“What a KILLER record! Right up there with the Q’s best! Production, arrangements, performances and songs . . . just knocks me OUT!”

—Bonnie Raitt

NRBQ

BUY! HERE’S WHY!

- 10th Anniversary edition on LP, CD, and Digital!
- Featuring updated artwork.
- New liner notes from John DeAngelis.

If you look it up in your dictionary, you’ll find that “getting down to brass tacks” means to get down to some sort of serious business. But for NRBQ—in general, and specifically on this outstanding album from 2014—it means getting down to the business of making unique, memorable music while also having some serious fun.

—John DeAngelis from his liner notes

The record starts out with the slamming beat from drummer Conrad Choucroun, featured on the most fun song “Waitin’ on My Sweetie Pie” from guitarist Scott Ligon. He also wrote one of the most touching songs, “It’ll Be Alright.”

It is also the debut of the new bassist and songwriter, Casey McDonough. He wrote and sang two of the best and most popular songs in recent years. They are “Fightin’ Back” and “Can’t Wait to Kiss You.” A hell of a debut!

Brass Tacks features some of Terry Adams’ most inventive works both musically and lyrically in the band’s long history. “Greetings From Delaware,” “This Flat Tire,” and “Places Far Away.”

This album also includes “Getting To Know You” from the classic musical, The King And I by Rodgers and Hammerstein . . . (Come on—it’s NRBQ!).

For its 10th anniversary—Brass Tacks returns with updated artwork including photos, new liner notes from John DeAngelis, and fresh remastering from Alan Stockwell, all fully approved by the band. Three bonus tracks are included on the CD and Digital versions.

The New York Times once called NRBQ “the world’s sloppiest virtuosos.” But, NRBQ are actually the world’s most fun-loving virtuosos. And the proof of that is all over BRASS TACKS!

“Today, I’m on 8 times in a row and still going. I’m digging it. Man, I love bearing a record that is not ironic or cynical. I love that the layers on it are musical and not a superficial spin on the top. Real emotion. It’s killing me.”

—Penn Jillette

"From Frankfurt to Frisco we destroy every disco"

Artist: Tankard
Titel: Disco Destroyer (Re-mastered 2024)
Pre-Order-Start: 02nd August 2024
Releasedate: 18th Oktober 2024
Label: Reaper Entertainment
File Under: Thrash Metal

Description:

In 1998, Frankfurt thrash metal icons TANKARD released another cult album. Defiant to the core, they declared war on all sissies and non-alcoholic beer drinkers on their self-explanatory "Disco Destroyer". The immortal slogan "From Frankfurt to Frisco we destroy every disco" joins equally iconic partisan poetry such as "Are you tired of bands that look better than your girlfriend?" or "At war with breakdancers", directed at Venom's "At war with Satan", which even Metallica laughed their heads off when they read it on a poster somewhere.

"We're kings, kings of beer - And love what's in our veins"

Artist: Tankard
Titel: Kings Of Beer (Re-mastered 2024)
Pre-Order-Start: 02nd August 2024
Releasedate: 18th Oktober 2024
Label: Reaper Entertainment
File Under: Thrash Metal

Description:

In 2000, German thrash metal icons TANKARD released their ninth and defining album "Kings Of Beer", which would also become responsible for the band's nickname. It was also the beginning of a new era: Andi Gutjahr not only joined the band as a new guitarist (replacing founding member Bulgaropulos), but also as a new songwriter who shaped and developed the sound of the thrash metal legends.

Now that the 25th anniversary is just around the corner and the album has not been available on CD and vinyl for years, REAPER ENTERTAINMENT has given the classic a complete facelift. The album has been remastered at Pearlsound Studios and has been given new artwork by Kai Brockschmidt, which pays tribute to the deceased original cover model "Bomber", who was a very good friend of the band, and shows him in heaven.

the MUFFS!

BLONDER AND BLONDER

Their sophomore release gets bigger and better!

The Muffs' debut hit the scene in 1993, and was an instant smash. Any fear that they could follow it up successfully was answered when Blonder And Blonder arrived two years later.

Now a three piece, The Muffs again teamed up with producer Rob Cavallo (Green Day, Paramore, Fleetwood Mac) and delivered 14 even better Kim Shattuck penned powerhouses, including the hit single "Sad Tomorrow." Bassist Ronnie Barnett and new drummer Roy McDonald propelled Shattuck's material to even greater heights, and Blonder became the band's biggest selling album.

Now available as a limited pressing on Crystal Clear vinyl!

Like 2015's reissue of The Muffs, the full-color packaging includes photos, drawings, memorabilia, and essays from Barnett and McDonald, as well as, track-by-track commentary from Shattuck.

All these years later, Blonder And Blonder still sounds as vital and visceral as it did upon its original release. Face it, you're dye-ing to have this record in your collection.

1. AGONY
2. OH NINA
3. ON AND ON
4. SAD TOMORROW
5. WHAT YOU'VE DONE
6. RED EYED TROLL
7. END IT ALL
8. LAYING ON A BED OF ROSES
9. I NEED A FACE
10. WON'T COME OUT TO PLAY
11. FUNNY FACE
12. ETHYL MY LOVE
13. I'M CONFUSED
14. JUST A GAME

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Limited pressing on Crystal Clear vinyl.
- Packaging contains essays and commentary from the entire band.
- Still available on CD with bonus tracks.

"Popular German pop songs as thrash metal versions and refined with a good dose of punk rock."

Artist: Tankard

Titel: Himbeergeist Zum Frühstück (Re-mastered 2024)

Pre-Order-Start: 02nd August 2024

Releasedate: 18th Oktober 2024

Label: Reaper Entertainment

File Under: Thrash Metal, Punk Rock

Description:

In 1996, the Hessian metal icons TANKARD infiltrated the German pop scene as TANKWART and released their second album under this pseudonym with "Himbeergeist Zum Frühstück". Popular German pop songs and "evergreens" are put through the thrash metal mincer and refined with a good dose of punk rock. The result is a snotty, cheeky album that encourages you to sing and dance along without leaving your eyes (or throat) dry.

Now that the album is almost 30 years old and has not been available on CD or vinyl for years, REAPER ENTERTAINMENT has given the classic a complete facelift. The album was remastered at Pearlsound Studios and given new artwork by Kai Brockschmidt, which now shows the real gas station attendant in front of his pump for the first time.

TUNGSTEN, a formidable force in the Scandinavian metal scene, was formed in Skåne, Sweden, in 2016. The band's drummer Anders Johansson's two sons, Karl and Nick, had composed some songs together. After listening to the songs, Anders suggested that they should record them together and so they did with a shared passion for creating powerful and innovative metal music. Mike Andersson was asked to join as a vocalist and TUNGSTEN was formed. TUNGSTEN comprises of Anders (drums), Nick (guitars), Karl (bass) and Mike (vocals), TUNGSTEN's musical journey is characterized by a fusion of various metal sub-genres, including traditional heavy metal, power metal, elements of progressive metal and notably Swedish folk songs. The band's unique sound is often attributed to their diverse musical backgrounds and influences. Each member brings a distinctive flavor to the collective sound, resulting in a dynamic and engaging musical experience. TUNGSTEN's journey continues, with anticipation building for their future releases and performances. The next album, "The Grand Inferno", will be released in October 2024. The band's ability to push boundaries and consistently deliver high-quality metal music positions them as a notable force in the global metal scene, and their story is one of persistence, creativity, and a relentless passion for the art of metal music that connects the past with the future.

BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON

Boy group BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON, former members of B.A.P, made their debut in 2012 with a powerful hip-hop concept that garnered attention. They released five albums in their debut year alone, sweeping the rookie awards that year. At the time, their blend of rap/hip-hop and EDM, along with the idol world concept, was unprecedented. They solidified their identity and each member's character through these genres. Their lyrics, which dealt with social issues, empowerment, and self-expression, along with their unique music and performances, conveyed impactful messages, establishing them as an irreplaceable group in the idol market.

After their debut track, they released multiple hit songs, achieving significant success. They appeared on various shows, including variety shows and reality programs, and held concerts and world tours, becoming a popular K-POP group. Even after a sudden hiatus, they demonstrated their passion by releasing six high-quality albums over two years. Since the group's activities were paused in 2019, the members have pursued various opportunities in music, acting, and entertainment.

This projects their first group performance since the 2017 album release, and BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON are set to meet their fans' long-awaited expectations with this album.

BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON's first EP album, CURTAIN CALL, features a total of 5 songs, including GONE, the title track produced by BANG YONGGUK himself. CURTAIN CALL consists of a track list crossing over various genres such as K-Pop, Rock, Metal, R&B, and Ballad, and is packed to the brim with warm vibes and heartwarming stories. Signifying their reunion after over six years, every single track including the title track is embellished with genuine messages from the members. We hope these messages "comfort" the fans who believed in and faithfully waited for the group's reunion.

After B.A.P. was disbanded, BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON have done everything they could in each of their fields to reunite. And our fans, "BABY", have sent their endless love and support toward BANG&JUNG&YOO&MOON. Our last episode, "CURTAIN CALL", has only been made possible by our dearest BABY. As our fans gave us the honor to spend our one and only youth with them, we hope we can make another unforgettable memory that will last a lifetime.

We recommend listening to the songs of CURTAIN CALL as you join us on our journey which will be cherished as happiness until the last moment.

what i deserve

25th anniversary edition

While gigging in Austin, Texas, in the late 1980s, Kelly Willis developed a strong fan base. Among her fans were other Texas musicians like Lyle Lovett and Nanci Griffith. Griffith introduced her to producer Tony Brown who signed Willis to MCA Records. Soon, she would find herself in the films Thelma And Louise and Bob Roberts, as well as receiving a nomination as Top New Female Vocalist at 1993's Academy of Country Music Awards. After three records on MCA, and an EP on A&M, Willis finished her fifth release and signed with Rykodisc, who released What I Deserve in 1999.

Featuring originals by Willis, three co-writes with The Jayhawks' Gary Louris, and songs by Paul Kelly, Paul Westerberg, Nick Drake, Dan Penn, and more—What I Deserve became her highest charting album to date, hitting #30 on the Country charts and #24 on Heatseekers Albums. It is also now revered as a landmark release in Alternative Country and Americana circles—with good reason.

To celebrate its 25th Anniversary, What I Deserve returns—expanded with five previously unissued live performances of songs from the album recorded November 14, 1999 on Mountain Stage. In addition to an expanded CD reissue, the release sees its first appearance on vinyl as a double-LP! In addition to the 17 tracks (appearing on both formats), the packaging contains lyrics and new liner notes from Peter Blackstock (No Depression, Austin American-Statesman), all done with Kelly's approval.

What I Deserve has always deserved another look and listen for those who may have missed it the first time—what you deserve is to lose yourself in Kelly Willis' incredible What I Deserve and celebrate 25 years of this landmark album.

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

THE BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA

GUITAR SLINGER

For fans of The Stray Cats, Brian Setzer, Swing and Big Band!

The Brian Setzer Orchestra (sometimes known by its initials BSO) is a swing and jump blues band formed in 1992 by Stray Cats frontman Brian Setzer. In 1994 they released their debut album which was followed up in 1996 with Guitar Slinger. In 1998, for their breakout album The Dirty Boogie, the group covered Louis Prima's "Jump, Jive an' Wail", which originally appeared on Prima's 1957 album The Wildest!. The BSO's follow up single, appearing on the album Vavoom!, was "Gettin' in the Mood."

Now get Guitar Slinger from the Brian Setzer Orchestra for the first time on vinyl since 1996. Remastered on 180g vinyl in two amazing Limited-Edition Colors. There are only 300 of the Red Multi-Color and 700 of the Silver Melt. Guitar Slinger is the second release from the Brian Setzer Orchestra and where the band really started to come together.

The album leads off with "The House Is Rockin'" and features the Brian Setzer/Joe Strummer (The Clash) penned tracks "Ghost Radio" and "Sammy Davis City". There are 12 tracks in all, and it clocks in at just over 43 minutes. This is the first in a series of three reissues coming from Deko Entertainment with The Dirty Boogie scheduled to also hit by the end of 2024, with Vavoom! to follow in early 2025.
