ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SOUNDTRACK

BY ALEXANDRE DESPLAT

Mutant, in partnership with Back Lot Music, are proud to present the physical media debut of Universal Pictures' Jurassic World Rebirth Original Motion Picture Soundtrack with music by two-time Grammy® and Academy Award®-winning composer Alexandre Desplat.

To create the score for Jurassic World Rebirth, director Gareth Edwards turned to a distinguished friend, two-time Oscar® winner Alexandre Desplat (The Grand Budapest Hotel, The Shape of Water), who worked with Edwards on Godzilla. "I feel very fortunate to be doing the music for a movie franchise like this, which entertained me so greatly, as a filmgoer, for decades," Desplat says. "I dreamed of writing music for movies like this since I was a teenager, and now, here I am," he adds with a laugh, "part of Jurassic World, almost a teenager."

Rebirth represents the second time that Desplat has stepped into a franchise and inherited and adapted iconic musical motifs written by an artist he considers his "forever idol," the legendary John Williams: Desplat previously took on that challenge with Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Parts 1 and 2. "John Williams wrote a fantastic melody for Jurassic Park that I now get to reinvent, rejigger and resculpt in ways benefit our movie," Desplat says. "My desire was not to bluntly quote John's score but subtly echo it or make use of it in the original score I have written for the film in playful and meaningful ways."

"Continuing in the legacy of composers like John Williams, Don Davis, and Michael Giacchino - Alexandre Desplat brings the action packed Jurassic World: Rebirth to life with equal parts bombast, and tenderness," says Mo Shafeek, co-founder of Mutant. "Beautiful piano melodies give reprieve from thundering percussion, in this beautiful and essential addition to the Jurassic franchise."

JOSÉ GONZÁLEZ

Heartbeats (Logic1000 Remix) / Heartbeats 7"

Street Date: 10/17/2025

Mute is excited to announce the limited edition 7" release of José González's renowned cover of The Knife's seminal single "Heartbeats." Limited to 1,000 copies worldwide, the release features a new rework by Berlin-based producer Logic1000 on Side A with the original version on Side B, serving as the final chapter in the 20th anniversary celebration of González's acclaimed debut album Veneer.

Originally released in 2003, González's iconic rendition of "Heartbeats" has amassed over 600 million streams on Spotify and has appeared in countless film and television placements, including the unforgettable 2005 Sony Bravia ad with thousands of colorful balls racing down San Francisco's Russian Hill.

Speaking on the Logic1000 rework, González says: "Having lived with "Heartbeats" by the Knife during 22 plus years it felt refreshing to hear a good remix. Usually I'm skeptical to up-pitched vocals but this sounded great! Like mini-me singing to a fat beat. Loving this danceable up tempo version! We didn't have that many remixes of this song, partly because there weren't stems, since I recorded the original with guitar and vocals simultaneously. After many years, I finally took the time to mimic the original with separate guitar and vocals for karaoke and remixes."

Logic1000 adds: "The fact that I get to remix some of the most iconic artists in my personal history still astounds me. This one is a remix of "Heartbeats" by José González (!), while working on it I was immediately transported to a time in my life where I was so young, full of life and energy. So to have the opportunity to remix a track from a period of my life that held so much optimism was such a huge blessing. Thank you to José for giving us this opportunity."

José is currently on a European tour running through summer and into early fall, followed by a North American leg in November.

LABEL: WaterTower Music

CONFIGURATION: 1 LP

COLOR: "I...Am Steve" Teal

UPC: 794043225437

LIST PRICE: $26.98

From Warner Bros. Pictures and Legendary Pictures and starring Jason Momoa and Jack Black, A Minecraft Movie, directed by Jared Hess, is the first ever big screen, live-action adaptation of Minecraft, the best-selling video game of all time. Welcome to the world of Minecraft, where creativity doesn't just help you craft, it's essential to one's survival! Four misfits—Garrett "The Garbage Man" Garrison (Momoa), Henry (Hansen), Natalie (Myers) and Dawn (Brooks)—find themselves struggling with ordinary problems when they are suddenly pulled through a mysterious portal into the Overworld: a bizarre, cubic wonderland that thrives on imagination. To get back home, they'll have to master this world (and protect it from evil things like Piglins and Zombies, too) while embarking on a magical quest with an unexpected, expert crafter, Steve (Black). Together, their adventure will challenge all five to be bold and to reconnect with the qualities that make each of them uniquely creative...the very skills they need to thrive back in the real world. A Minecraft Movie (Songs from the Original Motion Picture Soundtrack) features the songs from the film, including Jack Black's "Steve's Lava Chicken" and the Mark Ronson/Andrew Wyatt/Jack Black-penned "I Feel Alive". Alongside the film's other original songs and two score selections are bonus tracks - "Welcome to Steve's!" and extended versions of "Steve's Lava Chicken", "Birthday Rap", and "Ode To Dennis". The "I...Am Steve" teal vinyl variant celebrates the iconic character's signature-colored sweater, instantly recognizable to any Minecraft fan.

BATTLE BEAST

Finnish powerhouse BATTLE BEAST storms forward with unrelenting force, dropping their electrifying, highly anticipated seventh studio album "Steelbound" on October 17th, 2025.

Moving fluently between classic metal, superpowered synthesizers, and symphonic realms — even embracing '80s-tinged hard rock — these Helsinki heavy metal hitmakers have created a musical palette that's powerful, engaging, and—above all—fun. Ever since their humble beginnings with 2011's "Steel", each subsequent release has seen the band grow like an impending snowball of doom, earning them a loyal following. Released in 2022, the band's sixth album, "Circus of Doom" — their fourth consecutive chart-topper in their home country — saw the sextet selling out sizeable venues all across the globe.

With "Steelbound," the band now opens an exciting new chapter that offers very heavy tracks such as 'Last Goodbye,' flirts with pop on 'Angel Of Midnight', unapologetic party anthems like 'Here We Are,' and the empowering title song. "Steelbound" is a thunderous monument of defiance and resilience, an earnest battle cry for all who have ever been dismissed, diminished, or silenced and also a big slab of positivity and joy. Throw your worries into the next trash can, at least for 38 minutes and sing, dance, headbang, do whatever feels right!

To properly celebrate with their steadily growing and dedicated legions of fans, BATTLE BEAST's European tour starts with a bang on October 17th! Starting the trek with their biggest German headline show to date at Hamburg's Inselpark Arena, the tour will keep the band on the road until mid-December. To complete the bill with melodic metal superiority, DOMINUM will join the tour as their special guest and Sweden's rising power metal force and label mates MAJESTICA as opening act.

Arising from the scorched earth of Texas, TRIBAL GAZE return with "Inveighing Brilliance," a death metal monolith shaped by ancient violence and unforgiving truth. Recently signed to Nuclear Blast Records, the band conjures visions of primal wrath and nihilistic clarity—a sound rooted in the rawness of old-school death metal but sharpened with modern intent. From their name, inspired by unseen forces watching from deep forests, to the crushing weight of their riffs, TRIBAL GAZE channels something ancient, unknown, and violently present.

"Inveighing Brilliance" is a meditation on the illusion of beauty in nature and existence, and how it pertains to both Mother Nature, and our wretched, human society. Even in moments of light, brutality lurks—eggs are stolen from nests, flesh is torn for survival. This album dissects this duality, revealing the suffering embedded in every living moment. With digital artwork by Dom Pabon (Final Resting Place) that evokes sci-fi decay and meditations of ancient ruin, the album looks and sounds like a lost realm where reality fractures under the pressure of its own contradictions.

Tracks like "Beyond Recognition" and "To the Spoils of Faith" expand on these apocalyptic themes. The former imagines an outside force annihilating humanity in judgment of its arrogance, built on some of the band's most punishing riffs to date—swinging between chaos, groove, and sheer obliteration. The latter churns with mechanized fury and contempt for blind belief, echoing MESHUGGAH-like timing with lyrics that drag faith to its own ironic hell. Across the record, TRIBAL GAZE capture the violence of thought and sound in equal measure—uncompromising and vividly self-aware.

Their ascent to Nuclear Blast was anything but formulaic. After leveling stages on tour with FROZEN SOUL, the band caught the attention of legendary A&R Monte Conner, who waited outside a venue in New York just to share his admiration. That moment solidified a new chapter for TRIBAL GAZE — a label that values creative freedom and pushes bands to expand without dilution. With "Inveighing Brilliance," they've done just that: stripped away illusion, stared into the abyss, and made it echo.

FRANÇOISE

LA MAISON OÙ J'AI GRANDI

Françoise Hardy's Vogue years have left a mark on the history of French and international music. Even today, the 5 years between 1962–67 remain an exceptional moment in her career, the one when she exploded in the eyes of a generation that was born during or just after the World War II, the generation that would be part of the May 1968 Paris protests.

Hardy exploded not only in France alongside her fellow “Yéyés,” but also internationally, where she became the symbol of French elegance, talent and charm. The United States, Japan, United Kingdom, Germany, Italy, Spain—no one could resist Françoise, who recorded most of her hits in English, Italian, and German.

Writing for Pitchfork, Hazel Cillis noted La Maison Dû J'ai Grandi “... achieved a “baroque sound [...] that matched the depth of her sorrow and its complexities”, and became “cohesive in sound and subject matter.” This reissue includes 7 non-album bonus tracks, including “Si C'est Ça” recorded live in Paris.

All tracks have been fully remastered and are available on CD and LP on opaque brown vinyl.

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

SOLID GOLD TIMEPIECE

For Fans of Generation X, Moondog, Rock and Americana!

Two worlds collide in this unconventional collaboration between a Punk Rock Pioneer and an Avant Garde composer. The result is Shagbarn, a collective of friends and neighbors from near and far.

Gathered by Derwood Andrews (Generation X and beyond) and Julian Calv (Moondog devotee). With a foundation of Calv's Trimba and the hypnotic scenes of vocals, guitars, carefully chosen words and instruments, the album Solid Gold Timepiece glides through the history of American music and its core inspirations from Europe. Notes and flavors of Celtic blues and classical folk litter the Moondog beats. Close your eyes and see the music for what it is, in real time. A future classic for today made by virtual nobody's, for nobody in particular.

Andrews originally helped shape the Punk Rock movement alongside Billy Idol with two pioneering albums by Generation X, the self-titled Generation X (1978), which reached No. 29 in the UK Albums Chart, followed by Valley of the Dolls (1979), and now resides in California making music by his own rules.

Shagbarn was recorded by Derwood Andrews at RubberCheese Studios California, David Kenyan in Vermont and Devlin Thorn at Fireside Sound in Joshua Tree California. Trimba by Julian Calv, most other instruments by Derwood Andrews, unless stated.

HEAVY PETTIN RETURN TO RECLAIM THEIR RIGHTFUL ROCK 'N' ROLL TURF WITH 'ROCK GENERATION'

Back in the '80s, Scottish rock 'n' roll warriors Heavy Pettin strode stages worldwide whilst their debut album, 1983's Letting Loose, threatened to break the rock world apart. They were seen as the natural ascendants to rock's highest echelons, touring internationally alongside the likes of Ozzy Osbourne and Motley Crüe as wild Glaswegian whippersnappers. Then life happened and Heavy Pettin went on a triple decade hiatus.

Listening to Heavy Pettin's first new studio album since 1989 – Rock Generation – feels more like a 30 week' hiatus augmented by a supreme confidence. Led by founding frontman Stephen "Hamie" Hayman, featuring Dave "Davo" Aitken and Richie "St. James" Dews on guitars and backing vocals, plus David "Boycee" Boyce on bass and Mick "The Wizard" Ivory on drums, Rock Generation is a sonically-superb, classic song-strong rock 'n' roll return to that glorious slipstream between Def Leppard, Whitesnake and Thin Lizzy. The ten cuts bristle with full-front attitude, melody, and anthems. Take the title track, with its hip swinging anthemic swagger, there's "Oblivion" with guest vocals from Roni Lee which carries a true Celtic swing in its groove plus an addictive singalong chorus, while "X-Rated" fuses the attitude of Glasgow's Sauchiehall Street with the punch and panache of the Sunset Strip.

Made in Glasgow at Morsecode Studios and produced with a timeless sheen by Ciarán O'Shea, make no mistake, Rock Generation is only interested in bringing you on a thrill-ride through the carefree sweat and leather landscape of cut-loose heavy rock 'n' roll. It's a mission which will demand -and receive- your willing acquiescence.

SOULFLY

Blending tribal groove, primal fury, and heavy riffage, Chama finds SOULFLY returning to their roots with unrelenting force. Featuring crushing rhythms and powerful themes of resistance, spirit, and ancestral strength, the album is a raw, driving testament to SOULFLY's legacy—vital, venomous, and unmistakably their own.

Mutant, in association with Walt Disney Music and LucasFilm, are proud to present a 20th anniversary celebratory pressing of John William's original score to the iconic final chapter of the Star Wars prequel trilogy - Star Wars: Episode III - Revenge of the Sith.

Following a powerful return to cinemas this spring, George Lucas' 2005 science fiction epic has continued to capture the hearts generation after generation. Returning for his sixth Star Wars film, John Williams brings the tragedy of Anakin Skywalker to life with a masterful flair. From the opening fanfare's hard pivot to the action packed dogfight, Williams weaves between kinetic adventure, and haunting heartbreak with grace and precision. In a series full of the absolute pinnacle of music ever committed to film, Revenge of the Sith sits proudly side by side, while feeling wholly unique.

Long out of print on physical media, and only being pressed on Vinyl for the second time ever, this limited edition release features incredible original artwork by Matt Ferguson and is pressed on 2x 140gm black vinyl

MUSIC FROM THE MOTION PICTURE

Mutant and Paramount Pictures are proud to present the premiere physical media release of Max Aruj and Alfie Godfrey's score to Mission: Impossible - The Final Reckoning

The highly anticipated Mission: Impossible – The Final Reckoning brings on series newcomers Aruj and Godfrey to bring to life the stakes and weight of the biggest and most epic chapter of the series to date.

Of the score, co-composer Alfie Godfrey says, "We recognized the extraordinary ambition and bold risk-taking that Tom Cruise and Christopher McQuarrie embraced to bring this spectacular film to life. With a legacy of generation-defining composers shaping the sound of the franchise over decades, the score rises to meet that history. It's an adrenaline-charged, emotionally resonant soundtrack—perfectly suited for a film destined to be remembered as one of the most audacious action epics of our time."

"Scoring The Final Reckoning was an incredibly rewarding experience," adds co-composer Max Aruj. "The dedication and talent of the entire music team were extraordinary, and collaborating with McQ and Tom was a true pleasure from the start. We're proud of the score we've created and hope it becomes a meaningful addition to this iconic franchise."

2 x 140g black vinyl.
