PROJECT OVERVIEW

A longtime Christian music artist and worship leader, Brandon Heath has released seven studio albums over his 20+ year career. He has been nominated for numerous Dove Awards and a Grammy Award; and has been a Dove Award winner in multiple categories including: "New Artist of the Year" (2008), "Song Of The Year" (2009), Pop/Contemporary Song of the Year" (2009) & "Male Vocalist of the Year" (2009 & 2010). Heath has had multiple #1 singles, ("I'm Not Who I Was" & "Give Me Your Eyes") and is a well known and loved part of the Nashville songwriter community.

Newly signed to both Centricity Music and Centricity Publishing, Heath is opening a fresh chapter. Not only is he partnering with a new label, but he's collaborating with songwriters he's never written with before and producers he hasn't previously worked with. While almost everything in this season is different, one thing hasn't changed, and that's Heath's uncanny ability to get underneath your skin with a lyric.

"I want to make sure I write songs that are uniquely me—not just the ones that make you want to play it again, but songs that make you go, 'Oh wow, he just sang my story,'" Heath offers. "I think that is what makes people invest in an artist. It's not just the songs they like on the radio. It's cut three on the record that kind of makes you own that artist."

Brandon Heath's latest, full-length project Enough Already offers a fresh creative take, and a clear musical vision. The album boasts 9 brand new tracks including the hit song "See Me Through It" which is quickly climbing the Christian radio charts. Teaming up with a stable of veteran songwriters and producers, Enough Already offers a variety of musical styles packaged with the heartfelt lyrical content expected from Brandon Heath.

UDO DIRKSCHNEIDER is the voice of Heavy Metal! "My Way" is the most personal and extraordinary album to date and It contains 17 cover versions of the very songs that have influenced the musician and singer from Germany the most.

Artist: UDO DIRKSCHNEIDER
Title: MY WAY
Pre-sale: 02/25/2022
Release date: 04/22/2022
Label: ATOMIC FIRE RECORDS
File Under: METAL

Description:

He is THE constant of the German metal scene: On April 6, 2022, icon Udo Dirkschneider will be 70 years old. Born in post-war Wuppertal, when heavy metal was far from being invented, he has for many years been one of the decisive characters who have helped shape this musical genre so decisively. For about five decades, it is impossible to imagine it without him. On April 22nd his most personal and extraordinary album will be released: it contains 17 cover versions of exactly those songs that have influenced the musician and singer the most. Among them are all kinds of classics of music history - even those you might not have expected from Udo. Behind all the tracks is not only a very personal story, but also a sometimes surprising arrangement, which despite their very individual implementation, however, live and breathe Udo's signature at all times. The cover album also makes one thing clear: how many in the music business have come and gone over the years. Udo Dirkschneider is still here. If his unchanging nature was briefly what almost doomed him in the midst of the norm-constructed music industry in the 80s, it has long since become his very great strength. All this makes Udo Dirkschneider one of the greatest and most imposing rock and metal icons of the last decades.

The FIST is the law! Canada's most furious trio return with 8 groove bombs

Artist: SKULL FIST
Title: PAID IN FULL
Pre-sale: 02/25/2022
Release date: 04/22/2022
Label: ATOMIC FIRE RECORDS
File Under: METAL

Description:

The fist is the law! Toronto heavy metal overachievers Skull Fist have more guts and balls than the police allow. Since their leggy beginnings in 2006, dungeon keeper Zach Schottler and his ruthlessly shredding gang of reckless accomplices have released three archetypal heavy metal almanacs, eaten more dust than is good for their health, endured hardships (henceforth called shitty business partners) and propped up countless beers in countless bars in countless cities. Now, after 15 years on behalf of steel, Zach Schottler is really turning up the heat with the uniquely titled "Paid In Full," a heavy metal wonder of the defiant middle-finger variety. With head held high, pockets empty and just enough gas in the tank to make it to the next show, Skull Fist have just officially won 2022. We say it like it is: don't mess with the fist! "Paid In Full" is heavy metal in all its glory and splendor, skillfully unleashed wide-legged. Written at home and recorded at Vespa Studios near Toronto, "Paid In Full" encompasses his sonic efforts of the past two years: tales of steel and legends from the underworld.

List Price: $15.98 (DIGIPAK)

One does not merely listen to Southern California trio SET TO STUN. Inspired more by science fiction and horror movies than the post-hardcore bands to whom they have been compared, SET TO STUN create a full cinematic experience. Wholly disregarding the confines of typical song structure, SET TO STUN create remarkable discord and beautiful cacophony that bounces between hardcore, spoken word, metal and punk at breakneck speed. So filmic is their music that the band have called themselves "Quentin Tarantinos of rock-n-roll."

The band's debut full-length—2015's SET TO STUN And The Desperado Undead—is a journey of an album, exploring high concept in a relatable way, touching on such topics as going through break-ups, dealing with a drug addiction, being shipped off to war, or just trying to pursue your dreams. Fervent fans have elevated the album to nearly 6 million listens on Spotify. And if we haven't convinced you this band is captivating yet, consider the two top tracks are 8m 33s and 7m 16s in length, respectively.

To tide fans over until the band's impending album, Tragic Hero Records pressed ...The Desperado Undead on vinyl for the first time in 2021 to raucous fan praise.

The SET TO STUN And The Desperado Undead double-LP is pressed on retail-exclusive black vinyl.

ARTWORK

Nils Frahm is one of the most exciting sound explorers of our time. When defining the space between classical and electronic music, hardly any other name is mentioned as often as that of the Berlin-based pianist, composer, and producer. His unconventional approach to an age-old instrument played contemplatively and intimately and on a mesmerizing scale through his vast stage shows has won him many fans worldwide.

Now Nils Frahm has announced the release of three albums of rare early recordings, many of which have been unobtainable for years, some of which have never been released at all. 'Streichelfisch' will return to vinyl for the first time since its original 2005 pressing, and Durton pairs tracks from 2006's digital only My First EP with five previously unheard compositions, while Electric Piano contains seven tracks originally released as a download in 2008. The collections will be released by LEITER.

ELECTRIC PIANO

The album features seven fragile, graceful compositions which provide a clear signpost towards his future. "Now I've rediscovered it," Nils Frahm concludes, "I feel grateful this exists, because it truly sounds like someone different I can't ever bring back. I'm happy I play differently now, but hearing this side of me makes me sentimental..."

ROBERT AMES & BEN CORRIGAN

When Robert Ames and Ben Corrigan started crafting the seven tracks on their debut album as CARBS, they were having fun. Corrigan, a composer and podcast host, and Ames, a conductor, composer and curator, are often the people who bring other artists' music to life. On CARBS, they had the opportunity to explore their voices as music makers, taking inspiration from their robust history of collaborations and passion for electronic and classical music to create sound that's both cinematic and danceable, built on lush harmony, catchy patterns and driving rhythms that form an outer space trance.

"ROBERT AMES IS A SUPER-CONNECTOR IN MODERN MUSIC, THE ARRANGER AND CONDUCTOR LINKING THE LIKES OF JONNY GREENWOOD, FRANK OCEAN, LITTLE SIMZ, JÓNSI AND ACTRESS WITH CONTEMPORARY MINIMALISTS. HIS SLOW MOTION, MULTILAYERED APPROACH GETS MORE MICROTONAL AND HARMONICALLY COMPLEX."

MASON HILL

LIVE IN GLASGOW

Street Date: April 22, 2022

Premium Hard backed CD with bound 16-page full-colour booklet

New live album from Scottish rockers Mason Hill, who scored an incredible first ever debut top 20 national album success with their Against The Wall album, released March 2021.

Lauded by rock critics, the success of the Against The Wall album heralded a first ever 22 date UK club tour in Sept / Oct 2021, selling over 4,500 tickets and positioning the band firmly as the new British rock act on a fast upward trajectory.

Their sold out and frenetic 'home' Glasgow show was recorded on a state of the art multi track live recording and subsequently post mixed. The result is a stunning high quality live album of a show that will be coveted by fans for years to come.

With premium hard back packaging, foil spot varnish cover and 16 bound full colour pages packed with memorable photos from the show, this is an album that every Mason Hill fan will want to collect.

With Fierce Bliss, the legendary Rock And Roll Hall of Fame inductee Ann Wilson -recognized as one of the greatest singers of all time and co-founder of multi-platinum stars Heart- has created a supremely lavish, warm and seductive slice of rock 'n' roll which provides an instant soundtrack whether on the freeway or in front of the fireplace. Recorded between Fame Studios in Muscle Shoals, AL and Power Station, Waterford, CT, Wilson got together with famed Nashville session guitarist Tom Bukovac and invited several friends (including Warren Haynes, Kenny Wayne Shepherd and Vince Gill) to help fashion an album which carries the glow of an ochre sunset and the pristine vocals of a rock legend who still has every single unique octave at her fingertips.

Fierce Bliss is truly an album which embraces all the finest qualities of classic American rock with the comforts and escapes that it can bring. Lead track "Greed" roars like a muscle car, Wilson's rich voice hitting over drive, while "Love of My Life" is a beautiful rendition of the Queen classic featuring Gill on guest vocals which will strike empathy in all who hear who it. There's the uniquely mysterious "Black Wing", Wilson again the driver through a hazy, mystical journey, and a spectacular cover of "Bridge of Sighs". The stomp 'n' roll thunders through "A Moment in Heaven" and Wilson takes charge of "Missionary Man" with a storming rendition that reframes the classic song.

With album art created by the famous fantasy artist Roger Dean (Yes, Asia) whose work has sold more than 150 million copies worldwide, Fierce Bliss is destined to be the American rock 'n' roll classic album that speaks to millions of people and provides them with quality, assurity and good ol' goddamn comfort in these turbulent times.

"Alpha Games was conceived on the road, playing in front of amazing crowds on our last tour and then brought to life with the fire and the frustrations of 2020," says Kele Okereke on Bloc Party's first new album in seven years.

The first Bloc Party album written and recorded as this four piece; adding the musicality of Justin Harris (bass) and the unbridled energy and power of Louise Bartle on the drums to capture the spark of their live shows and to deliver the most exciting Bloc Party album yet.

"We wanted to can what was happening at those massive gigs in 2019, to showcase what Louise can do, what Russell is capable of and most importantly the electricity coming off the audience. We knew that Nick & Adam were the right choice of producers to do that and the result feels like fire in a bottle."

Produced by Nick Launay & Adam Greenspan (Nick Cave, Yeah Yeah Yeahs, IDLES), the 12 tracks of Alpha Games veer from the intense & confrontational (Traps, Day Drinker) to melodic and introspective (If We Get Caught, By Any Means Necessary) and marks a new and important chapter in one of music's most important voices in Kele Okereke and important bands in Bloc Party.

OUMOU SANGARE

Timbuktu

Release Date: 4/29/22

Grammy award-winning Malian global superstar OUMOU SANGARÉ has returned with her most ambitious work to date.

Sangaré is renowned worldwide for her vibrant and powerful music, which often features revolutionary messages about women’s rights, tradition and poverty. In her 30 year career she has won numerous awards, counts among her many notable fans Alicia Keys and Beyoncé (who sampled the classic “Diaraby Nene” for her 2019 Lion King release), and, for her tireless work on social progress and cultural development holds the prestigious titles of Goodwill Ambassador to the UN’s Food & Agriculture organisation, Commander of the National Order of Mali and Chevalier of Culture in France.

TIMBUKTU is a stunning collection of songs, fusing her distinctive Malian sound and voice with elements of blues, folk and rock—resulting in a timeless body of work, free from borders and genres. Written and recorded in the US during coronavirus lockdowns, the album is the latest chapter in an unparalleled musical epic which has seen an artist born in the poorest districts of Bamako, Mali, become the greatest and most influential African singer alive, as well as a powerful feminist icon.

Between the hometown pride exhibited in “Wassulu Don,” the quiet introspection of “Degui N’Kelena,” the amorous languor expressed on “Kanou,” the compassion in “Demissimw” and the sadness and frustration in “Kêlê Magni,” many emotions nourish this record, with common threads of courage and optimism woven throughout. With “Timbuktu,” Oumou Sangaré demonstrates her endless talent, her passion and her wisdom, shining a light and leading the way for the world, through pain and strife, towards resilience, positivity and hope.

Peter Gabriel

180g VINYL RE-ISSUES
33RPM HALF-SPEED REMASTER
RELEASED 29 APRIL 2022

Following the success of the limited edition 45RPM editions, Peter Gabriel's albums Passion & Birdy return as standard versions.

Both releases have been Half-Speed Remastered and cut to lacquers at 33RPM. Passion is a 2LP and Birdy a 1LP. Pressing is 180g heavyweight black vinyl delivering maximum dynamic range in the sound. Vinyl cut by Matt Colton at Alchemy Mastering, mastered by Tony Cousins at Metropolis. The albums are true to the original LP designs but all images are newly re-scanned. Both albums come with a download card with a choice of digital download (Hi-Res 24bit or 16bit).

Birdy marks the first occasion that Peter worked with producer Daniel Lanois who went onto co-produce both Peter's So and US albums. The soundtrack to the Alan Parker movie of the same name it finds Peter flexing his creative muscles free of any commercial pressures and has a number of tracks built out of elements of existing tracks from Peter's third and fourth solo albums.

- | | |
|---|---|
| A1. At Night | B1. Birdy's Flight
(from Not One Of Us) |
| A2. Floating Dogs | B2. Slow Marimbas |

Passion – Music for The Last Temptation of Christ was released a year after Martin Scorsese's controversy-laden film and tends to be regarded as a work in its own right rather than just being a movie soundtrack. It features additional music than was included in the film; this extra material was the result of Peter continuing to record and to resolve "unfinished ideas".

Artist: Bill Bruford

Title: Making A Song And Dance: A Complete-Career Collection (6CD Box Set)

ADA Announcement: 9-Mar-22

Release Date: 29-Apr-22

Album Art:

Overview:

Bill Bruford's career is like his drumming sound - inimitable. Known for his ringing metal snare drum, crisp cymbal work, and knack for complex time signatures, a young Bruford came to prominence in the late '60s with Yes.

The drummer completed his British art rock trilogy by briefly joining Genesis in the 1970s and spending a quarter-century with King Crimson through the late '90s. In between King Crimson dates, Bruford led a dazzling self-titled jazz fusion solo band from 1978 to 1980.

This 6CD box set covers Bill's musical journey throughout the years; CD1&2, titled 'The Collaborator' – is a collection of songs from Yes, King Crimson, UK & National Health displaying Bill's formidable talent. CD3&4 titled 'The Composing Leader' is where Bill demonstrates his composing ability from his solo career and musical project 'Earthworks'. The last two CDs titled, 'Special Guest & Improvisor' showcase Bill's natural talent for writing and improvising with a plethora of musicians. Including, Roy Harper, Akira Inoue, Kazumi Watanabe, Steve Howe & many more.

There is a detailed biography written by Bill included within the box that features rare and unseen photos. The outer box artwork, gatefold CDs and booklet have been designed by the incredible artist and graphic designer Dave McKean.

Description:

Founded in 1992 in Ludwigshafen/Germany, MYSTIC CIRCLE quickly riled up the underground with their first three demos, and established themselves as the biggest national black metal band in 1998 when releasing the concept album "Drachenblut". Seven albums later, the band decided to take an extended hiatus to devote themselves to other projects in 2006. By 2020, the two protagonists and original members Beelzebub and A. Blackwar reconnected and realized that their musical fates are still entwined and they are on the same page about the ideas to yet unleash unto the world. Their shared goals and the implementations took shape quickly and the two musicians found a producer and partner in Nils Lesser who understood and completed their dark vision. The result is more aggressive and voluminous, but with all the recognizable roots of their early phase. A first precursor will appear at the end of 2021 with the 7-inch single "Letters From The Devil", limited to 666 copies, followed by their self-titled reunion album "Mystic Circle" in frosty February 2022. Those who specifically love the cult band's first three works, grew up listening to the likes of POSSESSED and MORBID ANGEL as well as idolized acts like DARK FUNERAL and MARDUK, will love MYSTIC CIRCLE in its current reincarnation.

Bishop Leonard Scott

KEEP HYMNS ALIVE

Bishop Leonard Scott, a legend in traditional gospel music circles, has sprinkled hymns throughout his contemporary gospel albums for over 40 years. Keep Hymns Alive is his new set of church standards. The album is a nine-track showcase of well-worn songs that have earned a fresh but familiar reprise. The good Bishop leans in heavy with old soul millennials, guest vocalist such as Ruth La'Ontra, Kelontae Gavin, a new group, Thomas & The Situation along with the dynamic talents of organist Bishop C. Shawn Tyson. In a world of programmed beats and electronic drum machines, Keep Hymns Alive, is a reminder of how some of the most poignant sounds are the simple ones.
