(Barry Manilow Original Demo)

Harmony features an original new score with music by legendary Tony, Grammy and Emmy Award® winner Barry Manilow, with book and lyrics by Drama Desk Award winner Bruce Sussman. Directed and choreographed by Tony Award winner Warren Carlyle (The Music Man; Hello, Dolly!), this timely and captivating rags-to-riches story lost to history comes to dazzling life with a sensational cast of Broadway favorites.

Based on an unbelievable true story, Harmony tells the tale of the most successful entertainers you've never heard of. . . until now. In the 1920s and '30s, The Comedian Harmonists sold millions of records, made dozens of films, and sold-out the biggest theaters around the world. Their heavenly harmonies and musical comedy antics catapulted these six talented young men from singing in the subway tunnels of Berlin to international superstardom. What happened next is the story of Harmony.

ALKALINE TRIO

BLOOD, HAIR, AND EYEBALLS

SUMMARY

Alkaline Trio walks among us once again! On January 26, 2024, everyone's favorite tortured triumvirate will return in Grand Guignol style with Blood, Hair, and Eyeballs, its tenth album and first full length offering of new material to be released in 1666 years. Recorded with GRAMMY-winning producer Cameron Webb at Studio 606 in Northridge CA, Blood, Hair, and Eyeballs finds Alkaline Trio stripping its sound down to the skin and bones of its unmistakable sonic spirit, while taking that dark essence to parts previously unknown. In addition to being a darkly shining exemplar of the Trio's signature blend of wry lyrical wit and bittersweet melodic sensibility, Blood, Hair, and Eyeballs arrives in a confluence of endings and beginnings—specifically, it's both the first album to be released via the band's new label home, Rise Records, and the last to feature longtime member Derek Grant, drummer on every Alkaline Trio record since 2003's classic Good Mourning.

SELLING POINTS

- 10th Studio album from US punk rock legends
- Features the singles "Blood, Hair, And Eyeballs" and "Bad Time"
- Band on tour in the US through Feb/March.
- 750k Monthly listeners Spotify / 150k Instagram followers / 430k Facebook followers
- New music available on request

QUOTE

Matt Skiba: "We approached this new record in completely new ways. We built the songs together, from the ground up, in the same room which hasn't happened since the band started. Usually we start with an idea somebody's already written. This time, we had the unique opportunity to build the songs onto drums recorded at Studio 606 on to two-inch tape using one of the most beautiful-sounding and legendary consoles in rock. It has almost everything to do with how our new record sounds."

ERASURE

The Neon Live

Street Date: 1/26/2024

Erasure release The Neon Live, a 24-track live album recorded at Manchester's O2 Apollo on 9th and 10th October 2021 during the sold-out tour of the duo's eighteenth studio album, The Neon, which went into the UK Official Albums Chart at #4. Out January 26th on triple vinyl and double CD.

This release features Andy Bell and Vince Clarke's favorite performance of each song from across the two shows, with a palpable crowd atmosphere running throughout the entire recording. Along with the much loved tracks from The Neon, the album also sees the award-winning songwriters play hits from their entire career including live versions of their timeless synth-pop classics: "A Little Respect," "Sometimes," "Oh L'Amour," "Always," "Chains of Love," "Blue Savannah" and more.

PRAISE FOR ERASURE + THE NEON:

NEW YORKER: "No synth-pop group has been as achingly and reassuringly human as Erasure."

BROOKLYN VEGAN: "The Erasure formula – Vince Clarke's gurgling synthpop + Andy Bell's powerful pipes – never seems to get old..."

FLOOD MAGAZINE: "The Neon, gloriously bathed in ticklish analog synths and backed by meaty rhythms, does what it's supposed to do, painting something of a re-birth for the boys in the band..."

BLACKBOOK: "Erasure's music has often felt like a hit of exuberance when we needed it most..."

TERRY ADAMS terrible

“Terry is well known because he has true talent, not because he’s aggressive. He cares about music. He hears music. He may not speak the same language as most people, but he can reach them anyway.” – Sun Ra

Terry Adams' first solo album Terrible is exactly the opposite—it is a thing of beauty!

Released in 1995, the NRBQ founder invited fellow New Rhythm & Blues Quartet bandmates Johnny Spaminato (guitar), Joey Spaminato (bass) and Tom Ardolino (drums) to the Terrible party alongside other guest musicians, notably Marshall Allen (alto sax), Tyrone Hill (trombone) and Dave Gordon (trumpet) from the Sun Ra Arkestra. Roswell Rudd (Archie Shepp, Carla Bley) also checked in on trombone to add his talents to Adams' instrumental compositions.

The 12 originals, now augmented by four bonus tracks, run the range from beautiful ballads to swinging romps, tangos and calypsos, some delivered with a wink, some with a knowing nod, all expertly and brilliantly played. By enlisting friends overflowing with musical talent, Adams was free to explore his compositions' whims, ideas and notions, and express them utilizing a unique palette of instrumentation.

Thankfully this solo outing wasn't a one-time happening. Terrible set the table for wonderful solo projects to follow, but it took nearly 30 years for Terrible to return. Now, sporting new cover art, new liner notes, remastered audio and 4 previously unissued bonus tracks on CD, Digital, and for the first time a double-LP set, Terrible has neither looked nor sounded better.

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

- The NRBQ founder's first solo album returns with four bonus tracks.
- Available on CD, Digital, and for the first time, on 2-LP.
- Musicians include Johnny & Joey Spaminato and Tom Ardolino (NRBQ), Roswell Rudd (Archie Shepp, Carla Bley), and Marshall Allen, Tyrone Hill, and Dave Gordon (Sun Ra Arkestra).

ALI FARKA TOURÉ

GREEN

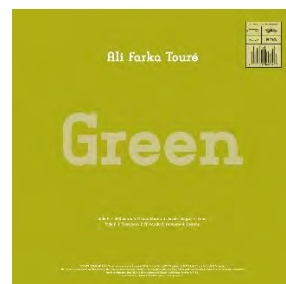

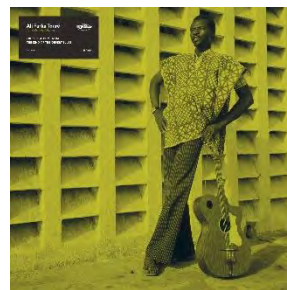

US Release Date: 01/26/2024

1LP BLACK VINYL

★ All tracks digitally remastered from original tapes

In the 1970s, Malian guitarist Ali Farka Touré worked as a sound engineer for national Radio Mali and broadcasts of his own performances earned him a formidable local reputation. He sent some recordings to the Sonodisc record company in Paris, resulting in one of the first ever commercial releases of Malian music - a 12" vinyl album titled Ali Toure 'Farka'. Between 1975 and 1988 a total of seven albums were released, all titled only with variations on the artist's name and with no information other than a photo and the song titles. The last two albums released became known as the 'Red' and 'Green' albums due to the colours of their original album sleeves. In the mid-1980s a few copies of these albums found their way to Anne Hunt of World Circuit Records, prompting her to travel to Mali and broadcast an appeal over the airwaves of Radio Mali to find Ali. As luck would have it Ali was visiting the capital Bamako and he heard the broadcast. Thus began Ali's hugely successful international career and his long relationship with the World Circuit label.

Digitally remastered from the original tapes, Ali Farka Touré's 'Green' album showcases Ali's acoustic guitar and vocals, both alone and accompanied by calabash and ngoni (traditional four string guitar). It's one of many in Ali's catalogue that demonstrate his continuing importance to African music. A must-have for both fans and collectors alike.

Spiritbox

Eternal Blue

Summary

Named after a device some believe is capable of communicating with the dead, there's a gleeful sense of the paranormal running through all that Canadian metallers Spiritbox do, but this is a group of artists who are very much brimming with life and creating something remarkable with their music. Their hit single "Holy Roller" scored the band-vocalist Courtney LaPlante, guitarist Michael Stringer, and drummer Zev Rosenberg—the No. 1 song of 2020 on Sirius XM, with the trio having amassed a staggering 227 million streams across their catalogue. With ambitious and intelligent debut full-length Eternal Blue now out in the world, successes continue to roll in for Spiritbox, with their first LP topping the U.S. and Canadian Rock and Hard Rock charts, breaking the top 20 in the U.K., Germany and Australia, and peaking at #13

The Undertones formed in Derry, Northern Ireland, in 1975 and released their debut album 'The Undertones' in 1979 which peaked at #13 in the UK Charts.

John and Damian O'Neill partnered infectious guitar hooks to '60s garage, '70s glam rock, with Feargal Sharkey's signature vocal quaver. Those qualities came together on their breakout hit "Teenage Kicks," whose simplicity harked back to '60s ideals of when the song was king.

This classic debut record infuses so much unabashed joy in two-minute three-chord pop songs, and there's little pretension in their unapologetically teenage worldview, that even the darker hints of life in songs like the suicide-themed "Jimmy Jimmy" are delivered with a sense of optimism at odds with so many of their contemporaries.

TRAPEZE MEDUSA

For fans of Deep Purple, Whitesnake, and Glenn Hughes!

Trapeze was formed in 1969, the band originally featured former The Montanas members John Jones (trumpet, vocals) and Terry Rowley (keyboards), and former Finders Keepers members Glenn Hughes (bass, vocals, piano), Mel Galley (guitar, vocals) and Dave Holland (drums). Jones and Rowley left the band following the release of their self-titled debut album in 1970, with the lineup of Hughes, Galley and Holland continuing as a trio.

Originally released in 1970, Medusa was recorded at Morgan Studios, and was produced by The Moody Blues bassist John Lodge. The line-up of Glenn Hughes (Deep Purple), Mel Galley (Whitesnake), and Dave Holland (Judas Priest) recorded this album and the follow up You Are the Music... We're Just the Band in 1972 before that line-up disbanded when Hughes left in 1973 to join Deep Purple.

Medusa has not been released on vinyl since 1979 and now has been fully remastered and comes on Gold Nugget 180-gram vinyl and a beautiful gatefold sleeve (limited to 250 copies pressed).

YOU ARE THE MUSIC...WE'RE JUST THE BAND

For fans of Deep Purple, Whitesnake,
and Glenn Hughes!

Trapeze was formed in 1969, the band originally featured former The Montanas members John Jones (trumpet, vocals) and Terry Rowley (keyboards), and former Finders Keepers members Glenn Hughes (bass, vocals, piano), Mel Galley (guitar, vocals) and Dave Holland (drums). Jones and Rowley left the band following the release of their self-titled debut album in 1970, with the lineup of Hughes, Galley and Holland continuing as a trio.

Originally released in 1972, You Are the Music... We're Just the Band was recorded with producer Neil Slaven. The line-up of Glenn Hughes (Deep Purple), Mel Galley (Whitesnake), and Dave Holland (Judas Priest) recorded this album before disbanding later that year when Hughes left in 1973 to join Deep Purple. You Are the Music... We're Just the Band also featured a wide range of guest performers, including guitarist B. J. Cole, pianist Rod Argent and saxophonist Jimmy Hastings.

You Are the Music... We're Just the Band has not been released on vinyl since 1978 and now has been fully remastered and comes on red galaxy 180-gram vinyl and beautifully repackaged (limited to 250 copies pressed).
