PG1 : Car

180g Black Vinyl • 1 NOVEMBER 2024

Having been out of stock for a period of time, Peter Gabriel's self-titled solo debut album, affectionately known as Car due to the iconic Hipgnosis-designed cover, is available once again.

Having left Genesis in the summer of 1976, Peter's first solo album arrived in February 1977. He was 26. With legendary producer Bob Ezrin taking charge, the intention was to make a more direct and tougher record: something different from what had gone before. The record also provided one of Peter's most recognisable songs in the shape of Solsbury Hill.

180g black vinyl edition. Sleeve artwork and inner bags replicate the original vinyl release. Contains a download card with a choice of digital download (Hi-Res 24bit or 16bit).

- A1. Moribund the Burgermeister
- A2. Solsbury Hill

PG2 : Scratch

180g Black Vinyl • 1 NOVEMBER 2024

Having been out of stock for a period of time, Peter Gabriel's second self-titled solo album, affectionately known as Scratch due to the iconic Hipgnosis-designed cover, is available once again.

Recorded in the Netherlands and New York City, Peter's second solo album saw Robert Fripp promoted to the role of producer. The album was released in June 1978. Fripp continued to feed Peter's growing fascination with electronics and the resulting album is denser and more experimental than the debut.

180g black vinyl edition. Sleeve artwork and printed lyric sheet replicate the original vinyl release. Contains a download card with a choice of digital download (Hi-Res 24bit or 16bit).

PG3 : Melt
180g Black Vinyl • 1 NOVEMBER 2024
Having been out of stock for a period of time, Peter Gabriel's third self-titled solo album, affectionately known as Melt due to the iconic Hipgnosis-designed cover, is available once again.

Produced by Steve Lillywhite this third album saw Peter change his writing style; now the rhythm came before the melody and the songs were built up on top of the rhythmic sequences. The album delivered a top 5 UK single in Games Without Frontiers and Peter's first overtly political song in the shape of totemic closer Biko. It also features notable contributions from Kate Bush, Paul Weller, Phil Collins and David Rhodes

PG4 : Security 180g Black Vinyl • 1 NOVEMBER 2024

Having been out of stock for a period of time, Peter Gabriel's fourth self-titled solo album, also known in the USA as Security, is available once again.

Co-produced by Peter and David Lord this is the first album where Peter really immersed himself in the music of distant lands and cultures. It was also his first fully digital recording. These two elements created a deeply effective soldering-together of futurism and generations-old tradition. The single Shock The Monkey became Peter's first top 30 hit on the Billboard Hot 100.

UNCLE WALT'S BAND • THOUGHT YOU'D NEVER ASK THE COMPLETE 1975 ARMADILLO RECORDS RECORDINGS

Formed in Spartanburg, SC around 1970, Uncle Walt's Band (David Ball, Deschamps Hood, and Walter Hyatt) established themselves in the area before relocating to Nashville

(garnering a following a recording/publishing deal with Buzz Cason), and eventually Austin (per the invite of Willis Alan Ramsey who was anxious to record them.) The band played steadily around Austin in clubs including Castle Creek, Saxon Pub, and Armadillo World Headquarters—where live albums from New Riders Of The Purple Sage, Waylon Jennings, Frank Zappa/Captain Beefheart, Commander Cody, and more were recorded. (The classic cover photo of London Calling was shot there when The Clash played the venue in 1979). Armadillo was in talks with Warner Bros. Records to have an offshoot imprint for the label. One of the bands chosen to record for the pitch was Uncle Walt's Band. According to Woody Roberts (from his book Horse Racing & Rock 'n' Roll), "For the Warner Brothers demos, I had intended to record seven Uncle Walt's Band songs. But the guys had been apart for months and thus had fresh ears and were sounding better than ever. No way could I possibly stop their musical reunion. We kept the eight-track Ampex rolling and recorded twenty songs!"

Actually it was 22, and that session is now available as Thought You'd Never Ask: The Complete 1975 Armadillo Records Recordings. Three of those performances appeared as bonus material on Omnivore's 2019 expanded version of the band's self-titled debut, but the other 19 are previously unissued. Favorites like "As The Crow Files," "Deeper Than Love," and "Stay With The One You Love" would be reworked for the band's second album An American In Texas (also reissued and expanded by Omnivore Recordings) and "Whatever Reason" and "So Long Baby" would appear in different versions on their acclaimed Anthology: Those Boys From Carolina, They Sure Enough Could Sing... But Thought You'd Never Ask is the first and total look at that incredible January 16, 1975 session at Arthur Smith Studios in Charlotte, NC. Available on CD and Digital, Thought You'd Never Ask: The Complete 1975 Armadillo Records Recordings also features new liner notes from renowned journalist and producer Bill Bentley.

While the Armadillo/WB deal never materialized, its genesis helped create some of finest music these Americana Pioneers ever recorded. So, step back in time and hear David, Champ, and Walter play and sing their hearts out. There's never been another trio like Uncle Walt's Band. Take a listen, and you'll agree.

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

Mutant, in association with Sony Masterworks, are proud to present the premiere physical release of Laura Karpman's Academy Award® Nominated score for the motion picture AMERICAN FICTION. A tremendous piece of film music, harkening back to a seemingly lost, jazzier era of scoring - Laura Karpman finds beauty in sadness, and poetry in the absurd, as she sonically navigates the world of author Thelonius 'Monk' Ellison. Cord Jefferson's debut feature tells the story of Monk's head-on collision with the expectations of him as a black writer, as his satirical and cynical invention of a nom de plume accidentally brings momentum to his career, all in the shadow of tremendous grief within his family. The subject matter requires an incredible balance of tone, which Karpman executes masterfully.

Available for the first time on any physical format, pressed on 140gm Black vinyl, with liner notes by composer Laura Karpman, and artwork by award winning illustrator Akiko Stehrenberger.

INNERWISH stands for melodic and melancholic heavy metal, played in a powerful and dynamic way. Their story began in 1995, in Athens, Greece and in their almost 30 years of existence they managed not only to be one of the most important metal bands from Greece, but also establishing themselves as a respectful band in the European metal scene. Now, INNERWISH are ready to release their new, sixth studio album, called "Ash Of Eternal Flame", a versatile album full of power, emotions and... hymns! Mixed and mastered by Henrik Udd (HAMMERFALL, POWERWOLF a.o.) and with a fantastic cover artwork created by Giannis Nakos (KAMELOT, EVERGREY a.o.), the album features eleven beautiful tracks, incl. a guest performance of Hansi Kürsch (BLIND GUARDIAN), plus a great cover-version of the BLACKFOOT classic "Send Me An Angel". With their new label RPM (HELLOWEEN, AMORPHIS a.o.) in their back, INNERWISH are ready to climb on the throne and get the attention, they fully deserved since decades.

The DICTATORS

THE DICTATORS

For fans of: The Dictators, New York Dolls, MC5 and Punk Rock!

Call them what you will... proto-punk, punk, what-have-you... The Dictators have been, are, and always will be the living, fire-breathing definition of Rock and Roll. Back with The Dictators, their first new studio album in 23 years, the current iteration of the band – 50 years into the game - is faster, louder and better than ever before.

Founding members Andy Shernoff (bass, vocals) and Ross The Boss (lead guitar, vocals) are joined by drummer Albert Bouchard (ex-Blue Öyster Cult) and lead singer/guitarist Keith Roth (Frankenstein 3000) for 10 songs that cement The Dictators as vital, relevant and important now as they were back in 1975. Even though the riffs and melodies are brand new, the music is unmistakably Dictators down to the bone. The Dictators is the newest, brightest jewel in the crown of the quintessential American Rock and Roll band. DFFD indeed.

They have already wowed fans with the new singles “Let’s Get The Band Back Together” and “Thank You And Have A Nice Day” and are ready to continue their 50 year legacy as one of the greatest proto-punk bands ever.

I Just Need to Conquer This Mountain finds one of Australia's most revered songwriters more reflective and more personal than ever before. It is a record about both the heartbreak and quiet calm that comes with letting go of your younger self, how thin the line between tragedy and comedy becomes the older we get, and the way time changes ourselves, our hopes and our dreams. Recorded at Rancom Studios in Sydney, I Just Need to Conquer This Mountain has been the long-time singer-songwriter's most relaxed album yet, one that she made more effortlessly than anything before it. In making this record – which she produced herself – Blasko focussed on enjoying herself in the studio rather than fixating on the result. That approach fuelled some of the most beautiful, assured and honest work of her long career. But despite the big subject matter it traverses, I Just Need to Conquer This Mountain is not a work of doom and gloom. The album's title – just like the record itself – is a declaration of positivity and hope amidst the difficulty of life, one that recognises the duality in all things, and pushes forward into the light. Blasko has previously released six solo albums across her twenty years in the music industry and a further two as part of the supergroup Seeker Lover Keeper, her discography including four Platinum-selling albums and four that have reached the ARIA Top 10. She is the recipient of three ARIA Awards and a J Award and beyond her own material, Blasko has also written music for Bell Shakespeare productions and composed for Sydney Dance Company.

CAROLYN BROUSSARD

GHOSTS OF THE PAST

For fans of Mavis Staple, Susan Tedeschi, Chris Stapleton, and Americana!

Carolyn Broussard is a singer, songwriter, and guitarist based in New Orleans but raised in Cajun country. She trained classically at ULL before deciding to hit the New Orleans scene, where she played and sang in every genre all over town. Since the pandemic she has been focused on learning about the music business, producing, recording, licensing, and songwriting, with less frequent live performances and lots of work on the urban farm.

Carolyn Broussard's debut record Ghosts of the Past takes listeners on an intense journey through her life, examining themes of relationships, heritage, and climate change in its 8 original songs. Broussard's powerful and expressive voice is supported by an all-star band and the unique arrangements of producer Charlie Wooton, drawing on a very wide harmonic palate.

From the lead off singles "Without You" and "Half Pint of Whiskey" to the opener "Dark Eyed Cajun Woman", you can look forward to hearing these songs a lot because they'll be in the ear worm rotation right away!

VENUS

For Fans of David Bowie, Van Morrison, and 70's Rock!

Steeped in the magic and mystery from an artist's life in the Hollywood movie machinery, vintage-futurism storyteller Kelly Deco moves through space and time with imaginary twists on figures we sometimes see in the sky and know in our hearts.

The stars first aligned in 1990 with the release of 'Big Fish' and the independently-produced video for "No Reality" (directed by Wayne White, three-time Emmy award winning designer for 'Pee Wee's Playhouse' and Peter Gabriel's "Big Time") became widely publicized. The clip was played on numerous nationwide video programs, garnering national attention, and ultimately charting in Billboard Magazine's Viewer's Top Request on the nationwide program 'Night Tracks' in 1991 for most requested video.

The stars aligned once again in 2023, on 'Constellation' with legendary and Grammy award winning music producer Val Garay (Linda Ronstadt, James Taylor, Kim Carnes, etc...) with standout tracks "Automat Girl" and "David Bowie's Brain". Now it continues in 2024 with the release of 'Venus' and first single "Get Out".

HACKEDEPICCIOTTO

The Best of hackedepicciotto (Live in Napoli)

Street Date: 11/1/2024

The genre-defying, trailblazing duo hackedepicciotto presents their new album, The Best of hackedepicciotto (Live in Napoli). Available on double vinyl, limited to 500 copies with exclusive signed print.

The album collates over 20 years of collaboration, experimentation and innovative work over two live performances recorded at Auditorium Novecento, one of the oldest recording studios in Europe.

This new collection of what the duo (Alexander Hacke & Danielle de Picciotto) have dubbed Symphonic Drone is a mixture of industrial beats, electronic sounds with classical harmonies and melodies, with an added pinch of throat singing, hurdy-gurdy and spoken word.

The Best of hackedepicciotto (Live in Napoli) showcases live interpretations of music from across their career. The album includes reinterpretations of tracks from all of their studio albums: Keepsakes (2023), a tender exploration of friendship and loss; The Silver Threshold (2021), their defiant reaction to the pandemic; Perseverantia (2016), which dealt with the artists' nomadic lifestyle; Menetekel (2017), which embodies their collective despair at the state of the world; and the powerful energy of The Current (2020), recorded by the Irish Sea.

For over 20 years Alexander Hacke (Einstürzende Neubauten) and artist, musician and filmmaker Danielle de Picciotto (co-founder of Love Parade) have been developing and evolving a symbiotic working practice together. The duo gave up their home and travelled the world, boldly defying convention and becoming a modern, musical version of Bonnie and Clyde, racing from concert to concert and releasing albums at breakneck speed.

THE COWSILLS GLOBAL

A missing pen. That's the secret reason why this wonderful album exists . . .

That's just a teaser into how The Cowsills' Global (their first album of new material in nearly three decades) came to be. Yes, The Cowsills were a chart-topping family band whose story was the inspiration for television's The Partridge Family, but anyone who actually ventured past the hit singles realized the band had chops. Over the ensuing years, The Cowsills garnered a following of fans across the world, among them then and future musical colleagues. The story of Global includes not only the musical siblings, but also Dick Clark, Daryl Dragon ("The Captain" of Captain & Tennille), power-pop superstars, and renowned industry figures.

A piece on Global for NBC-TV's Dateline would not be out of place . . . true crime and human interest!

Global first appeared in 1998, but it was difficult to find. For those who did—it was a revelation of pure pop greatness. For those who missed it, it will be a new revelation now.

With full cooperation from the band, Global is back worldwide. Restored and remastered. The original 11 tracks appear on LP for the first time, and the CD and Digital programs feature three previously unissued tracks from the original sessions recently discovered by Bob Cowsill. Bob, John, Paul, & Susan Cowsill, and veteran bassman Robby Scharf, are joined by guests including Vicki Peterson (The Bangles, Continental Drifters), Berton Averre (The Knack), Peter Holsapple (The dB's, Continental Drifters), John Stamos, and members of the extended Cowsills family. It's a joyous noise spanning decades of pure pop and songcraft.

Featuring updated artwork, the packaging contains new liner notes from Brett Milano and Bob Cowsill outlining, explaining, and bringing this incredible album's story to life. The narrative brings this "lost" release back to life in a way you would never imagine.

So enjoy Global again or fresh, for the first time, now fully restored and remastered (by multiple Grammy winner Michael Graves). Put it on your turntable, or in your CD player (Yes, you can stream it, too) and feel the love of family and the power of music with Global.

Across 10 tracks, including previous releases 'Hello', 'My Best Friend', and The Greatest Friedberg's debut album 'Hardcore Workout Queen' is, in frontwoman Anna Friedberg's own words: "like an endless road trip, with no destination." The alt-rock quartet's first record is filled with songs made for long drives with close pals, the sort of journeys where deep conversations become second nature and your innermost feelings are discussed over service station snacks and slightly-too-warm fizzy drinks. The kind of road trip you never want to end.

On the record the band broaden their sonic palettes: psychedelia, dance-punk and beyond all joining the fray, often coupled with huge pop-leaning hooks. 'Hardcore Workout Queen' was written in various studios, from Berlin to LA, via Dan Carey's (Hot Chip, Fontaines D.C.) studio in South London, and Oli Bayston's (the mastermind behind Boxed In) in Walthamstow. The results? An electric debut album that is undeniably Friedberg.

MERRY CHRISTMAS (WELCOME TO THE FAMILY)

Brett Eldredge is not one to rest on his laurels. Despite having nearly 4 billion global career streams to date, seven radio no. 1's, two gold singles, seven platinum singles, two gold albums, and multiple CMA, ACM and CMT nominations, Eldredge continues to set a new bar and explore different genres. His 2022 holiday album, Mr. Christmas, followed his highly celebrated debut Christmas album, Glow. This fall, Brett will be releasing a new album of holiday originals, Merry Christmas (Welcome to the Family). Inspired by family traditions and the warmth that surrounds Christmas, Merry Christmas (Welcome to the Family) is produced by Ian Miller and features duets with Kelly Clarkson and Idarose. The release date of the CD is September 27 and the release date of the LP is October 25.

Eldredge has been vocal about the importance of mental health and has been open about his own dealings with anxiety. Putting in the work to address his anxieties has allowed Eldredge to express himself in his music and dig deeper into his feelings.

In 2016, the project inspired a single live show in Nashville, which has now grown into the annual Glow LIVE Holiday Tour, which, confidentially, will be announced alongside the record to return this year for the late fall and holiday season.

Highlights:

- Nearly 4 BILLION streams to date, seven radio #1s, seven platinum singles, two gold albums
- During the holiday season, Brett's Spotify Monthly Listeners jump to 22M and he streams 130M streams each year. He sees a huge influx of playlisting and press support (GMA, People, NBC, Forbes +more)
- Merry Christmas (Welcome to the Family) will be his third Christmas album and he's been touring annually during the holiday season.
- 2023's Glow! LIVE Holiday Tour sold 50k tickets across 14 markets.
- Brett Eldredge performed at the Rockefeller Tree Lighting ceremony from 2020 - 2022.
- He has collaborative Christmas hits with Meghan Trainor (#1 on Billboard AC chart), Kelly Clarkson and Sofia Reyes.
