wit and wisdom. The song is a propulsive lovelorn rocker that sugarcoats nothing. Jake, who co-wrote the song with S*A*M & Sluggo, reveals, "It's about an experience with a girl who's the ultimate wild child. She gets you under your skin, drives you totally crazy and she's gone."

Yet Jake doesn't shy away from pain on the record either. Songs such as the hypnotic and heartbreaking "Little Sister" see the singer baring his soul. With its soaring melody and crunching riff, "Little Sister" can be hummed or pondered because it's not culled from standard rock fodder. "My little sister died of infant death syndrome at age one. When I wrote that song, I was thinking about what she'd be like today if she were alive. How would my life be different? It's a sad song, but the chorus is very positive. Even if she's an angel now, she'll always be my sister and no matter what, I'm here for her."

In the end, Race You to the Bottom is based on honesty. "We never worried about fitting into a scene," declares the singer. "I don't care how my hair looks; I just want to write good songs. We're proud of the music we created, and it's the best feeling ever."

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Minneapolis Band Members:

Jake Scherer (Vocals), Dan Garland (Guitar), Matt Brady (Bass), Ryan Guanzon (Drums)

For lead vocalist Jake Scherer, the band's message is in their moniker. "Everybody has a different medicine-whether it's coffee, drugs, alcohol or cigarettes," says the singer. "When I was growing up, music was the only medicine I needed. If I was really bummed out about something, I'd put a record on and it'd cheer me up. Music's the ultimate healer."

In 2007, after years of playing in bands through middle school and high school, Jake decided to pursue music seriously as a career and began traveling back and forth from his hometown of Minneapolis to Nashville to hone his songwriting craft.

Immediately, New Medicine cultivated a following in Minneapolis as they constantly composed new material. With more than 100 songs in their arsenal, the band caught the attention of Photo Finish Records/Atlantic and joined the label's roster in summer 2009.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Pop Producers: David Foster

Description: Internationally acclaimed vocalist and songwriter Seal will release his sixth studio album, Seal 6: Commitment, in the U.S. on September 28th on Reprise Records. The first single is "Secret," a deeply moving, string-laden ballad, that ranks among Seal's finest love songs. Commitment finds the London-born, three-time Grammy Award winner re-teaming with renowned music maestro David Foster, who also produced 2008's Soul, Seal's stunning covers collection of soul classics.

"I asked David to produce Commitment because quite simply, he's the most incredible person I've worked with in the studio for a very long time," Seal says. "He's one of a kind. I don't think there's an arranger and producer anywhere on the planet who can do what he does."

Foster is equally complimentary of Seal. "His voice is so unique and he has such command of it - his tone and musicality are unequalled," Foster says, adding that Seal was on a mission while in the studio making Commitment. "He was in fearless, relentless pursuit of greatness - no one was going to obscure his path. The album is full of beautiful musical surprises and his songwriting has never been better. He says it may be his best work yet and I think he may be right."

"When all things in your life begin to align in the way they have for me over the past few years, you become incredibly focused," Seal explains. "I love a challenge, and this for me, has been the greatest challenge of my career: to write an album that exceeds my own expectations."

While showcasing Seal's one-of-a-kind husky baritone, ear for unforgettable melodies, and unique lyrical point of view, songs such as "Secret," "The Weight of My Mistakes," "Best of Me," and "If I'm Any Closer," delve into the emotions surrounding love, family, and commitment, hence the title. "Everything about my life is fully committed," he says. "I've never felt more focused on the matter at hand: My wife, my children, the family in general, my own well-being, and of course music and my career. Each one of these songs has personal meaning for me. I dug very deep and all I can hope for is that the music strikes a chord with people."

ARTIST & INFO

Over the course of a remarkable career that spans more than two decades, Seal has sold more than 15 million albums worldwide and enjoyed success across numerous genres of music. His emotional, romantic love songs such as "Prayer For the Dying," the Grammy Award-winning "Kiss From A Rose," and "Don't Cry," (all from 1994's Seal II), and "Love's Divine" (from 2003's Seal IV), delighted fans and earned him critical acclaim. He has also seen great success in the dance/pop music world beginning with his roots in Britain's house music/rave scene with his debut 1991 album and returning to those roots with 2007's dancefloor-friendly System. In 2008, Seal released Soul - a stunning compilation of classic soul songs delivered with Seal's unique, signature touch. A No. 1 album in France, Soul remained atop the album chart for 13 consecutive weeks.

Description:

Four Grammy nominations, two Billboard Music Awards and millions of albums later, life came full circle when Shepherd and his band assembled several generations worth of blues legends, including Lee, at the House Of Blues in Chicago, captured for posterity on the brand new Live In Chicago album.

Now, with Roadrunner publicity on board, we hope to use Live in Chicago as a way to begin exposing Kenny's music to new audiences in preparation for his forthcoming studio album, while also appealing to traditional Blues, Roots and Americana outlets. By underlining Kenny's commitment to bringing the history of American blues to younger listeners, we feel that we can successfully secure coverage in a variety of new spaces. Furthermore, by working with a specialty blues/Americana publicist, there should be blanket coverage in that world around release.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Shreveport, Louisiana

Kenny Wayne Shepherd started teaching himself guitar at an age when most kids are still focused on recess and lunch boxes. And he was just thirteen when New Orleans bluesman Bryan Lee brought him onstage to showcase his innate talent and already precision honed chops. He is one of the world's penultimate living blues musicians, having spent his critically acclaimed career amassing numerous awards and acknowledgements in his field.

Description:

On June 13, 2009, SLIPKNOT headlined the annual Download Festival in the UK, performing in front of 80,000 of their rabid fans. The performance was absolutely electric, in typical Slipknot fashion, especially since it came hot on the heels of one of the strongest years in Slipknot's illustrious career.

It was indeed a year of "firsts" for a band that was a decade-deep into their hard rock superstardom and dominance. Their latest album, 2008's All Hope is Gone, debuted at #1 on the Billboard Top 200 charts -the first in their history. The album is mere days away from achieving a Platinum certification. Slipknot embarked on a two-year touring trek that was globally successful, playing to packed houses across continents, including their headlining stint at New York City's legendary Madison Square Garden, which was stacked to the rafters with maggots and chronicled by Rolling Stone.

It makes perfect sense that the band, known for their eclectic DVD collection, ranging from multi-camera angle concert documents to arthouse-style films, would release (sic)nesses, which captures a special performance at Download. All Slipknot shows are memorable, but this one is particularly memorable, as the band blasted through hits from all of their Platinum albums. On stage is Slipknot in its most natural state and (sic)nesses will put you in the front row.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Serj Tankian Radio Formats: Active & Modern Rock Packaging Specs: One regular weight 140g black vinyl disc in single-pocket jacket pressed at Pirates Press with CD in paper sleeve.

Description: Imperfect Harmonies has shaped up to be as powerful and musically eclectic as its predecessor. Once again, Tankian's album takes a multi-themed approach to the lyrics, which he describes as addressing the political, environmental, social, and personal.

"Elect the Dead is essentially a rock record with progressive melodic elements. Imperfect Harmonies could be classified as rock because it is punchy with many peaks throughout, but the instrumentation is somewhat different. Though there are live drums, bass, and some guitars, the driving aspects are electronic and orchestral. It's quite unique in its sound palette. This is, in essence, music that has sat in the vat and matured to a ripe sensation and is now ready to serve...The majority of the songs have this huge wall of sound presented in a way I've never heard before. It's not common to have a song that is both electronic and orchestral since one is synthetic and the other organic, but I found a way of meshing a lot of these colors together...My intentions have always been to make music that is creative, quality, and moving. I have never learned the static method of repeating myself musically whether in System or now. Each record I have made has been different musically, yet they all carry the same integral spirit." - SERJ TANKIAN

Hometown: Los Angeles, CA

One of the most unconventional frontmen in rock, Serj Tankian, the voice of System Of A Down, emerged as a solo artist with his debut album Elect The Dead. System Of A Down's five genre-bending studio albums have sold over 16 million copies.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Country Producers: Kyle Lehning

Description: Every song on this CD reached the Top 10 (or higher) on the Billboard Top Country Song chart.

ARTIST & INFO

Randy Travis (born May 4, 1959) is an American country singer. Active since 1985, he has recorded more than a dozen studio albums to date, in addition to charting more than thirty singles on the Billboard Hot Country Songs charts, of which sixteen have reached Number One. Considered a pivotal figure in the history of country music, Travis broke through in the mid-1980s with the release of his album Storms of Life on Warner Bros. Records; the album sold more than three million copies. It also established him as a neotraditionalist country act, and was followed by a string of several more platinum and multi-platinum albums throughout his career. Starting in the mid-1990s, however, Travis saw decline in his chart success. He left Warner Bros. in 1997 for DreamWorks Records; there, he would eventually switch his focus to gospel music, a switch which - despite earning him only one more country hit in the Number One "Three Wooden Crosses" - earned him several Dove Awards. Travis, in addition to singing, holds several acting credits, starting with his television special Wind in the Wire in 1992. Since then, he has appeared in several movie and television roles, occasionally as himself.

Once-in-A-Lifetime, Historic Rock Concerts -- Five Time Emmy-Nominated HBO Exclusive Special, NOW ON DVD!

On October 29th and 30th, 2009, rock 'n' roll royalty held court at Madison Square Garden for what have been called "the best concerts ever," where "rock 'n' roll history was made."

In celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame, the concerts in New York City featured a who's who of rock from the '50s to the '90s and included artists performing together in unique combinations that will most likely never be seen again. Now, this critically-acclaimed and highly-rated HBO special is available on DVD for the very first time!

THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY ROCK AND ROLL HALL OF FAME CONCERTS features all 51 performances from the acclaimed HBO special, plus 16 performances not seen on HBO, all in a 3-DVD set.

Highlights from the concerts include:

- Mick Jagger and Fergie in a blistering version of the Stones' classic "Gimme Shelter," with U2 as the backing band.
- Bruce Springsteen and Billy Joel duet on a rollicking rendition of "Born to Run."
- Sting joins Jeff Beck for the Curtis Mayfield classic "People Get Ready."
- Paul Simon, David Crosby and Graham Nash join together for a spine-tingling "Here Comes the Sun."
- Ozzy Osbourne sings with Metallica on the Black Sabbath classics "Iron Man" and "Paranoid."
- John Fogerty and Bruce Springsteen share vocals on Roy Orbison's "Pretty Woman."
- Plus Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin, Simon & Garfunkel, Dion, Bonnie Raitt, James Taylor, John Legend, Annie Lennox, Smokey Robinson, B.B. King, Little Anthony and the Imperials, Jackson Browne and more.

WHY BUY?

- 3-DVD Set: All 4 HOURS of the HBO special on 2 DVDs, plus bonus DVD of 16 exclusive performances NOT SEEN ON HBO.
- Exclusive HBO concerts on DVD for the very first time -- 5 1/2 hours of amazing performances.
- Nominated for 5 Emmy Awards!
- Packaged with a special collector's edition, full-length, color reprint of the Rolling Stone magazine article about the planning, rehearsals and concerts.
- PLUS, FREE MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION: Includes a coupon for a free, 12 issue subscription to Rolling Stone magazine -- the definitive source of music information and popular culture trends -- 12 issues, FREE.
- A must-have for any fan of rock and roll.
- DRTV MEDIA: National short-form TV ad campaign with focus on VH1, ESPN networks, Fox Sports networks, FX, TruTV, Pure Country, Palladia, E!, Spike, Comedy, Speed, Biography, Fuse, National Geographic and more.
- Already aired over $1 million of ads, with continued six-figure weekly spending to continue through fall.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Daniel Lanois

Description: This eight-song album is a collaboration between the acclaimed rock icon and musician, songwriter, and producer Daniel Lanois, known for his work with U2, Bob Dylan, Peter Gabriel, Brian Eno, Emmylou Harris, Willie Nelson, The Neville Brothers and many others. As producer or co-producer Lanois won Grammy Awards in 1987, 1992, 1997, 2000, and 2001.

Young and Lanois have crossed paths musically over the course of many years, including Lanois' performances at Young's Bridge School Benefit Concert and Young's performance at Farm Aid when Lanois was Willie Nelson's music director, but this is the first time the two have recorded together. Recorded in Lanois' home in the Silverlake area of Los Angeles, Le Noise features Young on acoustic and electric guitars with Lanois adding his trademark sonic textures, creating one of the most sonically arresting albums Young has ever recorded. No band, no overdubs, just "a man on a stool and me doing a nice job on the recording," as Lanois puts it.

"Neil was so appreciative of the sonics that we presented to him," Lanois says. "He walked in the door and I put an acoustic guitar into his hands - one that I had been working on to build a new sound. That's the multi-layered acoustic sound that you hear on the songs 'Love and War' and 'Peaceful Valley Boulevard.' I wanted him to understand that I've spent years dedicated to the sonics in my home and that I wanted to give him something he'd never heard before. He picked up that instrument, which had everything - an acoustic sound, electronica, bass sounds - and he knew as soon as he played it that we had taken the acoustic guitar to a new level. It's hard to come up with a new sound at the back end of 50 years of rock and roll, but I think we did it."

ARTIST & INFO

Whether as a singer, a songwriter or a guitarist, Neil Young has been one of the most influential and important artists of the rock era. Blending folk, country and rock, the acoustic and the electric, the melancholy and the hopeful, Young has been an icon for the uncompromising and unpredictable since the 1960s.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Los Angeles

It's better if you don't understand; just listen and have a good time. That's the response Bruno Mars will give you with a smile when asked to describe his sound and music. He would much rather sing, perform, and write his songs than talk about them, but that is becoming more and more unavoidable these days. It might seem that Mars appeared out of nowhere, co-writing, producing and performing on B.o.B's #1 "Nothin' On You" followed by Travie McCoy's chart-climbing "Billionaire", but he makes one thing clear: "It's not an overnight success".

Mars is a multitalented singer, songwriter, producer and musician who feels most at home when he's performing. Born to a musical family in Honolulu, Hawaii, he was practically raised on the stage. His father, a Latin percussionist from Brooklyn, organized a Vegas-style revue that featured the entire family, including his mother, a talented vocalist. When a four-year-old Mars observed his family performing Motown hits, doo-wop medleys and impersonations for enthusiastic crowds all over his native Waikiki Beach, "I was jealous!" says Mars with a laugh. "My dad put me on stage and I remember singing an Elvis song and that was it. Ever since that moment, I've been addicted."

As soon as he graduated high school, Mars left Hawaii for Los Angeles with dreams of launching his career as a performer. Those dreams got put on hold, however, when The Smeezingtons, the songwriting/production team he founded with Philip Lawrence and Ari Levine, suddenly took off. The pair has crafted major hits for a diverse roster of talent, including Flo Rida's "Right Round", Travie McCoy's "Billionaire", Brandy's "Long Distance" and K'Naan's "Waving Flags", which is the theme song for the upcoming World Cup.

On the heels of "Nothin' on You" and "Billionaire" and as a preview of what's to come from Bruno Mars, Elektra Records released a 4-song EP aptly titled "It's Better If You Don't Understand". The title is taken from a lyric to "The Other Side"; one of the songs included that features Cee-Lo Green and re-teams Mars with B.o.B. The EP has gone on to sell over 20,000 units to date.

In preparation for his full length debut, Bruno recently released his first single "Just The Way You Are". The single is already in heavy rotation across Top 40 stations nationwide and has sold over 200,000 units to date.

Although he's incredibly proud of the recordings, Mars feels the best way to experience the sound is to see him perform live with his band. "That is what I'm most excited for - taking these songs and traveling them around the world." The only place he would rather be than in the recording studio, is with his band on stage - where he grew up. "I think people are really going to gravitate towards the live show. We turn it into a party."

Bruno will have this opportunity as he gears up for his first sold out NYC show at Bowery Ballroom later this month and a fall tour with Maroon 5 in October.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Producers: Dan Donegan Radio Formats: Active, Mainstream, Alternative Rock Packaging Specs: One 140g regular weight colored vinyl disc (clear with black splatter) pressed at Record Industry in gatefold jacket (MPS) with bonus CD + insert with unique code to download "Decade Of Disturbed" video.

Description: Disturbed began building Asylum as soon as they got off the road in the summer of 2009. Officially entering Groovemaster Studios in February 2010, the band set about self-producing the album, as they did with Indestructible. Draiman declares,

"This record shows a certain degree of maturation and enhanced complexity. Asylum is still identifiably Disturbed, but the evolution is clear. It preserves the elements of what we do but at a more advanced level."

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Chicago, IL

A decade after the release of their groundbreaking debut, The Sickness, Disturbed have become one of the most passionate and well-respected bands in the hard-rock universe, a dependable source not only of pummeling riffs and jackhammer beats, but of personal and political insights into our troubled times. Yet success (in the form of three platinum-plus albums, with both Believe and Ten Thousand Fists topping Billboard's album chart and over ten million albums sold) hasn't dulled this Chicago-based foursome's taste for adventure. If anything, Disturbed's loyal fanbase has pushed the band to newer heights of self-expression.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Holiday Producers: Nathan Chapman and Stephanie Chapman Packaging Specs: Jewel case

Description: Home for the Holidays, is an ironic title for the latest Christmas collection from the ladies of Point of Grace since they've historically spent the majority of their Decembers on a tour bus or on a stage miles from home. But you won't hear any Christmas laments on this collection of songs that encompasses a broad range of styles including pop, jazz and country. Produced by 2010 Grammy Winner for Album of the Year, Nathan Chapman (Taylor Swift), you'll hear new takes on old favorites such as the title cut, "Joy to the World," "Labor of Love," "Candy Cane Lane," and "Immanuel." The diversity of songs and sounds, along with the signature harmonies that set this group apart, is sure to make Home for the Holidays, a household favorite.

ALBUM FACTS

Genre: Rock Radio Formats: Metal Focus Markets: Key Markets For Album: Alaska, NY, LA, Boston, Portland, Seattle

Description: 36 Crazyfists have steadily made a name for themselves and faced several ups and just as many downs. Now they return to the vibrant metal scene they helped forge with their latest album Collisions and Castaways (7/27/10, Ferret), the band's fifth record and first since 2008's The Tide and its Takers because 36CF's only studio offering to open in Billboard's Top 200 Chart.

ARTIST & INFO

Hometown: Anchorage, AK

If forced to describe Alaskan heavy metal unit 36 Crazyfists in just a single word, you might want to go with persistent.

Since forming 16 years ago, the band's released four records through three different labels, lost members to everything from the usual band in-fighting to fatal car crashes, and they've shared the road with the likes of Alice in Chains, Atreyu, Killswitch Engage, Chimaira, and Poison the Well.

MARKETING POINTS

SoundScan:

- Most recent album, Collisions & Castaways (7/27/10), has scanned 4,911 units to date and debuted at #143 on the Billboard Top 200 and #48 on the Top Current Rock Album Charts.
- Last album, The Tide and its Takers, was the band's first debut on the Billboard Top 200 at #155, scanning over 4,000 copies.
- Over 150,000 sales in the U.S alone
