Mutant, in partnership with WaterTower Music, is proud to present the physical release of the soundtrack to Dune: Part Two, featuring a score by Academy Award®-winning composer Hans Zimmer.

Hans Zimmer's score to Dune: Part Two is a majestic and sweeping masterpiece, befitting one of the year's best films. Hans Zimmer is a master of contemplative and epic themes, delivering both equally here. The love themes are beautiful and tender, while the battle cries are bolder and more significant than ever, transporting you to faraway lands you want to get lost in forever.

Working with illustrator Greg Ruth (Dune: Part One, The Dune Sketchbook) to create artwork for the premiere physical release has been an incredible and fruitful experience. Our intent was always to mix the epic and the intimate with this release and push ourselves to deliver the definitive Dune: Part Two experience that both casual fans and obsessives alike could cherish. It is an honour to contribute in some small way to the incredible world that Denis and Hans have created.

JD SOUTHER

YOU'RE ONLY LONELY

By 1979, JD Souther had quickly established himself as the consummate singer/songwriter and performer—penning hits for the Eagles, Linda Ronstadt, Bonnie Raitt, Christopher Cross, and Dan Fogelberg, while delivering two now-essential releases for David Geffen's Asylum Records. (Both John David Souther and Black Rose have been expanded and reissued by Omnivore Recordings.) He assembled an A-list band (Waddy Wachtel on guitar, Don Grolnick on piano, Kenny Edwards on bass, and Rick Marotta on drums, with Danny "Kootch" Kortchmar also contributing on guitar, David Sanborn on alto saxophone, and Dan Dugmore on guitar and steel) for his debut on Columbia Records.

You're Only Lonely appeared at the end of that year and the title track stormed up the charts. "You're Only Lonely" spent 5 weeks at #1 on the Adult Contemporary charts and was a #7 Pop hit. The album itself was a critical success, hitting #41 on the LP charts. Billboard praised the LP as a "predominantly mellow, atmospheric collection of tunes . . . Souther's guitar playing takes a backseat to his writing, with many of the tunes here among his best." (From the new liner notes) "It was quite a good Christmas," JD laughs. "'You're Only Lonely' and 'Heartache Tonight' (co-written by JD, Glenn Frey, Don Felder, and Bob Seger) were both in the top ten the same week. It was pretty amazing."

You're Only Lonely contains JD's versions of tracks previously recorded by Linda Ronstadt ("White Rhythm And Blues" from Living In The USA), Nitty Gritty Dirt Band ("The Moon Turned Blue" from Dream) and Nicolette Larson ("The Last In Love" from her debut Nicolette), plus "Trouble In Paradise" (the title track of the second Souther-Hillman-Furay Band album.)

The 9-track LP returns for the first time in 35 years and the CD and Digital add two previously unissued bonus tracks from the album's sessions. New liner notes from Joe Marchese (The Second Disc) feature an interview with JD outlining the recording of the album, the all-star players, and why it is an important record to him and the fans who have supported it for all these years.

"We always said our motto was 'we're building to last.' We really spent a lot of time on the songs. The other motto was, 'no filler.' You don't make a single and then put a bunch of filler on an album. You make an album and hope you have a single." You're Only Lonely epitomizes that ethos. It's built to last.

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

- Reissue of his classic third album on LP and expanded CD/Digital.
- Features the #1 AC for 5 weeks (and #7 Pop) title track and guest appearances from members of the Eagles, Jackson Browne, David Sanborn, John Sebastian, Phil Everly, Tom Scott, and more.
- Packaging contains a new interview with JD and detailed liner notes from Joe Marchese from The Second Disc.

OVERVIEW

Keeper of the Seven Keys: Part I is the second studio album by German power metal band Helloween, released in 1987. It marks the first appearance of vocalist Michael Kiske, and is considered the album that created the genre of European-style power metal.

Now as part of the 40th anniversary of the band, this classic has now been remastered and the original artwork restored.

Loudwire named the album at third in their list "Top 25 Power Metal Albums of All Time" and commented the album is "a tireless LP and perhaps the first genuine power metal album." ThoughtCo also named the album in their list "Essential Power Metal Albums."

Hers and Hers – Carter Burwell
Cryin' My Eyes Out (Lyn' Beside You) – Shannon Shaw
I Got My Mojo Working – Joyce Harris & the Daylighters

Mutant, in partnership with Back Lot Music and Focus Features, are proud to present the physical release of the soundtrack to DRIVE-AWAY DOLLS, featuring a score by EMMY® Award-winning composer Carter Burwell. The soundtrack also features songs by The Liverbirds, Le Tigre, Linda Ronstadt, Kennelmus, Longstocking, Asie Payton, Lizzy Mercier Descloux, Joyce Harris & The Daylighters, as well as a newly re-imagined version of Shannon Shaw's "Cryin' My Eyes Out (Lyn' Beside You)" with updated lyrics written for the film. Carter Burwell is a genius, and his decades long collaboration with Ethan Coen is an impressive legacy. His score to Drive-Away Dolls fits perfectly into this canon. The physical release is complete with a soundtrack that's a little bit country, a little bit rock and roll, a little bit Disco and a little bit queer. Its the perfect mixtape for this roadtrip." Carter Burwell adds that "if you're expecting the usual lesbian road-trip crime-thriller sex-comedy score, you won't be disappointed."

4. Found (6:24)
5. Home (4:07)

Academy Award-® winning composer Michael Giacchino's commanding yet tender score to J.A. Bayona's The Society of the Snow - A heartfelt retelling of the harrowing true story of the 1972 Uruguayan flight that crashed in the remote heart of the Andes, and the battle for survival that ensued.

The film is about, above all else, hope. And Giacchino's score brings an emotional charge to the film that is arresting but optimistic. It is a delicate path that Bayona and Giacchino forge, but together, they have created one of the year's most powerful films.

KELLY DECO CONSTELLATION

For Fans of David Bowie, Van Morrison, and 70's Rock!

Steeped in the magic and mystery from an artist's life in the Hollywood movie machinery, vintage-futurism storyteller Kelly Deco moves through space and time with imaginary twists on figures we sometimes see in the sky and know in our hearts.

The stars first aligned in 1990 with the release of 'Big Fish' and the independently-produced video for "No Reality" (directed by Wayne White, three-time Emmy award winning designer for 'Pee Wee's Playhouse' and Peter Gabriel's "Big Time") became widely publicized. The clip was played on numerous nationwide video programs, garnering national attention, and ultimately charting in Billboard Magazine's Viewer's Top Request on the nationwide program 'Night Tracks' in 1991 for most requested video.

The stars aligned once again, and Kelly's most recent recording is with legendary and Grammy award winning music producer Val Garay (Linda Ronstadt, James Taylor, Kim Carnes, etc...). This current album, 'Constellation', has eleven brand new songs with standout tracks "Automat Girl" and "David Bowie's Brain".

Singer/songwriter/instrumentalist Steve Young (1942-2016) was a pioneer of “country rock” and of “outlaw country,” two movements that transformed mainstream country music and impacted other genres of American popular music.

Several generations of artists—country music’s new traditionalists during the 1980s, alternative country acts in the 1990s, as well as those associated with Americana music in the current century—broadened their audiences by merging country music with elements of other music genres. All those musicians have been indebted to Young and such contemporaries as Gram Parsons and Gene Clark, who collectively demonstrated how to integrate country music with other music genres (rock, pop, folk, blues, R&B, bluegrass, and gospel).

Young, a Southerner, recorded more than a dozen distinctive albums, but none was more fully realized than his 1975 album Honky-Tonk Man. Recorded at the acclaimed Minneapolis studio Sound 80 and released by Mountain Railroad Records, a small independent label based in the Upper Midwest, Honky-Tonk Man documented the musical world of a complex if largely misunderstood artist during the peak of his powers.

Now, Honky-Tonk Man returns in its original form on vinyl for the first time in three decades, remastered and featuring its original cover art (also available as part of Stars In The Southern Sky—a 47-track, 3-CD/Digital collection highlighting that monumental 1975 era. Packaged in a slipcase, featuring a 40-page booklet with rare photos and new liner notes from Honky-Tonk Man Producer Stephen Powers and Ted Olson, who both oversaw both sets.)

Featuring originals and covers of Bob Wills, Hank Williams, The Band, and more, Honky-Tonk Man explores the origins of Country Rock, Outlaw Country, and Americana. Experience it in its original form.

The whopping 47-track set contains Honky-Tonk Man, "Stanley And Henry" (Young's collaboration with Jim Post from Post's 1978 I Love My Life album) and 34 previously unissued live tracks including standards and original material including Young's classic "Seven Bridges Road" (a 1980 hit for the Eagles using Iain Matthews' Michael Nesmith produced version as a template, and also covered by Dolly Parton, Alan Jackson, Rita Coolidge and more.)

So, revisit the origins of Country Rock, Outlaw Country, and Americana. Sit back and enjoy the Stars In The Southern Sky!

((SWAMI & THE BED OF NAILS))

All Hail Swami John Reis. He of Hot Snakes, Rocket From The Crypt, Drive Like Jehu and many, many others. His latest career decision is the formation of Swami and the Bed of Nails. YES! It is yet another band. Joining Reis is Tommy Kitsos (Night Marchers, CPC Gangbangs) on bass, Joe Guevara (Gary Wilson And The Blind Dates, Lady Dottie and the Diamonds) on piano and synthesizer, "session cat" Richard Larson on drums, and Mark Murino (Radio Wendy, Dirty Sweet) on second guitar. Their sound is ever-evolving while rooted in the early sounds of punk rock and rock n roll. "All of This Awaits You..." promises a raucous dose of high energy riffage.

SALES & MARKETING

Blues Pills unveils their fourth studio album, "Birthday". Marked by the lead singer Elin Larsson's discovery of her pregnancy during the recordings and journey to motherhood, infusing the music with profound emotion.

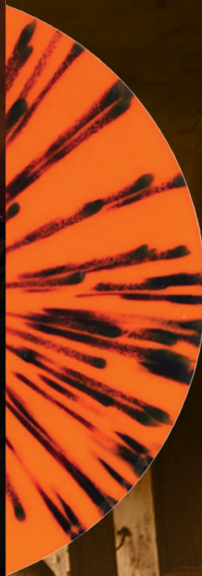

Written in just a few weeks in Sweden's serene countryside and produced by Grammy-nominated Freddy Alexander, the album captures Blues Pills' raw energy and magnetic charisma in its purest and most honest form. "Birthday" symbolizes not just musical evolution but also the deep bond between bandmates, evident in their unwavering support for Elin during this transformative time.

"With this album we truly let ourselves free, leaving all the boundaries and expectations behind to write music we love. We wanted to capture the raw and authentic feeling from when we play live on an album, yet pushing ourselves to create and write the best we've ever done. The singer Elin was pregnant during the recordings, and what isn't more rock'n'roll than that? To create human life and music."

"Birthday" is a celebration of life and music and you are invited to the party.

SEASON OF DA SICCNES 2: KEVLAR

THE WAIT IS OVER! HE'S BACK DELIVERING MORE SURREAL VIOLENCE, GUTS & GORE ON THE NEW ALBUM SEASON OF DA SICCNES 2: KEVLAR!

HORRORCORE RAP LUMINARY BROTHA LYNCH HUNG RETURNS WITH THE MUCH ANTICIPATED SEQUEL TO HIS BEST SELLING & CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED ALBUM THAT STARTED THE HORRORCORE GENRE & MOVEMENT.

FOCUSING ON A SELF-MADE VISION OF RAP & FUNK, THE SOUND DESIGN IS A TOTAL REPRESENTATION OF LYNCH'S THEMES. IN TURN, THE IMAGERY IS GROTESQUE, GROWING OUT OF HIS EVERYDAY TALES OF GHETTO LIVING, HIS NARRATIVES ARE INFESTED WITH DISTURBING, ALMOST SURREALISTIC IMAGERY. LYNCH'S ART IS SO IMAGE-ORIENTED THAT HE FUNCTIONS LIKE A PAINTER & SONGWRITER.

SEASON OF DA SICCNES 2: KEVLAR CARRIES ON THE SMOKE A BLUNT SOUNDTRACK TRADITION OF ITS PREDECESSOR & MAINTAINS WHY HE IS CONSIDERED THE WES CRAVEN OF MUSIC.

Simon Fisher Turner

Instability of the Signal

Street Date: 8/2/2024

Renowned composer Simon Fisher Turner presents his brand new album Instability of the Signal, out August 2nd on limited edition black vinyl featuring extensive sleeve notes.

Recorded by Simon Fisher Turner and Music Producers Guild Awards winner Francine Perry, this 13-track album is an intricate exploration of sound, inspired by the creative minds of Breda Beban, Hrvoje Horvatic, and poet Harold Pinter, whose verses 'Democracy' and 'The Special Relationship,' feature on the record.

It pulls together four strands of Fisher Turner's sonic experimentation, which he identifies as Slivers, Sounds, Strings, and Singing. The "slivers" are tiny snippets of audio he used as source material for the tracks, all originally created by Salford Electronics (aka David Padbury), and reworked by Fisher Turner into foundations for entire tracks. The record also includes beautiful string arrangements by the Elysian Collective, who have toured with Pulp and feature on the latest releases from The Last Dinner Party and Pet Shop Boys.

Like Fisher Turner's long and varied career, Instability of The Signal is an accumulation of experience, effervescent memories, sounds and textures. It contains hidden learnings. It is about how restorative singing of ourselves and to ourselves can be but is also a document of times and places delivered in beautifully impressionistic palettes of sounds and voices. It is also another document of Fisher Turner's remarkable life and unshakeable curiosity about sound.

Can't Stop Coming Around THE SHIVAS

DESCRIPTION

Can't Stop Coming Around is The Shivas' 10th full-length album. Recorded by the band themselves in their home studio 'FFF' in Portland, Oregon, and mixed by dear friend Collin Hegna (Brian Jonestown Massacre, Federale), Can't Stop Coming Around showcases the many soundscapes that the Shivas traverse. Psychedelia, garage, surf, girl group harmonies, and a punk ethos are all on display in this true to form full-length. Between reverb drenched vocals and catchy guitar hooks, Can't Stop Coming Around encapsulates the emotions, hardwork and musicianship cultivated from almost two decades of rockin' all over the world together.

Ranging from brooding and vulnerable to lively and maniacal—and every facet in between—Can't Stop Coming Around comes from a place of honesty and certainty. It is certain that The Shivas will always be making music and it's certain that they will always be pouring their honest selves into it. Can't Stop Coming Around will be out in the summer of 2024 on Tender Loving Empire Records.

LOS LONELY BOYS • RESURRECTION

THE NEW ALBUM FT. SEND MORE LOVE, WISH YOU WOULD, & MORE!

THE GRAMMY® AWARD-WINNING MULTIPLATINUM SAN ANGELO, TEXAS TRIO LOS LONELY BOYS HAVE WELCOMED AUDIENCES INTO THEIR FAMILY WITH OPEN ARMS SINCE EMERGING IN 1996. AFTER 23 YEARS OF RELENTLESS RECORDING AND TOURING, LOS LONELY BOYS MUTUALLY AGREED TO TAKE A REST IN 2019 UNTIL A DIFFERENT KIND OF DIVINITY STEPPED IN TO INTERRUPT THE BAND'S SLUMBER. THE WHO INVITED LOS LONELY BOYS TO OPEN A STRING OF SHOWS IN 2022. THEY AGREED, BECAUSE, WELL WHO CAN SAY, "NO" TO THE WHO? MUSIC MATERIALIZED NATURALLY AND THIS REINVIGORATED SPIRIT SURGED THROUGH WHAT WOULD BECOME THEIR FIRST ALBUM IN ELEVEN YEARS, THE APTLY TITLED RESURRECTION. AS ALWAYS, THEIR BROTHERLY BOND ANCHORS THE MUSIC.
