Tinariwen

Tassili

Double LP - with Four Unreleased Remix Tracks

Street Date: April 21, 2012

"The music of Tinariwen is at once exotic and familiar-- the scales and arrangements are as strange to our ears as the language they sing in, but there's a force operating on a more subliminal level that unites it to something rattling around inside anyone who was brought up on blues or rock & roll. It's music of longing and rebellion, weary wisdom and restless energy, and it sounds so, so good."— Pitchfork

On their Grammy Award-winning album Tassili, TINARIWEN expanded the boundaries of their music, and world music, by collaborating with members of TV On The Radio, guitarist Nels Cline (Wilco) and members of the Dirty Dozen Brass Band. Far from compromising their hypnotic sound, TINARIWEN made these western musicians come to them, seamlessly integrating the guests' contributions into their music. Now the boundaries are pushed even further as TINARIWEN work with noted remixers to expand into new territories. For the premiere release of this groundbreaking work on vinyl, TINARIWEN add four new tracks – remixes by Four Tet, Animal Collective, Portugal the Man and Bobby Mac of Galactic. Together they have created a package that reaches deep into the essence of TINARIWEN's sound while simultaneously opening itself to the surrounding world.

- Tassili won the 2012 Grammy Award for Best World Music Album.
- Features guest musicians Tunde Adebimpe and Kyp Malone (of the band TV On The Radio), guitarist Nels Cline (Wilco) and the horns of the Dirty Dozen Brass Band.
- This band has received rapturous press with every release, and count high profile musicians like Robert Plant, Brian Eno and Bono among their many fans.
- The Tassili expanded LP includes four exclusive remixes by members of Four Tet, Portugal The Man, Animal Collective, and Galactic.
- CD of full album included with the LP.

Top Ten Markets: New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Chicago, Washington DC, Boston, Seattle, Minneapolis, Philadelphia.

The CLEANERS FROM VENUS Blow Away Your Troubles (1981) 2xLP / CD

Lol Elliott and Martin Newell, who together formed the legendary lo-fi band Cleaners from Venus met in the small town of Wivenhoe, southeast England at the turn of 1980s. Newell, a rock singer and part-time kitchen porter who'd left his band the previous summer, and Elliott, a drummer and former hippy traveller, had much in common. They shared a love of sunny 1960s pop music, punk rock and musical comedy. Neither Elliott nor Newell cared much for any kind of musical rule book, both were dismayed by the new right-wing politics which had now taken over their country. Both, were in their twenties, had time on their hands and were keen to create something new.

The Cleaners From Venus became one of the most influential bands of the early 80s. Blow Away Your Troubles was originally released in 1981 and only offered on cassette until now. Completely remastered and on vinyl and CD for the first time. This release offers a new way to listen to this important band like never before.

RELEASE DATE: APRIL 17th, 2012

"It's an appropriate time to revisit Cleaners From Venus, as the lo-fi pop aesthetic they first embraced three decades ago is surfacing in the decidedly damaged work of indie artists like Ariel Pink and more."

-Pitchfork

"To be clear, this band isn't just for fence-sitters. Cleaners from Venus are absolutely one of the greatest (and least known) pop bands to come out of Britain in the 1980s. So why haven't we heard more from them? Well, bandleader Martin Newell was basically obsessed with DIY culture and self-releasing his music."

The CLEANERS FROM VENUS Midnight Cleaners (1982) LP / CD

Martin Newell, founding Cleaner was, for the time being, alone and spent many long hours in an upstairs room of an old stable block, recording obsessively, by himself most of 82'. Lol Elliott, the other Cleaner, came back from time to time to help but in effect, Midnight Cleaners - although not entirely a Newell solo project - was recognisably the last of the original Cleaners from Venus albums. It was also the end of the first chapter of their story.

This album, previously only released on cassette, has been completely remastered. Midnight Cleaners holds two of the band's biggest hits, "Only A Shadow" and "Factory Boy." These two songs are more are now on vinyl and CD for the first time. This release bring about a new way to listen to the iconic band, making them a lot more audible without losing the little foibles and intimacy that made it unique in the first place.

RELEASE DATE: APRIL 17, 2012

"It's an appropriate time to revisit Cleaners From Venus, as the lo-fi pop aesthetic they first embraced three decades ago is surfacing in the decidedly damaged work of indie artists like Ariel Pink and more."
-Pitchfork

"Among aficionados of lo-fi, hi-quality UK pop with more than a dose of British dry wit, musician/author/poet Martin Newell is considered god-like, having launched his signature combo the Cleaners From Venus back in 1980 and additionally helming other beloved projects over the years."

The CLEANERS FROM VENUS On Any Normal Monday (1982) LP / CD

ON ANY NORMAL MONDAY
1982

With sleeves designed by Newell's partner at the time - often hand-coloured in by Newell and Elliott themselves - the Cleaners from Venus had their second album. The new issue was then packaged up and sent off to Sounds, and NME - both of whom gave On Any Normal Monday honorable mentions in their cassette review columns. The biggest surprise, however, came from the more conservative Melody Maker, whose own Patrick Humphries gave the new Cleaners project a glowing review in that paper. So far as Newell was concerned, this was a football kicked through the greenhouse window of the conventional music business.

This jangle-pop classic album has been completely remastered and offered on vinyl and CD for the first time. Keeping with the intimate feeling of the original cassette-only release, the little foibles that made the Cleaners' sound unique have been left, but at the same time, making the listening experience way more audible.

OVERVIEW:

In March 2010, Animal Collective and visual artist Danny Perez (director of Oddsac, "Summertime Clothes" video, "Who Could Win A Rabbit" video, "You Can Count On Me" video, and Panda Bear live visuals) put on an installation called "Transverse Temporal Gyrus" at the Guggenheim Museum in New York City. For the audio, each member of the band made individual sounds and songs. Over the course of two three-hour performances, the basic tracks were fed into a computer program that randomized the track order, and sometimes randomly combined stems from one track with stems from another. The program also panned the music in various directions around a 36 channel surround sound system that ran through 36 speakers set up from the top of the Guggenheim's I ramp to the bottom.

The music on this 12" is a collage we made consisting of the original tracks, as well as live recordings made inside the Guggenheim before the doors were opened to the public. It will be the only physical format on which any of the music will be released. Coinciding with Record Store Day, we will also launch a website which will contain an audio player that recreates the computer program designed for the Guggenheim event. This will give listeners a new and unique collage each time the program is run. Danny Perez, who created the artwork for this 12", will also create video content for the website consisting of footage from, and projections used in the original event.

SELLING POINTS

OVERVIEW:

In honor of Record Store Day, we have commissioned two very special Arctic Monkeys covers from Caitlin Rose, one of Nashville's brightest young singer/songwriters. When Alex Turner's 'Piledriver Waltz' first appeared in the British film Submarine as a bittersweet acoustic love song, and then later as a fleshed out Arctic Monkeys song from their most recent album Suck It and See, it was evident that the production and arrangement could change, but the soaring timelessness of the song's lyrics and melody never would.

Caitlin Rose's cover transforms the song into a country rock ballad complete with slide guitar and powerful vocals reminiscent of the Nashville greats from yesteryear like Loretta Lynn & Emmylou Harris. Her take of Suck It and See's standout ballad 'Love Is A Laserquest' is as heartbreaking a country song as you'll ever hear. Both songs will be pressed on a super limited edition 7inch for Record Store Day only.

Born into a family of songwriters, Caitlin Rose first began playing out as a 15-year-old in punk clubs and dive bars — crowded, smoky establishments she legally, technically wasn't supposed to even attend. Her early songs were of an earnest and urgent anti-folk bent, as influenced by roots and country music as they were by punk and indie rock. She sang Misfits covers alongside powerful originals like "Shotgun Wedding," all of them filled with eerily mature and clever narratives and sung in a voice that seemed too big and timeless to come from Rose's diminutive teenage frame. With her 2010 full-length debut, Own Side Now, Rose demonstrated an accessible vulnerability. Rose's voice has been compared to those of Loretta Lynn, Emmylou Harris, Stevie Nicks, Patsy Cline and Linda Ronstadt by outlets including LA Weekly and NPR, with a vulnerability that NME says is "as true as the clink of a quarter in an old jukebox."

OVERVIEW:

Laura Marling's 2011 album A Creature I Don't Know has been an American breakout success for the young songwriter from London. 2012 looks even brighter with extensive North American touring including festival performances at Coachella, Bonnaroo and more and the re-issues of her first two albums in March; Alas I Cannot Swim & I Speak Because I Can.

For Record Store Day she has written and recorded a new heartbreaking song titled 'To Be A Woman'. This song will be featured along side the live favorite 'Flicker and Fail', which will appear on physical format for the first time on this limited edition 7".

Since her emergence onto the London music scene in 2007 Laura Marling has steadily secured her position as one of the most exciting musical talents of her generation. By the tender age of 21 she has already won a BRIT award and been nominated for the UK Mercury Music prize twice. While so many artists of any age attempt to locate their inner child, Marling, with a sometime steely gaze, measures the prerogatives of youth against the looming realities of adulthood – the specter of mortality, the betrayals of love, the balm of sex, the yearning for companionship, the need for independence. As the Times Of London recently posited, "Who else is making music as ambitious, as haunting, as centuries-straddling, as thought-provoking and artistically tenacious as this? And the answer is: nobody. No, really. Not a soul."

Marling, who started out -- briefly but auspiciously -- with a stint in the group Noah and the Whale, was a mere 16 when she independently released her first singles and almost immediately gained serious stature as a key figure on Britain's burgeoning young folk scene, alongside such artists and friends as singer-actor Johnny Flynn and Mumford & Sons. The two startlingly self-assured albums that followed -- Alas I Cannot Swim (2008) and I Speak Because I Can (2010) -- brought the self-effacing and relatively shy Marling an extraordinary level of acclaim in her homeland, with each of them in turn being nominated for the U.K.'s prestigious Mercury Prize. Both of these albums will be re-issued on March 13th, 2012.

REFUSED

THE SHAPE OF PUNK TO COME

DELUXE LP VERSION

Street Date: April 21, 2012

"The Shape Of Punk To Come is the Sergeant Pepper's of punk rock. They were fucking fearless" – Duff McKagan - Guns n' Roses (Filter Magazine)

Arguably the most influential hardcore album of all time, The Shape of Punk to Come was Refused's masterpiece, their last recording, and the record that launched a generation of bands by pointing the way to a hardcore sound that was dense, sophisticated, and brimming with smarts. "The pure intellect that was pouring out of this band - musical intellect, political intellect...even when it comes to arrangement, they were very sophisticated. It still sounds fresh, it still sounds contemporary and new" said uberfan Kirk Hammett of Metallica. Now fans can explore The Shape of Punk To Come in whole new light, with an added DVD documenting their first US tour and ensuing demise. With a new generation of fans growing up with the sound Refused help pioneer, The Shape Of Punk to Come is a not-so-underground classic waiting to be rediscovered.

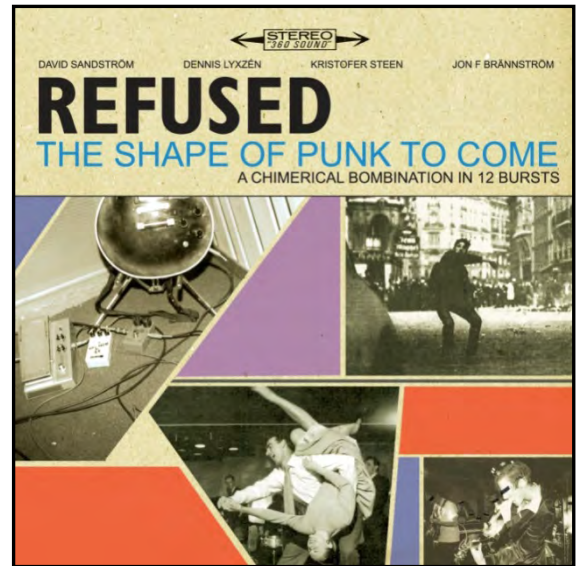

- 2010 CD reissue was named Best New Reissue by Pitchfork.
- Limited edition red vinyl includes CD of full album, DVD documentary, and exclusive reproduction of original 11" x 17" promotional poster.

Mike Watt is best known for co-founding the rock bands Minutemen, dos, and FIREHOSE; as of 2003, he is also the bassist for the reunited Stooges and a member of the art rock/jazz/punk group Banyan, as well as many other post-Minutemen projects. CMJ New Music called Watt a "seminal post-punk bass player." In 2008, Watt received the Bass Player Magazine lifetime achievement award, presented by Flea.

Chuck Dukowski is an American punk rock musician, best known as a founding member and bass player for Black Flag. Dukowski wrote some of Black Flag's most popular songs, including "My War", "What I See", "I've Heard It Before" and "Spray Paint." He left the band before the release of My War, and afterward served as Black Flag's manager.

This split 7" combines two of punk rock's most iconic bass players, both with their current bands. Mike Watt & The Missingmen cover Roky Erickson's "Sweet Honey Pie", live at the Globen in Stockholm, Sweden on December 11, 2006. The Chuck Dukowski SEXTET re-recorded the Black Flag classic, "My War", this year on Chuck's birthday, February 1st. "My War" was recorded in one take with no overdubs, all analog.

The Mates of State covers album is finally available on vinyl.

Crushes includes cover songs of artists such as Tom Waits, Daniel Johnston, Mars Volta and more.

Jason Hammel from Mates of State reveals "We've been talking about doing a covers record for a long time. We'd hear a great song at 2 AM while driving the straight line from one part of Texas to the next, and all we'd want to do is play that song as if we had written it. There are so many artists we considered, some for the mere fact that they wrote a perfect song, some for nostalgia's sake, some because more people need to hear them, some for the challenge, and some to shed a whole different light on a song: Our light... make it a duet, more optimistic or maybe less traditional!"

Label Polyvinyl Record Co.

LP+MP3 List $16.98
LP+MP3 Boxlot 30 units
LP+MP3 Package Standard Jacket

(VINYL IS NON-RETURNABLE)

Several Arrows Later represents the most immediate and rocking expression of matt pond PA's music yet.

Pond's lyrics push through the confusion of city life (a smaller sky, throttling expectations and terrible parties) and the comfort of country life (the familiar, the green and the seasons) - both asking and telling us why we act the way we do. But it's not a call to action; it's a plea against apathy.

Musically, it shies away from the redundancy of present-day rock posturing yet remains totally immediate, relevant and ridiculously catchy.

PRESS MENTIONS

Several Arrows Later is emotional and melodic with strong hooks and a fine balance between angst and beauty.

(VINYL IS NON-RETURNABLE)

Rainer Maria is comprised of 12 songs spanning the band's three classic EPs: Rainer Maria, Atlantic and Ears Ring. First, and only, time ever available on vinyl.

Rainer Maria is arguably the most important band in Polyvinyl's 15 year history. They were the first band we "signed," the first full-length album we released, and the three members became a lasting part of our family that remains today. The New York (by way of Madison, Wisconsin) trio's five albums are often cited as a significant influence by many current artists.

Polyvinyl and Rainer Maria worked together to bring this special release together for Record Store Day 2012. The band curated special new artwork -- taking elements from each EP and creating a hand silk-screened LP jacket. Bob Weston mastered the songs for vinyl and Polyvinyl pressed it up on 180-gram black vinyl. Limited to just 300 copies.

PROMOTIONAL SUPPORT

Heaven's Youth (Reptilian's Demos) LP+MP3

LP+MP3 Package Standard Jacket

(VINYL IS NON-RETURNABLE)

Starfucker's highly regarded full-length LP Reptilians was originally titled "Heaven's Youth". Like most artists, Starfucker's song ideas, the album concept, and even their artwork continued to evolve. The band changed the title, continued to edit and develop the songs until the final version (Reptilians) was released in 2011. The original versions of the songs, that were until now only heard by the band, are being released for the first time on a very limited edition pressing of white vinyl.

Heaven's Youth (Reptilians Demos) features all the original recordings that went on to be Starfucker's Reptilians as well as a re-working of the album artwork. This release offers a very rare insight into the process that Josh Hodges and Starfucker go through from creating demos to the finished songs that appear on their albums.

- Alter ego of Oneohtrix Point Never
- Persons' ecco jams Vol. 1 & 2 were celebrated mixes on the underground cassette & blog circuits
- Comprised of many samples used to construct Oneohtrix Point Never's acclaimed "Replica" album
- First Chuck Persons release on vinyl
- For fans of Ford & Lopatin's early work as GAMES
- A division of Sunset Corp™
- Hand numbered, 3 limited editions of 120 copies each

Chuck Persons is an alter ego of Oneohtrix Point Never, whose output thus far has been limited to mixtapes and as the soundtrack to renowned Sunsetcorp videos such as "Nobody Here" and "End of Life Entertainment Scenario." A.D.D. COMPLETE 7" is the first time Chuck Persons' culture jammers have been committed to vinyl.

Persons' "ecco jams" belong more to the conceptual realm than they do the song. Altered FM radio frequencies are looped ad infinitum, creating a mantric / poetic effect, and have garnered accolades from the likes of Simon Reynolds, Antony Hegarty, and even Michael Stipe.

The A.D.D. COMPLETE 7" features a ton of fresh and unreleased ecco jams, alongside a litany of samples used in the construction of OPN's Replica album. They are presented on vinyl with a series of three randomized speedruns unique to three b side versions of the 7". Hand numbered, limited edition of 120 in three editions.

ADRIAN YOUNGE VS. ADRIAN QUESADA

FOR INFORMATION AND SOUNDCLIPS OF OUR TITLES, GO TO WWW.UBIQUITYRECORDS.COM/PRESS

STREET DATE: 04/21/2012

Record Store Day is synonymous with exclusive and limited releases and this year is no different. Featuring a collaboration EP with Adrian Younge from Venice Dawn and Black Dynamite fame and Adrian Quesada from The Echocentrics, Ocote Soul Sounds, Brownout and grammy-winning Grupo Fantasma.

A first name is not all Adrian Younge and Adrian Quesada share, they also both have an equal love of the psychedelic, the cinematic and at the root of it all, soul music. So it was inevitable that a collaboration would eventually come to fruition. Mutual admirers of each others work, they first met at the SXSW music festival while on the same bill. Both began their production careers on MPC and taught themselves various instruments to further capture the symphonies heard in their heads.

Fresh off his current solo project "Something About April" under the moniker Venice Dawn, Adrian Younge found time to create all new tracks with Adrian Quesada who just released his "Echoland" tribute to Timbaland with the Echocentrics. Although both are distinct artists in their own right, they are cut from the same cloth with a signature sound that's equal parts Morricone, early Portishead, Wu-Tang and 60's psychedelic cinema soundtracks. Their combined efforts on this EP guarantees a double dose of the sound we have come to expect from these talented individuals.

- A1. The Love I Got - Adrian Younge
- A2. The Last Time - Adrian Quesada
- B1. Final Word - Adrian Younge vs. Adrian Quesada
- B2. The Love I Got (instrumental) - Adrian Younge

UBIQUITY RECORDS PRESENTS

LUV N' HAIGHT EDIT SERIES VOL.1: MIKE JAMES KIRKLAND FEAT. NICO JAAR AND 78 EDITS

FOR INFORMATION AND SOUNDCLIPS OF OUR TITLES, GO TO WWW.UBIQUITYRECORDS.COM/PRESS

STREET DATE: 04/21/2012

Record Store Day is synonymous with exclusive and limited releases and this year is no different. Featuring our first volume in a series of re-edits from our Luv N'Haight catalog starting off with Mike James Kirkland. Nico Jaar's edit "What My Last Girl Put Me Through" on his excellent "Bluewave Edits" previously released by Wolf+Lamb Records is featured on the A-side with a deep rework of the classic "What Have We Done" by prolific and talented producer 78 Edits on the flip.

Nico Jaar's highly sought after "Bluewave Edits" release in 2011 contained some radical re-takes and treatments to tracks by Missy Elliot and The Blow but his re-vision of The Mike And The Censations track "There's Nothing I Can Do About It" was arguably the highlight. Originally released as a "promotion only" single, this release is an official collaboration between Wolf+Lamb and Ubiquity Records with a follow up edit of another Mike And The Censations track by Nico in the works to be released in the near future as Vol.2 of the Mike James Kirkland re-edit series.

UK producer Jamie Buchanan aka 78 Edits is a veteran in the 12" re-edit scene with releases on Giant Cuts, Audio Parallax, and Editorial. His take on Mike James Kirkland's "What Have We Done" from the legendary "Hang On In There" album transforms the original from a conga and vocal driven song to a stretched out, 8 minute, mid-tempo dance tune.
