THE YOUNG FRESH FELLOWS THE FABULOUS SOUNDS OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

you bet!

Formed (conceptually) by Scott McCaughey and Chuck Carroll in Seattle in 1981, The Young Fresh Fellows, with the addition of Chuck's mad-drumming cousin Tad Hutchison, began work on their debut effort in 1983. Friend Conrad Uno volunteered to produce and record the trio in his basement/garage Egg Studios (no money exchanged hands), and Uno's fledgling label PopLlama Products insisted on pushing the record out into the world, beyond a small circle of friends. Starting with the magical success of this album, PopLlama would become a fixture in the still-floundering Seattle music scene and the home of bands including Fastbacks, The Posies, Dharma Bums, and The President Of The United States Of America (whose Uno-produced debut would go on to be certified Triple Platinum by the RIAA.)

Inspired by a 1960s single from Pacific Northwest Bell to promote tourism, the cover plays homage to that release, with sound bites as "narrator" from that original record (and now, either thankfully or regretfully, omitted from this cut-to-the-rock 'n' roll-chase remix). The Fellows suddenly found themselves darlings of college radio, with an enthusiastic following, and admired by their peers. A bouncy, punky, jangly, and weirdly self-referential collection of songs, The Fabulous Sounds Of The Pacific Northwest became a favorite of anyone who came upon it, including early proponents like Paul Westerberg, Ira Robbins, NRBQ, Rolling Stone, and Peter Dinklage.

Now, for its 40th Anniversary, YFF co-founder and songwriter/vocalist Scott McCaughey (R.E.M., The Minus 5, The Baseball Project) has remixed the album to (re)introduce it to the world. The idea was to put 40 years of music-making experience into the mix (push up the bass fader), without losing the naiveté and wonder that fueled its initial reception. The original album's 15 tracks will be pressed on limited-edition, opaque Turquoise vinyl. The (now) double-CD and Digital programs include a bonus disc—Merry Croutons Mr. Gulp Gulp—an ultra-rare party-in-the-studio 1984 cassette release of about 200 copies.

Back on the road in 2024, The Young Fresh Fellows, with longtime line-up of Scott, Jim Sangster, Kurt Bloch, and newcomer John Perrin of NRBQ, will be crossing the country—from their hometown of Seattle through to Wilco's Solid Sound festival in Massachusetts. The Fabulous Sounds Of The Pacific Northwest will be ringing out on the stages and turntables of America!

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

- 40th anniversary reissue of their classic debut, remixed from original 8-track tapes by Scott McCaughey.
- Original 15-track LP available on limited-edition turquoise vinyl, double-CD/Digital expanded with 14 bonus tracks.

Title: Clear Cold Beyond
Release Date: June 28, 2024
Label: ATOMIC FIRE
File Under: METAL

Sonata Arctica have been many things in their storied career. Finnish power metal messiahs, relentlessly touring powerhouses, champions of sublime melody. First and foremost, however, they have been stalwarts in showcasing the magic and the enchantment flowing through heavy metal. They have been embodying the majesty and serenity of Nordic nature since their foundation in 1995 and have been spellbinding their world with ten records, EPs and countless tours.

“Clear Cold Beyond” easily is the most relentless Sonata Arctica record to date, a spectacular resurgence of their trademark, lightning fast power metal forged far, far north. “We’ve felt for a while now that we’d need to get heavier again after some unintentionally softer albums,” Tony says. With production duties handled by your truly Mikko Karmila, key figure of their early days, “Clear Cold Beyond” sounds massive, heavy and hungry and takes a bow to their early work when everything was shrouded in a profound sense of magic and mystery. This magic is back now – only with a band that’s 25 years down the road and nothing less than an experienced beast urging to go mental like they never did before.

„Memoria Viva“ ist der dritte Streich der anderen Formation „White Stones“ des Opeth-Bassisten Martín Mendéz. Ähnlich wie seine Vorgänger verschmilzt dieses neue Kapitel unterschiedliche Genres zu einem einzigartigen Klangerlebnis. Der instrumentale Rausch wandert mit zarten Feinheiten und schafft eine hypnotisierende Atmosphäre, die den Musikkenner in seinen Bann zieht. Als krönenden Abschluss wurde die energiegeladene spanische Sprache gewählt, um dieses vielschichtige Unterfangen abzurunden.

KAREN FRISK

STILL A DREAMER

For fans of Sarah Vaughan, Carmen McRae, Ella Fitzgerald and Shirley Horn!

Originally from Cromwell Connecticut, Karen always claimed she was singing before she was speaking. In her late teens the "jazz bug" bit her... swing, latin jazz , and R&B filled her soul and the rest is history. She studied jazz piano with Merrill Doucette at the Hartford Conservatory and then moved on to study jazz/pop vocals and performance with Roberta Peck-Vater, a well-known music educator and Capitol Records recording artist.

She worked with local and Boston area musicians, participating in benefit concerts and jazz venues. She has shared the stage with many premier jazz artists including world-renowned pianist: Dave McKenna; Artie Shaw Orchestra band leader: Dick Johnson; Tony Bennett's guitarist: Gray Sargent; legendary drummer: Bernard "Pretty" Purdie; world renowned bassist: Brian Torff; pianists/arrangers: New England's: Kent Hewitt, The Legendary: Donn Trenner, John DiMartino, Mike Renzi, and others.

Karen's versatility offers a very diverse sound. Within her 5-octave range, her vocal styles cover breathy ballads to heart-wrenching blues, sexy Latin rhythms to up-tempo swing and more. Although she has been influenced by some of her favorite artists like Sarah Vaughan, Carmen McRae, Ella Fitzgerald, Shirley Horn, Maxine Sullivan, Rosemary Clooney. Karen has developed a sound all her own. She is considered one of the most respected premier jazz vocalists in Southern New England.

She'll bend the notes, play with the timing and keep swingin'! What a percussive rhythm machine! She is now set to release her latest Still A Dreamer.

MEMENTO MORI - LIVE ON THE STRIP

For fans of Ratt, Michael Schenker Group, Contraband and Arena Rock!

Richard Black was once known as the “King of the Sunset Strip”. Shark Island was also the house band at the world famous Gazzaris on the Sunset Strip, Bill Gazzari even helped produce their first single. Signed to Epic Records in 1989 the band released their debut album Law of the Order, and also saw the tracks "Dangerous" and "Father Time" featured in the movie Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure, as well as the song "My City" from the movie Point Break.

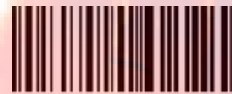

Richard would go to be part of the short-lived supergroup Contraband which also featured Michael Schenker (Scorpions, UFO), and members of L.A. Guns, Ratt and Vixen. They released one album in 1991 before disbanding.

Shark Island was resurrected in 2005 and recorded and released the album Gathering of the Faithful in 2006. In 2018 the band started work on Bloodline which was recorded in Croatia and Los Angeles and officially released by Deko Entertainment in 2020. It was produced by Alex Kane (Life Sex Death, Enuff Z’Nuff) and mixed by the legendary Sylvia Massy (Aerosmith, Smashing Pumpkins, Red Hot Chili Peppers).

Now Shark Island reclaims their spot on the Sunset Strip with MEMENTO MORI Live On The Strip. Hosted by Sirius XM’s Eddie Trunk, Richard and the guys give you more than an hours’ worth of classics like “Paris Calling” and their cover of the Fleetwood Mac song “The Chain”.

Dokken

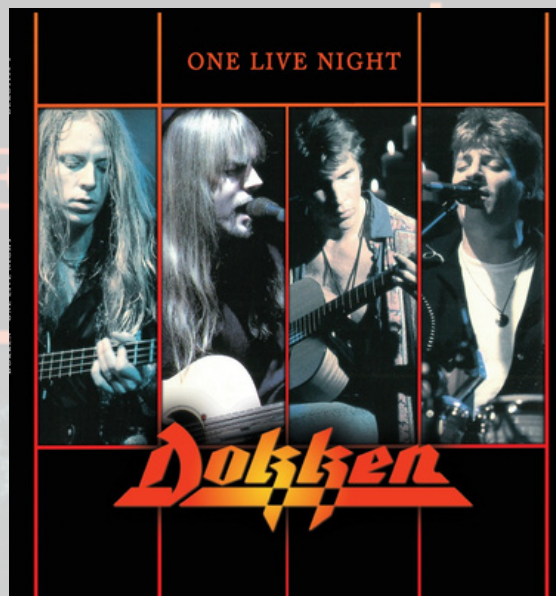

ONE LIVE NIGHT

For fans of Dokken, Lynch Mob, and 80's Metal!

Dokken, formed in Los Angeles in 1978, had several hit singles which charted on the Billboard Hot 100, such as "Alone Again", "In My Dreams", and "Burning Like a Flame", and has sold more than 10 million albums worldwide. The classic Dokken line-up consisted of founder Don Dokken on vocals, George Lynch on lead guitar, Mick Brown on drums and Jeff Pilson on bass.

One Live Night is the 1996 semi-acoustic live album of the then reunited Dokken who recorded the album before a live audience at The Strand, an intimate concert venue in Redondo Beach, California, on December 13, 1994, and prior to their 1995 tour. The album went virtually unheard at the time of its release, being overshadowed by the then fledging grunge and alternative rock movement.

Now it is available for the first time on 180-gram vinyl as a double album with beautiful gatefold and limited to only 250 copies. This intimate performance included versions of "Tooth and Nail", "Into the Fire" and "Alone Again", as well as covers of the Beatles' "Nowhere Man" and Emerson, Lake & Palmer's "From the Beginning". This is a must have for any Dokken fan!

NEKTAR
JOURNEY TO THE OTHER SIDE - LIVE AT THE DUNELLEN THEATRE JUNE
10, 2023

For fans of Nektar, Van Der Graaf Generator and Progressive Rock!

Formed in Germany in 1969, Nektar favored extended compositions and concept albums over the constraints of pop. They were among the progenitors of the progressive rock movement of the 1970s as well as the jam-band scene that arose in the late 1990's. Their sound traveled well to the States, where they enjoyed Top 40 success with "A Tab in the Ocean" (1972) and "Remember the Future" (1973). Nearly 20 albums and a half-century later, the band's artistic and personal charisma has earned them masses of devoted fans along with their latest album "The Other Side" (2020) which was Number 1 on Amazon Progressive Music. As they begin the next 50 years of their career, they kick it off with "Journey to the Other Side – Live at The Dunellen Theatre June 10, 2023". The band captures this with a 2CD/Blu-Ray set with a 5-camera shoot and multi-track recording. Clocking in at over 2 and 1/2 hours and spanning the band's entire career with classics like "Remember the Future Parts 1 & 2", "A Tab in the Ocean", and many more. This recording has become a virtual remembrance of Nektar drummer and primary member Ron Howden who died suddenly at the ripe old age of 78 on September 29th, 2023. As founding member Derek "Mo" Moore states "I think you will enjoy being part of Nektar's 50th extended Anniversary Tour, I know we did, Rest in Peace Ron."

TIP

ORDEN OGAN is an absolute highlight of the power metal scene and is indispensable from the international metal scene. Since their debut "Vale" (2008), ORDEN OGAN has risen from insider tip to undisputed greatness. With their latest album "Final Days", the band managed to climb to number 3 (!) on the official German album charts in 2021, and on Spotify they count over half a million monthly listeners. The seventh and latest album "The Order of Fear" of the band from Germany, led by mastermind Sebastian "Seeb" Levermann, is a triumphal march, a lesson in itself: an album that bangs like never before and is probably the hardest ORDEN OGAN has ever unleashed. "The album is much more stripped down," agrees Seeb. "To the point. Thus also more metallic, direct, and perhaps 'authentic.'" The guitars are more in the foreground, but of course it didn't work entirely without orchestral elements," he laughs. In April, ORDEN OGAN will present the first new singles on a tour with Feuerschwanz. On July 5, 2024, ORDEN OGAN will release "The Order of Fear" at the Rock Harz Festival. One thing is already clear: The future belongs to ORDEN OGAN.

Octoploid is the brainchild of Amorphis-Bassist Olli-Pekka 'Oppu' Laine. Having a lengthy history as a songwriter himself, it's been a long term ambition to dive deep into a pool of musical elements and melt them together into what culminated as his new band's debut work "Beyond The Aeons". Mixing many different styles may seem a far stretch, but all these musical vibes, that also attracted several illustrious guest musicians to contribute their special touches, end up blending together in a well-rounded sonic cast. Combining elements from folk, prog and Death Metal, "Beyond The Aeons" is an epitome of Octoploid's sound and band leader Olli-Pekka Laine's musical influences. Being able to shine not only by lending the album his signature bass-grooves in this formation, but also additional keyboard, guitar and vocal parts, Oppu is joined by bandmates Mikko Pietinen (drums), Peter Salonen (guitars) and Kim Rantala (keyboards), with Mikko Kotamäki (Swallow The Sun-vocalist) taking on lead vocals for live activities.
