JUKEBOX THE GHOST

CHEERS is an arena-sized, ebullient toast to surviving and thriving in the face of hard times, conjuring up 70's Queen and McCartney-styled song suites, without sacrificing any modern punch. The recording process began in Brooklyn during the beginning of the pandemic and continued throughout, with the band self-producing and quarantining together for six months to make the finished product -- by far the longest stretch of time the band has spent in the studio working on a LP to date. The effort is palpable; motifs appear and re-appear in interstitial tracks that segue into standalone pop songs, implying a larger thematic architecture that borders on a concept record without being overwrought.

On CHEERS, JUKEBOX THE GHOST combines their memorable choruses, cheerful melodies, and Freddie Mercury-esque vocals with the hip-hop-influenced energy of Twenty One Pilots, the modern piano balladry of Andrew McMahon, and the joyful energy of Walk The Moon. By almost any measure, it's their most ambitious and cohesive creative effort to date.

THE SALSOUL ORCHESTRA CHRISTMAS JOLLIES

RELEASE: 11/04/2022

DANCE YOUR ELF OFF

The Salsoul Orchestra was the backing band of session musicians for many acts on New York City label, Salsoul Records and, under its own name, recorded several hit singles and albums between 1975 and 1982.

The orchestra was formed in 1974 and was disbanded in 1982. Their music featured elements of Philadelphia soul, funk, Latin and disco. The Salsoul Orchestra included up to 50 members and was created and masterminded for Salsoul Records by Philadelphia musician Vincent Montana, Jr.. Montana wrote, arranged, conducted, produced and played on all of the orchestra's tracks until 1978, including this gold-selling Christmas album.

The Salsoul Orchestra initially consisted of many of the original members of Philadelphia International's MFSB, who had moved to Salsoul as the result of a disagreement with producers Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff over finances. Other members began performing as The Ritchie Family and as John Davis and the Monster Orchestra. On later MFSB and Philadelphia International recordings, Gamble & Huff used a new rhythm section which resulted in a slightly different sound.

BIRD STREETS

LAGOON

Acclaimed Brooklyn artist Bird Streets has returned with Lagoon, an album about separation, rumination, regret, and recurrence. For his second album under the Bird Streets name, John Brodeur has widely expanded on the project's collaborative foundation, enlisting production by Patrick Sansone (Wilco), Michael Lockwood (Aimee Mann, Fiona Apple), and Zach Jones (Sting) and Oscar Albis Rodriguez (A Great Big World), plus guest appearances from the likes of Aimee Mann, Ed Harcourt, John Davis (Superdrag), Jody Stephens (Big Star), and an array of top-shelf session players. With mixing split between Sansone and Grammy winner Michael Brauer (Coldplay, John Mayer), and mastering by Grammy nominee Pete Lyman (Brandi Carlile, Chris Stapleton), Lagoon is an enormous step forward from an artist who has been hailed for his evocative storytelling and keen attention to craft.

Producer and multi-instrumentalist Patrick Sansone helmed sessions in Nashville ("Burnout", "Leave No Trace", the bossa-flavored "The Document") and later in Memphis, where he and Brodeur were joined by John Davis on guitar and Jody Stephens on drums, forming a power-pop fantasy band of sorts. ("Machine", "Go Free", and wistful "SF 1993" come from the Memphis dates.) Back in Brooklyn, Brodeur cut several tracks with the production team of Zach Jones and Oscar Albis Rodriguez, including "Ambulance," the catchy AM Gold of "Let You Down," and the Last Waltz-styled soul-rock of "Disappearing Act." When the pandemic threw a wrench in the works, Brodeur turned to Los Angeles-based producer Michael Lockwood to remotely helm Lagoon's final stretch.

TOMLINSON

IN THE FUTURE

Louis Tomlinson triumphantly returns with his first new music since the release of his million selling debut solo album Walls in 2020. Written by Louis, Rob Harvey and Red Triangle, and produced by Mike Crossey (The 1975 and Wolf Alice), 'Bigger Than Me' is an impassioned pop song with a gargantuan and emotional chorus.

"It was my first moment of excitement making this record, and where it felt we were on to something which honours the live show" Louis says.

"I've always strived to be a very normal, humble person in this life, but there's a line to that and a responsibility that comes from being in this position. I realised from doing those live shows what it means to my fans and how everything I do is bigger than me. It's almost a coming of age for myself and putting opinions about myself to the back of my mind and thinking about what it potentially means for other people."

Alongside Crossey, Louis has collaborated on the upcoming album with celebrated names such as Rob Harvey, Dan Grech (The Killers, The Vaccines, Halsey), Nico Rebscher (Alice Merton), Joe Cross (Courteeners), and Hurts frontman Theo Hutchcraft. Whilst recording the album, Louis had a core aim: to produce a collection of songs befitting an anthemic live show — a task he's risen to with aplomb.

JOE BATAAN SALSOU

LIMITED EDITION BATAAN BLUE

1LP 140 gram

Release Date: 11/11/22

Salsoul is the 9th studio album by trailblazing Filipino-African American singer Joe Bataan, featuring his classic single "Mujer Mia".

Re-issued for the first time since 1973—on limited-edition, blue translucent vinyl—Salsoul was born out of Bataan's love for salsa & soul, which developed during his youth in New York's Spanish Harlem.

Such was the impact of Bataan's new sound, that Salsoul served as the catalyst for the creation of a label by the same name. Formed by brothers Joseph, Kenneth, & Stanley Cayre, Salsoul Records spearheaded a new generation of charismatic artists that, influenced by soul, funk, & Latin dance rhythms, gave the label a signature sound.

Re-emerging in samples and remixes, the Salsoul Records catalog is proof of the label's enduring legacy and its crucial role in shaping the sound of a new wave of disco.

SOFT CELL & PET SHOP BOYS PURPLE ZONE

Having closed 2021 with a critically acclaimed sold-out UK tour, Soft Cell share new single 'Purple Zone', a new collaboration with Pet Shop Boys taken from their eagerly anticipated fifth studio album Happiness Not Included*. Having attended one of the tour's London shows at which the new track was performed, Pet Shop Boys immediately picked out 'Purple Zone' as one of their favourites from the evening. The two legends of electro-pop initially planned for Pet Shop Boys to remix the song, but this quickly mutated into a full collaboration.

'Purple Zone' is now a dream duet for synth-pop connoisseurs as Marc Almond's ultra-expressive delivery intertwines with Neil Tennant's wistful yearning, encapsulating the existential questions about the passing of time that are posed throughout the course of the album. Raising its tempo, Pet Shop Boys also added a hi-NRG sheen that elevates the track's moody melancholy, Chris Lowe's trademark high-drama synths producing a theatrical intensity.

ZEKE SKY reaches for the stars with stunning label debut!

Artist: ZEKE SKY

Title: Intergalactic Demon King

Pre-sale: September 2nd, 2022

Release Date: November 11th, 2022

Label: ATOMIC FIRE RECORDS

File Under: METAL

Description:

Zeke Sky is an American guitarist, pianist, vocalist and composer who has made continuous impact since videos of his playing and songs emerged on the internet in 2018. Combining influences of psychedelic rock, progressive metal, heavy metal and world music, Zeke goes against the grain in writing and performing bold and visionary songs without limitation, dealing with complex lyric issues ranging from toxic love to kingly conquests. In the same year, Zeke played his first live event opening for KING'S X as part of a home recorded album effort. Despite the total infancy of his name, an impressive number of copies were sold of this obscure album on the web. Zeke followed up with a pair of singles in 2019 and 2020 with updated production ethics and of course more aggressive playing, and those saw favorable reviews all over the world, including in Rolling Stone Magazine ("ZEKE SKY is an incendiary of heavy metal."). In 2021, Zeke completed a debut label effort, »Intergalactic Demon King,« for release in late 2022. For this young composer, the future is as bold as it is long, for only the brave who accept the challenge will taste the fruits of the golden mountain.

NICOLAS BOUGAÏEFF

Begin Within

Street Date: 11/11/2022

Mute is excited to announce the release of Nicolas Bougaïeff's new album Begin Within, out November 11th on vinyl, CD and digital formats.

This is the first vocal-lead record from Nicolas, and is inspired by self-transformation. It's about honesty, instinct and lessons hard learned through intimate Berlin stories. Nicolas addresses these themes in form and content, explored with the use of his voice.

Much like his debut album The Upward Spiral, Begin Within continues to illustrate Bougaïeff's approach to electronic music from a compositional lens, pushing boundaries of rhythm and genre.

The vinyl includes a printed inner sleeve with lyrics and a high definition download code.
