JOE STRUMMER & THE MESCALEROS

STREETCORE

(20TH ANNIVERSARY)

Release Date: 10/20/2023

Dark Horse Records celebrates the 20th Anniversary of JOE STRUMMER of The Clash's 2003 album Streetcore. The audio has been remastered by Paul Hicks (The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, George Harrison) and art has been reproduced from the original release. Included with the vinyl is an exclusive print of Strummer's handwritten lyrics to "Coma Girl."

Joe Strummer and the Mescaleros' third studio album, featuring the single "Coma Girl," was released posthumously following Joe's death in 2002. Due to Strummer's passing many of the tracks feature first and only vocal takes. The fan-favorite cover of Bob Marley's "Redemption Song" and the track "Long Shadow" were produced by Rick Rubin. Dark Horse recently celebrated what would have been Strummer's 70th birthday with the release of Joe Strummer 002: The Mescaleros Years.

Louise Post knows a thing or two about what it takes to stay relevant in the music industry: For the past three decades she's been the co-frontwoman of the celebrated act Veruca Salt whose songs like "Seether" and "Volcano Girls" are still in regular rotation on alternative rock radio. Although Veruca Salt has consistently released music with Post as the sole constant member, during the pandemic she started writing a collection of songs that felt more personal and less like the follow-up to Veruca Salt's 2015 return-to-form, Ghost Notes.

From the mesmerizing and moody opener "Queen of the Pirates" to the electronica-inflected pop of "All Messed Up" and the Pixies-esque guitar grandeur of "Guilty," Sleepwalker is an album that showcases the various aspects of Post's songwriting while still staying true to the distinctive niche she's carved out for herself through her work in Veruca Salt.

'Sleepwalker is a continuation of Post's legacy for heavy hooks and witty lyrics' – Consequence

'Post approaches her debut solo album with overwhelming confidence and a wealth of knowledge, making for one hell of a record' – mxdown

'This album is a cathartic journey of soul searching and healing through the grieving process' – Riff Magazine

SUMMARY

After the dust settles and the apocalypse runs its course, art will still persist in the wake of insanity. Society may crumble, but music endures and even thrives. The Acacia Strain document this deconstruction from the front row. The metal institution—Vincent Bennett [vocals], Kevin Boutot [drums], Devin Shidaker [guitar], Griffin Landa [bass], and Tom “The Hammer” Smith, Jr. [guitar]—survey humanity’s fate with seasick grooves, thrash precision, doom vulnerability, and vocal convulsions in 2020 throughout a series of five digital and physical two-song seven-inches. These releases ultimately comprise their eighth full-length offering, Slow Decay - out July 17th via Rise Records.

Founded in 2001, such ponderousness always crept between the cracks of the band’s menacing maelstrom of metal and hardcore. As such, they engendered diehard fandom within a cult audience and put up unprecedented numbers for an extreme act with over 45 million streams and 272,000 albums sold across their catalog. Along the way, they toured with the likes of Architects UK, Hatebreed, and Crowbar in addition to selling out countless headline gigs.

CRIME & THE CITY SOLUTION

the killer

Street Date: 10/20/2023

Crime & the City Solution return with their seventh studio album, and first in 10 years, the killer. Out October 20th on black vinyl and CD formats.

Played out over 7 tracks and recorded in Berlin, the record is arguably Crime's finest work and is set to be their masterpiece. The album sees central figurehead Simon Bonney's trademark storytelling surrounded by the deep, layered and mesmerizing instrumentation created by this new incarnation of the band, including long term member Bronwyn Adams and new members Frederic Lyenn, Donald Baldie, Georgio Valentino, Chris Hughes and Joshua Murphy. This is paired with Martin J. Fiedler's (Josh T. Pearson, Alex White) production, creating a magical atmosphere of foreboding and opportunity. Follows the recent limited edition vinyl reissues of Shine, The Bride Ship, and Paradise Discotheque.

A band out of time, Crime & the City Solution are perennial outsiders whose mesmeric, expressive music has evolved through many incarnations and a great deal of adversity. The first incarnation of the band appeared in 1977/78, in the midst of Australia's nascent punk scene and re-grouped in London in 1984. After the departure of the Rowland brothers and Epic Soundtracks, the line up would take several more forms calling upon Einstürzende Neubauten's guitarist Alexander Hacke, DAF's synth player Chrislo Haas, jazz bassist Thomas Stern, The Bad Seed's Mick Harvey, Dirty Three's drummer Jim White, and more.

A Certain Ratio 2023 EP

Street Date: 10/20/2023

Manchester legends, A Certain Ratio, are back with their brand new 2023 EP. Out October 20th on 12" vinyl, limited to 1,000 copies worldwide.

This follows the release of their album 1982, and includes 3 remixes of tracks from the record and a brand new track "Day by Day." The remixers on the EP are fellow mancunians Werkha and Jade Parker, as well as close friend Andy Meecham (aka Emperor Machine), who originally contributed keyboards and electronic percussion to the very track he's reworked, "Constant Curve."

The EP also includes a remix of the popular single "SAMO," which spent 4 weeks on the BBC 6Music playlist, accompanied by an animated lyric video paying homage to the graffiti tag it was named after by Al Diaz and American artist and wunderkind, Jean-Michel Basquiat. The final track on the EP is a remix of "Waiting on a Train," presenting a new and special version of the original song, with the presence of the featuring artists, Ellen Beth Abdi and Chunky, remaining strong.

Formed in 1978 with a core line-up of Jez Kerr, Martin Moscrop and Donald Johnson, A Certain Ratio emerged from the hallowed grounds of the late 70s punk scene, and from that day on they've moved forwards with gleeful disregard for the boundaries of style and genre, their eye fixed firmly on constant progression.

To celebrate their 45th anniversary and support the release of 2023 EP, ACR will be taking to the road to play a select number of shows in the UK and Europe, which will see them play all of their 45s in chronological order.

GODMODE

IN THIS MOMENT

The eighth studio album from the GRAMMY®-nominated band
Featuring lead single "THE PURGE"

RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 27, 2023

OVERVIEW

With a GRAMMY® nomination (The In-Between, 2021), Platinum and Gold record sales, multiple Top 25 entries on the Billboard Top 200 (Black Widow and Ritual), hits including "Whore," "Blood," and "Adrenalize," and career streams of more than 1.3 billion, you'd think IN THIS MOMENT might rest on their laurels. Instead, they've created GODMODE, 10 dynamic songs that mark a new high for the quintet, further cementing their legacy in the heavy music world. Proof positive is in GODMODE's first single, the industrial-heavy yet ultra-melodic "THE PURGE," and its darkly cinematic video directed by Jensen Noen (Bring Me The Horizon, Demi Lovato). From the portentous start of the '90s-tinged "GODMODE" with Maria Brink's powerful primal scream to the pitch-perfect cover of Bjork's 1995 "ARMY OF ME" to the impassioned pain to partnership in "EVERYTHING STARTS AND ENDS WITH YOU," GODMODE is a cut above.

The L.A.-based band's eighth album finds vocalist Maria Brink and guitarist Chris Howorth writing the most powerful songs of their career. "We're always striving for reinvention and growth. It's been 10 years since our Blood album, and there's been a lot of transitions happening, this year particularly, but it all felt so meant to be," explains Brink.

Top talent aided and abetted IN THIS MOMENT; Spencer Charnas from Ice Nine Kills guests on the pointed and pained "DAMAGED," and several songs were co-written with Tyler Bates, the award-winning producer and composer of numerous film, television, and video game scores. In fact, the initial collaboration with Bates, the moody, haunting mid-tempo winner "I WOULD DIE FOR YOU" ended up both on the John Wick: Chapter 4 soundtrack and as the last cut on GODMODE.

Recorded at Hideout Recording Studio in Las Vegas, Nevada, the 10-track opus was produced by Kane Churko (Ozzy Osbourne, Papa Roach, Five Finger Death Punch)

CAREER HISTORY

- ★ Since coming to life in 2005, IN THIS MOMENT have presided over a diehard fan base under the watch of "mother" figure and frontwoman Maria Brink—joined by co-founder and lead guitarist Chris Howorth, bassist Travis Johnson, guitarist Randy Weitzel, and Kent Diimmel.
- ★ In addition to the Gold-selling album, Blood [2012], the quintet have garnered six Gold and Platinum singles, followed by a trifecta of Top 25 entries on the Billboard Top 200 with Black Widow [2014] and Ritual [2017].
- ★ Over 2.2M album equivalents sold in the US, with over 700K of that being physical sales.

SALES & MARKETING

- ★ First single "THE PURGE" is at Active Rock radio and is already #34 on the chart after only 3 weeks. 25 stations already spinning, including SiriusXM Octane, WIII/Chicago, WFTK/Cincinnati, KOMP/Las Vegas, KEZO/Omaha, KIL0/Colorado Springs, KFMA/Tucson, Music Choice and more.
- ★ Incendiary video for "THE PURGE" directed by Jensen Noen ((Ice Nine Kills, Falling In Reverse, Hollywood Undead, Demi Lovato), marking the first time that a band already renowned for their visuals has worked with an outside video director.
- ★ IN THIS MOMENT recently wrapped a summer co-headline tour with Motionless in White.
- ★ In support of the new album, IN THIS MOMENT will go back out in the road for a November 3rd through December 2nd on their co-headline KISS OF DEATH TOUR with Ice Nine Kills, produced by Live Nation.
- ★ Initial press around the album announcement included Blabbermouth, Loudwire, Consequence, Revolver, Outburn, Kerrang!, Metal Hammer/Louder and many more.

DOKKEN TO RELEASE NEW STUDIO ALBUM “HEAVEN COMES DOWN” ON 27TH OCTOBER

You can feel that heat off the Sunset Strip and see that hair in the wind as Dokken bring their timeless convertible Ferrari rock ‘n’ roll power to the table with Heaven Comes Down, an unapologetic celebration of everything Dokken do best. You want to rock? Sink your teeth into “Fugitive”, which rides some shimmering guitar work courtesy of Jon Levin, Don Dokken imploring that “I’m a fugitive from life”, and if you want ballads, head on over to “I’ll Never Give Up”, hanging on that Coliseum chorus, Levin laying down a landmark solo. The pattern of Heaven Comes Down never falters in delivering the goods on both sides of the fence. “Just Like A Rose” brings the Pacific Coast Highway into vision with its smooth, effortlessly-driven gears, and “Saving Grace” carries a mystical malevolence. But it is closer “Santa Fe” which is perhaps the most revealing, spare yet glorious moment, Don Dokken opening up with what amounts to a ‘life-moment biography’, a spartan acoustic arrangement allowing the rich yet road-driven vocals to frame what might well prove to be the defining moment of Dokken’s career. Mixed by Kevin Shirley (Aerosmith, Iron Maiden, Joe Bonamassa) and produced by Bill Palmer and Don Dokken, fans will love it, neutrals will be wonderfully surprised by some of the ingredients within Heaven Comes Down.

Heaven Comes Down will be released on CD Digipak, 12" Vinyl Album in Black and colour variants, digital formats and special D2C products and bundles. Available to pre-order from August 8th, 2023.

Veneer

(20th Anniversary Deluxe Edition Clear Vinyl)

Street Date: 10/27/2023

Mute is excited to announce the 20th Anniversary Deluxe Edition of José González's seminal debut album Veneer, out October 27th on limited edition clear vinyl.

Featuring newly remastered audio and a previously unreleased bonus LP comprising 13 intimate live recordings from the Swedish Grammy winner's legendary 2003 performance at Gothenburg Concert Hall in Sweden. This special deluxe edition is packaged in a numbered gatefold jacket, includes printed inner sleeves and an extensive 24-page booklet featuring exclusive photos, illustrations, essays and a track by track guide from José. Limited to 3800 copies for North America.

José González has tallied over 1 billion streams and has sold over 1 million copies of Veneer to date. The record introduced the world to the Argentine-Swedish singer-songwriter's unique blend of intricate guitar work and introspective songwriting. It includes the hit track "Heartbeats" which was famously featured in an award-winning commercial for the Sony BRAVIA TV.

Recorded in González's cramped Gothenburg apartment with just a four-track recorder and, later, a computer and Cubase, Veneer in fact probably couldn't have been any more honest or uncompromising. Two decades later, Veneer remains utterly exceptional, from its hushed opener, "Slow Moves," to its fragile closer, "Broken Arrows," with the likes of the mesmerizing "Crosses," the spellbinding "Deadweight On Velvet" (his first single, released in 2000) and the rhythmically entrancing "Lovestain" still as timeless as they were 20 years ago.

PRAISE FOR VENEER:

PITCHFORK: "González's sparse recordings showcase hushed, double-tracked vocals, haunted imagery, and a clearly gifted classical guitarist."

AMERICAN SONGWRITER: "Veneer succeeds in the simplicity of its songs... it's an album to accompany rain and gray skies, and is a testament to the timeless nature of just a man and his guitar."

TIME OUT LONDON: "Veneer displays an intense yet hushed talent, equally in thrall to the floating drone of post rock as to the elegant finger picking of Bert Jansch..."

AVAILABLE OCTOBER 27, 2023

Inspired by talks with his 13 year old daughter, Jolee Kate, about powerful female artists, singers and songwriters, Aaron Watson is proud to deliver COVER GIRL. A bold move for a Texas based artist steeped in the roots of country music, COVER GIRL's eleven genre bending cover songs go from Dolly Parton and Rosanne Cash to the Pretenders and Lady Gaga, with Emmylou Harris, Sheryl Crow and Taylor Swift songs thrown in for good measure. In addition to Sixpence None The Richer's Leigh Nash, each song features an emerging female vocalist/artist who Aaron knows and respects or has performed with. All of the women that grace the album bring a distinct sound and style to their respective songs. When combined with Aaron's steady country voice, the guest vocalists help make COVER GIRL a unique collection where the listener will find something that they know and love.

Aaron Watson is the first independent male country artist to ever debut an album at #1 on the Billboard Country Album Chart, a feat recognized by an exhibit in the Country Music Hall of Fame. He has earned a litany of prestigious awards, hundreds of millions of streams on his music and tours relentlessly as a headliner while also sharing the stage with a host of country music's legends and greats. With more than a dozen studio albums under his belt and just shy of one billion collective streams, Aaron is exceeding major-label-sized metrics while maintaining his independence, further galvanizing his "Texas country's reigning idie underdog" (Rolling Stone) brand and shows no signs of slowing down. "The country crooner with heart-filled lyrics" (American Songwriter) is currently captivating audiences across the United States on his Roughstock Road Show tour which will continue through the end of 2023.

ALEX CHILTON

My rival

It's mid- to late-1975, what remained of Big Star is no longer, Third/Sister Lovers was sitting on a shelf and Alex Chilton was in Memphis at a very low point. Chris Bell spent a large part of the year in London trying to get a solo record deal, but turned up empty and flew home to visit family in late summer. While at home, Bell was cutting more solo tracks at Ardent, one of which, "You And Your Sister" needed a harmony vocal, so he called in Alex.

Fans have long thought that was the last recording of Bell and Chilton collaborating in the studio, but within what was probably a few days of that session, they were in the studio together again, with Bell engineering a set of demos for Alex.

Chilton laid down early takes of "My Rival" (later re-cut for the Like Flies On Sherbert album) and "All Of The Time" (later re-cut for the Singer Not The Song EP and Bach's Bottom album) as well as the then unissued tracks, "She Might Look My Way" (which first appeared on co-writer Tommy Hoehn's 1978 album, Losing You To Sleep) and "Windows Hotel" (which finally saw release in 2015 on the live album, Ocean Club '77). Unfortunately, working together was not in the cards, nor was a Big Star reunion of any sort.

From the liner notes by Rich Tupica:

"If Big Star could overcome some personal difficulties, if we could get it together, I know we could do something very well," an optimistic Chris Bell told journalist Barry Ballard in 1975.

"I don't know if (Chris) wanted to work together again or not," Chilton reflected years later with journalist Russell Hall. "I don't remember that being the case. I mean, musicians get together to do things all the time, on all sorts of bases. I personally had no intentions of ever getting back together in a band with anybody again, pretty much."

All that's left is the music, and that's surely something to celebrate. In some alternate universe, this could've been the next chapter for Big Star, and it sounds beautiful.

Originally issued as a limited 10" EP for 2019 Black Friday/Record Store Day, this rare collection of Chilton music now makes its 12" debut. Enjoy a small slice of the alternate universe!

NEVER TRAVEL FAR WITHOUT A LITTLE BIG STAR EP

Out of print since 2015, this special EP now returns on 12" vinyl!

Originally recorded for Big Star's iconic Third, "Jesus Christ" has become a holiday staple. What better way to celebrate this time of year than to experience this classic track on vinyl—along with the gift of rare material!

This collectible 12" EP features the Three Wise Men artwork from a 1973 Big Star promo poster. In addition to the original album version of its namesake, the audio program features a demo of "Jesus Christ" which first appeared on the Grammy® winning box set, Keep An Eye On The Sky, as well as 5 rare tracks.

Fans have been clamoring for an official release of "Another Time Another Place & You" for decades, and it made its first-ever appearance on this EP when Omnivore first issued it as a limited 2015 Black Friday/Record Store Day 10" EP, long with a TV Mix of Third's "Thank You Friends." Two more unissued instrumentals joined them. All four of these tracks were mixed in 2012 for use in the acclaimed documentary Nothing Can Hurt Me. A demo version of "Big Black Car" (the studio version also appears on Third) completes the playlist.

The legacy of Big Star continues to shine, and the Jesus Christ EP will not only make a glowing addition to any fan's collection, but will provide them with not only what they've been searching for, but make them rejoice in what they've found.

MAYER HAWTHORNE

Mayer Hawthorne cut his teeth in his hometown of Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he started making beats and DJing at the height of Detroit hip-hop. Since his debut heart-shaped seven-inch, Just Ain't Gonna Work Out, dropped via Stones Throw in 2008, Hawthorne has released four LPs, raking in accolades from esteemed publications like GQ, New York Times Magazine, Playboy, and Rolling Stone. From NPR's proclamation of his imminent stardom to BBC Music's endorsement of his authentic soul, his artistry has captivated the hearts of critics and fans alike. With a wealth of additional press coverage and features in notable outlets such as Billboard, Entertainment Weekly, and Vanity Fair, in addition to appearances on Conan, Letterman, Kimmel, The Today Show, and beyond, Hawthorne's cultural impact is undeniable.

Not only do critics and fans love Hawthorne, but his peers do, too. He opened for Amy Winehouse on her final tour before she tragically passed away, and served as direct support for Bruno Mars twice; he crafted modern yacht rock jams with Pharrell poolside in Miami and John Mayer called his debut the "album of the year" on Twitter. His songs have soundtracked episodes of Girls, the end credits of the final episode of Ugly Betty, and is the only non-Kanye song in the famed Spike Jonze directed short film, We Were Once A Fairytale. Hawthorne has written and produced the lion's share of his catalog, and apart from his solo work, he collaborates with hip-hop producer Jake One on their boogie funk super-group, Tuxedo, which is now three albums and multiple world tours deep.

After the release of his last album Man About Town on Vagrant Records in 2016, Hawthorne launched the next phase of his career as a producer and writer for fellow artists. Recent credits include Jordan Ward's single "Lil Baby Crush" released through Interscope Records, "Truth or Dare" by Chika featuring Freddie Gibbs, and most notably "Options featuring JID" from Doja Cat's double platinum album Planet Her, which earned him a Grammy nomination.

This summer, Hawthorne debuted "The Pool," a swirling, smoke-filled song that guides the listener towards transcendence. Written and produced entirely by Hawthorne, this song is where rebelliousness and carefree living intertwine, inviting you to embrace the thrill in psychedelic adventures. Now, Hawthorne is ready to share his fifth studio album, For All Time, an immersive experience that transcends boundaries and embraces the shadows. On this record, he delves deep into the depths of the human heart, exploring the complexities of love and the raw emotions that accompany it. It's a captivating blend of dark, sexy, and moody vibes that will transport you straight into a smoky, art deco jazz club. For All Time is a celebration of a love that burns with intensity, leaving an enduring mark on the soul.

THROBBING GRISTLE

Mutant TG

Street Date: 10/27/23

Mutant TG, Throbbing Gristle's first ever collection of remixes available again on CD via NovaMute/Mute.

In many respects Throbbing Gristle as artists, self-promoters, marketers, label owners and music makers broke the mould on every level and decentralized the whole music making process into their own hands. It therefore came as no surprise when some of the most notable figures in electronic dance music jumped at the chance to re-work some classic TG catalog.

The record was originally released on Mute's sub-label NovaMute in 2004, and saw reworks from DJ and producer Carl Craig, electronic duo Two Lone Swordsmen (Andrew Weatherall and Keith Tenniswood), Basement Jaxx's Simon Ratcliffe, electronic post-industrial duo Motor (Mr Nô and Bryan Black), as well as TG's very own Chris Carter and Cosey Fanni Tutti.

Formed in 1975 from the ashes of performance art troupe/media guerrilla cell Coum Transmissions, Throbbing Gristle consisted of Genesis P-Orridge (1950 – 2020), Cosey Fanni Tutti, Chris Carter and Peter Christopherson (1955 – 2010). During their most active period of 1975 – 1981, TG fully delivered on punk's failed promise to explore extreme culture as a way of sabotaging systems of control, releasing seminal records such as The Second Annual Report Of Throbbing Gristle (1977), D.O.A The Third And Final Report Of Throbbing Gristle (1978), 20 Jazz Funk Greats (1979) and more. After years of pursuing different projects, the band reformed in 2004, performing several concerts and releasing projects such as TG Now (2004), Mutant TG and Part Two: The Endless Not (2007) before disbanding for good in 2010.
