AMERICA - HEARTS

America's Gerry Beckley and Dewey Bunnell have always taken the art of the album seriously. "We loved the exercise of making an album," says Beckley, "and I always did love Hearts. With the tender 'Daisy Jane,' exhilarating 'Sister Golden Hair,' and rocking 'Woman Tonight,' Hearts was built to last." "It was a turning point," observes Bunnell, "and the last of the initial, giant tidal wave of our success."

—from the liner notes by Joe Marchese

Omnivore Recordings is proud to present the 50th anniversary expanded edition of Hearts, America's fifth album for Warner Bros. Records and second with legendary producer Sir George Martin.

1975 was a watershed year for the band having established themselves as true hitmakers. Their previous album Holiday (and first with Martin) delivered two Top 5 hits ("Tin Man" and "Lonely People") and the follow-up Hearts did not disappoint with three Top 40s including the summer favorite, "Sister Golden Hair," the band's first #1 since their debut album's "A Horse With No Name" in 1972.

Working with Martin proved essential for the band's creative growth with all three members (Beckley, Bunnell and Dan Peek) contributing strong material; each charting hit singles. As Beckley would reminisce in a new interview for this album's notes, "we learned an immense amount from them (Martin and famed Beatles engineer Geoff Emerick) that we applied the minute we started on Hearts."

Omnivore's expanded edition celebrating the 50th anniversary of this Top 5 charting, Gold-certified album includes six bonus tracks with five previously unissued alternate versions. Experience the beautiful harmonies on the vocal and string mix of "Daisy Jane," an alternate acoustic mix of the plaintive "Old Virginia," plus the CD debut of the Spanish language version of "Sister Golden Hair" ("Con Tu Pelo Tan Dorado").

As Gerry Beckley said "Hearts was built to last" and is still as fresh and engaging as ever!

LIVE IN AMERICA

Street Date: 8/8/2025

A Certain Ratio's classic and highly sought-after live album gets an official release with new artwork.

ACR continue their ongoing reissue campaign with Live in America - an essential artefact from the band's career, capturing their summer '85 US tour supporting labelmates New Order - then fellow Factory artists, now as part of the Mute family - across the East Coast and Canada.

Originally released on cassette and sold at gigs, this rare gem is now available on CD and vinyl, complete with new artwork and sleeve notes. Compiled from the standout performances of the tour, Live in America spans the band's early years through to "Si Firmir O Grido" - a track that was released a year later on Force - capturing ACR at a thrilling crossroads in their trajectory. The recordings were taken from five of the venues they played, Felt Forum: NYC, Opera House: Boston, Agora Theatre: Akron OH, Bismarck Theatre: Chicago and Warner Theatre: Washington DC. The line-up on the tour and therefore the album consisted of Andrew Connell - Keyboards, Donald Johnson - Drums, Jez Kerr - Bass and Vocals, Martin Moscrop - Guitar and Trumpet and Anthony Quigley - Sax.

From a Motorik-funk take on "Touch" to their iconic cover of "Shack Up" - a scratchy funk bomb that became a cult club anthem - this is ACR at their most direct, raw and road-hardened.

Available on limited edition 1985 green glass vinyl and CD via Mute.

Candlemass

CANDLEMASS - a name forged in darkness; a legacy built on doom. Born from the cold shadows of Stockholm in 1985, this Swedish titan of epic doom metal has stood as a monolithic force for nearly four decades. In 2025, CANDLEMASS marks 40 years of sorrow-laden grandeur, a testament to their unwavering reign over the genre they helped shape.

Their journey began with the seismic release of "Epicus Doomicus Metallicus" (1986), a requiem that redefined heavy music, followed by the monumental "Nightfall" - both now sacred texts in the annals of doom. These albums remain cornerstones of a genre that thrives in the echoes of CANDLEMASS somber majesty.

Despite doom's reputation for slow, crushing weight, CANDLEMASS themselves show no signs of slowing down. Relentless and untamed, they continue to storm stages worldwide, bringing their towering hymns to devoted Candlemaniacs from Tokyo to Los Angeles. With Grammy win in Sweden and a U.S. Grammy nomination in 2019, the band's fire still burns with undiminished intensity.

Originally released in 2005, "Candlemass" is the eighth studio album from CANDLEMASS. The 2025 20TH Anniversary reissue is remixed and contains 4 additional demo tracks.

THE A2D2 EXPERIENCE

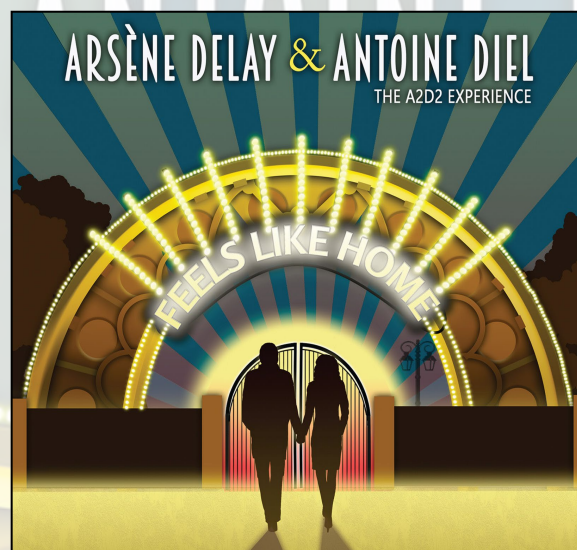

FEELS LIKE HOME

For Fans of Jaze, Cajun, and New Orleans Style Music!

Feels Like Home was first envisioned to debut during the French Quarter Festival 2020 in New Orleans. However, the Covid pandemic had different plans and the project was shelved. A brainchild & collaboration of Antoine Diel & Arsène DeLay this album is a way to combine our voices with the artistry of our friends Sam Kuslan on piano, Stephen Bohnstengel on bass and Joel Zobrist on drums. We are happy to bring to the light this project filled with love, hope and the constant search for belonging and finding 'home'.

Arsène Delay is a multi-talented daughter of New Orleans with a deep, universal soul, reflected in her singing, her theatre work, and in her warm relationships with audiences around the world. DeLay is a member of the large Boutte Tribe, including aunt and uncle musicians Lillian and John, and DeLay now occupies the matriarchal home. The vocal powerhouse sings and plays guitar under her own name and with local bands including Funk Monkey, the Bayou Saints (with Matt Clark) and The A2D2 Experience, her partnership with fellow vocalist Antoine Diel. DeLay's repertoire includes her original music, the New Orleans canon heavily tinged by gospel, jazz, and rock and roll, and every note informed by her confidence and sense of identity.

She has toured the world and performed at marquee events, including the Ascona Jazz and Heritage Festival, Edinburgh's Fringe Festival, and the Jazz and Heritage Festival at home in New Orleans.

JOHN DEPRIEST

TALOA HAKLO

For Fans of Americana, Cajun, and Choctaw Music!

Hailing from North Mississippi, but based in Bulbancha (New Orleans) following a stint in Nashville, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, John DePriest, has been slinging banjo around the South for years. In addition to performing with Cajun, Country, Funk, and Americana bands including Carolyn Broussard, Charlie Wooton, and Marshland, he is the bandleader, lead singer, and songwriter for the bluegrass country funk band Bogue Chitto, who were nominated by OffBeat Magazine as the Best Emerging Artist in 2022. In honor of his Choctaw heritage, he recently completed work on his first solo album exploring and adapting traditional and original Choctaw music, for which he was awarded a Monroe Fellowship from the New Orleans Center for the Gulf South. He recently planned and promoted the second annual Bulbancha Bluegrass and Old-Time Fest in December 2024 and was awarded a residency for June 2025 at A Studio in the Woods.

This album was conceived and recorded during the COVID pandemic between 2021 and 2023. The vision was that it would include 4 types of songs: traditional social dance songs, hymns, songs by Choctaw artists, and original compositions. While I had intended for this album to be a collaboration with a number of other indigenous musicians, the restraints of the pandemic prevented that. As a result, I played, sang, and engineered all of the tracks and instruments on this album, mistakes and all.

GREEN LUNG

"This is heavy metal how it should be done" - The Guardian

A cult band in every sense of the word, GREEN LUNG emerged from London's heavy rock scene with self-released debut EP Free the Witch (2018). Drawing on a host of peculiarly British musical influences, from doomy hard rock to pastoral prog and psych to the Hammer Horror theatrics of the NWOBHM, the band have swiftly risen to the forefront of the UK metal scene. Lyrically celebrating the folklore, myths and legends of Britain, they conjure the wild and witchy spirit of their forebears for a new generation.

Signed to Nuclear Blast, GREEN LUNG have released three critically acclaimed albums, Woodland Rites (2019), Black Harvest (2021) and This Heathen Land (2023). They have toured internationally with CLUTCH and performed on festival stages from Roadburn to Download. Their latest album This Heathen Land landed at #1 on the UK's Official Rock and Metal Album Chart.

Doc Pomus

YOU CAN'T HIP A SQUARE

The Doc Pomus Songwriting Demos

Doc Pomus was a songwriter's songwriter, crafting lyrics that have stood the test of time. You Can't Hip A Square: The Doc Pomus Songwriting Demos is a masterclass in songwriting through the lens of Doc Pomus' career and via previously unheard demos largely sung by his writing partner, Mort Shuman. You Can't Hip A Square traces Doc and his songwriting partners' careers across the beloved rock, pop and R&B hits that became 20th century standards. Songs like, "A Teenager In Love," "Viva Las Vegas," "Lonely Avenue," "Save The Last Dance For Me," "This Magic Moment," recorded by artists like Elvis Presley, Lou Reed, The Drifters, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, The Beach Boys, Ray Charles, The Coasters, Dionne Warwick, Dion, The Everly Brothers, Linda Ronstadt, and more! The lists of songs and artists who recorded them goes on and on.

Now, for the first time, the demo acetates kept by Doc and cared for by his daughter Sharyn Felder, have been carefully transferred, restored, mastered, and assembled into a 6-CD / Digital boxed set that includes some of the biggest hits of Doc's career in demo form as well as a treasure trove of previously unheard, unknown songs that were left behind and never cut by any artist. It's a remarkable collection of 'what ifs' of late '50s and '60s popular music. Is it possible one of the songs left behind could have hit #1 had it been cut by a popular artist like Elvis?

Co-produced by Sharyn Felder, publisher Will Bratton, and Omnivore's multiple Grammy Award-winning producer Cheryl Pawelski, the collection also features a main liner note essay by Geoffrey Himes with additional side notes by Sharyn Felder, Peter Guralnick, Eddie Gorodetsky, Will Bratton, and Cheryl Pawelski. Restoration and mastering were handled by multiple Grammy Award-winning engineer Michael Graves and Jordan McLeod at Osiris Studio. The packaging includes ephemera from the estate, photos from throughout Doc's life and pictures of choice acetates and sheet music all in a 48-page hardbound book.

Don't be a square, get hip to the songs and enduring legacy of Doc Pomus!

BUY! HERE'S WHY!

- Over 160 tracks on 6 CDs (with over 120 previously unissued and others making their CD / Digital debut).
- Mastering and restoration by multiple Grammy winning engineer Michael Graves and Jordan McLeod.
- 48-page hardbound book featuring essays, detailed track notes, and ephemera from the Doc Pomus estate.
- Celebrating Doc's 100th birthday.

"My dad used to say, if you talk to any songwriter who's had a bunch of hits, they'll tell you about the 50 other songs they wrote that were just as good, or even better, that nothing ever happened with."

—Sharyn Felder (Doc Pomus' daughter)

With "Band Of Brothers", WARMEN boldly underline their claim to be the rightful heirs to the legendary Children of Bodom. Out on August 15th via Reaper Entertainment, the new studio album marks the band's next step forward – harder, tighter, and more united than ever before.

Following their acclaimed comeback "Here For None" in 2023, WARMEN are now raising the stakes with a record that delivers pure intensity. Compact songwriting, explosive performances, and a stronger-than-ever band chemistry define this release – a true Band Of Brothers in every sense.

The album doesn't follow a central concept but draws lyrical inspiration from raw emotion, real-world frustration, and fictional violence. "Some lyrics were written out of anger about the state of the world," says keyboardist and founding member Janne 'Warman' Wirman. "Others are based on movies or true crime shows. But the energy is always real."

Musically, WARMEN dive deeper into melodic death metal while maintaining their trademark mix of melody and technical finesse. Vocalist and guitarist Petri Lindroos (Ensiferum) once again delivers a blazing performance that cements him as the voice of modern WARMEN.

For the first time, songwriting was a fully collaborative process – with Petri and drummer Seppo Tarvainen contributing their own riffs and even full tracks. Parts of the album were recorded at the legendary Finnvox Studios; Mikko Karmila (mix) and Mika Jussila (master) provided the band's unmistakably heavy Finnish sound.

The title track Band Of Brothers is already a live favorite and will play a central role in the upcoming tour – including a massive release show at Summer Breeze Open Air. WARMEN are back – stronger, heavier, and ready to claim the throne.
