ALICE IN CHAINS

Rainier Fog

EXCLUSIVE SMOG COLOR VINYL

Alice In Chains' "Rainier Fog" is a haunting auditory journey that immerses listeners in a dense atmosphere of introspection and melancholy. Released in 2018, the album's title track, "Rainier Fog," encapsulates the band's signature grunge sound, blending gritty guitar riffs with Layne Staley's successor William DuVall's soulful vocals. The music unfolds like a misty landscape, mirroring the album's title inspired by the ominous Seattle weather. The lyrics evoke a sense of longing and reflection, weaving a narrative that navigates through personal struggles and the passage of time. The song's dynamic shifts create an emotional ebb and flow, accentuated by Jerry Cantrell's masterful guitar work. "Rainier Fog" stands as a testament to Alice In Chains' ability to capture the essence of the Pacific Northwest's moody ambience while delivering a powerful and resonant musical experience.

On their double album Chaos County Line, Skating Polly reach a whole new level of self-possession, ultimately sharing their most expansive and emotionally powerful work to date. Produced by longtime collaborator Brad Wood (Liz Phair/Veruca Salt/Smashing Pumpkins), the follow-up to 2018's critically acclaimed The Make It All Show LP, the songs on the new album journey from art-punk to noise-rock to piano-driven power-pop. Not only the outcome of their constant growth as songwriters, Chaos County Line's scope and depth has much to do with Skating Polly's newly heightened clarity of vision. "All these songs are the most special to me of anything I've ever written" says Peyton. "In the past I didn't always write with a clear purpose, but this time I knew exactly what I wanted to say. We ended up writing about the most difficult emotional experiences we've ever been through, and instead of being terrified of saying exactly what I was feeling it just all came out so naturally."

Over the past decade, few artists have embodied the unbridled freedom of punk like Skating Polly who originally formed when stepsisters Kelli and Peyton were just 9 and 14. In 2017 they were joined full-time by Kelli's brother Kurtis, and together the trio have released and performed their unruly and subversive and wildly melodic music to audiences across North America, the UK and EU. They've also built a close-knit community of fans while earning the admiration of their musical forebears, a feat that's found them collaborating with icons like X's Exene Cervenka and Beat Happening's Calvin Johnson, touring with Babes In Toyland, and starring as the subject of a feature-length documentary.

LP

L O S T O N Y O U

EXCLUSIVE GOLD VINYL

LP's "Lost On You" album is a soulful journey through the complexities of love and longing. Released in 2016, the album showcases the artist's distinctive and emotive vocals against a backdrop of folk, rock, and pop influences. LP, whose real name is Laura Pergolizzi, bares her soul in each track, exploring themes of heartbreak, desire, and self-discovery.

The album's title track, "Lost On You," is a poignant anthem that resonates with its raw lyrics and powerful delivery. LP's raspy and evocative voice adds a unique texture to each song, creating an immersive experience for the listener. The instrumentation is both dynamic and intimate, featuring acoustic elements alongside more anthemic moments.

"Lost On You" is a testament to LP's songwriting prowess and her ability to connect with the listener on a deeply emotional level. The album's sonic diversity, coupled with LP's arresting vocal performance, makes it a standout in the singer-songwriter genre, leaving an indelible mark on those who embark on this musical journey.

THE KÖRGIS

WITH THE
RIALTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Orchestrations

The Korgis arrived on the music scene in 1979 and their second single, "If I Had You," hit #13 on the UK Singles Chart. The track was eventually covered by artists including Rod Stewart and Tracy Ullman. However, it was the first single from their second album, Dumb Waiters, that hit the Top 5. "Everybody's Got To Learn Sometime" instantly became an '80s classic, and continues to live on thanks to cover versions from artists including Zucchero with Vanessa Carlton, Beck (featured in the film Eternal Sunshine Of The Spotless Mind), Erasure, The Dream Academy, and more.

Continuing to release new music to this day, The Korgis teamed up with The Rialto Symphony Orchestra to revisit their over four decades of enduring songs and song writing. Orchestrations presents new, orchestral versions of tracks including "Everybody's Got To Learn Sometime," "If I Had You," and "All The Love In The World," plus the South African hit "Don't Look Back" (originally produced by Trevor Horn), "Something About The Beatles," and five more Korgis classics.

Now available in North and South America, Orchestrations is an exciting new way to experience the music of The Korgis.

Los Angeles based Heavy/Speed Metal cult act RUTHLESS return on "The Fallen" with ten true metal hymns. For all old-school 80s Metalheads and fans of IRON MAIDEN, METAL CHURCH, ACCEPT and more!

Artist: RUTHLESS
Title: The Fallen
Pre-sale: October 27th, 2023
Release Date: January 12th, 2024
Label: Fireflash Records
File Under: METAL

The name RUTHLESS in itself means "without mercy." Since the early 1980's, lead by vocalist Sammy DeJohn, the band has stayed true to its style of metal, from the classic first EP "Metal Without Mercy" (1984) and the debut cult album "Discipline Of Steel" (1986), to the current albums "They Rise" (2015) and "Evil Within" (2019), they've never wavered on the power of bands like JUDAS PRIEST, ACCEPT and BLACK SABBATH, always staying true to their roots.

The new album, "The Fallen" will be released on January 12th, 2024 on their new label Fireflash Records (HOLY MOSES, MEZZROW a.o.). The band has shown glimpses of the future as well as back to the beginning with songs like "No Mercy", "Betrayal" and "Soldiers of Steel".

"We are very excited for you to hear the new album, "The Fallen." You can expect it to be very powerful with a throwback to the early days of the band. This album will give you everything Ruthless", commented Sammy De John. Expect an album full of power and passion, combined with their straight and traditional 80s metal sound, ready to become a future classic and a must-have for anyone who is into traditional heavy metal like METAL CHURCH, HELSTAR, EXCITER, LIEGE LORD and others. RUTHLESS has shown glimpses of the future as well as back to the beginning and offers a strong album with tons of highlights, produced by Bart Gabriel (CIRITH UNGOL, RIOT CITY, HEXX a.o.) and completed by a powerful artwork by Mario Lopez (EVIL INVADERS, CRYSTAL VIPER, TOXIK) and pictures by Alex Solca (TESTAMENT, DIO, DOKKEN). With this line-up of original vocalist, Sammy DeJohn (1982 to present), drummer, Bob Guitrau (1986-2012 and 2021 to present), bass player, Sandy K. Vasquez (since 2016) and guitarist, Glen Paul (since 2021), RUTHLESS is ready to thrash the world once again!

SAXON UNLEASH HELL, FIRE AND DAMNATION

Saxon proudly release their latest album Hell, Fire And Damnation on January 19th 2024, and when internationally-renowned actor Brian Blessed OBE delivers a proclamation for opening track, “The Prophecy”, expectations are automatically high. Have no fear and make no mistake, Saxon meet and exceed them on their 24th studio release, creating a superlative British Heavy Metal classic which strides the perfect line between confident, current power, and gloriously irreverent flexing of the New Wave of British Heavy Metal muscle which Saxon co-created.

There is supreme confidence in every performance. Biff Byford delivers his richest vocals in years, Nigel Glockler and Nibbs Carter on drums and bass respectively lay down the rhythmic law with thunderous power, and the guitars of Doug Scarratt and Brian Tatler are fresh and fiery, a perfect complement to each other, and carrying an overall energy and fury which will have fans salivating. Lyrically, Byford enjoys investigating all areas of both history and mystery, with Marie Antoinette, Kubla Khan, the Battle of Hastings, the Salem witch trials and the fight between good and evil on the title track all in the mix. Musically, Saxon bring it all to the table. There's a furious tribute to actual heavy metal in the denim & leather coated super-sprint “Fire And Steel”, a wonderful nod to the NWOBHM's birth in the electric mid-pace “Pirates Of The Airwaves”, but maybe the true treasure amidst the jewels is “There's Something In Roswell”, with the sort of expansive groove and embrace which deserves arenas. Add to this excellent production by Biff and Andy Sneap (Sneap also mixed and mastered Hell, Fire And Damnation) and you have Saxon's most definitive statement in years.

HURLING TOWARDS EXTINCTION

For fans of Mountain, Grand Funk Railroad, and Dr. Hook!

Kelakos is a seventies rock band with roots in Boston and Upstate New York, known for fusing powerful rock rhythms and guitar leads with strong vocals, catchy songwriting, and rich, varied production. Now forty-four years after their first album, Gone Are the Days, Kelakos returns stronger than ever with a new 12-song album release, Hurling Towards Extinction.

The band consists of its namesake George Kelakos Haberstroh on vocals/guitar, Mark Sisson on rhythm guitar, Linc Bloomfield holding down the bass, who after Kelakos wound up in a high lever career in Washington, and rounded out by Carl Canedy who went to play with The Rods and produce albums by Anthrax, Overkill, Blue Cheer, Exciter, etc...

Hurling Towards Extinction consists of 12 new songs with highlights such as "Livin on the Planet Love" and "Smoke and Mirrors", while making sure there is something for everyone on this release.

Title: Chaosphere

Release Date: January 19th, 2024

Label: ATOMIC FIRE

File Under: METAL

Description:

Formed in 1987 in Umeå, Sweden, Meshuggah have gone on to be called "one of the ten most important hard and heavy bands" by Rolling Stone and have earned the respect and admiration from fans and musicians alike.

It is impossible to talk about experimental or avantgarde metal without mentioning this truly groundbreaking act: MESHUGGAH mix ultra-complicated rhythmic patterns with massive riffs and aggressive growls, combining Death Metal, Mathcore, Thrash and Progressive Metal to create their unique style.

The year 2023 now marks the 25th anniversary of one of the band's earliest milestones: "Chaosphere".

Originally released on November 9th, 1998, Meshuggah's 3rd full length studio album shows the band toning down some of the thrashier sounds of previous releases in favour of the more technical, polyrhythmic, groove-oriented sound they would go to explore on subsequent albums. The album contains the songs "New Millennium Cyanide Christ", "Corridor of Chameleons", and "Neurotica", some of the band's most streamed tracks, among other highlights.

To commemorate the album's quarter-century anniversary, Atomic Fire will unleash a sonically updated version of the album.

The re-release of this masterpiece comes in hi-def audio (remastered by Thomas Eberger and Sofia von Hage at Stockholm Mastering) on all streaming platforms, as well as a CD jewel case format (incl. 8-page booklet) and stunning new vinyl colors (most are limited worldwide to under 1500 of each color, 180 grams, 2LP in 5 mm Sleeve incl. 2-page insert), to complete every collector's dream.
