ALBUM: Let The Night Love You

VINYL ALBUM: Black vinyl

RELEASE DATE: July 1st, 2022

UPC: 4250795605058

FILE UNDER: Rock / Alternative Rock

“Let The Night Love You” has become a dark and bleak album, driven by an epic sense of morbid grandeur and apocalyptic megalomania. Songs for cities in ruins and ashes, for societies falling apart and for people holding tight no matter what. “INVSN makes use of a huge array of influences,” singer Dennis Lyxzén explains. On paper, of course, post-punk would indeed be a term that comes closest to INVSN. Icons like Bauhaus, the Sisters Of Mercy or some of Depeche Mode’s more disillusioned tunes wreath around a nocturnal album that’s both soothing and disturbing, urging you to leave your comfort zone.

“This record is all about embracing the dark, the painful side, about acknowledging your emotions, desires, and fears.” It’s no coincidence that the songs, recorded during two intense weeks in May 2019 at Svenska Grammofonstudion in Gothenburg, mainly came together at night – “created without sunlight,” as Dennis Lyxzén cheekily puts it. “Nowadays with all this home studio equipment people can record albums forever. We didn’t want that. We wanted to have this snapshot feeling, this intensity.” He shrugs. “But who knows, maybe it’s just our punk attitude again.”

JOURNEY

F R E E D O M

RELEASE DATE: JULY 8, 2022

Journey's upcoming new studio album, 'Freedom,' will be released on 7/8/22. One track from the album, "The Way We Used To Be," is already available, along with a music video.

Journey's worldwide sales have reached over 100 million records, making them one of the world's best-selling bands of all time, with a wide selection of chart-topping hits like "Don't Stop Believin'," the most downloaded song of the last century. The band's album sales have resulted in twenty five gold and platinum albums and nineteen Top 40 singles in the US.

In 2021, on the 40th anniversary of its release, Journey's seventh studio album, 'Escape,' was certified diamond by the RIAA, which denotes the album has sold over 10 million equivalent units. 1981's 'Escape' spawned the hits "Open Arms," "Who's Crying Now," "Stone In Love," and "Don't Stop Believin'," which has over a billion streams on Spotify alone.

The band rounded out the summer with epic performances, headlining at both the iconic Lollapalooza and iHeartRadio Music Festival and guitarist Neal Schon invited to perform "The Star Spangled Banner" at the Las Vegas Raiders Vs. Chicago Bears game on October 10, 2021 at the Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Journey's 1988 released, 15 time Platinum certified 'Greatest Hits' was certified diamond in April of 2008, has logged 1,328 weeks on Billboard's Catalog Albums chart as of October 2021, and is one of the most popular 'best of' packages, at times selling close to 500,000 copies globally per year.

Journey was inducted to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2017 and continues today, selling out major venues worldwide.

IN THE COUNTRY

BMG

RELEASE DATE: JULY 8, 2022

After an astonishing 60-year career in music that included pivotal positions in Buffalo Springfield, Poco and the Souther-Hillman-Furay Band, Richie Furay is releasing his new album In The Country where he focuses on his love of country music in a brand new way. Recorded with producer and engineer Val Garay, who has worked with Linda Ronstadt, James Taylor, and many others, it is the kind of collection an artist often waits their entire life to make. Focusing on country songs that Furay has been listening to, some for decades and others more recently, it captures his voice with such incredible depth and beauty that even those who have been long-time fans and followers will be caught with wonder. It is truly an artistic moment of reckoning that can come once in a lifetime.
