BORN FOR THIS MOMENT

BMG

RELEASE DATE: JULY 15, 2022

Born for This Moment captures the true heart of Chicago at their full creative capacity. From the undeniable swing of the lead single "If This Is Goodbye" to the unbreakable bonds of "For the Love" to the deeply personal storytelling of "Safe Harbours," the patriarchal aspirations of "Make a Man Outta Me," the romantic reveries of "If This Isn't Love," and the sultry flare of "Firecracker," it's quite clear the collective force of nature that is Chicago is indeed alive and well and flourishing better than ever, right here in the first quarter of the 21st Century. Over the entire course of 14 vibrant new songs, Born for This Moment (a.k.a. Chicago XXXVIII) encapsulates the scope and breadth of all the compositional and performance-propelled strengths at the ready in Chicago's seemingly endless arsenal of musical acumen.

The new album's aforementioned lead single "If This Is Goodbye," which has already become an integral, fan-favorite entry on the Chicago setlist, shows the band's multifaceted chops remain on full display. As original bandmember, trumpeter, flugelhornist, and songwriter Lee Loughnane puts it, "One of the big reasons this album works so well is that when you put it on and play it, you hear something you're not quite expecting to hear — and it immediately pulls you in musically and emotionally." This seamless methodology manifests itself in the DNA of all Moment songs. "One of the things I think the band has always been great at is understanding the musical content of the song has to be supportive of the emotional content of the lyric," Lamm believes. "They're very connected. To this day, Chicago is ultimately a song-driven band. It's all about the songwriting, and the arranging."

As the band enter their 55th year together full throttle, the 14 songs found on Born for This Moment only add to the aural palette that continues to define the Chicago legacy. "When people hear this record, it might be surprising to them on a lot of levels," assesses Donell. "Things have evolved in Chicago over the years, but the heart and soul of the band is still Robert's voice and his songwriting, along with Jimmy and Lee's arranging. I'm happy to say Chicago is intact, strong, and vibrant. It's because of what Jimmy, Lee, and Robert do that continues to define the great Chicago sound. And to me, Chicago music is timeless music."

Indeed, Chicago music is both timeless and timely, at the same time. Without a doubt, Chicago's enduring musical gift is truly Born for This Moment — and for every enjoyable listening moment that follows. In short, we are all Chicago, and Chicago is us. All you gotta do is listen, because Chicago music is part of a shared, permanent connection that's only gonna keep (to borrow a song title) "Feelin' Stronger Every Day."

Hard 'n' heavy icons SINNER - uniting the scene with their 18th studio album!

Artist: SINNER
Title: BROTHERHOOD
Pre-sale: 05/06/2022
Release date: 07/15/2022
Label: ATOMIC FIRE RECORDS
File Under: ROCK / METAL

Description:

The heavy metal world has produced quite a few legends. But none is like Mat Sinner. So much conviction, lifeblood and self-sacrifice, so much pure heavy metal spirit, so much dedication is usually not found bundled in a single person. Since 1982 he fronts the band named after him, with which he now triumphantly returns in the form of "Brotherhood": a massive album, whose title is as self-explanatory as the mission of its creator. Self-produced and mixed/mastered by Jacob Hansen (VOLBEAT, among others), it is a record that carries the band's internal brotherhood under its heart as much as the brotherhood of the worldwide heavy metal following. "We belong together - and this album is meant to express that," says Sinner. That following is also brought into the spotlight in particular by the numerous guests represented on the album (see below). With hooks, riffs and precise hardness Mat Sinner revitalizes virtues that he co-invented four decades ago. The force and hardness represented on "Brotherhood" as well as the razor-sharp riffs will make even members of the innermost SINNER fan circle topple off their feet.

The legendary debut album of the German Metal Commando as limited Deluxe Edition with Bonus!

Artist: PRIMAL FEAR
Title: Primal Fear (Deluxe Edition)
Pre-sale: 05/13/2022
Release Date: 07/15/2022
Label: ATOMIC FIRE
File Under: HEAVY METAL

On February 2, 1998, the self-titled debut album of the German Metal Commando "Primal Fear" was released, the fabled debut album of a highly motivated band of veteran metal greats. The energy, the passion, the fervour, the conviction: the album remains a heavy metal manifesto to this day and is irrefutable proof of always following one's heart. "Chainbreaker", "Running In The Dust" and "Tears Of Rage" combine the archetypal metal school of the '80s with a modern production force and unleashed playing grandezza. Tom Naumann's guitar, Mat Sinner's bass and Klaus Sperling's massive drumming, all topped by that vocal tornado named Ralf Scheepers. This new deluxe edition re-release comes with an extended booklet, rare fotos, liner-notes and three bonus tracks. Definitely a Heavy Metal classic and must-have.

Key Sales & Marketing Points:

- Deluxe Re-release of the legendary debut album of Primal Fear

10. ice cube - alt version (Johnny Winter)

DC Carnes pays homage to the greats with his new album Delta Crossroads - Vol. II. In particular, it's a tribute and a way of giving thanks to his mentor and longtime bandmate the legendary Robert Lockwood Jr.

Delta Crossroads - Vol. II is a follow-up to Lockwood's 2000 album Delta Crossroads. Carnes covers nine classic blues songs, including one ("I Got to Find Me a Woman") written by Lockwood himself.

Carnes met Lockwood at the beginning of the '90s when they played a show together, then Lockwood invited him to audition for his band. Carnes would go on to play guitar with Lockwood's band for fifteen years along with other greats such as keyboardist Robert "Red Top" Young, Wallace Coleman, Gene Schwartz, Maurice Reedus Sr., Gus Hawkins and Benny Mostella.

With Delta Crossroads - Vol. II, Carnes decided to give some attention to the musicians who molded his music career. "I just wanted to give a nod to some of the people who influenced me earlier in my career, and the guy who gave me my chance: Mr. Robert." When entering Cleveland's Superior Sound Studios to lay down his own renditions of the tracks that inspired him at the beginning of 2022, it came so naturally that the record was finished within a matter of two days.

"There was no rehearsal. We came together the first day and we got almost half the album done the first day. And we came back the second day and it was pretty much a mop-up," explains Carnes.

Dan DeChellis

WOOD & METAL

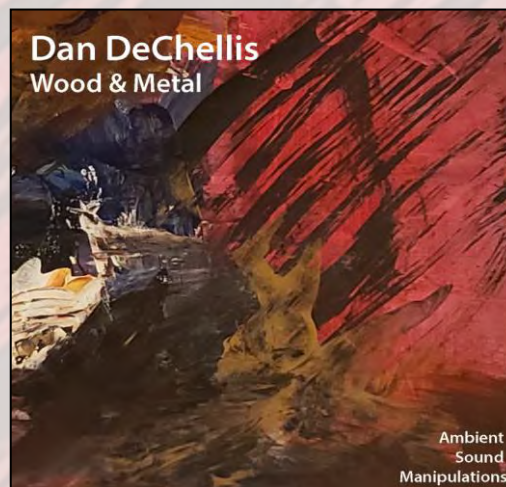

For fans of New Age and Ambient Music!

A genre-defying performer, dedicated educator, and omnivorous listener, Dan DeChellis has lived his musical vision for over 40 years, leveraging strict classical training into deep-dive explorations of modern classical improvisation, free improvisation, jazz, rock, and ambient music.

Dan has been a professor at Moravian College in Bethlehem, PA for the past 17 years where he directs the Moravian Improvised Music Ensemble and teaches a required class on Improvisation. “Wood & Metal” is his latest solo recording and explores ambient soundscapes, a departure from his compositions with The Dan Dechellis Trio.

Beginning piano studies at age 7, Dan earned a bachelors and masters degrees in piano performance from Appalachian State University and Duquesne University, then spent a year studying improvisation with Paul Bley and Ran Blake at the New England Conservatory of Music (NEC).

In Boston and later New York, he released more than a half-dozen solo and group recordings on his own Sachimay Records label; co-founded Brooklyn’s Improvised and Otherwise Festival; performed at venues including the Knitting Factory, Tonic, CBGB’s, and Sculler’s Jazz Club; and collaborated with musicians including drummers Tatsuya Nakatani and Gerry Hemingway, saxophonists Bhob Rainey and Jack Wright, bassists Gene Perla and Reuben Radding, guitarists Philip Tomasic and Chris Forsyth, and the trio Chainworks with electronics player Brian Moran and percussionist Matt Hannafin.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

At just 21 years old, singer/songwriter Katy Nichole has quickly become a household name. Her debut single "In Jesus Name (God Of Possible)", was inspired by words taken from her prayer journal in the midst of a global health crisis, and has become an anthem to many around the world. The history making single hit No. 1 on both Billboard's Christian Airplay and AC Indicator charts in its 12th week, completing the quickest rise to No. 1 for a female artist's first entry in the chart's 19-year history.

Well over 175-million people around the world have heard the "In Jesus Name (God Of Possible)" chorus. Nearly 8-million have seen video of Katy listening to her song on the radio for the first time, while over 3.5-million have watched her first concept music video. Thousands more are sharing the song along with their own heartwarming, sometimes heartbreaking, stories on social media as the viral track continues to circle the globe.

Katy's debut self-titled EP is slated to release through Centricity Music on June 24 and offers 5 additional tracks - including an emotional duet with Mike Weaver from Big Daddy Weave. While her first single is a worshipful anthem ready-made for roomfuls of people to sing, it only reveals one facet of this multidimensional artist.

About Katy Nichole:

Long before TikTok was even a social platform, Katy Nichole was singing in her church choir. By 14, she was writing songs and leading worship. Her relationship with both music and God is inextricably intertwined with her path to health and wholeness. Having served as both an ambassador for the Shriners Hospitals for Children® and as a volunteer for Musicians On Call, Nichole, at the invitation of Josh Havens, lead singer for The Afters, began leading worship at The Grove in Phoenix, AZ, where Havens serves as a Worship & Arts Pastor. Havens saw something in Nichole she couldn't even see in herself at the time. She began writing, recording and posting her music online, which eventually led to her making a move to Nashville and landing a label home with Centricity Music.

PALISADES

REACHING HYPERCRITICAL

BIO:

Their efforts and struggles have not been in vain. Palisades' superb new album, Reaching Hypercritical, is due for release in 2022 via their long-time home Rise Records. The band - whose worldwide streams now total in excess of 277,000,000) -broke the Billboard 200 with their last LP, 2018's Erase the Pain, while also scoring the #1 Independent, Top New Artist and Alternative New Artist album. With their strongest and most ambitious record yet now ready for the world, Palisades look set to further build upon their past efforts and appearances at festivals including Louder Than Life, Reading and Leeds, Download and Rock am Ring by reinforcing their status as one of rock's most necessarily innovative and purposeful artists.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- >> Over 307M streams worldwide across 4 albums
- >> Averaging +10% monthly streams on Spotify with over 580k monthly listeners
- >> Last album 'Erase The Pain' debuted #1 Alternative New Artist, #1 Top New Artists, #4 Hard Music
- >> Over 1.6M streams from 2 singles released off upcoming album

DEDICATION TO FLESH

SUMMARY

Starting in 2016, SPITE have spent the last 5 years developing their sound and reputation through their live shows. After their largest, most successful tour to date in Spring 2020, they spent the better part of the following lockdown writing. Now for the first time, the band is releasing music on a new label, where they feel the record correctly represents the energy they bring to the stage. With 37 million Spotify streams, 130,000 monthly Spotify listeners and over 8.6 million YouTube views across their previous output including popular music videos for Kill Or Be Killed, The Offering and Judgement Day SPITE have established themselves as a lethally furious force to be reckoned with.

GILBERT O'SULLIVAN

Driven

Release Date: 7/22/22

GILBERT O'SULLIVAN, one of the greatest singer-songwriters of his generation—known for such timeless 70's hits as “Alone Again (Naturally)” and “Clair”—returns with his twentieth studio album featuring 13 new tracks. Working with a new producer, the revered Andy Wright (Simple Minds, Simply Red, Eurythmics and Jeff Beck), the album was recorded with a full band at London's famous RAK Studios. The direction of the album is an organic and raw affair, featuring a mix of ballads and upbeat songs. In a unique addition to this new album, Gilbert O'Sullivan has collaborated on duets with Mick Hucknall of Simply Red and KT Tunstall. In March 2022, he toured the U.S. for the first time in nearly 50 years to packed, star-studded audiences and rave reviews.

LIARS

They Threw Us All In A Trench And Stuck A Monument On Top (Limited Edition Recycled Color Vinyl)

Street Date: 7/22/2022

They Threw Us All In A Trench And Stuck A Monument On Top is the first installment of the new Liars reissue series, where every two months an album from the back catalog will be released on limited edition recycled color vinyl.

The campaign kicks off with Liars' debut album, originally released in 2001 and recorded over two days in Brooklyn, New York with producer Steve Revitte (The Jon Spencer Blues Explosion & Beastie Boys). At the time of release Liars were Melbourne born Angus Andrew (vocals & pedals), Aaron Hemphill from LA (guitar & drum machine) and Nebraskians Pat Nature (bass & synthbox) and drummer Ron Albertson.

PRAISE FOR THEY THREW US ALL IN A TRENCH...

"There's an angular funk core to the tunes, built around insanely brilliant drumming... and they have the most poetic psychopunk song titles out there - the LP's called "They Threw Us All In A Trench And Stuck A Monument On Top". - NME

"It's vicious, but you can dance to it!" - Pitchfork

shotgun symphony

FORGET THE RAIN

For fans of Melodic Rock, Hard Rock and Grunge!

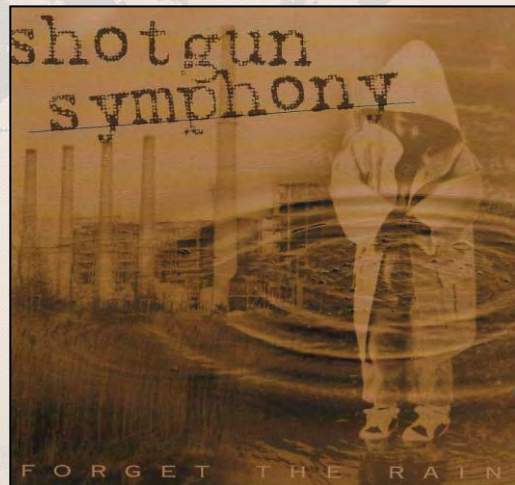

Shotgun Symphony was a band that had success in Europe back in the early to mid-nineties. Their debut album on British indie label Now and Then Records was something of an instant hit and since is considered a classic with fans of melodic rock, but while the band tried to forge a new identity with their sophomore release "Forget The Rain" they seemed to lose some of their original identity and in hindsight it was probably too much of a dramatic move.

"Forget The Rain" which was originally released in 1997, was at the time a very experimental album for the band, but 25 years later, it really stands the test of time with standout out tracks "My Escape" and "Carousel of Broken Dream" and more experimental tracks like "Playing With Fools" and the epic "Waiting for the Sun". Produced by Tom Fletcher (Yes, Yngwie Malmsteen, Dokkent, etc...) and recorded in NJ, NY state and NYC in 1996 and mastered by Kevin Reeves at Capitol Studios in Hollywood, CA.

Following "Forget The Rain" the band re-bounded with a more subtle mix of the old sound and the new on its third release "On The Line Of Fire". Having found a happy medium, the band seemed to hit its stride on their final release "Sea of Desire" in 1999 and shortly after disbanded. They re-united in 2002 at the Gods of AOR festival in England, with a follow up one-off appearance at the Firefest festival in Nottingham, UK in 2010 and one last time at Melodic Rock Fest 2018 in Chicago.

Keyboardist Charlie Calv would go on to find success with goth/metal band The Bronx Casket Co. and as a current member of 70's rock legends Angel.

"Forget The Rain" is now available again at discounted rate to celebrate the 25th anniversary.
