MEMPHIS MAY FIRE

REMADE IN MISERY

SUMMARY

Four-piece rock band, Memphis May Fire, channel a generation's worth of angst, frustration, and pain, with a focused blend of gigantic melodic hooks and crushing aggression. Even after topping Billboard's Hard Music Albums chart and breaking into radio's Active Rock Top 20, Memphis May Fire refuses to sacrifice who they are or the people who made them. In fact, Remade in Misery, their seventh full-length album, is the heaviest Memphis May Fire record yet.

Memphis May Fire has toured with a vast list of important rock and metal acts that include Killswitch Engage, Sleeping With Sirens, Black Veil Brides, Sevendust, and Atreyu. They've co-headlined with Yellowcard and The Devil Wears Prada, regularly appeared on Warped Tour, and at major rock festivals. The band's previous six albums' continued relevance is a testament to the energized connectivity between the band and their audience. Songs like "Miles Away," "No Ordinary Love," "Beneath the Skin," and "Carry On" account for 100 million views and millions of streams.

The FIST is the law! Canada's most furious trio return with 8 groove bombs

Artist: SKULL FIST
Title: PAID IN FULL
Pre-sale: 02/18/2022
Release date: 06/03/2022
Label: ATOMIC FIRE RECORDS
File Under: METAL

Description:

The fist is the law! Toronto heavy metal overachievers Skull Fist have more guts and balls than the police allow. Since their leggy beginnings in 2006, dungeon keeper Zach Schottler and his ruthlessly shredding gang of reckless accomplices have released three archetypal heavy metal almanacs, eaten more dust than is good for their health, endured hardships (henceforth called shitty business partners) and propped up countless beers in countless bars in countless cities. Now, after 15 years on behalf of steel, Zach Schottler is really turning up the heat with the uniquely titled "Paid In Full," a heavy metal wonder of the defiant middle-finger variety. With head held high, pockets empty and just enough gas in the tank to make it to the next show, Skull Fist have just officially won 2022. We say it like it is: don't mess with the fist! "Paid In Full" is heavy metal in all its glory and splendor, skillfully unleashed wide-legged. Written at home and recorded at Vespa Studios near Toronto, "Paid In Full" encompasses his sonic efforts of the past two years: tales of steel and legends from the underworld.

AMERICAN ROCKER

For fans of Blue Öyster Cult, Blue Coupe, and Classic Rock!

Joe Bouchard is best known as one of the founding members of Blue Öyster Cult. The original band sold millions of albums for Columbia Records with such classic songs as “Don’t Fear the Reaper” and the #1 hit on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart “Burning For You”. The band toured all over the world with shows in the US, Canada, Europe, the UK and Japan, and has earned Joe nine Gold and two Platinum albums.

As a songwriter, he wrote many BÖC songs including the very popular “Astronomy” which was covered by Metallica on their 1998’s release Garage Inc and the live staple “Hot Rails to Hell”, which was the second BÖC single released by Columbia Records.

Today when not writing and recording in his home studio, he performs with several bands. His latest group, Blue Coupe, is a superstar combo which features his brother Albert Bouchard, also a founding member of BÖC, and Dennis Dunaway, a founder of the Alice Cooper Group and a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Joe is now set to release the follow up to the very successful 2020 release ‘Strange Legends’. The new album ‘American Rocker’ sees the return of Mickey Curry (Bryan Adams, Hall and Oates, Alice Cooper) on drums, and sees Joe taking a look back at the heyday of the 70’s with BÖC on tracks like “In the Golden Age”, and “Rocket To Fame”.

Joe Bouchard will be joining his brother Albert Bouchard for select shows in North America and the UK this summer.

IMAGINOS 2 – BOMBS OVER GERMANY

(minus zero and counting)

For fans of Blue Öyster Cult, Blue Coupe, and Classic Rock!

Albert Bouchard is best known as one of the founding members of Blue Öyster Cult. The original band sold millions of albums for Columbia Records with such classic songs as “Don’t Fear the Reaper” and the #1 hit on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart “Burning For You”.

As a songwriter, he wrote many BÖC songs including the very popular “Astronomy” (which was covered by Metallica on their 1998’s release Garage Inc) and the live staple “Cities on Flame with Rock and Roll”, which he also sang lead vocals.

“Imaginos 2 – Bombs Over Germany (minus zero and counting)” sees Albert continuing the Trilogy of Imaginos, a concept album about an alien conspiracy that is brought to fruition during the late 19th and early 20th century through the actions of Imaginos, an agent of evil. The album weaves scripts and poems by the late Sandy Pearlman. It features guests Ross The Boss (Dictators), Joe Cerisano (Silver Condor, TSO), and reunites original Blue Öyster Cult members Eric Bloom, Donald “Buck Dharma” Roeser and Joe Bouchard, as well current BOC member Richie Castellano, who all contribute to this latest installment. The album also features reworks of classics like “Cities on Flame with Rock and Roll”, “The Red and the Black”, and “Dominance and Submission”.

Due to the overwhelming response to Imaginos II, we are now releasing a Double LP gatefold version which includes an extended version of “Independence Day”, plus the bonus “When War Comes (Instrumental Mix)”.

“Let The Night Love You” has become a dark and bleak album, driven by an epic sense of morbid grandeur and apocalyptic megalomania. Songs for cities in ruins and ashes, for societies falling apart and for people holding tight no matter what. “INVSN makes use of a huge array of influences,” singer Dennis Lyxzén explains. On paper, of course, post-punk would indeed be a term that comes closest to INVSN. Icons like Bauhaus, the Sisters Of Mercy or some of Depeche Mode’s more disillusioned tunes wreath around a nocturnal album that’s both soothing and disturbing, urging you to leave your comfort zone.

“This record is all about embracing the dark, the painful side, about acknowledging your emotions, desires, and fears.” It’s no coincidence that the songs, recorded during two intense weeks in May 2019 at Svenska Grammofonstudion in Gothenburg, mainly came together at night – “created without sunlight,” as Dennis Lyxzén cheekily puts it. “Nowadays with all this home studio equipment people can record albums forever. We didn’t want that. We wanted to have this snapshot feeling, this intensity.” He shrugs. “But who knows, maybe it’s just our punk attitude again.”

Overview:

Les Racines is the latest solo album from the eminent guitarist and songwriter Vieux Farka Touré, and his first for World Circuit Records. Known as the 'Hendrix of the Sahara', Vieux has released 4 critically acclaimed solo albums to date, extending the boundaries of traditional West African music into new and uncharted territory. He has also released audacious collaborations with the likes of Dave Matthews and jazz guitarist John Scofield, and albums with American singer-songwriter Julia Easterlin and Israeli singer-songwriter Idan Raichel.

With Les Racines, which translates as 'the roots', Vieux documents a deep reconnection with the traditional Songhai music of northern Mali which is one of the traditions that has come to be known in the West as 'Desert Blues'. Vieux's roots run deeper than deep – he is the son of Ali Farka Touré, widely acclaimed as the finest guitarist Africa has ever produced. Recorded in Bamako in Vieux's home studio, the timeless grooves of the album are steeped in the traditional music of West Africa. But the fire of Vieux's guitar playing and the urgency of the messages in his songs add an entirely contemporary relevance. "We are nothing if we abandon respect for the past," Vieux says.

The resulting album, the most profound statement of his career to date, marks out Vieux as the great Ali Farka Touré's rightful heir and a major artist in his own right. "Early in my career people asked why I wasn't just following my father. But it was important for me to establish my own identity," Vieux says. "Now people know what I can do, I can return to those roots with pride and I hope a certain authority."

"I live too fast to die young, it ain't nothing when your head's screwed on," roars the Crown Prince of exciting, electric frontmen Michael Monroe on his second album for Silver Lining Music, I Live Too Fast to Die Young (the follow-up to 2019's critically acclaimed One Man Gang) and these 11 proclamations prove he is so right.

Not even a pandemic could stop Monroe and his band from throwing down the tightest, leanest, meanest and most goddamn fun rock 'n' roll music of the year, and the likes of "Young Drunks & Old Alcoholics", "All Fighter" and the punky "Murder the Summer of Love" show the crisp electricity of CBGB-style punk with glitter-crusted melodies wrapped around the riffs. There's also expansive, Stones-tinged saunters such as "Can't Stop Falling Apart" and "Everybody's Nobody", while the title track takes aim between your eyes off a driving back-beat and a defiant chorus dripping with Monroe's irrepensible attitude.

Recorded at Inkfish Studios in Helsinki, Finland between November/December 2021, the album enjoys several guests including Guns N' Roses guitar legend Slash, who solos and provides additional guitars on the title track.

With I Live Too Fast to Die Young, it is clear Monroe is swaggering into the summer with a triumphant roar to offer you the real rock 'n' roll escape of 2022.

I Live Too Fast to Die Young will be available on CD Digipak, 12" Vinyl, Digital Download and Streaming and special D2C bundles. Available to pre-order from March 22nd 2022.

WIR SIND DAS VOLK (Ein Musical aus Deutschland)

Street Date: 6/10/2022

Mute is excited to announce the deluxe double vinyl release of Laibach's new album WIR SIND DAS VOLK (Ein Musical aus Deutschland), out June 10th. The vinyl is packaged in a gatefold sleeve with 20 page booklet and includes a high definition audio download code with additional tracks. This follows the March 25th CD and digital release.

This album consists of the music from the band's political theatre production Wir Sind das Volk (We are the People), which premiered at HAU (Berlin) in 2020. The piece was based on the writings of Heiner Müller (1929-1995), who was observed as one of the most significant German-language playwrights and poets since Bertolt Brecht.

The artwork for the new album is by the acclaimed Austrian-Irish visual artist, Gottfried Helnwein, known for his narrative reflecting upon historical and political issues. The cover features his work Epiphany I: Adoration of the Magi, which reflects upon childhood and National Socialism.
